GAME 13

Houston Texans (11-1) at New England Patriots (9-3)

Monday, Dec. 10, 2012 • 7:30 p.m. CST • Gillette Stadium (68,756) • Foxborough, Mass.

TEXANS AND PATRIOTS BATTLE FOR PLAYOFF POSITION ON MNF

The Houston Texans (11-1) close out a three-game road trip against the New England Patriots (9-3) on ESPN Monday Night Football. Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m. CST.

Houston is the only team in the NFL that hasn't lost on the road this season, touting a 6-0 record away from Reliant Stadium. That mark will be put to the test in a place where no visitor has won in the month of December in nearly 10 years. The Patriots have won 19 consecutive games at Gillette Stadium in December since a 30-17 loss to the New York Jets on Dec. 22, 2002. The Texans lost 40-7 in their only other visit to Foxborough, on Dec. 17, 2006.

While both teams have already earned postseason berths, playoff position is still at stake. Though Houston has the best record in the AFC, it has not clinched a second consecutive AFC South title. The Texans have a three-game lead in the AFC South standings ahead of Indianapolis (8-4) with four games left on the schedule, including two against the Colts. Houston's two-game lead on the rest of the AFC's division leaders isn't enough to lock up home-field advantage, either.

The Texans clinched their second consecutive playoff berth with a 24-10 win at Tennessee last week. Houston's defense overcame the absence of several starters who were kept out of the lineup due to injury to force a franchise-record six turnovers agains the Titans. DE J.J. Watt had one sack to run his AFC-best season total to 15.5, forced one fumble and had two passes defensed. QB Matt Schaub helped direct Houston to its 15th win in his last 16 starts under center and RB Arian Foster scored his league-leading 15th touchdown of the season.

Also vying for the top spot in the AFC are the Patriots, who clinched the AFC East division title with a 23-16 win at Miami last Sunday. QB Tom Brady leads the NFL's top-ranked offense, which is averaging 426.3 yards per game and an NFL-best 29.3 points per game. New England's defense is giving up 380.8 yards per game but has forced a league-high 25 fumbles and has 33 total takeaways.

TEXANS-PATRIOTS BRIEFLY

- The Texans trail 2-1 in the series and are 0-1 all-time at Gillette Stadium.
- Last Regular Season Meeting: Houston 34, New England 27 at Reliant Stadium on Jan. 3, 2010.

A WIN AGAINST NEW ENGLAND WOULD...

- Give Houston a franchise-record 12 regular season wins.
- Extend Houston's franchise-record road winning streak to seven.
- Extend Houston's winning streak to seven, tying it for the longest in franchise history (seven, 2011).
- Improve Head Coach Gary Kubiak's career record to 59-50.

TEXANS 10th ANNIVERSARY LOGO

The Houston Texans are wearing a patch adorned with the above logo this season to commemorate 10 years as an NFL franchise. Texans founder, chairman and chief executive officer Bob McNair spearheaded the effort to bring professional football back to Houston.

The hard work paid off when the NFL awarded Houston its franchise on Oct. 6, 1999, and the Texans were born. Regular season play began with a 19-10 win against the Dallas Cowboys on Sept. 8, 2002, at Reliant Stadium.

McCAIN HEADED TO IR WITH FOOT INJURY

McCain

CB Brice McCain will be placed on the Injured Reserve/Designated for Return List, Head Coach Gary Kubiak announced on Monday. McCain fractured a bone in his foot iin the Week 13 win at Tennessee.

"Late after the game it was discovered that Brice had a fracture in his foot," Kubiak said. "The decision was made on the way home to go ahead and fix that (Monday). We did it early this morning, had a screw inserted. We're going to put Brice on the injured reserve/designated to return, but obviously that's what, an eight-week period of time. It would be very, very late in the playoffs if Brice is able to make it back, but we'll do it, give him an opportunity and see what happens because if not, it ends up in our pocket."

McCain served primarily as Houston's nickel corner but slid into the starting spot opposite CB Kareem Jackson while CB Johnathan Joseph recovers from a hamstring injury. The 2009 sixth-round pick out of Utah has 22 tackles, one interception for 86 yards, seven passes defensed and five tackles on special teams.

Kubiak also updated the media on several other players with injuries on Monday:

TE Garrett Graham: Graham suffered a concussion against Tennessee in Week 13 and has begun the concussion protocol necessary to return to practice. "Garrett has taken step one already today," Kubiak said. "He's doing much better. He was doing much better on the plane ride home."

LT Duane Brown: Missed three plays against Tennessee last week after taking a helmet to the knee. "Duane is fine. Duane just came out of the game with a bruised knee. He's feeling fine today. All tests came out okay so we're moving forward and very lucky with Duane."

OLB Brooks Reed: Reed suffered a groin injury agains Detroit and is expected to miss several games.

Kubiak designated the rest of his injured players as day-to-day:

- CB Alan Ball - Was inactive against Tennessee with a foot injury.
- G Antoine Caldwell - Was inactive against Tennessee with a hamstring injury.
- ILB Bradie James - Left the Detroit game with a hamstring injury and was inactive against Tennessee.
- CB Johnathan Joseph - Inactive the last two weeks after suffering a hamstring injury against Jacksonville. Joseph worked out with trainers last week and ran on Monday.
- RT Derek Newton - Injured his patella tendon 11 plays into the Detroit game on Thanksgiving and did not return.

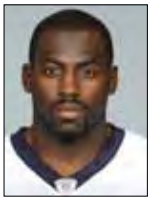
MERCILUS ON THE QUARTERBACK



Mercilus

Rookie OLB Whitney Mercilus maintained last week that he is ready to step into a starting role against Tennessee at weakside linebacker after starter Connor Barwin slid over to strongside linebacker following Brooks Reed's groin injury.

"Yeah, I'm ready for it," Mercilus said, "I've been coached up and all that. It's what I've been preparing for, what I've been training for. The time has come now for me to step up and show the coaches that I've taken all the coaching and I'm ready to play."

He wasn't lying.

Mercilus recorded 2.0 sacks and a fumble recovery against the Titans in his first NFL start. Mercilus is now tied for second on the team with 5.0 sacks and has forced two fumbles. The 2011 FBS sack leader at Illinois and Ted Hendricks Award winner ranks third among all rookies in sacks.

SCHAUB LEADING TO WINS

Texans QB Matt Schaub has won 15 of his last 16 starts and has led the Texans to an 18-4 mark over the last two years. His winning percentage of .818 in that time is the best in the NFL among quarterbacks with at least 10 starts.

HEAD COACH COMPARISON

TEXANS HEAD COACH GARY KUBIAK

Gary Kubiak has constructed a talent-laden roster and installed an offensive system that has ranked among the NFL's best since taking the reins of the Houston Texans. Kubiak was named the AFC Coach of the Year by Kansas City-based NFL 101 after leading the Texans to a 10-6 regular season record and the franchise's first AFC South division crown, playoff berth and playoff win in 2011. He has a franchise-record 59 wins (including the playoffs) and has led the Texans to the playoffs in 2011 and 2012 since being named the second head coach of the Houston Texans on Jan. 26, 2006.

The Houston native has led the Texans to the five best seasons in franchise history, going 8-8 in 2007 and 2008 before producing the first winning season in team history in 2009, narrowly missing the playoffs at 9-7. His tenure has been marked by offensive proficiency, producing the top five scoring, total offense and passing season marks in franchise history from 2007-11. The top two rushing seasons in franchise history have come on Kubiak's watch as well, including a franchise-record 153.0 yards per game in 2011, which ranked second in the NFL.

Four of the Texans' top five defensive seasons have come under Kubiak, including the third-largest defensive turnaround in NFL history from 2010 to 2011. The 2011 Texans gave up 285.7 yards per game to rank second in the League after giving up 376.9 yards per game and ranking 30th in 2010.

Strong team performances on offense and defense have been sparked by some outstanding individual efforts under Kubiak. Seventeen of the 21 Pro Bowl elections in team history have come during Kubiak's tenure, and the Texans are the only team in the NFL to produce a rushing, receiving and passing yardage champion since Kubiak became head coach.

GARY KUBIAK
2006-12	Head Coach Houston Texans
2003-05	Offensive Coordinator Denver Broncos
1995-02	Offensive Coordinator/QBs Denver Broncos
1994	Quarterbacks San Francisco 49ers
1992-93	Running Backs Texas A&M

One of Kubiak's primary goals upon arriving in Houston was to create a home field advantage at Reliant Stadium, and he has made significant strides in that direction. The Texans have posted a 34-20 (.630) home record since 2006 and have had at least a .500 record at home in each of Kubiak's seven seasons. The team was 10-22 (.315) at home prior to Kubiak's arrival.

Kubiak spent 20 of the previous 23 years in the Denver area, where he earned a reputation as a brilliant offensive strategist. He played in 119 games and tossed 14 touchdowns for the Broncos from 1983-91 as the backup for Hall of Fame quarterback John Elway. He was a part of three teams that reached the Super Bowl.

In his 11 years as offensive coordinator in Denver, Kubiak's Broncos amassed 66,501 total yards and 465 touchdowns, the most in the NFL in that span. He coached 14 different Broncos who made the Pro Bowl, and Denver's rushing attack totaled 25,022 yards, most in the NFL, during his tenure.

PATRIOTS HEAD COACH BILL BELICHICK

Bill Belichick is in his 38th season as an NFL coach and is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl championships in a four-year span. He is tied for seventh all-time with 201 total victories as a head coach. His winning percentage of .659 ranks third in NFL history among coaches with 150 or more wins.

Belichick was named head coach of the New England Patriots on Jan. 27, 2000, and is in his 13th season as the team's head coach. Through 12-plus seasons, Belichick has delivered three Super Bowl championships, five conference titles, 10 division crowns and 16 playoff victories, while posting an overall record of 164-62. Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003) and XXXIX (2004), and in 2007 he became the only NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season.

From 2001-12, the Patriots have won 76.1 percent of their regular-season games (143-45), recording the highest winning percentage of any major American professional sports team over that span. Over a 100-game stretch from 2003-08, Belichick directed the team to an 82-18 record – the best record in any 100-game span in NFL history. Belichick has led the Patriots to a winning record in each of the last 11 seasons.

In 2011, Belichick guided the Patriots to a 13-3 record, his fifth AFC Conference Championship and the team's ninth division title in 12 years. The 2011 AFC Championship was Bill Belichick's fifth conference championship as a head coach. Under Belichick's guidance, the Patriots finished with 6,848 total net yards, setting a new franchise record for most total net yards in a season. That total is fourth all-time in NFL history.

Patriots fans witnessed Belichick's impact on a team firsthand in 1996 when he joined the Patriots after five seasons as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns. That year, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years with an 11-5 record and won their first two playoff games at Foxboro Stadium to advance to Super Bowl XXXI.

BILL BELICHICK

1978	Asst. Special Teams/ Asst. to Def. Coord. Denver Broncos
1977	TEs/WRs Detroit Lions
1976	Asst. Special Teams Detroit Lions
1975	Staff Assistant Baltimore Colts

Belichick's recent accomplishments are the latest triumphs in an NFL coaching career that began in 1975 and during which he has helped produce five Super Bowl titles, seven conference championships and 16 division titles. Now in his 38th season in the NFL, he has more years of NFL experience than any of the other 31 head coaches. He won his first two Super Bowls as the defensive coordinator for the New York Giants in 1986 and again in 1990 before claiming three Super Bowl championships with the Patriots.

Belichick launched his coaching career in 1975 with the Baltimore Colts and continued as an assistant coach with Detroit (1976-77), Denver (1978) and the New York Giants (1979-1990).

He attended Phillips Academy in Andover, Mass., before enrolling at Wesleyan, where he earned his bachelor's degree in economics in 1975.

Week 17 : Houston 34, New England 27

71,029 • Reliant Stadium• Houston, Texas • Jan. 3, 2010

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans trailed 27-13 early in the fourth quarter, but answered with three touchdowns, a sack and an interception to collect a 34-27 win and finish the regular season with a 9-7 record. The offense scored on all three possessions of the fourth quarter. Defensively, S Bernard Pollard's interception set up the game-winning points.

QB Matt Schaub finished the regular season as the NFL's leader in passing yards after completing 24-of-29 passes for 303 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Also, WR Andre Johnson finished as the NFL's leading receiver after catching six passes for 65 yards.

Rookie RB Arian Foster pounded his way for a career-high 119 yards on 20 carries (6.0 avg.). He scored twice and rushed for 29 yards on five carries in the final five minutes of the contest.

Houston took the early lead when Schaub found TE Joel Dreessen for a 25-yard touchdown on the game's opening drive.

With 5:29 left in the first quarter, the Patriots' offense returned to the field starting from their 37-yard line. QB Tom Brady drove the offense 63 yards on nine plays before RB Fred Taylor scored on a 4-yard touchdown run.

LB Zac Diles forced a fumble on Taylor that Pollard recovered in the end zone. K Kris Brown missed the extra point, making the score 13-10 with 4:41 left before halftime. Rookie QB Brian Hoyer replaced Brady on that series.

In the third quarter, the Texans dodged a bullet when RB Ryan Moats' fumble was recovered by Jones at the Patriots' 26-yard line after a 15-yard gain. A few plays later, Schaub's pass deflected off Jones and was intercepted by rookie Darius Butler, who returned the ball 91 yards for a score.

The Patriots responded with a nine-play, 72-yard drive that Taylor finished with an 11-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter.

Houston cut the score to 27-20 on Jones' tip-toeing 8-yard touchdown catch in the back of the end zone. Jones finished with a season-high five catches for 65 yards.

The momentum picked up when DE Mario Williams sacked Brady for a 4-yard loss on third down to force a punt, which Jones returned 31 yards to the New England 34.

On third-and-12, Schaub rifled a sideline pass to Johnson, who ran out of bounds at the Patriots' 11-yard line for a 15-yard gain. André Davis' 10-yard catch set up Foster's touchdown run that evened the score 27-27 after Brown's extra point.

Foster continued pounding the ball on New England, gaining 25 yards on three consecutive carries. He scored on the next carry as the offensive line pushed a pile of Patriots into the end zone. Brown's extra point gave Houston a 34-27 lead with 1:54 left in the game.

Hoyer replaced Brady on the Patriots' final drive and completed his first two passes for 20 yards. Houston was penalized five yards for having 12 men on the field. A play later, Williams was dragged down as he rushed the passer, which drew a 10-yard flag and negated a long completion. Following a 12-yard rush, Hoyer's pass to Julian Edelman fell incomplete, setting up fourth-and-three at the Houston 34. The fourth down pass to Edelman was wide, giving the Texans possession with 14 seconds on the clock.

GAME 12: Houston 24, Tennessee 10

69,143 • LP Field • Nashville, Tenn. • Dec. 2, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans beat the Tennessee Titans 24-10 at LP Field in Nashville, improving to 11-1 and clinching a playoff berth for the second consecutive season.

The Texans' defense was battered by injuries but led the way with a franchise-record six turnovers and a season-high six sacks. They did so without three injured cornerbacks and two starting linebackers.

DE J.J. Watt had one sack, one forced fumble and two passes defensed, one of which was intercepted. FS Glover Quin and ILBs Tim Dobbins and Darryl Sharpton all had interceptions. Dobbins, DE Antonio Smith and rookie OLB Whitney Mercilus all recovered fumbles. Mercilus also had two sacks in his first-career start.

Texans WR Lestar Jean opened up the scoring with a 54-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter on the Texans' first drive. The Titans answered with a 37-yard field goal by Rob Bironas to make the score 7-3.

The Texans went up 14-3 late in the first quarter on a 5-yard touchdown catch by FB James Casey. One play earlier, they converted on fourth-and-one from the 11-yard line with a 6-yard run by Arian Foster. They led 21-3 at halftime after an interception by Dobbins deep in Titans territory set up Foster for a 2-yard touchdown run.

K Shayne Graham nailed a 50-yard field goal in the third quarter to make it 24-3. The Titans made it 24-10 late in the third quarter on a 34-yard touchdown catch by Kenny Britt from QB Jake Locker, but they would get no closer than that. The Texans forced a turnover on downs on back-to-back series in the fourth quarter before Sharpton picked off Locker with about two minutes remaining to ice the game.

Locker finished the game with a 49.2 passer rating. He was 21-of-45 for 309 yards with three interceptions and one touchdown. Texans QB Matt Schaub, who won for the 15th time in his last 16 starts, was 21-of-35 for 207 yards and two touchdowns. He was not sacked and not intercepted. RB Justin Forsett led the Texans with 64 rushing yards on 14 carries (4.6 average).

The Texans lost CB Brice McCain to a foot injury in the first half. He did not return. Because Johnathan Joseph was already out with a hamstring injury, that left the Texans with three healthy cornerbacks in Kareem Jackson and second-year players Brandon Harris and Roc Carmichael. The Texans also used a rotation of Sharpton, Dobbins and Barrett Ruud at inside linebacker with starter Bradie James out with an injury.

LT Duane Brown left the game with an apparent knee injury in the first half but returned after three plays. TE Garrett Graham left the game in the first half with a concussion.

K SHAYNE GRAHAM
- Scored his 100th point of the season when he hit his third extra point of the game. It marked his sixth career 100-point season and his first since 2007.

P DONNIE JONES

- Punted 10 times, which tied for the second-most in a game in team history. His 10 punts were the most by a Texans punter since Brett Hartmann had 10 at Jacksonville on 11/27/11. The team record is 11 punts by Chad Stanley on 12/1/02 at Indianapolis.
- Had a season-high five punts downed inside the Tennessee 20-yard line. That is one shy of his career high of six, set on 12/6/09 at Chicago as a member of the St. Louis Rams.
- Booted a 55-yard punt in the second quarter. He has now hit at least one punt of 55 yards or longer in 10 of Houston's 12 games this season.
- Boomed a 64-yard punt in the third quarter. It was his fourth punt of the season of longer than 60 yards.

WR KESHAWN MARTIN

- Returned a first-quarter punt 42 yards. It was his second return of more than 40 yards this season. He had a 71-yard return in Week 11 vs. Jacksonville (11/18).

- Made his first career start at WLB and finished the game with two tackles, both of which were sacks, and a fumble recovery.
- Passed DE Mario Williams (4.5, 2006) for fifth and tied LB Brian Cushing (5.0, 2009) for fourth on the franchise's rookie sack list. He is one sack shy of the club rookie record of 6.0 set by OLB Brooks Reed in 2011.
- Registered his fourth sack of the season and his fourth in five games when he dropped Tennessee QB Jake Locker for a 1-yard loss in the second quarter.
- Recovered a fumble in the third quarter, the first of his career.
- Registered his second sack of the game and fifth of the season when he dropped Locker for a loss of 5 yards in the third quarter.

FS GLOVER QUIN

- Intercepted his second pass of the season and the fifth of his career when he picked off Tennessee QB Jake Locker on the final play of the second quarter.

ILB BARRETT RUUD

- Registered his first sack as a Texan and the sixth of his career when he dropped Tennessee QB Jake Locker for a loss of 8 yards in the third quarter. It was Ruud's first sack since 12/26/10 vs. Seattle as a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

QB MATT SCHAUB

- Improved his record as the Texans' starting quarterback to 43-33 overall and 18-21. He led the Texans to victory for the 15th time in his last 16 starts and won his eighth consecutive start on the road.
- Threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season when he hit WR Lestar Jean for a 54-yard catch and run on Houston's first possession. It marked the third season in his career in which Schaub has thrown 20 or more touchdowns.
- Threw his second touchdown pass of the game when he hit FB James Casey on a 5-yard scoring toss in the first quarter, giving Schaub his sixth multi-touchdown performance of the season.
- Surpassed 3,000 passing yards for the fourth time in his career. He topped the milestone on a 21-yard pass to WR Andre Johnson in the second quarter. He entered the game with 2,855 yards on the season.
- Picked up 8 yards on a run in the second quarter. It was his longest carry of the season and his longest since 11/14/10 when he had an 8-yard scamper at Jacksonville.
- Caught his first career pass when he grabbed a tipped pass. He was tackled for a loss of 6 yards on the play.

ILB DARRYL SHARPTON

- Intercepted a pass for the first time in his career when he grabbed a deflected pass in the fourth quarter. He returned the interception for a 2-yard loss.

DE ANTONIO SMITH

- Recovered a fumble for the first time this season and the 11th time this season when he scooped up a loose ball in the second quarter.
- Notched his 20th sack as a Texan and his fifth of the season when he dropped Tennessee QB Jake Locker for a 9-yard loss in the third quarter.
- Forced a fumble in the third quarter that was recovered by OLB Whitney Mercilus. It was Smith's second forced fumble of the season and the ninth of his career.

WR KEVIN WALTER

- Started his 87th game, which ties him with TE Owen Daniels and moves them each past former Texans RT Eric Winston for third on the team's all-time games started list.
- Surpassed 4,000 receiving yards as a Texan on an 18-yard catch in the fourth quarter, becoming the third player in franchise history to reach the milestone along with WR Andre Johnson and TE Owen Daniels. He entered the game with 3,976 yards with the team.

DE J.J. WATT

- Joined Hall of Fame DE Reggie White as the only players in NFL history to record 15 or more sacks and 13 passes defensed in a season when he sacked Tennessee QB Jake Locker for a 6-yard loss in the second quarter. The sack gave him 15.5 on the year to go along with 15 passes defensed. White had 15.0 sacks and 13 passes defensed in 1991.
- Set a League record for the most passes defensed in a season by a defensive lineman. Watt now has 15 passes defensed on the year, bettering the previous mark of 13 by Hall of Fame DE Reggie White in 1991.
- Tipped a pass on the final play of the second quarter, leading to an interception by FS Glover Quin. It was the eighth takeaway that Watt has been involved in this season. He also has two fumble recoveries and the forced fumble he caused earlier in the game.

MONDAY, DEC. 2, 2012

(on the team's injuries) "Let me go through yesterday first. We came out of the game yesterday, late after the game it was discovered that (CB) Brice (McCain) had a fracture in his foot. The decision was made on the way home to go ahead and fix that today. We did it early this morning, had a screw inserted. We're going to put Brice on the injured reserve/designated to return, but obviously that's what, an eight-week period of time. It would be very, very late in the playoffs if Brice is able to make it back, but we'll do it, give him an opportunity and see what happens because if not, it ends up in our pocket. That's what we'll do. (TE) Garrett (Graham) has taken step one already today. He's doing much better. He was doing much better on the plane ride home. He has a four-, five-step phase as far as making it back from the concussion protocol. He's through step one today and doing much better. (LT) Duane (Brown) is fine. Duane just came out of the game with a bruised knee. He's feeling fine today. All tests came out okay so we're moving forward and very lucky with Duane. The other guys, want me to go through the other guys? Let me see if I can remember them all. They're all making progress. I guess the best thing to say is that the one that is still going to take an amount of time is (OLB) Brooks (Reed) and I think I've told you all that all along. But the other group of guys, it's going to be a day-to-day process. We've got an extra day this week. We're going to start our routine on Thursday, so when you talk about (CB Johnathan Joseph) J-Joe and he's doing well. He ran today. (T Derek) Newton, (ILB) Bradie James, who am I missing here? (G Antoine) Caldwell and (CB) Alan Ball, I think they're all going to be a day to day process right now and then probably end-of-the-week decisions for us as a football team, but Brooks is still the one that has a ways to go."

(on if CB Brice McCain were healthy would he cover WR Wes Welker in the slot) "(CB) Brice (McCain) can play both. I think where we're at right now if (CB Johnathan Joseph) J-Joe is missing time, Brice would probably have stayed outside and right now we're going with (CB) Brandon (Harris) inside. Brandon did some good things in the game, played a lot of football so that's kind of where we would be. Obviously now with Brice being out, Brandon will be the guy that plays inside for us in nickel. This team can force you to play a couple guys inside so you could be in dime. You never know how you're going to get played, but we've got a couple young players who are going to have to step up and play well and that's our rock. They did yesterday. You could tell they made some progress with their short period of time being out there."

(on the CB position right now) "You get thin and you get thinned out. Linebacker, we held up yesterday so we got through that game clean from that standpoint playing seven guys. That was a positive. We get thinned out in the secondary because of (CB) Brice's (McCain) injury and where (CB Johnathan Joseph) J-Joe is. Also the guy that's a factor right now is (CB) Alan (Ball). We decided Sunday morning after watching him do some things that it was not time for him to go, that he wasn't going to be ready. We got a couple things going on right there. Obviously, as a football team it's something we're addressing today and taking a real hard look at because we've got a lot of football left to play. We've got to make sure that we're in position to give ourselves the best chance to be successful so that's something we're looking at real hard at today."

(on the penalties) "Yeah, what is it 11 for 90-something yards? That really disturbed me a bunch, especially offensively. Special teams-wise I think we have two or three again. It has been an issue. It has been young players, some guys that we're playing. When I see that the good news is I think we can fix that real quickly. Offensively, the thing that bothered me is the second half we have an excellent chance to really put the game away early. I think out of our first five plays offensively we've got two holding calls or three holding calls. We're just going backwards hurting ourselves, couldn't get out of our own way. That's something coming out of the game that hurt us. We didn't turn the ball over. That's a big positive, but penalties I think kept them in the game and kept us from closing the game, too."

(on how encouraging it was to see ILB Darryl Sharpton step up on Sunday) "It's very encouraging and I think the biggest thing there is a couple things that took place defensively in the game, getting (NT) Shaun (Cody) back, as I've said all along. Cody gave us some versatility inside and took some snaps off some players. We got our pass rush back. We got it from a lot of places. (ILB Darryl) Sharpton took a whole week of practice. He had every rep in practice running our defense. You could see the difference in Sharpton and how he played. (ILB Tim) Dobbins came in and helped and played extremely well in the game. I think a couple things going on right there helped us get back to playing our type of football defensively. I think Sharpton is more comfortable. This is three games he now has under his belt and he's going to have to be because he's going to be big going down the stretch here."

(on how good was it to see WR Lestar Jean get his first TD catch and how he has progressed) "He needs to be on the field more. That's how he's progressed and makes a big play yesterday. We're going to find some ways to get him out there more. He also played some special teams so the deeper we go into this thing I think all these young players become very valuable in what's going on. We talked about (CB) Brandon (Harris). We talked about (CB) Roc (Carmichael). (WR) Keshawn (Martin) is playing. What Keshawn is doing return-wise right now, if we don't take away some of his positive yardage it would be excellent. These guys are going to be a big factor going down the stretch."

(on how scary is it to go up against QB Tom Brady with inexperienced defensive backs) "Well it's Monday and it's scary so I'm sure it's going to be real scary getting toward the end of the week. That's where we're at. We know we're going to play a great player and one of the top passing games in the business for a long, long time. It's a challenge. Our season is going to be really about some of these young guys really stepping up and what they've become here as we continue to move forward. I'm excited for them. I liked what I saw from (CB) Brandon (Harris) and (CB) Roc (Carmichael) yesterday. I think Brandon is very competitive, has a lot of confidence. We've got to get some of penalty issues settled down with him, but he doesn't lack any confidence and that's what you're looking for. They're just going to have to rise to the occasion and we can sure help them if we can rush the passer like we did yesterday."

MONDAY, DEC. 2, 2012

(on seeing a lot of talent in CB Brandon Harris and if he's pleased with where he's at) "Yeah, I think so. I think we've been fortunate that we've been able to bring him and (CB) Roc (Carmichael) along kind of slowly. They weren't forced into some tough situations as young pros. I told you all I think last week, (CB) Brandon (Harris) has been chomping at the bit. He's been close to getting on the field for a while and has just been kind of the odd man out. Now it's time. You go from playing zero to playing 59 yesterday so it tells you what's fixing to happen with this young career of his. We're excited for his opportunity."

(on P Donnie Jones this season) "He was big-time yesterday. We obviously struggled huge in the second half offensively; (P) Donnie (Jones) has 10 punts. We kept them pinned all day. Our special teams, the job that (Special Teams Coordinator) Joe (Marciano) has done with the injuries and the young players having to step in. Yesterday, we had some situations where we barely had enough guys to get on the field and those types of things. I think we made tremendous progress as a special teams unit in the second half of the season. Yesterday was big for us and Donnie led that."

(on relying more on his big three on offense) "There is no about that. We've got to play a hell of a lot better than we played in the second half offensively. Like I said, we hurt ourselves with penalties. I think there was more there than we got at times from a standpoint regardless of who was running the ball. I think we've got to beat man coverage better. This old boy's got to call some better plays in the second half. It wasn't what we needed to do yesterday to close the game. My disappointment starts with myself. It's my job to get those guys in position to make plays and then it's their job to go make those plays too. I look at myself hard and I'm sure they will do the same."

(on why he thinks the team has been so successful on the road this season) "I think the biggest thing in this league is it's a growth process. It's a confidence thing. I've been with young teams that they go on the road. Here comes the noise, all of a sudden boy you panic and you just don't look like yourself. This group, it doesn't matter. They'll go play anywhere. They know. I've preached to them for a period of time. It's about how you play. It's not where you play. They figured that out so it doesn't matter where they play. We handled the noise pretty good and I think it makes you pull from each other a little bit more. It's really kind of your 53 against 80,000 when you show up. I think they take that as a challenge and they take it personal and they know if they protect the football our team is going to have a good chance to win. To win six games on the road so far this season has been pretty darn good and it'll take everything we've got to win number seven, I know that."

(on how important was it to see K Shayne Graham kick a 50-yard field goal on Sunday) "I think it's big for his confidence. I'll watch him practice. He's been banging the ball really good from 55. He's been handling that. He kicked off better yesterday, mishit one of them, but for the most part, he should gain a lot of confidence coming out of this game. We have confidence in him. He's kicked in big games. He's made big kicks. He's going to probably be in some of those situations here down the stretch. I think yesterday was a big step in the right direction."

(on what it would mean to QB Matt Schaub to go into New England and beat QB Tom Brady) "Well I don't think that's the most important thing. It's not those two guys playing. It's our teams playing. I think our quarterback has played well and his performance speaks for itself. I know number 12's; his has spoken for himself for a long, long time. We know what type of team we're facing and the great player that we're facing there, but it'll be about our team. We'll have to play good across the board as a football team. You look at the game they played yesterday, special teams, Miami struggled special teams-wise. We've got to stay focused on our whole team and (QB) Matt's (Schaub) just got his job to do. He's got his part to do."

(on how confident he is in QB Matt Schaub to go head to head against anyone in a shootout) "I know our guy can throw the ball around. I don't know how this game is going to go. You never know when you show up on Sunday. It's like yesterday. We get in a game. We've got some defensive players out. You think it may be different and look we play probably as good a defense as we've played all year from a turnover standpoint and those things. I don't know what it's going to take this next weekend or what type of game we're going to be in. I know we'll have to play with a lot of poise and not hurt ourselves if we're going to have a chance to win."

(on the Patriot Way) "Well they're consistent. That's the biggest thing. You've got one of the all-time great leaders in football from a coaching standpoint and a quarterback standpoint. That has been consistent in I don't know how many years it's been. I think you kind of know what you're going to get from them. You know you're going to have to raise your level of play and play as good as you can possibly play. That's why we do what we do. It is a big challenge, but I know our football team will be looking forward to it and need to go down there and play clean."

(on his thoughts regarding the fumble recovery by DE Antonio Smith) "It was an inadvertent whistle and it wasn't by the head official. It was by the guy on the sideline. It's disappointing. (DE) Antonio (Smith) promises me he would've scored, at least that's what he said on the bus. To be honest with you, we're probably lucky we got the ball back because usually when there is an inadvertent whistle you may not even get that ball back. We overcame it, but we found a way to do it six times yesterday. It was really impressive."

(on playing meaningful games in December and January) "I think it's continued to build the way we've played this year and they're going to all be big. We're in a tough division race along the way right here. We've got ourselves involved yesterday, which was important. Now every time we step to the plate we could probably gain something else, so we've just got to stay focused on that. You look at our last month. It's going to be very difficult, but when it's difficult that's what gives you the best chance to prepare to be a dang good football team in January. We'll just stay focused one week at a time."

(on the players of the game) "Defensively we had a couple guys, (DE) Antonio (Smith) and (ILB) Tim (Dobbins). We had two guys. Offensively, it was (RB) Justin Forsett, who continues to play well for us. Special teams, it'll be (P) Donnie Jones."

GENERAL MANAGER AND EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT RICK SMITH

Rick Smith is in his seventh season as Texans general manager and second as executive vice president of football operations, overseeing all aspects of football operations. Smith inherited a two-win team when he was named general manager on June 5, 2006 and has since worked closely with the coaching and scouting staffs to build the Texans into a playoff team by identifying and signing elite players who have helped produce an exciting brand of football.

Smith has steadily strengthened Houston's roster through the draft, free agency and trades. His main philosophy has been to build through the draft and supplement via free agency with a thorough and innovative front office staff that has the Texans pointed toward sustained success.

Smith has also been active in league affairs while at the helm of the Texans. He was appointed to the NFL's prestigious Competition Committee by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell on Dec. 5, 2008, and was an original member of the General Managers Advisory Committee, which provides advice and other feedback to the NFL Football Operations department on the integrity of the game, expansion of technology and other ways to improve the game. In addition, Smith has earned recognition from his peers and was honored with the Tank Younger Award in 2008, presented annually by the Fritz Pollard Alliance for outstanding work in an NFL front office.

Smith has orchestrated several trades that have benefited the Texans greatly, including a deal with Atlanta in 2007 that brought quarterback Matt Schaub to Houston. Since then, Schaub has become the Texans' all-time leading passer, the 12th player in NFL history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in back-to-back seasons (2009-10), led the NFL in passing in 2009 with 4,770 yards, was named the 2010 Pro Bowl MVP and has helped lead Houston's offense to a top-four NFL ranking each year from 2008-10. In 2008, Smith traded with Denver for center Chris Myers, who became the first lineman in Texans history to make the Pro Bowl.

Perhaps the best overall draft class of Smith's tenure came in 2009, when the Texans drafted Brian Cushing with the 15th overall pick. The former USC linebacker went on to earn NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and Pro Bowl honors, and led the team in tackles in 2011 for the second time in three years. Smith also signed running back Arian Foster as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2009. Foster had a breakout year in 2010, leading the NFL with 2,220 yards from scrimmage, 20 touchdowns scored and 1,616 yards rushing, the most ever by an undrafted player, in addition to earning Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors.

In his former role with the Denver Broncos, Smith was responsible for evaluating players from around the NFL as well as those in NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League, the Arena Football League and other professional leagues. He also played a central role in the club's preparation for the college draft and was one of the Broncos' primary negotiators for player contracts.

With Smith heading the pro personnel department, the Broncos posted the league's fifth-best regular-season record from 2000-05, going 61-35 (.635). The 61 wins were the most of any AFC West team during that span, 10 more than the next closest team, Kansas City. Denver was one of only four teams in the NFL to reach the playoffs each season from 2003-05.

CLOSE ONES

Houston ranks third in the NFL in scoring differential (+130) but has had its fair share of close games. The Texans are an NFL-best 5-0 in one-score games, including a pair of overtime wins in November.

Four of the five one-score wins have come on the road, including two against division leaders Denver (AFC West) and Chicago (NFC North).

Winning close games has been a common trait among several division leaders this season. Four of the five best one-score records belong to division leaders.

GETTING BETTER OVERTIME

The Texans are the only team in NFL history to win back-to-back overtime games in a span of five days, doing so in Weeks 11 and 12. It's a rare feat on its own but especially noteworthy given the franchise's overtime history. Prior to 2012, the Texans were 1-7 in overtime games.

TEXANS RETURN SACK-HAPPY YOUTH MOVEMENT

The Texans' turnaround on defense in 2011 relied heavily on young talent, especially when it came to pressuring the quarterback. Of Houston's franchise-record 44 sacks in the regular season, 31.5 (71.6 percent) came from players with three years of experience or less.

Houston returned 10 of the 12 players who had sacks on the 2011 team. Those players accounted for 87.5 percent (38.5 of 44 sacks) of Houston's sacks a year ago. Twenty-seven-and-a-half of the Texans' 36 sacks (76.4 percent) this season have come from players with four years or less experience.

DEFENSE CONTROLLING THE CLOCK?

Houston leads the NFL in time of possession at 34:09 per game. It's a statistic that is often equated with a team's proficiency in sustaining drives. In the Texans' case, it's also a measure of how the defense keeps the opposition off the field.

The Texans have only allowed eight drives of five minutes or longer in 155 possessions this season.

FIVE-MINUTE DRIVES ALLOWED

Team	Poss.	Drives	TDs	Points
Houston	155	8	3	27
Kansas City	133	11	6	54
Chicago	146	12	3	29
Denver	146	12	5	43
New England	142	13	5	46

HERE'S WHY

The Texans control the clock because their defense has been able to get off the field. Houston leads the NFL in third-down efficiency, holding opponents to a 28.4 percent conversion rate (46-of-162). The Texans have forced an NFL-high 67 third-and-10-plus situations this season. Houston has forced 43 three-and-outs to rank second in the NFL.

Phillips

Houston's defense has maintained its level of play from its first year under the guidance of Defensive Coordinator Wade Phillips, when it ranked second in total defense in 2011. The defense is ranked sixth in the NFL, holding opponents to 319.7 yards per game.

The Texans' defense posted one of the best performances in franchise history in Week 2 at Jacksonville, holding the Jaguars to a record-low 117 yards of offense. Houston also held Baltimore to less than 200 yards in Week 7, marking the fifth time it has done so under Phillips.

Below are some notable facts about the Texans' defense this season:

- Leads the NFL in:
  - Five-minute drives allowed: 8
  - 10-play drives allowed: 12
  - Opponent time of possession: 25:53
  - Third-down efficiency: 28.4% (46-162)
  - Passes defensed: 100

Since 2011, the Texans are third in the NFL in total defense (301.5) and pass defense (209.1), second in rush defense (92.4) and third in points allowed (17.8). The Texans' defense leads the NFL in pass completion percentage (52.4) and opponent passer rating (72.0) since 2011. Houston's 80 sacks over the last two years ranks second in the NFL.

RUSHING UNDER DENNISON

Dennison

For the second consecutive season, offensive coordinator Rick Dennison orchestrated a running game that set a franchise rushing record. The Texans ranked second in the NFL with 153.0 rushing yards per game and set a franchise record with 2,448 rushing yards in 2011. That total bested the previous record of 2,042 set in Dennison's first year directing the offense in 2010.

Dennison has helped direct a top-10 run game in nine of the last 11 seasons in Denver and Houston as either an offensive line coach or offensive coordinator.

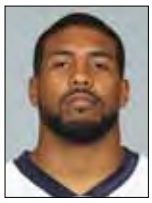
SCHAUB NAMED PLAYER OF THE WEEK

QB Matt Schaub was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week following his performance vs. Jacksonville on Nov. 18. It was the fourth time Schaub has won the award in his career and the 10th time a Texans player has garnered the honor. He was also named the FedEx Air Player of the Week for the second time in his career.

Schaub orchestrated an historic performance against the Jaguars by throwing for 527 yards, which tied for the second-most passing yards in a game in NFL history. Schaub's 43 completions on 55 attempts tied for the second-most completions in a game in NFL history. He also threw a franchise-record five touchdowns passes, including the 48-yard game-winner to Andre Johnson in overtime.

Led by Schaub, the Texans tied an NFL record with 39 first downs, gained a franchise-record 653 yards of total offense and tied a franchise mark with 43 points. Schaub's two touchdown passes and 183 passing yards in the fourth quarter helped the Texans overcome a 14-point deficit. He directed his fourth career game-tying drive to send the game into overtime and then powered the Texans to a 43-37 win following the ninth game-winning drive of his career.

THE BIG THREE REUNITED



Foster

Johnson

QB Matt Schaub, WR Andre Johnson and RB Arian Foster were on the field at the same time for 40 of Houston's 70 offensive snaps in Week 1 against Miami. That's normally not that big of a deal.

But considering Schaub, Johnson and Foster were on the field together for just 45 of the team's 1,046 plays last season--4.3 percent of the time, it was a big deal.

Houston's top three offensive weapons were on the field together for the first time since Week 4 of the 2011 season, a span of 12 regular season games and two postseason games. The trio combined to account for all three Texans touchdowns against the Dolphins and 331 of the team's 337 net yards (98.2 percent).

Foster missed last year's season opener with a hamstring injury and only played in the first half of the Week 2 matchup at Miami. He then sat out the Week 3 game at New Orleans.

Johnson went down with his own hamstring injury in the first half of the Week 4 contest against Pittsburgh, which was also the first time Foster was at full strength and played an entire game. Johnson's injury kept him sidelined him for the next six weeks.

Schaub was lost for the remainder of the 2011 season after suffering a Lisfranc injury in Week 10 at Tampa Bay, two weeks prior to Johnson's return.

SCHAUB SIGNS EXTENSION

Schaub

QB Matt Schaub signed a contract extension on Saturday, Sept. 8. He reaffirmed why he got that extension in the season opener against Miami the following day.

Schaub completed 20-of-31 passes for 266 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions for a 102.5 passer rating in the 30-10 win.

Acquired via trade from the Atlanta Falcons on March 22, 2007, Schaub has started 75 games as the Texans signal caller and thrown for 19,758 yards and 111 touchdowns in that time. He owns the franchise records for most 300-yard games (25), career passer rating (94.0), passing yards, passing touchdowns, completions (1,627) and wins (42).

Schaub is only one of 12 quarterbacks in NFL history to pass for 4,000-yards in back-to-back seasons and one of eight to throw for 9,000 combined yards in consecutive seasons. He won 70 percent of his starts in 2011 before a Lisfranc injury in Week 10 at Tampa Bay landed him on IR. He finished the year with 2,479 yards, 15 touchdowns and only six interceptions. While at the helm, the Texans offense ranked seventh in the NFL, averaging 396.2 yards per game.

The 2010 Pro Bowl MVP led the NFL with 4,770 passing yards in 2009. He ranks seventh in NFL history with a 64.4 completion percentage. Since taking over as the Texans starter, the Pennsylvania native ranks in the top 10 in the NFL in passer rating, passing yards, completion percentage, completions and passes of 25-plus yards.

The @HoustonTexans have won the possession battle in all but on game this season and lead the NFL in TOP at 34:07 #Texans

RUSHING TO WIN

Kubiak

Under head coach Gary Kubiak, the Texans have made running the ball effectively a priority, and that philosophy has been proven in the team's win-loss record since 2006.

When Houston has run the ball 30 or more times over the last seven seasons, the team is 42-5 (.894 winning pct.). By contrast, Houston is 3-30 when rushing less than 25 times. Houston ran the ball a team-record 48 times for 215 yards at Jacksonville in Week 2. The Texans were 4-1 in 2010, 9-3 in 2011 and are 10-0 in 2012 when rushing 30 or more times.

PRECISION PASSING

When head coach Gary Kubiak was hired in 2006, he brought with him an offensive philosophy based on a strong running game and a precision passing attack.

Since 2006, the Texans have the second-most accurate passing offense in the NFL. Texans quarterbacks have combined to complete 65.4 percent of their passes.

OFFENSIVE PROWESS UNDER KUBIAK

The Houston Texans have put up some impressive offensive numbers under Head Coach Gary Kubiak since 2006. Houston is the only team in the NFL to have had their total offense, passing offense and rushing offense to each rank in the top five at least once since 2008.

The New Orleans Saints have ranked in the top five in either total offense or passing offense each year since 2008, but have not had a top-five rushing offfense in that time.

INCREASED PASS PROTECTION

The improved pass protection of the offensive line has been a key reason the Houston passing attack has been one of the most dangerous in the NFL under head coach Gary Kubiak over the last six seasons.

Since 2007, Texans quarterbacks have been sacked 159 times on 3,295 pass plays, or a mere 4.83 percent of the time. That sack percentage is the seventh-lowest in the NFL during that period.

FOSTER LIKES THE NATIONAL STAGE

Arian Foster is certainly no stranger to national attention after leading the NFL in rushing in 2010 and becoming one of the top picks in fantasy football drafts around the country the last two years.

Foster knows how to seize the spotlight in nationally-televised games as well. Counting last year's playoffs, he has run for more than 100 yards in eight of his nine national TV outings and is averaging more than 120 yards per game on national TV.

The ninth-year signal-caller did not let the missed time due to injury affect his performance or ability to run Houston's offense when he returned. Schaub has led the Texans to wins in 15 of his last 16 starts, including the current six-game winning streak, and outscored opponents by an average of 31-17. Schaub has completed 325-of-504 passes with 24 touchdowns and 10 interceptions during that span. He has only been sacked 18 times during the last 16 games while compiling a 97.4 passer rating.

WHAT BROWN CAN DO FOR HOUSTON

Brown

Duane Brown had the best season of his career and one of the best seasons of any left tackle in the AFC in 2011. According to STATS LLC, Brown only gave up two sacks in 2011, which tied for the fewest of any full-time starter in the conference. In addition, Brown wasn't called for a holding penalty despite being on the field longer than any other left tackle in the NFL (Houston led the NFL in time of possession). In fact, Brown hasn't been called for holding since 2008.

He earned AP All-Pro Second Team recognition and a spot on USA Today's All-Joe Team for his efforts. Through 12 games in 2012, Brown has only given up one sack, which is tied for fewest among AFC starting left tackles.

Jones

Rookie G/C Ben Jones has shown the Texans coaching staff why he started 49 games at the University of Georgia. He worked his way into the offensive line rotation at right guard in Week 2 against Jacksonville and helped the Texans rush for a season-high 215 yards on a franchise-record 48 carries.

Jones continued to rotate at right guard, seeing increased playing time at a position he hasn't really played since high school. He made his first career start at right guard in Week 7 against Baltimore and has started every game since .

MYERS ANCHORING THE OFFENSIVE LINE

Myers earned his first Pro Bowl selection following the 2011 season and helped the Texans set a team record and rank second in the NFL with 153.0 rushing yards per game.

C @CMyers55 has started 76 consecutive games for the @HoustonTexans.

ROOKIE QB REVIEW

Yates

QB T.J. Yates was the fifth rookie quarterback to start a game in 2011 and just the second (Minnesota's Christian Ponder vs. Green Bay) to get his first start against a winning team, leading Houston to a 17-10 win against Atlanta in Week 13. He was also the only rookie quarterback to start and win a playoff game in 2011, leading the Texans to a 31-10 Wild Card win against Cincinnati on Jan. 7 at Reliant Stadium.

Yates is one of only four rookie fifth-round draft picks to earn a win in his first career start since the 1970 NFL merger. The others were Arizona's John Skelton (2010), Chicago's Craig Krenzel (2004) and San Diego's Cliff Olander (1977).

WADE PHILLIPS IN YEAR ONE

Texans defensive coordinator Wade Phillips has made a habit of quick turnarounds everywhere he's gone and Houston is not the exception, ranking second in overall defense and third in pass defense in 2011 after ranking 30th and 32nd in those respective categories in 2010.

In each of his last five defensive coordinator positions, Phillips has helped build a team which missed the playoffs the year before into a playoff team in his first year, including Houston this season.

SAFETIES, IN NUMBERS

Manning

Quin

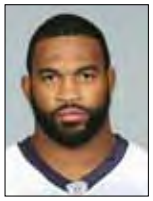
SS Danieal Manning and FS Glover Quin have patrolled the secondary with great efficiency and force in 2012, combining for 151 tackles, 2 sacks, four tackles for loss, four interceptions, 19 passes defensed, five forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

Manning and Quin have accounted for more than a quarter of the Texans tackles and interceptions this season, and half of the team's 10 forced fumbles. Both are on the way to career seasons.

Manning has already tied a career high with two interceptions. He set a single-game high with eight tackles against Tennessee in Week 4 and then matched that total against his former team on Sunday Night Football in Week 10. In addition, Manning forced a fumble on the opening defensive series in Weeks 10 and 11 and the opening overtime series in Week 12 at Detroit.

Quin, a converted cornerback, is on pace to shatter his single-season high of 85 tackles, set in 2010, with 79 through 12 games this season. He posted a career-high nine tackles against Buffalo in Week 9 and had a career-best three passes defensed against Baltimore in Week 7 and again at Detroit in Week 12.

SHARPTON IMPACTS IN RETURN



Sharpton

It was a long road to recovery for ILB Darryl Sharpton. The third-year veteran suffered a season-ending quadricep injury in Week 8 of 2011 against Jacksonville. During the rehabilitation of his quadricep, Sharpton suffered a hip injury that placed him on the Physically Unable To Perform (PUP) List prior to training camp.

After missing the equivalent of a full season of football, Sharpton was finally activated from the PUP List on Saturday, Nov. 17. He wasted little time knocking the rust off against Jacksonville the next day, posting a then-career-high seven tackles.

He made his first start of 2012 on Thanksgiving at Detroit and tallied a career-high 13 tackles. made his first career interception last week at Tennessee. In three games, Sharpton has totaled 27 tackles.

Sharpton started six games as a rookie in 2010 and totaled 21 tackles and a sack. He saw increased action as the season progressed in 2011, before his injury.

JACKSON TURNS THE CORNER

Jackson

CB Kareem Jackson had a rough rookie year in 2010. Drafted in the first round out of Alabama, Jackson was thrust into a starting role and was the most inexperienced player on what was then the NFL's worst pass defense.

But since he's been under the guidance of second-year Defensive Backs Coach Vance Joseph, Jackson has blossomed and has more than held his own.

Jackson is tied for second in the AFC seventh in the NFL with a team-best four interceptions. He had a 63-yard interception return for a touchdown against Tennessee in Week 4. Jackson's four interceptions are a career high and his seven career interceptions tie him for fourth on the franchise's all-time list.

Watt, the AFC Defensive Player of the Month for September, ranks second in the NFL with a franchise-record 15.5 sacks, and leads all defensive linemen with 15 passes defensed. Watt leads the Texans with 28 tackles for loss, 32 quarterback hits, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries, and is second on the team with a career-high 83 tackles. Watt tied a franchise record with sacks in six consecutive games to start the season. Five of the passes he has deflected have been picked off by teammates, with four of those eventually leading to scores.

WATT SETS FRANCHISE STANDARD

Texans DE J.J. Watt has set a franchise record with 15.5 sacks this season to best the previous mark of 14.0, set by Mario Williams in 2007. Watt set the record with a three-sack performance against Detroit on Thanksgiving in Week 12.

SACKING AND SWATTING

Texans DE J.J. Watt's propensity to get his hands on quarterbacks and their passes has earned him the moniker "J.J. Swatt." Watt has already set an NFL record for a a defensive lineman with 15 passes defensed and ranks second in the NFL with 15.5 sacks.

Since he has come into the NFL, Watt leads all defensive linemen with 19 passes defensed. Watt leads all defensive linemen in passes defensed in 2012.

WATT NAMED AFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE MONTH

DE J.J. Watt was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Month for September after leading the NFL in sacks and helping the Texans to a 4-0 record.

Watt led Houston's defense with an NFL-best 7.5 sacks, and had 10 quarterback hits, five passes defensed and two fumble recoveries. He helped the Texans defense hold opponents to League-lows of 273.0 yards per game and 14.0 points per game. He also became the first Texans player to record more than one sack in four consecutive games.

Watt opened the season with 1.5 sacks and tied a career high with three passes defensed, including two that led to interceptions, against Miami. He was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week after tallying 1.5 sacks for 11 yards, a fumble recovery and two passes defensed in Week 2 at Jacksonville. Watt followed that performance with 2.5 sacks for 11.5 yards and four tackles for loss in Week 3 at Denver. Watt continued his stellar play against Tennessee in Week 4 with 2.0 sacks for 17 yards, three tackles for loss and a fumble recovery.

Watt is the third Texan to win defensive player of the month honors in franchise history.

THE LONG-SHOT LONGSNAPPER

Weeks

Texans LS Jon Weeks' route to the NFL was, in a word, circuitous. A self-described "military brat," Weeks was born in Bethpage, N.Y. and graduated from high school in Glendale, Ariz.

As a senior at Mountain Ridge High, Weeks attended a special teams camp, where he caught the eye of the coaches from Baylor University. He walked on at Baylor as a long snapper and eventually earned a scholarship.

After college, Weeks volunteered at a hospital and began a nine-week certification program to become a firefighter. Taking one last stab at his football dreams, he attended coach Gary Zauner's specialists combine and caught the attention of a Texans scout. The Texans invited Weeks for a tryout and signed him the following day, and Weeks won his roster spot during Houston's 2010 training camp.

Weeks is now in his third season with the Texans and has remained consistent at his job, totaling 433 extra-point, field-goal and punt snaps heading into Monday's game.

H-E-B SACKS FOR HUNGER

Throughout the season, the Texans defense will team up with Texas grocery chain H-E-B and the Houston Food Bank to help feed Houston's families with the H-E-B Sacks For Hunger program.

H-E-B will donate $1,000 to the Food Bank's hunger relief efforts for every sack the Texans defense records this season. According to the Food Bank, every dollar donated can provide three full meals.

Through their play on the field this year, the "Bulls on Parade" have helped provide 108,000 meals for hungry Houstonians.

TOUCHDOWNS FOR TREES

Once again this season, +ImageNet Consulting will partner with the Texans on the Touchdowns For Trees program.

For every offensive touchdown the Texans score this season, ImageNet will fund the purchase and installation of one tree to be planted in the city. Last season, the Texans scored 41 touchdowns and thus 41 trees were added to the Houston landscape.

HCC FIELD OF OPPORTUNITY SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Through a landmark partnership, Houston Community College will provide a minimum of $50,000 in scholarships annually to members of the Boys and Girls Club. The HCC Field of Opportunity Program, which is supported through HCC's partnership with the Houston Texans, builds on HCC's Opportunity 14 scholarships administered by the Houston Community College Foundation.

With this program, each time the Texans score 14 points, an Opportunity 14 scholarship will be awarded. And, in addition, when the Texans hold an opponent below 14 points, an Opportunity 14 Scholarship will also be awarded. The scholarships will be presented in both wins and losses – recognizing that with education there is always a winner.

GAME 1: Houston 30, Miami 10

71,566 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Sept. 9, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

With their defense going on a turnover spree, the Texans scored three touchdowns in the final two minutes of the second quarter to take a 24-3 halftime lead. The game was never in doubt after that as they won 30-10 in front of 71,566 Liberty White-clad fans at Reliant Stadium.

Texans DE J.J. Watt had three pass deflections, two of which led to interceptions, and 1.5 sacks. WR Andre Johnson led the way on offense with eight catches for 119 yards and a touchdown.

QB Matt Schaub was 21-of-30 for 266 yards and a touchdown with a passer rating of 102.4. RB Arian Foster scored two rushing touchdowns.

The Texans trailed 3-0 after the first quarter before their defense forced a turnover on four consecutive possessions in the second. Pro Bowl CB Johnathan Joseph got things started by picking off Dolphins rookie QB Ryan Tannehill near midfield, then returning the ball 36 yards to set up a short field goal by Shayne Graham.

On the Dolphins' next series, ILB Brian Cushing picked off Tannehill after a deflection by Watt. The Texans turned that into a 14-yard touchdown run by Foster, which put them up 10-3 with 1:53 remaining in the second quarter.

Watt tipped another pass on Miami's very next play, this time leading to an interception by CB Kareem Jackson deep in Dolphins territory. Foster scored two plays later on a two-yard run.

One play later, the Dolphins lost a fumble at their own 31-yard line. Texans FS Glover Quin jarred the ball loose from RB Daniel Thomas, and SS Danieal Manning recovered. Schaub connected with Johnson for a 14-yard touchdown pass three plays later to make the score 24-3 with seven seconds remaining in the first half.

The Dolphins' only touchdown came on a 72-yard punt return by RB Marcus Thigpen two minutes into the third quarter. Graham made two field goals in the second half to provide the final margin.

Texans DE Tim Jamison batted down a pass at the line of scrimmage on fourth-and-goal from the 5-yard line with 4:05 remaining. He also ended the Dolphins next -- and final -- possession by sacking Tannehill on fourth down at the Miami 39-yard line.

Texans TE Owen Daniels had four catches for 87 yards. He was one of seven different receivers to catch a pass from Schaub. Cushing led the Texans' defense with seven tackles. Graham was 3-of-4 on field goals, with his lone miss coming on a 52-yard attempt in the first quarter.

WEEK 2 AT JACKSONVILLE

Game 13 • Houston Texans at New England Patriots • Monday, Dec. 10, 2012

GAME 2: Houston 27, Jacksonville 7

62,907 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla. • Sept. 16, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans moved to 2-0 after using a familiar formula to beat the Jacksonville Jaguars at EverBank Field.

Relying on a smothering defense and dominant running game, the trademarks of their 2011 playoff season, the Texans pounded their division rivals 27-7 in their first road game of 2012.

The Texans allowed just 117 yards, a new team record, as they took advantage of a depleted Jaguars offensive line and made life miserable for QB Blaine Gabbert. Jacksonville was 0-of-9 on third down and had just 43 yards, including -4 passing, in the first half. The Texans ran 83 plays overall and set a team record with 43:17 in time of possession.

DE J.J. Watt had a monster game for the second consecutive week with 1.5 sacks, two passes defensed, a fumble recovery and a team-high five tackles. Texans running backs Arian Foster and Ben Tate combined for 184 rushing yards and three touchdowns. The Texans ran for 216 total yards and averaged 4.5 yards per carry.

Texans QB Matt Schaub directed an up-tempo, quick-huddle offense for much of the game. It started on the first drive, when Schaub completed five short passes for 42 yards. The Texans gained 66 yards in 13 plays for a 31-yard field goal by Shayne Graham.

The Texans halted Jacksonville's first two drives. WR Trindon Holliday returned a punt 36 yards to the Jaguars' 41-yard line to start Houston's third drive. Four plays later, Tate stiff-armed a would-be tackler and burst up the right sideline for 24 yards to set up Foster's 1-yard touchdown plunge two plays later for a 10-0 lead late in the first quarter.

Watt deflected his second pass of the game on the Jaguars' next drive, then combined with DE Antonio Smith for a drive-ending sack. The Texans took a 17-0 lead midway through the second quarter after Tate plowed up the middle for an 8-yard touchdown run.

With heavy rain coming down near the end of the first half, Brooks Reed sacked Gabbert at the Jacksonville 1-yard line with 2:28 remaining. The Texans went into halftime with a 242-43 advantage in yards.

The weather improved in the second half, but the Texans got worse. They forced a three-and-out on the Jags' first drive but were flagged for an illegal block on their punt return. The Texans' first drive began with a false start, leading to a three-and-out of their own.

An 18-yard punt return gave the Jaguars possession at Houston's 37-yard line. Gabbert completed a 32-yard pass to Laurent Robinson and a 5-yard touchdown pass to Maurice Jones-Drew to close within 17-7.

The Texans responded with a 17-play, 80-yard drive, chewing 9:14 off the clock. Tate kept the drive alive with a cutback run after the catch for a three-yard gain on third-and-one from the Jacksonville 36. Six plays later, Tate scored on a two-yard run to push the lead back to 24-7.

Graham made a 37-yard field goal with 7:20 remaining to provide the final margin. Watt recovered a fumble near midfield with 5:09 remaining, and the Texans ran out the remainder of the clock with several runs by Justin Forsett and a couple of kneel-downs by Schaub.

Foster finished the game with 28 carries for 110 yards (3.9 average). Tate had 74 yards on 12 carries (6.2 average). Schaub was 26-of-35 for 195 yards and an 87.2 rating. TE Owen Daniels led the Texans with 47 receiving yards on six catches.

Gabbert was 7-of-19 (37 percent) for 53 yards and a touchdown before leaving in the fourth quarter with a leg injury. He had a passer rating of 62.8.

GAME 3: Houston 31, Denver 25

76,566 • Sports Authority Field at Mile High • Denver, Colo. • Sept. 23, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

QB Matt Schaub threw four touchdown passes in a gritty performance, and the Texans held off a late comeback attempt to escape Sports Authority Field at Mile High with a 31-25 victory against the Denver Broncos.

Schaub got the game ball from Head Coach Gary Kubiak after completing 17-of-30 passes for 290 yards. WR Andre Johnson, WR Kevin Walter, RB Arian Foster and TE Owen Daniels all caught touchdown passes. DE J.J. Watt had 2.5 sacks, seven tackles and four tackles for loss.

Schaub brushed off two consecutive illegal hits in the third quarter, including one that left him missing part of his left ear, and sat out only one play before returning to the game.

The Texans led 31-11 early in the fourth quarter. They were seemingly cruising to an easy victory until a fumble by Ben Tate gave the Broncos the ball at midfield. DE Kevin Vickerson came in untouched to hit Tate in the backfield and jar the ball loose.

The fumble sparked a late rally by Denver QB Peyton Manning, who was 16-2 against the Texans with the Indianapolis Colts from 2002-10. The four-time NFL MVP threw two touchdown passes in the next seven minutes to make it a one-score game with three minutes remaining.

The Texans ran out all but the final 20 seconds of the remaining game clock thanks to a crucial catch by Johnson on third-and-five with 2:49 remaining. Johnson beat Pro Bowl CB Champ Bailey with an out route for a 12-yard catch near the left sideline, which all but wrapped up the victory.

The Broncos took a 2-0 lead two minutes into the game when DE Elvis Dumervil sacked Schaub for a safety on the Texans' first play. The Texans found themselves in a 5-0 hole with 8:41 left in the first quarter after a 32-yard field goal by Broncos K Matt Prater.

The Texans took the lead on their next possession with a 60-yard touchdown bomb from Schaub to Johnson. On a play-action fake, Johnson beat CB Tracy Porter with a double move and got behind the defense for the score.

Watt and OLB Brooks Reed sacked Manning to end the next drive. The Texans then drove 97 yards in 14 plays to take a 14-5 lead. Rookie WR Keshawn Martin had an 18-yard catch on the drive, and TE Garrett Graham had a 27-yarder. Foster scored on a 3-yard catch on third-and-goal.

Less than two minutes later, Schaub hit Walter over the middle for a 52-yard touchdown pass. It was another play-action fake and another double move, with Porter once again in coverage.

The Broncos put two more field goals on the board before halftime to make the score 21-11. Schaub was picked off in Broncos territory by LB Wesley Woodyard in the final minute of the half to set up Prater's 53-yarder.

Texans K Shayne Graham made a 41-yard field goal early in the third quarter. Later in the quarter, WR Lestar Jean had a career-long 46-yard reception down the left sideline. Daniels caught a 14-yard touchdown pass two plays later to make it 31-11.

The Texans appeared to have the game well in hand until Tate's fumble with 10:28 remaining. Two plays after the turnover, Manning hit WR Brandon Stokley for a 38-yard touchdown pass. The Texans went three-and-out, and the Broncos drove for another touchdown – a 6-yard catch off a deflection by former Texans TE Joel Dreessen – to make the score 31-25.

GAME 4: Houston 38, Tennessee 14

71,581 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Sept. 30, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

SS Danieal Manning and CB Kareem Jackson returned interceptions for touchdowns in the second half as the Texans defeated the Tennessee Titans 38-14 at Reliant Stadium to improve to 4-0.

The Texans sacked Titans QBs Jake Locker and Matt Hasselbeck four times. FS Glover Quin knocked Locker out of the game with a sack midway through the first quarter.

Texans QB Matt Schaub was 20-of-28 for 202 yards (71 percent) with a 115.5 passer rating. He threw touchdown passes to FB James Casey and TE Owen Daniels and completed passes to seven different receivers.

The Texans imposed their will on the game's opening possession, driving 77 yards in seven plays and 3:19. Schaub started the drive with passes of 33 and 20 yards to Andre Johnson and finished it with an 11-yard touchdown to Casey over the middle.

On the Titans' second possession, Quin came off the right edge untouched on a safety blitz on third down and leveled Locker for an 8-yard loss. It was a clean hit, but Locker suffered a left shoulder injury and did not return. That forced the 37-year-old Hasselbeck into action.

The Texans went up 14-0 on a 4-yard touchdown run by Arian Foster with 0:17 remaining in the first quarter. Hasselbeck made it 14-7 with a 19-yard touchdown pass to TE Craig Stevens with 7:52 left in the first half.

Momentum was tilting the Titans' way until Manning turned the game with a pick-six early in the third quarter. Hasselbeck threw a pass deep to the left for TE Taylor Thompson, who batted the ball into the air with his left hand.

Manning intercepted it at the Houston 45-yard line. CB Johnathan Joseph flat-backed WR Nate Washington as Manning reversed the field to his left, springing Manning a clear path to the end zone.

The Texans went ahead 28-7 on their next drive with a 28-yard touchdown catch by Daniels. On third-and-five, Daniels caught a pass at the 22-yard line and shook a tackle attempt from LB Akeem Ayers. He brushed off S Jordan Babineaux at the 10 and CB Alterraun Verner, who was being blocked downfield by rookie WR Keshawn Martin, at the goal line.

The Texans used their "muddle huddle" on the drive to move 75 yards in seven plays and 2:37. They used it on both of their first two drives of second half to kick-start their offense.

Eight minutes into the fourth quarter, DE Antonio Smith sacked Hasselbeck and forced a fumble at the Titans' 24-yard line. DE J.J. Watt recovered the fumble and returned it to the 17. K Shayne Graham made a 33-yard field goal to put the Texans up 31-17.

Five plays later, Jackson jumped a slant route on a short pass to the left intended for Damian Williams. He raced 63 yards the other way for a touchdown for a 38-7 lead with 4:08 remaining.

Hasselbeck threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to WR Kendall Wright with 1:01 remaining against the Texans' second-string defense.

The Texans allowed 158 rushing yards, but 101 of them were in the second half. RB Chris Johnson had 141 rushing yards on 25 carries (5.6 average). Foster was limited to 86 yards on 24 carries (3.6 average) and Ben Tate to 11 yards on five carries (2.2 average).

The Texans were penalized only one time for three yards, the fewest penalty yards in a game in team history.

GAME 5: Houston 23, New York Jets 17

79,088 • MetLife Stadium • East Rutherford, N.J. • Oct. 8, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

RB Arian Foster had 29 carries for 152 yards and a touchdown as the Texans defeated the New York Jets 23-17 at MetLife Stadium on Monday Night Football. DE J.J. Watt had six tackles, one sack and three passes defensed to help the Texans overcome the loss of ILB Brian Cushing to a knee injury early in the second quarter.

The Texans outrushed the Jets 169-69 and controlled the ball for 35:16. They were 6-of-13 (40 percent) on third down but just 1-of-3 in the red zone, twice settling for short field goals by K Shayne Graham.

On defense, the Texans had two sacks and two interceptions on Jets QB Mark Sanchez. Backup Tim Tebow played sparingly, throwing one pass and running five times for 19 yards.

After losing 38-0 to the San Francisco 49ers in Week 4, the Jets pulled out all the stops as they looked to avoid falling to 2-3. Tebow ran for a first down on a fake punt on the first play of the second quarter on fourth-and-one from New York's 24-yard line. The Jets unsuccessfully tried a surprise onside kick midway through the third quarter.

The Texans led 17-7 at halftime. QB Matt Schaub threw a 34-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter to TE Owen Daniels, who was wide open off a play-action fake. Foster ran for a 13-yard touchdown early in the second quarter, one series after he broke loose for a season-long 46-yard run.

Schaub was picked off by CB Antonio Cromartie with 5:54 remaining in the first quarter, trying to throw to WR Andre Johnson over the middle in double coverage. That gave the Jets a short field and led to a 27-yard touchdown catch by TE Jeff Cumberland.

The Jets threatened to tie the game at 14 late in the second quarter, driving to the Texans' 12-yard line with 29 seconds remaining. Watt tipped a Sanchez at the line of scrimmage, and CB Brice McCain intercepted it and returned the ball 86 yards to the Jets' 9-yard line. That set up Graham for a 27-yard field goal on the final play of the half.

Graham added a 42-yard field goal in the third quarter to give the Texans a 20-7 lead. The Jets responded with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by RB Joe McKnight. The Texans and Jets then traded short field goals to make the score 23-17 with 11:55 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Watt made another key play with 7:04 remaining, sacking Sanchez for a 5-yard loss on third-and-10 from the Houston 35. That knocked the Jets out of field goal range and forced them to punt. The Texans ran three minutes off the clock before punting back to the Jets with 3:28 left to play.

CB Kareem Jackson helped preserve the Texans' victory with a late interception of Sanchez near midfield at the two-minute warning. The Jets had one more chance from their 9-yard line with 0:04 remaining, but Watt tipped Sanchez's pass at the line of scrimmage to end the game.

GAME 6: Green Bay 42, Houston 24

71,702 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Oct. 14, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans had the national spotlight with Sunday Night Football at Reliant Stadium in Week 6. Unfortunately, it turned into a highlight reel for Green Bay Packers QB Aaron Rodgers.

Rodgers threw six touchdown passes, as many as Houston had allowed all season in its first five games. The Packers (3-3) won 42-24, handing the Texans (5-1) their first loss in lopsided fashion in front of an announced crowd of 71,702 at Reliant Stadium, the largest regular-season crowd in team history.

Rodgers, the reigning NFL MVP, went 24-of-37 for 338 yards, six touchdowns and no interceptions with a 133.8 passer rating. He threw two touchdowns in the first quarter, one in the second, one in the third and two in the fourth. Three of them were caught by WR Jordy Nelson, who had a game-high 121 receiving yards on nine catches.

The Texans allowed 40 points in a game for the first time since Week 3 of last season at New Orleans. It was the most points they have allowed since a 43-24 loss to the Indianapolis Colts in Week 2 of the 2006 season. They allowed season-highs in yards (426) and passing yards (328) to Green Bay.

Texans QB Matt Schaub threw two interceptions and was sacked three times, matching his season totals in both categories. He lost for the first time in his last 10 starts dating back to last season.

The Texans' struggles in the running game continued. RB Arian Foster scored two rushing touchdowns but had only 29 rushing yards on 17 carries (1.7 average).

The Texans trailed 14-0 after the first quarter, 21-10 at halftime and 28-17 after the third quarter. It was the first time they trailed after any of the first three quarters all season.

Twice, the Texans committed special teams penalties that extended Packers drives and led to touchdowns. Rookie WR DeVier Posey lined up offsides on a punt in the first quarter, giving the Packers a first down. On the next play, Rodgers threw a 41-yard touchdown pass to Nelson past CB Johnathan Joseph to make the score 7-0.

On the first series of the third quarter, OLB Connor Barwin was penalized for unsportsmanlike conduct for leaping as he tried to block a 39-yard field goal by Mason Crosby. That gave the Packers a first down at the Texans' 11-yard line. Then, after an 11-yard pass on third-and-14, FS Danieal Manning was flagged for unnecessary roughness to set up the Packers in first-and-goal. Rodgers threw a 1-yard touchdown pass to Nelson two plays later, making the score 28-10.

The Packers led 14-0 after a diving 6-yard touchdown catch by James Jones in the final minute of the first quarter. Foster scored on a 1-yard run in the second quarter to cap a nine-play, 80-yard scoring drive.

It was 21-7 after Nelson caught a 21-yard touchdown past CB Alan Ball midway through the second quarter. Texans K Shayne Graham made a 51-yard field goal with 2:15 left in the first half.

Foster scored on another 1-yard touchdown run in the third quarter to make the score 28-17. Packers WR Randall Cobb returned the ensuing kickoff 46 yards, and Green Bay scored three plays later on a 48-yard touchdown catch by TE Tom Crabtree, who was wide open after Rodgers rolled out to his right.

Schaub was picked off at the Houston 27-yard line two plays later. Jones made a juggling, one-handed 18-yard touchdown catch past CB Kareem Jackson with 12:22 remaining.

The Texans scored with 5:35 left to play on a blocked punt by OLB Bryan Braman that Posey recovered in the end zone. The Packers and Texans put in their backup quarterbacks after that for the game's final five minutes.

WEEK 7 VS. BALTIMORE

Game 13 • Houston Texans at New England Patriots • Monday, Dec. 10, 2012

GAME 7: Houston 43, Baltimore 13

71,708 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Oct. 21, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

Houston and Baltimore were tied atop the conference at 5-1 heading into the game, but a banner day by the Texans' defense sparked a 43-13 blowout victory at Reliant Stadium. The Texans set a franchise record for points in a game and had their second-biggest margin of victory ever.

Defensive Coordinator Wade Phillips' defense scored a touchdown and a safety and had four sacks, two interceptions and 11 passes defensed, including five by defensive linemen and linebackers. The Texans allowed 176 yards to a Ravens offense that was averaging 385 a game.

The Texans gained 420 yards themselves and had the ball for 38:16, including 20:53 in a 29-3 first half. They did not turn the ball over for the fourth time this season.

The Texans fell behind 3-0 early on a 51-yard field goal by Ravens K Justin Tucker. They got off to a sluggish start offensively with only one first down and 25 yards on their first three series.

OLB Connor Barwin got Houston on the scoreboard by sacking Joe Flacco for a safety with 4:49 remaining in the first quarter. It was Barwin's first sack of the season and came one play after rookie OLB Whitney Mercilus dropped Flacco for the first sack of his career.

Barwin's big play ignited a 29-0 Texans run to close out the first half. WR Kevin Walter caught a 25-yard touchdown pass from QB Matt Schaub on the ensuing series to make it 9-3 at the end of the first quarter. CB Johnathan Joseph returned an interception 52 yards for a touchdown on the first play of the second quarter on a pass tipped by DE J.J. Watt.

With the score 16-3, Texans TE Garrett Graham made a sensational one-handed catch for a 20-yard gain, leaping in the air to tip the ball to himself with his right hand. Had Graham not made the play, Ravens S Ed Reed looked primed for an interception that could have drastically changed the course of the game.

Instead, Graham's catch led to a one-yard touchdown reception by TE Owen Daniels with 5:58 left in the second quarter. Shayne Graham made field goals of 33 and 29 yards to put the Texans ahead 29-3 at halftime.

Flacco's passer rating at halftime was 4.2. The Ravens had just 84 yards and four first downs in the half. After their first drive, they went three-and-out on four of their next six possessions. The other two ended in Barwin's safety and Joseph's interception. Flacco also was picked off by SS Glover Quin, who made a one-handed catch on a pass tipped by Mercilus in the second quarter.

Texans RB Arian Foster had two rushing touchdowns in the second half. The Ravens scored their only touchdown on a 15-yard touchdown catch by WR Tandon Doss early in the third quarter but never got closer than 19 points.

DE Antonio Smith had sacks on back-to-back plays in the fourth quarter, pushing the Ravens back from the 19-yard line to the 36. They settled for a 54-yard field goal.

OLB Bryan Braman recovered a surprise onside kick, and the Texans drove 44 yards on six plays – all handoffs to Foster and Ben Tate – for Foster's second touchdown, the final score of the game.

GAME SUMMARY

A turnover-free offense and swarming defense helped the Texans overcome seven penalties and a blocked field goal to beat the Buffalo Bills 21-9 at Reliant Stadium. Houston moved to 7-1, the best start in franchise history, and remained atop the AFC standings.

The Texans never trailed the Bills (3-5), but the game was close throughout. Houston led 7-0 after the first quarter, 7-6 at halftime and 14-9 after three quarters.

Texans RB Arian Foster notched his 20th career 100-yard game, rushing for 111 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries. TEs Owen Daniels and Garrett Graham both caught touchdown passes from QB Matt Schaub, who went 19-of-27 for 268 yards and two touchdowns (126.8 rating).

The Texans' defense did not allow a touchdown for the second time this season. DE J.J. Watt and OLBs Connor Barwin and Whitney Mercilus all sacked Bills QB Ryan Fitzpatrick, who was sacked only eight times all season coming into the game. Watt also had five quarterback hits, while Barwin had four. The Texans forced the Bills into three-and-outs on four of 11 possessions.

The Bills came into the game ranking third in the league with 150 rushing yards per game. The Texans limited them to 78 rushing yards, including 39 for C.J. Spiller and 21 for Fred Jackson. The Bills got into the red zone three times but came away with field goal attempts on each one.

The Texans got on the scoreboard with a 39-yard touchdown pass from Schaub to Daniels in the final minute of the first quarter. Daniels was wide open on the right side, and Schaub hit him in stride deep down the field for the score.

K Rian Lindell missed a 37-yard field goal attempt wide right on the Bills' first possession. Texans K Shayne Graham had a 46-yard attempt blocked by Bills DT Alex Carrington midway through the second quarter. The Bills made two short field goals in the final two minutes of the first half. The second came after Watt sacked Fitzpatrick for a 6-yard loss to force the second field goal just before halftime, making it 7-6 at the break.

The Texans' defense forced a three-and-out to start the third quarter. Rookie WR Keshawn Martin had a 26-yard punt return, his longest of the season. Three plays later, Schaub hit Johnson for a 34-yard pass down the right sideline. Foster scored two plays later on a 3-yard touchdown run, his 10th of the season.

The Bills drove 56 yards in eight plays on the ensuing possession, ending up with a 39-yard field goal. The score was 14-9 until Schaub threw a five-yard touchdown pass to TE Garrett Graham on third and goal four minutes into the fourth quarter. That capped an 11-play, 68-yard drive.

The Texans then forced another three-and-out. Schaub led them on an 11-play, 60-yard drive that used up 5:48 of game clock. The drive ended in a turnover on downs after Kubiak decided to go for it on fourth-and-six from the Buffalo 30-yard line. Schaub went deep for Johnson to the end zone, but the pass was incomplete.

Buffalo got the ball back with 4:31 remaining and drove into Texans territory, but their progress was thwarted by Mercilus, who forced a fumble after Fitzpatrick scrambled for four yards. FS Quintin Demps recovered at the Texans' 32-yard line with 3:12 remaining.

GAME 9: Houston 13, Chicago 6

62,410 • Soldier Field • Chicago, Ill. • Nov. 11, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

In a matchup of 7-1 teams, the Texans forced four turnovers and committed two of their own – all in the first half – against the Chicago Bears. Both teams had less than 250 yards of offense on a rainy, windy night at Soldier Field, but the Texans did just enough to emerge with a 13-6 victory.

Texans SS Danieal Manning had an interception and forced fumble in his return to Chicago, where he spent the first five seasons of his career. FS Glover Quin forced another fumble and CB Kareem Jackson had an interception. The Bears' defense had forced an NFL-best 28 turnovers heading into the game.

The Texans had a season-low 215 yards of offense. QB Matt Schaub threw for a season-low 95 yards and season-high two interceptions. RB Arian Foster scored the game's only touchdown on a 2-yard catch in the second quarter. Foster ran for 102 yards on 29 carries and had five catches for 15 yards, accounting for more than half of the Texans' offensive yardage.

The Texans knocked Bears QB Jay Cutler out of the game with a concussion in the second quarter. He went 7-of-14 for 40 yards, two interceptions and a 16.7 passer rating in the first half. Jason Campbell played the second half and was 11-of-19 for 94 yards.

Manning forced a fumble on the Bears' first play from scrimmage. Bears TE Kellen Davis gained 6 yards on a catch over the middle before Manning hit him with a jarring tackle, popping the ball loose. It was recovered by LB Tim Dobbins and returned 28 yards to the Chicago 28-yard line. The Texans wound up with a 20-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham.

The next four possessions ended with turnovers. First, Quin fored a fumble at the Houston 32-yard line after Bears RB Michael Bush ran for 11 yards up the middle on fourth-and-one. ILB Bradie James recovered at the 27-yard line.

Schaub was picked off by Bears CB Tim Jennings six plays later on a pass intended for rookie WR Keshawn Martin, who appeared to slip on the play. The Bears drove to the Houston 30-yard line, but Manning got the ball back for the Texans with an interception at the 6-yard line on a deep pass intended for Brandon Marshall.

Four plays later, Schaub was picked off by Jennings again, this time on a pass that sailed over Andre Johnson. The Bears converted the turnover into three points with a 51-yard field goal by Robbie Gould with 12:57 remaining in the second quarter.

Midway through the second quarter, the Texans put together a seven-play, 66-yard scoring drive, capped by Foster's touchdown catch. The score was set up by a 21-yard run by Foster and a 25-yard run by Justin Forsett that got the Texans into the red zone.

Cutler was picked off by Jackson at the Texans' 27-yard line with 1:23 remaining in the first half, securing a 10-3 halftime lead for the Texans.

The Texans had only 54 yards of offense in the second half. They didn't pick up a first down until the final minute of the third quarter on a 23-yard pass from Schaub to Kevin Walter. That came two plays after the Bears made it 10-6 with a 24-yard field goal.

The Bears almost made it a one-point game early in the fourth quarter, but Gould missed a 48-yard field goal off the left upright. The Texans then handed off to Foster five times for 17 yards, and Schaub hit TE Garrett Graham for an 11-yard catch to set up Shayne Graham for a 42-yard field goal that put the Texans up 13-6.

GAME 11: Houston 34, Detroit 31 (OT)

64,827 • Ford Field • Detroit, Mich. • Nov. 22, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans played almost 10 quarters of football in a five-day span and emerged with two victories.

Less than 96 hours after beating the Jacksonville Jaguars in overtime at Reliant Stadium, the Texans outlasted the Detroit Lions in a Thanksgiving Day thriller at Ford Field. K Shayne Graham made a 32-yard field goal with 2:25 remaining in overtime to win the game 34-31. The Texans became the first team in NFL history to win two overtime games in five days.

Both teams turned the ball over once and missed field goals in overtime after the game had gone to sudden death. Graham missed wide left from 51 yards with 9:43 remaining in the extra period. Lions K Jason Hanson was no good off the right upright from 47 yards with 4:35 remaining. Two minutes later, Graham rebounded with the fifth game-winner of his career.

Texans WR Andre Johnson had nine catches for 188 yards, outdueling Detroit's Calvin Johnson, who had eight catches for 140. DE J.J. Watt had three sacks and two passes defensed. Two of his sacks came on third down on back-to-back drives in the fourth quarter, both times knocking the Lions out of field goal range.

The Texans sent the game to overtime with a 15-play, 97-yard scoring drive in the closing minutes. Matt Schaub connected with Johnson four times for 64 yards on the drive before Arian Foster finished it off with a 1-yard touchdown run, tying the game at 31 with 1:55 remaining.

It was the second consecutive game in which the Texans scored a touchdown in the final two minutes to force overtime.

RB Justin Forsett scored on a controversial 81-yard touchdown in the third quarter that brought the Texans within 24-21. Forsett's knee and elbow hit the ground after an 8-yard gain, but the whistle never blew and he kept running all the way to the end zone. Because Lions head coach Jim Schwartz illegally challenged the play, it was not reviewable and the points remained on the board.

Playing without Pro Bowl CB Johnathan Joseph who was inactive with a hamstring injury, the Texans trailed 21-14 at halftime. Calvin Johnson had 103 receiving yards and Detroit QB Matthew Stafford had 246 passing yards in the first half, with touchdown passes to Johnson and WR Mike Thomas. Foster and TE Owen Daniels scored in the first half for the Texans. The Lions scored two rushing touchdowns in the game, the first two allowed by the Texans all season.

For the second-straight game, the Texans' defense struggled early but stepped up in crunch time. They allowed just 10 points on nine possessions after halftime. The Lions crossed midfield on each of their final six drives and came away with zero points.

On the first play of overtime, Stafford completed a 40-yard pass to Ryan Broyles to the Houston 40-yard line. The Lions then gained eight yards on a catch by TE Brandon Pettigrew, which would have put Hanson comfortably in field goal range, but FS Danieal Manning pried the ball loose for a fumble that was recovered by ILB Darryl Sharpton.

Graham missed his 51-yard attempt on the next drive, giving the Lions the ball at their own 41-yard line. Stafford completed a 14-yard pass to TE Tony Scheffler two plays later to the Houston 45, but the Texans did not allow another yard from there before forcing a punt.

Five plays later, Schaub was picked off at the Houston 43 by CB Chris Houston, who returned the ball to the 41. Scheffler caught a 14-yard pass to the 28. From there, NT Earl Mitchell tackled RB Joique Bell after a gain of two. Rookie OLB Whitney Mercilus tackled Bell for a 3-yard loss, pushing Hanson's field goal to a 47-yard attempt.

Hanson's miss kept the Texans alive, and they won the game six plays later. Schaub completed passes of 15 yards to FB James Casey, 23 yards to Johnson and 11 yards to Casey, to set up Graham for his game-winning field goal.
