COACHES CORNER

TOM COUGHLIN

NFL Record: 170-137 (Overall)

NFL Head Coach: 19th year

Tom Coughlin is one of the finest, most successful, and most admired coaches in NFL history.

His signature achievements are the Giants' victories against the New England Patriots in Super Bowls XLII and XLVI. Coughlin's 2-0 record in Super Bowls makes him the 13th head coach to win multiple Super Bowls and is one of 18 coaches with a perfect Super Bowl record.

Coughlin was named the 16th head coach in Giants history on January 6, 2004. This season marks Coughlin's eleventh with the Giants and nineteenth as an NFL head coach. Coughlin has the NFL's third-longest head coaching tenure with one team, behind New England's Bill Belichick (entering his 15th season with the team) and Cincinnati's Marvin Lewis (entering his 12th).

Coughlin's overall career record as a NFL head coach is 170-137. In his 10 years with the Giants, Coughlin is 98-73 overall. In the postseason Coughlin has produced a 12-7 record (.632), including victories in Super Bowl XLII & XLVI.

Last year, Coughlin passed Bill Parcells (77 regular-season victories) and moved into second place on the Giants' career coaching list. He finished the season with 83 victories and trails only Owen, who won a record 151 games as the Giants' head coach.

Coughlin's eight Giants postseason victories tie him with Parcells for the franchise record. Coughlin has led the Giants to two NFC East titles and five playoff berths in nine years.

BILL BELICHICK

NFL Record: 218-114 (Overall)

NFL Head Coach: 19th year

Bill Belichick is in his 40th season as an NFL coach and is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. Belichick leads all active head coaches and is currently ranked fifth on the NFL's all-time list with 218 total victories.

He is the eighth NFL coach to reach 200 career wins. Patriot's Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft hired Belichick on January 27, 2000.

Belichick has delivered New England three Super Bowl championships, five conference titles, 11 division crowns and 18 playoff victories, while posting an overall record of 181-69.

Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003) and XXXIX (2004), and in 2007 he became the first NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season.

Only one coach (Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll, 4) has won more Super Bowls than Belichick, and his three Super Bowl titles tie Washington's Joe Gibbs and San Francisco's Bill Walsh for second place on the NFL's all-time list. Belichick has led the Patriots to a winning record in each of the last 13 seasons.

Belichick's 13 consecutive winning seasons are third all-time, behind 20 by Tom Landry (1966-1985) and 14 by Curly Lambeau with Green Bay (1934-1947). In 2013, Belichick guided the Patriots to a 12-4 record, a division title and his eighth AFC Championship game appearance.

Belichick has the third-highest winning percentage among coaches with at least 150 wins, trailing only Hall of Famers George Halas (.682) and Don Shula (.667). Belichick's recent accomplishments are the latest triumphs in a career during which he has helped produce five Super Bowl titles.

Belichick launched his coaching career in 1975 with the Baltimore Colts and continued as an assistant. In 1991, Belichick was named head coach of the Cleveland Browns, becoming the NFL's youngest head coach (38).

GAME SUMMARIES

2014 PRESEASON REVIEW

GIANTS 17, BILLS 13

Aug. 3, 2014

Fawcett Stadium

The Giants defeated the Buffalo Bills, 17-13, in Fawcett Stadium in the annual Hall of Fame Game. Rookies Andre Williams (three-yard run) and Corey Washington (on a spectacular 73-yard catch-and-run) scored their only touchdowns. The starting offense and defense played only the first quarter.

But the Giants entered the game eager to gauge variables like tempo, execution and the play-calling communication between offensive coordinator Ben McAdoo and the three quarterbacks. They operate at a faster pace than they did in the past. The Giants went without a huddle on their second possession and scored a touchdown on their third. They averaged 5.0 yards a play for the game.

Eli Manning played the first three series and completed six of seven passes for 43 yards. He was also sacked once and lost a fumble on the play, which led to a Buffalo field goal. Manning said he was pleased with the communication from the sideline.

Ryan Nassib, the second-year pro who is battling Curtis Painter for the No. 2 job, took over in the second quarter and played into the fourth, long enough to throw the game-winning touchdown pass to Washington.

Nassib completed seven of 12 passes for 139 yards. In the third quarter, he threw a pass right to Buffalo linebacker Ross Cockrell, who returned it 12 yards. But the turnover was nullified by a roughing the passer penalty on Stefan Charles, who hit Nassib in the facemask.

GIANTS 20, STEELERS 16

Aug. 9, 2014

MetLife Stadium

For the second time in as many weeks, rookie free agent Corey Washington scored the game-winning touchdown in a Giants victory, catching a three-yard fade pass from Curtis Painter with 2:50 remaining in the fourth quarter, the final points in the Giants' 20-16 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

In their opener vs. Buffalo in the Hall of Fame Game, Washington made an acrobatic catch of a Ryan Nassib pass and turned it into a 73-yard touchdown, putting the Giants ahead for good in a 17-13 victory.

The Giants trailed, 16-13, when they drove from their own 20-yard line to the Pittsburgh three, where they had a first-and-goal. Running back Michael Cox was stopped for no gain on first and second down. On the next snap, Washington lined up on the left side, got a step on cornerback Isaiah Green and reached up to catch Painter's perfect throw. Painter completed all seven of his passes on the drive.

Washington finished the game with three receptions for 23 yards, tying Kendall Gaskins for the team-high in the former category and Travis Harvey in the latter.

2014 PRESEASON REVIEW

GIANTS 27, COLTS 26

Aug. 16, 2014

Lucas Oil Stadium

It was both an unfathomable, exhilarating victory and an unsettling cause for alarm.

Had it been played in September instead of August, the Giants' 27-26 preseason victory over the Indianapolis Colts in Lucas Oil Stadium would be remembered as one of the greatest comeback victories in franchise history. The Giants trailed early in the fourth quarter, 26-0, before rallying to score four touchdowns to win the game. For the third consecutive week, rookie wide receiver Corey Washington scored the go-ahead touchdown in the fourth quarter, this time on a four-yard pass from Ryan Nassib with 55 seconds remaining in the game.

Backup quarterbacks Curtis Painter and Nassib (who each threw a touchdown pass) and their fellow second and third-stringers engineered the comeback. That includes the defense, which made some key stops and scored a touchdown on Spencer Adkins' fumble recovery in the end zone. Tight end Kellen Davis scored on a three-yard pass from Painter and Michael Cox scored the fourth touchdown, on a two-yard run.

Eli Manning and his fellow offensive first-teamers played four series in the first half. They gained a total of 53 yards and each possession ended with a punt. Manning completed one of seven passes for six yards (though he did complete a 51-yarder to Victor Cruz, who lost a fumble before the play was nullified by a penalty). In the last two games, Manning has completed one pass in nine attempts. The Giants trailed at halftime, 20-0.

GIANTS 35, JETS 24

Aug. 16, 2014

Lucas Oil Stadium

Ryan Nassib threw 3 touchdowns in the second half and the Giants went on to defeat the Jets in the annual MetLife Bowl, 35-24. The Giants improved to 4-0 this preseason with a game remaining against New England.

The starters had made too few of them in the first three games, when they accounted for only two touchdowns and made punter Steve Weatherford one of the busiest players on the team. The unit has been subjected to persistent criticism in the media, and Coughlin challenged his first team to do more.

They responded with their best all-around performance of the summer. The running game was strong with Rashad Jennings rushing for 67 yards on 13 carries.

Manning's protection was better. But the true highlight was the two-minute drive at the end the half, which could be the catalyst the team has needed as it targets the regular-season opener in Detroit on Sept. 8.

Manning's seven completions on the drive included three to Jerrel Jernigan — who needed a personal boost as much as the team — three to Victor Cruz and the score to Randle.

Rashad Jennings gained seven yards and Manning's pass for Cruz fell incomplete, setting up a third-and-three at the Jets' 36. Manning flipped a short pass that Cruz turned into an 18-yard gain. Three plays later — and immediately after Brandon Mosley's false start penalty — Manning hit Rueben Randle for the much-needed score that seemed to energize the entire team.
