ALL-TIME SERIES

The Buccaneers and Patriots have met 10 times in the preseason, with Tampa Bay winning eight of the last nine contests. This year's meeting is the second in Foxborough, with the Bucs owning a 1-0 mark on the road in the series.

During the regular season, New England leads the series 5-2. The Buccaneers won, 21-16, at New England in the 2000 season opener. The Buccaneers also won, 27-7, in 1997 in Tampa. The first meeting between the two clubs was in the Bucs' first season in 1976, a 31-14 New England win in Tampa. The Patriots also captured wins in 1985 (32-14 in Tampa), 1988 (10-7 in overtime in New England), 2005 (28-0 in New England) and their last meeting in 2009 (35-7 in London).

LAST MEETING (PRESEASON)

Tampa Bay 30, New England 28

Friday, August 24, 2012

TAMPA – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers came out with a quick start during the third week of preseason play, building a lead that helped the team defeat the visiting New England Patriots, 30-28. On the game's opening drive, Buccaneers QB Josh Freeman and WR Vincent Jackson made quick work moving down the field, connecting three times for 49 yards, along with help from RB Doug Martin, who carried the ball in for the one-yard touchdown. With the score 7-0, the teams traded punts before Patriots QB Tom Brady was sacked by DE Michael Bennett, causing a fumble. Although New England recovered possession, Brady's next pass was tipped by S Ronde Barber, allowing rookie first-round pick S Mark Barron to intercept the ball and return it 22 yards for another touchdown and the 14-0 lead. The Patriots answered on the following drive, as RB Stevan Ridley put together several rushes and the eventual one-yard score. After another Tampa Bay punt, New England was stopped on fourth-and-one, turning the ball over to the Buccaneers at the New England 41. The Buccaneers offense took advantage of the defense's good work, putting together a drive that ended with a 56-yard field goal by K Connor Barth. As the clock wound toward the end of the first half, Tampa Bay, with possession of the ball again, put another three points on the board with a 51-yard field goal by K Kai Forbath, giving the Buccaneers a 20-7 lead at halftime. Forbath was able to show off his leg a second time following the break, this time completing a 55-yard attempt to make the score 23-7. The Patriots responded with a touchdown drive, as Brady connected with TE Rob Gronkowski on a 16-yard touchdown pass at the end of the third quarter. The fourth quarter opened with scoring drives for each team. Tampa Bay QB Dan Orlovsky first connected with WR Sammie Stroughter on an eight-yard touchdown pass, and then New England QB Ryan Mallett cut into the Buccaneers lead with a three-yard pass to WR Jeremy Ebert, bringing the score to 30-21. Following a Tampa Bay punt, the Patriots managed to score again, this time on a four-yard pass from Mallett to WR Jesse Holley. With only 45 seconds left in the game, New England attempted an onside kick, but Tampa Bay WR Tiquan Underwood recovered the ball, giving Orlovsky the chance to kneel and allow time to expire on the Buccaneers victory.

LAST MEETING (REGULAR SEASON)

New England 35, Tampa Bay 7

October 25, 2009

LONDON – Playing out of the country for the first time in team history during the regular season, Tampa Bay trailed New England by two touchdowns in London as it entered the second half but was unable to cut into the lead. The Patriots grabbed an early 7-0 lead on the Buccaneers first drive of the game as S Brandon Meriweather intercepted QB Josh Johnson and ran 39 yards for a touchdown. Tampa Bay entered New England territory on its next possession, but Johnson was again picked off by Meriweather to end the threat. New England increased its lead to 14-0 late in the first quarter as QB Tom Brady hit WR Wes Welker for a 14-yard touchdown. Early in the second quarter, New England threatened to increase its lead, but S Tanard Jackson picked off Brady in the end zone. However, the Buccaneers were forced to punt on the resulting possession and three plays later, Brady hit WR Sam Aiken on a short pass over the middle that he turned into a 54-yard catch-and-run for a score and a 21-0 lead for the Patriots. Tampa Bay got on the board just before halftime as Johnson hit WR Antonio Bryant for a 33-yard score to trim the lead to 21-7. New England went back up by three touchdowns on the first drive of the second half as Brady hit TE Ben Watson for a 35-yard touchdown for the only scoring of the third quarter. Following a 10-play, 89-yard drive early in the fourth quarter, the Patriots put the game away as RB Laurence Maroney ran in from one yard out to make the score 35-7. Following the Patriots final score, rookie QB Josh Freeman made his professional debut as he engineered the Buccaneers final two drives.

2013 SLATE

The Buccaneers 2013 schedule will feature five games against teams that finished the 2012 season with a record of .500 or better, and five games against teams that made the 2012 playoffs, including a game against the NFC Champion 49ers. Tampa Bay will face off against the NFC West and AFC East, as well as the Philadelphia Eagles (home) of the NFC East and the NFC North's Detroit Lions (away). The schedule is based on a formula that was implemented with realignment in 2002 that includes home and away games against the three divisional opponents, four games against teams from another division within its conference on a rotating three-year cycle, four games against teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating four-year cycle and two intraconference games based on the prior year's standings against teams from the same conference divisions that are not scheduled to play that season.

FRESH FACES

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers entered this offseason looking to improve their roster and came out of it with several key acquisitions that will benefit the team and help with the development of the team's young talent. Among the most notable acquisitions, the Bucs traded for CB Darrelle Revis, signed S Dashon Goldson, LB Jonathan Casillas, TE Tom Crabtree, RB Brian Leonard and WR Kevin Ogletree.

CB Darrelle Revis spent the last six seasons with the New York Jets, starting all 79 games he played in, totaling 325 tackles, 102 passes defensed, 19 interceptions for 364 yards and three touchdowns, six fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and a sack. The 2009 AFC Defensive Player of the Year, Revis is widely considered one of the top players at his position, earning All-Pro honors three consecutive years (2009-11) and four consecutive Pro Bowl selections (2008-11). From 2007-11, Revis led a Jets secondary that ranked first in the NFL in opponent completion percentage, second in passing yards and passing touchdowns allowed, and fourth in opponent passer rating. During his 2009 AFC Defensive Player of the Year campaign, Revis recorded 31 passes defensed, the most in a single season in NFL history. As a rookie in 2007, he was named to the Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team.

S Dashon Goldson comes to Tampa Bay after six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, starting the final 62 games of his tenure there. He has recorded 443 tackles, 36 passes defensed, 14 interceptions for 152 yards and one touchdown, five forced fumbles, four fumbles and three sacks. Goldson comes to Tampa Bay after back-to-back Pro Bowl selections, and being named to his first career All-Pro team. His 14 interceptions since 2009 are tied for the fourth-most in the NFL by a safety and tied for the 10th-most in the league. Since being named a starter in 2009, Goldson helped lead a San Francisco defense that ranked in the top 5 in the league in yards allowed, rush yards allowed, points allowed and forced fumbles, while also ranking in the top 10 in interceptions.

LB Jonathan Casillas spent the first four seasons of his career with the New Orleans Saints, including as a member of the Saints Super Bowl XLIV championship team. He has played in 38 games, with seven starts, registering 112 tackles, four passes defensed, three sacks, two fumble recoveries and 21 special teams tackles.

TE Tom Crabtree joins the Buccaneers after three seasons in Green Bay, where he was a member of the Packers Super Bowl XLV championship team. A starter in 16-of-46 career games, Crabtree tallied 18 receptions for 302 yards and four touchdowns. Primarily a blocker for his first two seasons, Crabtree had his best season as a receiver in 2012, catching eight passes for 203 yards and three touchdowns, all career-highs. His 49.0 yard average on his three touchdowns ranked him second in the league among players with three or more touchdown receptions.

RB Brian Leonard spent the past four seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals after playing with the St. Louis Rams for his first two years in the league. During his career, he has played in 71 games with eight starts, recording 174 rushes for 646 yards and 113 reception for 814 yards and one touchdown, while also contributing 24 special teams tackles. Leonard had the second-most rushes and rushing yards of his career in 2012, playing in 15 regular season games and one playoff contest.

WR Kevin Ogletree spent the last four seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, playing in 46 games, tallying 57 receptions for 730 yards and four touchdowns. He had his best season as a pro in 2012, playing in 15 games and catching 32 passes for 436 yards and four touchdowns, all career-highs. He had his first career 100-yard game and his first multi-touchdown game in the season opener against the New York Giants, finishing the game with eight receptions for 114 yards and two touchdowns.

PRO BOWL BUCS

Tampa Bay's current roster features eight players who have been named to the Pro Bowl in their careers, including S Dashon Goldson, WR Vincent Jackson, RB Doug Martin, DT Gerald McCoy, G Davin Joseph, G Carl Nicks, T Donald Penn and CB Darrelle Revis.

Last season, the Buccaneers were represented by McCoy, Jackson and Martin at the annual all-star game. The three Pro Bowl selections were the most for the Bucs since 2008 (4).

Last year's selection marked the first time that McCoy earned a Pro Bowl trip. McCoy became the first Buccaneers defensive lineman to make the Pro Bowl since 2003, when DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp were chosen to the all-star game. McCoy joins Rice, Sapp, Dave Pear (1978) and Lee Roy Selmon (1979-84) as the only defensive linemen to be named to the Pro Bowl in team history.

Jackson earned his third career Pro Bowl selection (2009, 2011, 2012) last season, and his first as a Buccaneer. Jackson is the first Buccaneers wide receiver to make the Pro Bowl since 2003, when WR Keenan McCardell was chosen to the all-star game. Jackson joins McCardell, Keyshawn Johnson (2001) and Mark Carrier (1989) as the only wide receivers to be named to the Pro Bowl in team history.

In his rookie season, Martin earned his first career Pro Bowl selection. Martin was the first Buccaneers rookie to make the Pro Bowl since 2008, when Clifton Smith was chosen as the NFC Kick Returner. Martin is the fourth Buccaneer running back to be chosen for the all-star game, joining Mike Alstott (1997-02), Warrick Dunn (1997, 2000) and James Wilder (1984).

This offseason, the Buccaneers acquired two more Pro Bowl players in S Dashon Goldson and CB Darrelle Revis.

Goldson comes to Tampa Bay from San Francisco, where he made the Pro Bowl roster in 2011 and 2012. In 2011, Goldson intercepted six passes, tied for the second-most in the NFL.

One of the top players at his position in the NFL, Revis made four consecutive Pro Bowls (2008-11) before getting injured last season. He set a single-season NFL record with 31 passes defensed in 2009, and had the most passes defensed in the league from 2008-11

Arguably the best guard tandem in the NFL, Nicks (2010-11), and Joseph (2008, 2011) have each been selected to two Pro Bowls. Penn represented the Buccaneers as he made his first trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2010 season.

Tampa Bay made six selections in the 2013 NFL Draft. Below are quick looks at the newest members of the Buccaneers.

CB Johnthan Banks was selected in the second round (43rd overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Buccaneers. He is the fourth player from Mississippi State University to be selected by Tampa Bay and is one of two cornerbacks to be selected out of Mississippi State in the second round of the 2013 NFL Draft. At Mississippi State, he started 45-of-51 career games, including every game in his final two seasons. As a senior in 2012, Banks won the Jim Thorpe Award (Best Defensive Back), and was a semifinalist for both the Chuck Bednarik Award (Top Defensive Player) and the Ronnie Lott IMPACT Trophy. Throughout his four-year career, Banks recorded 221 tackles, 26 passes defensed, 16 interceptions, four sacks, four forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. Prior to the 2012 campaign, he was selected to the watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and the Paul Hornung Award. He served as a team captain his senior year, totaling 63 tackles, seven passes defensed, four interceptions, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

QB Mike Glennon was the 73rd overall selection of the 2013 NFL Draft, taken by the Buccaneers in the third round. From 2008-2012, Glennon played in 36 games and started his final 26 at North Carolina State. He finished his career ranked in the top five in passing touchdowns (third), pass completions (third), passing yards (fourth) and passing attempts (fourth) in N.C. State history. He also ranks tied for the ninth-most career touchdown passes in Atlantic Coast Conference history. As a senior, Glennon completed 330-of-564 passes for 4,031 yards and 31 touchdowns, earning him a place in the 2013 Senior Bowl. After his junior season, Glennon was selected as an Academic All-ACC member and earned a spot on the ACC's Academic Honor Roll. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in business management, as well as a master's degree in liberal studies.

DT Akeem Spence was selected by Tampa Bay in the fourth round (100th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft. At the University of Illinois, Spence started in all 38 games that he played in for the Illini. Spence, who entered the draft following his junior season, recorded career totals of 186 tackles, 17.5 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and 26 quarterback pressures. During his junior season, he recorded personal bests in tackles (72) and tackles for loss (7.0). His performance earned him second-team All-Big Ten honors from Phil Steele. In 2010, Spence was named a Freshman All-American by College Football News, the FWAA, Phil Steele and Rivals.com.

DE William Gholston was drafted in the fourth round (126th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Buccaneers. A three-year letter-winner at Michigan State University, Gholston finished his career ranked 10th in school history in tackles for loss (30.0).. In 36 career games, including 24 starts, Gholston accumulated 142 tackles and 10.0 sacks. He was a 2012 second-team All-Big Ten selection and a quarterfinalist for the Lombardi Award (College Lineman of the Year). As a junior, he led all FBS defensive linemen with 10 pass break-ups and led the Spartans with 4.5 sacks.

DE Steven Means was selected by the Buccaneers in the fifth round (147th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft. Means was a four-year contributor at the University at Buffalo, totaling 185 tackles, 18.5 sacks, two interceptions, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles. His 18.5 career sacks rank him fourth in Buffalo history, while his 29.5 tackles for loss rank 10th. In 2012, Means was named All-MAC second team, with 77 tackles, 11 sacks, and 6.5 tackles for loss.

RB Mike James was drafted in the sixth round (189th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. James played in 50 games for the University of Miami, including 17 starts. He recorded 312 career rushes for 1,386 yards (4.4 avg.) and 17 touchdowns, while catching 67 passes for 585 yards and five touchdowns. James started all 12 games his senior season, registering a career-best 621 rushing yards. He was one of only 11 FBS players named to the 2012 AFCA Allstate Good Works Team and received the University of Miami's Community Service Man of the Year Award, Captain's Award, Melching Leadership Award and the Jack Harding Team Most Valuable Player. In 2011, James recorded a career-high eight total touchdowns, including seven rushing and one receiving.

BILL WALSH NFL MINORITY FELLOWSHIP COACHES

Tampa Bay will continue its longstanding relationship with the NFL's Minority Fellowship Program during this year's Training Camp. The Buccaneers have enjoyed repeated success working with the NFL, both with participants in the program and hiring graduates of the NFL program.

Established in 1987, the BILL WALSH NFL MINORITY COACHING FELLOWSHIP provides NFL training camp positions to minority coaches every year. The program, which was named after the man who conceived the idea – late Pro Football Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh – exposes talented minority college coaches to the methods and philosophies of summer NFL training camps. Walsh introduced the concept to the League in 1987 when he brought a group of minority coaches into his San Francisco 49ers' training camp.

As a part of Training Camp coaching staffs, the fellowship coaches perform duties that mirror those of full-time NFL assistant coaches. They become working members of NFL staffs for the summer and are responsible for specific assignments, including planning and directing workouts, formulating scrimmage and preseason game strategies, breaking down videotape, and evaluating players. More than 1,500 coaches have worked in the Training Camps of NFL teams since the program's inception in 1987.

This year, the Buccaneers' two Bill Walsh NFL Minority Fellowship Program coaches are David Rowe and Gunnard Twyner.

2013 MINORITY FELLOWSHIP INTERNS

DAVID ROWE

David Rowe will be the Buccaneers defensive intern for the 2013 season. Rowe is a former defensive back who played collegiately at Rutgers University from 2008-2012 under Buccaneers Head Coach Greg Schiano. He received a Bachelor's Degree in Communication in 2012.

At Rutgers, Rowe was a three-year starter, playing both cornerback and safety. He recorded 154 career tackles, five interceptions, 16 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries, while playing in 50 consecutive games.

Prior to his current position with the Buccaneers, Rowe was a volunteer high school football coach at Cocoa High School (Cocoa, Florida) from May 2012 through November 2012. He instructed players at numerous positions in schemes and techniques, as well as with strength and conditioning.

Rowe grew up in Cocoa, Florida and attended Cocoa High School. While at Cocoa High School, Rowe played six different positions for the football team, including free safety, cornerback, quarterback, wide receiver, running back and kick returner. His brother, James, is currently the wide receivers coach at Jacksonville University and was previously the cornerbacks coach at Bethel University.

GUNNARD TWYNER

Gunnard Twyner will be the Buccaneers offensive intern. He currently serves as the wide receivers coach for Western Illinois University, his alma mater.

Prior to joining Western Illinois, Twyner interned for the Indianapolis Colts in 2009 as a part of the NFL Minority Internship program.

Twyner began his coaching career as the wide receivers coach at Estero High School (Estero, Florida; 2002-03), before moving to Seneca Valley High School (Germantown, Maryland; 2003-05). After three seasons at Seneca Valley, Twyner took over as the offensive coordinator at Churchill High School (Potomac, Maryland; 2005-06). Twyner was named head coach of John F. Kennedy High School in 2006, holding the position for two seasons, and helping turn the program around. After four consecutive losing seasons, Twyner led John F. Kennedy to back-to-back 10 win seasons, earning 2006 Maryland High School Coach of the Year Honors.

Before coaching, Twyner spent eight years playing professionally. He entered the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals in 1997 as a college free agent, before joining the New Orleans Saints later that season, where he played wide receiver from 1997-1999. After spending the 2000 offseason with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Twyner joined the Tampa Bay Storm of the Arena Football League. He played for the Storm from 2001-03, before finishing his career with the Columbus Destroyers (2003-04).

Twyner played collegiately at Western Illinois University, earning first-team All-Gateway Conference selection three times, and setting a conference record for most consecutive games with a reception (33). Twyner graduated from Western Illinois in 1996.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS HEAD COACH GREG SCHIANO

Greg Schiano enters his second season as head coach in 2013, having been named the ninth head coach in team history on January 27, 2012.

In his first season leading Tampa Bay, Schiano's impact was evident in all three phases of the game while instilling a culture change within the organization. He transformed a team that had lost its final 10 games of 2011 into a competitive 7-9 club – tied for second place in the NFC South – with seven of those losses being decided by one score or less. Schiano's seven wins in his debut season marked the second-most by a Buccaneers first-year head coach.

The Buccaneers offense blossomed under Schiano, becoming the most prolific in franchise history by setting team records for most points, yards, touchdowns, passing yards and passing touchdowns.

Quarterback Josh Freeman became the first passer in team history to eclipse the 4,000-yard passing mark with a team-record 4,065 yards, while throwing for a Buccaneers record 27 touchdowns. Freeman also set franchise highs with 35 passes of 25+ yards and 185 first-down passes.

Wide receiver Vincent Jackson, who Schiano lured to Tampa Bay as a free agent in March, earned a Pro Bowl selection following the 2012 season. Jackson recorded the second-most receiving yards in a single season in team history (1,384), which ranked fifth in the NFL in 2012. He also led the league in yards per catch (19.2) and first-down catch percentage (84.7), while his 17 receptions of 25+ were the most in team history.

Rookie running back Doug Martin, selected by Schiano and General Manager Mark Dominik with the 31st pick in the 2012 NFL Draft, also paid immediate dividends while earning Pro Bowl honors. Martin recorded the second-most rushing yards (1,454), scrimmage yards (1,926) and total touchdowns (12) in a single season in franchise history, as well as tying for the second-most rushing touchdowns in a single season in team history (11). All were franchise rookie records. Martin's 1,926 yards from scrimmage were the third-most in the NFL and was the third-highest total for a rookie in league history.

Schiano took a Buccaneers defensive unit that ranked last against the run in 2011 and transformed it immediately. Tampa Bay finished 2012 with the No. 1-ranked rush defense in the NFL, both in yards per carry (3.5) and yards allowed per game (82.5), a mark which also stands as the best in Buccaneers history. The worst-to-first turnaround was the first of its kind since the 1970 NFL merger.

That rush defense was anchored by defensive tackle Gerald McCoy, who under Schiano's tutelage, earned his first career Pro Bowl selection, and rookie linebacker Lavonte David, who was selected to the All-Rookie Team. David finished seventh in the NFL in total tackles, second in solo tackles and third in tackles for loss. His 20.0 tackles for loss were the most by an NFL rookie since 2001. In addition to Martin and David, safety Mark Barron, the Buccaneers first selection in the 2012 NFL Draft, earned All-Rookie Team honors, giving Tampa Bay the distinction as the only club to have three position players selected.

On special teams, the Buccaneers set a franchise record and led the NFL with three blocked punts, which resulted in a league-leading 17 points, including one returned for a touchdown. Linebacker Dekoda Watson was responsible for two of the blocks, becoming just the third player in the last six seasons to have more than one. Punter/Kickoff Specialist Michael Koenen ranked first in the NFL in touchback percentage, while kicker Connor Barth led the league with field goals of 40 yards or longer.

Schiano joined the Buccaneers after serving as the head coach of Rutgers University for 11 years, where he transformed the Scarlet Knights from an unknown into a consistently winning and respected program.

During his tenure, Schiano's teams and players rewrote the Rutgers record book. His teams set single-season school marks for passing yards, passing touchdowns, receiving yards, receptions, rush yards and rushing touchdowns. His players also hold the top spots in career passing yards, passing touchdowns, receiving yards, receptions, receiving touchdowns, 100-yard receiving games, rushing yards and rushing touchdowns.

Under his leadership, Rutgers – which had advanced to a postseason bowl just once in the team's previous 135-year history – developed a new tradition of not only competing in, but also winning, bowl games. In his final seven seasons with the team, Schiano's Scarlet Knights qualified for six bowls and recorded five consecutive bowl victories.

Rutgers' rise to national prominence under Schiano began in the 2005 season, where the team made its first postseason bowl appearance since 1978. In 2006, the Scarlet Knights took the next step, putting together a sensational season, winning 11 games and concluding with a No. 12 ranking in the national polls and a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, the first bowl championship in school history.

For his architecture of such a prodigious turnaround, Schiano was honored with 2006 Coach of the Year accolades from every major college football awards outlet, including the Football Writers Association of America, The Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Maxwell Club, and the titles of Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year, Home Depot National Coach of the Year and Big East Coach of the Year.

Schiano's aptitude for developing young players has translated into NFL success for many of his former charges. He was responsible for developing 18 NFL draft picks as Rutgers' head coach, including 14 in the last six drafts. During his years coaching collegiately, Schiano helped produce nearly 60 players who went on to professional careers.

In 2009, WR Kenny Britt became Rutgers' inaugural first-round NFL Draft pick when he was selected by the Tennessee Titans with the 30th overall pick. Britt was the first of a school-record five Scarlet Knights selected in that year's draft. The next year, Schiano's players continued to make their names known, with two men – T Anthony Davis (San Francisco, 11th overall) and CB Devin McCourty (New England, 27th overall) – being selected in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

Other notable current and former professional players groomed under Schiano's leadership include RB Ray Rice, LB Gary Brackett, LB Jonathan Vilma, S Ed Reed, and LB Dan Morgan, among others. In 2010, 32 of Schiano's Scarlet Knights played on an NFL roster, including seven players from the 2009 squad.

Three former Rutgers players from Schiano's tenure have earned Super Bowl rings over the past seven years. Rice was chosen to his third Pro Bowl in leading Baltimore to a Super Bowl XLVII victory, Brackett served as a captain of the Super Bowl XLI Champion Indianapolis Colts, and Darnell Stapleton started at right guard on Pittsburgh's Super Bowl XLIII Championship team.

Schiano is known for impacting more than simply his players' performances on the field, however, as he accrued a reputation while at Rutgers for attracting high-character students and pushing his team to academic success. Rutgers football achieved the nation's No. 1 ranking in Academic Progress Rate in 2010, and the nation's No. 2 mark in 2011. For the fourth consecutive year, the Rutgers football team was ranked in the top three nationally in multi-year APR rates, becoming the only university in the entire nation to earn that prestigious honor.

Prior to heading up Rutgers' program, Schiano served two seasons (1999-00) as defensive coordinator with the Miami Hurricanes. While with the Hurricanes, the team posted a 20-5 record, including an 11-1 mark, the No. 2 ranking and a Sugar Bowl victory in 2000.

The 'Canes showed rapid improvement under Schiano, as the team closed out the 1999 season by not allowing a passing touchdown in 27 quarters and was ranked 12th nationally in scoring defense (17.2). In 2000, Miami surrendered just 15.5 points per game, the fifth-best mark in the nation and the fewest allowed by any team in the Big East. In those two seasons, Schiano also helped the team to finish in the top five in total takeaways, amassing 35 in 1999 (third in the nation) and 33 in 2000 (fifth in the nation).

Schiano served three seasons in the NFL with the Chicago Bears as a defensive assistant (1996-97) and later defensive backfield coach (1998), and also spent six seasons at Penn State as a graduate assistant (1990) and defensive backfield coach (1991-95).

Since coming to Tampa, Schiano and his family have quickly dove into the local community, working with Hillsborough County Public Schools, the Pepin Academy, Metropolitan Ministries and All-Pro Dads, while continuing his long-time association with Athletes in Action.

Schiano – born in Wyckoff, N.J. on June 1, 1966 – is a 1988 graduate of Bucknell University, where he was a three-year letterman at linebacker. He and his wife, Christy, are the proud parents of four children: Joey, John, Matt and Lena Kate.

NEW ENGLAND HEAD COACH BILL BELICHICK

Bill Belichick is in his 39th season as an NFL coach and is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl championships in a four-year span. In 2007, he became the first NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season. He was hired by Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft on Jan. 27, 2000 and is in his 14th season as Patriots head coach in 2013.

In his 13 seasons in New England, Belichick has delivered three Super Bowl championships, five conference titles, 10 division crowns and 17 playoff victories. He has won more regular-season games (126) and more games overall (140) during a ten-year stretch (2003-2012) than any other head coach in NFL history. Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003) and XXXIX (2004), and claimed the 2007 and 2011 AFC Championship. New England's 14 playoff victories in the 2000s are tied for the highest total in any decade in NFL history. Additionally, Belichick currently ranks sixth all-time with 205 total victories as a head coach. His winning percentage of .653 ranks third in NFL history among coaches with 150 or more wins, trailing only Hall of Famers George Halas (.682) and Don Shula (.666).

In 2012, Belichick guided the Patriots to a 12-4 record, their fourth straight AFC East division title and their 10th playoff appearance in his 13 seasons as New England's head coach. Belichick also became the eighth head coach to win at least 200 games in NFL history.

2013 PRESEASON SCHEDULE

Tampa Bay kicked off its preseason schedule on Thursday, August 8, as the Buccaneers matched up with the defending Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens. Despite an early 13-7 lead, the Ravens left with a 44-16 victory. It was the first ever preseason match-up between the two teams.

In Week 2, the Buccaneers will travel to the northeast to battle the Patriots, in a preview of one of their 2013 regular-season games. The game will be nationally televised by FOX on Friday, August 16 at 8 p.m. ET. Tampa Bay holds an 8-2 advantage in its preseason series against New England, including a 1-0 lead when playing in Foxborough, having won its lone game as the away team, 31-21, in 2000.

Week 3 (Saturday, August 24) finds Tampa Bay at Miami in an intrastate matchup that continues the Buccaneers' longest-running preseason series. The game marks the 13th consecutive season and 28th time overall that the two clubs have faced each other in preseason play. Miami leads the overall series, 16-11, but Tampa Bay has bested the Dolphins in seven of the last 11 preseason bouts, including a 17-13 victory in 2011 and a 20-7 win in 2012.

The Buccaneers close out their preseason schedule hosting the Washington Redskins in Week 4 (Thursday, August 29). It is the first time since the 2002 season that Washington has traveled to Raymond James Stadium in the preseason.
