POST GAME NOTES & QUOTES

Miami Dolphins vs. New England Patriots, October 21, 1984 at Sullivan Stadium Foxboro, MA

- 1. New England punter Luke Prestridge had an 89 yard punt which was the 4th longest in NFL history. It set a new Patriots club record, the old record was held by Bob Scapitto at Denver, September 29, 1968.
- 2. New England wide receiver Stanley Morgan continued his club record for 100 yard reception games with 114 yards today. This makes the 21st game in which Morgan has caught passes for more than 100 yards.
- 3. New England quarterback Tony Eason had his second 300 yard game today with 19 completions in 29 attempts for 313 yards and 3 touchdowns.
- 4. Miami quarterback Dan Marino passed former Dolphin quarterback and today's NBC color commentator Bob Griese's club record of 22 passing touchdowns in a single season with 4 touchdowns today. Marino now has 24 passing touchdowns this season with half the season still to go.
- 5. Miami's offensive output today broke several Patriots club records. The Dolphins racked up 32 first downs today (15 passing, 15 rushing and 2 by penalty). The old record for most 1st downs allowed was 30 vs the Jets (Sept. 19, 1982) and vs Minnesota (Dec. 16, 1979). The total number of yards allowed today (552) was also a Patriots club record (316 passing, 236 rushing), the old record was against Houston (540) on Oct. 13, 1961.

New England Head Coach Ron Meyer

We had an extremely difficult time containing Miami's offense. They have an outstanding football team, an outstanding quarterback and outstanding players surrounding him. The Dolphins are the most explosive outfit in the NFL today.

The number of punts today was indicative of the type of game it was, basically a track meet going up and down the field.

They (Miami) have enough offense to say grace over all day long. They are an excellent, excellent football team.

Mosi Tatupu came out for Tony Collins because he was tired. He had a long day and performed very well as he always does. Tony was devastated by his fumble which is natural.

Miami Head Coach Don Shula

We are very aware of what New England has been doing in the second half. We had a great drive in the beginning of the 3rd quarter which ate up the clock.

Marino did today as he's been doing all year long in making big plays and fitting them in there.

New England is a good team people-wise. We're glad that we're 8-0 at this stage of the season, but what's even better is that we're 3 games up on the Patriots half way through the year.

New England Linebacker Steve Nelson

They are a good football team made of good players. They can be stopped but we didn't do it today. Marino was "on" today and they knew where to attack us. They are a well coached team.

New England Defensive End Ken Sims

They are a well balanced and well coached team and they don't make many mistakes. We weren't able to force them into making mistakes today. They executed very well and did a good job of mix-ing it up.

New England Quarterback Tony Eason

Miami is a very fine offensive team.

We came back a few times but they kept sticking it down our throats. On my 76 yard TD pass to Stanley (Morgan), we had to get on the board, Stanley managed to get by a couple of guys and I threw it as far as I could. Stanley just ran under it.
