St. Louis Cardinals vs New England Patriots, Sunday, December 2, 1984
@ Sullivan Stadium, Foxboro, Massachusetts

H-back Derrick Ramsey had 4 receptions today to break Stanley Morgan's previous Patriots team record for most receptions in a single season. Ramsey now has 59 receptions this season so far.

Andre Tippett had 1 sack today to break Tony McGee's previous Patriots team record for most sacks in a single season. Since sack statistics have been maintained (1972 season) 13½ sacks had been the team record. Tippett now has 14½ sacks so far this season.

Quarterback Tony Eason had 16 pass completions today to break Babe Parelli's previous team record for most completions in a single season. Eason now has 238 pass completions in 354 attempts so far this season.

Craig James 73 yard run today was the longest run from scrimmage this year and the longest run since Robert Weathers 77 yard run in the opening game of the 1983 season against the then-Baltimore Colts.

St. Louis returned a Craig James fumble today for a touchdown. The last time an opponent returned a fumble for a touchdown was at Denver when the Broncos recovered a Tatupu fumble for a game-winning touchdown in the closing minute of play.

Cardinals Head Coach Jim Hanifan

We feel we have a pretty good running attack, so we wanted to run the ball and it paid off. Our offensive line made it possible and our tight end did a great job of blocking on the run.

We made good plays on their drops (fumbles). Their turnovers killed them.

We didn't want to get in an overkill situation, but they did.

Patriots Head Coach Raymond Berry

It was a complete loss: offense, defense and special teams.

I told the squad that we have met the enemy and it is us.

We had some critical plays that left us in the hole and consistently had poor field position.

Our execution was extremely poor throughout the football game and we were not consistent.

The Cardinals played well and deserved to win today.

Their running back Anderson is a fine back and Lomax made some key plays.
