Gillette STADIUM

www.GilletteStadium.com @GilletteStadium

Gillette Stadium, home of the New England Patriots, is the region's premier sports and entertainment venue. Since opening in 2002, every ticketed Patriots home game has sold out and fans have enjoyed more regular season and postseason victories than any other team in the NFL. In 21 seasons, the venue has hosted more than 12 million football fans attending Patriots games and been the site of seven AFC Championship games – six of them being Patriots victories. During that span, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home with an overall record of 153-39, including a 19-4 playoff record in Foxborough.

The 2023 season marks the beginning of a new era for Gillette Stadium as the venue enters its third decade with the unveiling of the most dramatic improvements since its opening in 2002. This multi-faceted, complete re-imagining of the north end of the stadium is highlighted by a new and enhanced 218-foot lighthouse with a 360-degree observation deck, the largest outdoor curved-radius video board at a sports venue in the country, a completely reimagined Enel Plaza with a grand staircase leading onto the concourse, an enhanced Row of Honor, 360-degree connection on the upper concourse, and new concession locations, restrooms, and other fan amenities. It also includes the G-P Atrium, a new year-round premium hospitality and function space available exclusively to season ticket members on game day, and the Bud Light Celebration Beer Hall, an indoor/outdoor field-level hospitality space that gives members unprecedented access to watch the Patriots as they walk from their locker room through the tunnel before accessing the game field. Coupled with the reimagined south end zone that was unveiled for the 2021 season, the Kraft family has invested $250 million in Gillette Stadium, completely reimagining the north and south ends of the stadium to keep the venue on the cutting edge and continually enhance the fan experience.

LIGHTHOUSE: Gillette Stadium's signature lighthouse has a whole new look beginning with the 2023 season. Measuring 218 feet tall and featuring a 360-degree observation deck with views of neighboring Foxborough center, the Boston and Providence skylines and beyond, the lighthouse towers over the north end of the Enel Plaza and interior of Gillette Stadium. In addition to creating new game day traditions, the lighthouse serves as a beacon for the New England community. Guests visiting Gillette Stadium and Patriot Place on non-game days also have the opportunity to ascend to the top of the lighthouse to take in the panoramic views and capture one-of-a-kind keepsake photos, allowing them to enjoy the stadium and the surrounding area in a whole new way.

VIDEO BOARD: After 2021 saw the installation of a new and 50 percent larger video board in the south end zone, the north end zone now features the largest outdoor curved-radius video board at a sports venue in the country. This 22,000 square-foot video board stretches the length of the stadium's north end, creating an unparalleled second screen experience to enjoy game action, replays, statistics and more.

GILLETTE STADIUM QUICK HITS

Stadium Opened	2002
Capacity	64,628
Putnam Club Seats	5,876
Luxury Suites	92
Height of Lighthouse	218 feet (22 stories)
Size of G-P Atrium	50,000 square feet
HD Video Boards	2 (370' x 60' and 220' x 53')
Concession Locations	550+
Stadium Footprint	17.3 acres
Stadium Area	1.9 million square feet

ENHANCED ROW OF HONOR: The Row of Honor has been expanded to eight permanent seats, features a new digital video board to best honor those in attendance and will be activated at all ticketed stadium events. Servicemembers invited to be seated in the Row of Honor will continue to be recognized and introduced to the crowd during games with an announcement.

HOSPITALITY AND FUNCTION SPACES: The reimagined north end of the stadium also features new hospitality and function spaces, as well as four new luxury suites, giving all levels of the stadium 360-degree connectivity. The 50,000 square-foot, glass-enclosed G-P Atrium encapsulates the 218-foot signature lighthouse and is the Patriots largest game day hospitality space to open since 2002. Additionally, the new Bud Light Celebration Beer Hall is the newest indoor/outdoor hospitality space at Gillette Stadium. Located in the northeast corner of the stadium, this new field-level club offers members unprecedented access to watch the team as they walk from their locker room to the field, as well as an open air patio to take in the game action.

FAN EXPERIENCE: These enhancements were all made with the fan experience at the forefront. Along with a completely reimagined Enel Plaza with a grand staircase leading onto the concourse, the reimagined north end of the stadium features new and improved concession locations, restrooms and other fan amenities.

Gillette Stadium is also the home of Major League Soccer's New England Revolution and annually hosts international soccer matches, NCAA athletics, professional lacrosse, Feld Motor Sports and high school football state championships. The stadium also hosted the 2016 NHL Winter Classic and will host the 2023 Army- Navy Game and 2026 FIFA Men's World Cup matches. Gillette Stadium is one of the world's top grossing concert venues according to Billboard, and has hosted the biggest acts in music, including Taylor Swift, Kenny Chesney, the Rolling Stones, Bruce Springsteen, Billy Joel, Elton John, Coldplay and Beyoncé, just to name a few. The venue also served as the northeast's first large-scale COVID-19 vaccination site. The site, operated by CIC Health, administered more than 610,000 vaccinations over 148 days of operation in early 2021.

GILLETTE STADIUM FUN FACTS

Continued Investment
The Kraft family invested $300 million in Gillette Stadium enhancements in the venue's first 20 years. The new north end enhancements, coupled with the 2021 south end renovations, marks an additional $250 million investment.

The Height of Design
The stadium's new, more prominent signature lighthouse in the north end zone rises 22 stories above the playing field, towering over the stadium itself, which is 16 stories tall. The 218-foot lighthouse is the tallest lighthouse in the United States.

New View
The lighthouse features a 360-degree observation deck with views of neighboring Foxborough center, the Boston and Providence skylines and beyond.

Long Way to the Top
The Lantern Room at the top of the lighthouse can be accessed via a 34-second elevator ride. There are also 372 interior stairs.

On the Big Screen
The new north end zone videoboard measures 22,000 square feet, making it the largest outdoor curved-radius videoboard at a sports venue in the country. Combined with the south end zone videoboard, the new half-acre north end zone board gives Gillette Stadium three-quarters of an acre of video scoreboards, providing ample space to enjoy game action, replays, statistics and more.

Bridging the Gap
The new north end hospitality and function space, highlighted by the G-P Atrium, bridges the gap between the Putnam Clubs, the Dell Technology Suite Levels and the upper concourse, giving all levels of the stadium 360-degree connectivity.

Quite a Club
The east and west Putnam Clubs at Gillette Stadium are each larger than a football field, with cathedral ceilings three stories high and floor-to-ceiling glass walls providing end zone to end zone views of the field.

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to bring the Patriots story to life. Its incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery has undergone renovations and houses all six Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those championships. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

"One of the greatest things about sports is the bond players and fans share. You feel like you've lived through the same experiences and share the same memories. That was one of our motivations in building The Hall. We wanted to create a place where our fans and alumni could visit and relive those moments together. We wanted to preserve the legacy of this franchise and give our greatest players the most prominent display of any hall of fame in the world."

— ROBERT KRAFT

The experience begins as visitors enter an elevator on the ground floor and hear a voice from Patriots history welcoming them to The Hall of Fame. The journey continues through 20,000 square feet and two stories until visitors reach one of The Hall of Fame's signature exhibits and its premier photo opportunity: the Patriots' six Lombardi trophies.

The Hall of Fame features interactive exhibits designed to educate and entertain. Visitors receive instruction from Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick on how plays in the Patriots' playbook are designed. They also step inside a game-used replay booth and make the call on an instant replay review with instruction from former NFL Vice President of Officiating Mike Pereira. Additionally, fans can make Malcolm Butler's famous championship-clinching interception in The Hall of Fame's incredible Super Bowl Experience exhibit.

The Hall of Fame's 26 high-definition touch screen kiosks allow visitors to interact with the exhibits in unique ways. Exclusive video content is also displayed on 42 high-definition TV monitors, 11 projection screens and the 45-foot-wide panoramic movie screen in the Raytheon Technologies Theater, where a 17-minute signature film plays every 20 minutes.

Each Patriots Hall of Famer is immortalized on 30-foot high, five-foot wide video pylons utilizing high-resolution LED displays. Fans can choose which Hall of Famer to highlight on one of four touch screen kiosks, causing the pylons to come alive with video and images of each player while additional information is displayed on the screen below.

To complement the audiovisual experiences, there are thousands of football artifacts on display at The Hall of Fame, ranging from the priceless (a football from the 1876 Harvard-Yale game) to the quirky (the infamous snow plow that cleared the way for a Patriots win over the Dolphins in 1982) to the sublime (The Patriots' six Super Bowl rings).

In partnership with the Raytheon Technologies, The Patriots Hall of Fame presents an integrated math and science education program featuring STEM modules that engage field trip students in real-life, football-related experiences using the engineering design process and other standards-based activities. It also worked with Raytheon Technologies to develop two education interactive experiences – In the Numbers and By the Numbers. Both use football to teach math and science in an interactive, entertaining way. In the Numbers uses a game-show format and challenges guests to answer math and science questions to advance a player down the field for a touchdown. By the Numbers asks users to input data and then watch to see if the data enables a completed pass or a successful field goal kick.

In 2015, Yankee magazine named The Patriots Hall of Fame "Best Sports Museum". In 2009, The Hall of Fame received a Gold MUSE Award from the American Association of Museums and The Hall's signature film, "Patriots Way," won a CINE Golden Eagle Award. The Hall of Fame was also named to Boston Globe Magazine's Best of the New and was a Yankee magazine Editor's Choice recommendation. For more information, please visit www.patriotshalloffame.com.

Robert Kraft, founder, chairman and CEO of the Kraft Group, is an American entrepreneur, investor and philanthropist whose portfolio of businesses and brands range across many verticals, including paper and packaging, sports and entertainment, real estate and venture investing. His holdings include the New England Patriots, New England Revolution, Gillette Stadium, International Forest Products, Rand-Whitney Group, Rand-Whitney Containerboard and a portfolio of more than 100 venture and private-equity investments.

A lifelong football fan and 23-year New England Patriots season ticket holder before buying the team, Kraft became the chairman and CEO of the Patriots when he took ownership on Jan. 21, 1994. That day he pledged, "My objective in buying the Patriots is to help bring a championship to New England." That seemed to be a tall order considering the team's prior success rate. Now, 29 years later, the Patriots boast six Lombardi Trophies, 10 Super Bowl appearances and the highest winning percentage in all of professional sports.

In the five years prior to Kraft's ownership, the team had only won 19 of 80 games (.238 winning percentage) with no playoff appearances. In fact, in the 34-year history of the franchise (1960-93), the Patriots had won just 229 games (including playoffs), averaging just 6.6 wins per season, and had qualified for the playoffs a mere six times.

The year Kraft bought the team (1994), the Patriots advanced to the playoffs for the first time in eight seasons. In his first five years of ownership, the Patriots won 49 games and qualified for the playoffs four times, even advancing to the Super Bowl in just his third season at the helm (1996). Over Kraft's 29 seasons (1994-2022), the Patriots won an unprecedented 349 games (including playoffs) for an average of 12 wins per season.

Playoff games offer another stark contrast. Prior to 1994, Patriots fans had only been treated to one home playoff game, which the Patriots lost to the Houston Oilers in 1978. Since 1994, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 22 times — 19 as division champions — and hosted 27 home playoff games, in which they own a 23-4 (.852) record.

The worst-to-first ascent of the New England Patriots since Kraft purchased the team may be the greatest in sports history. Under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots are second to Pittsburgh with just four losing seasons since 1994, recorded at least nine wins in 24 of 29 seasons, and won more division titles (19) and conference crowns (10) than any other NFL team. In 2018, the Patriots claimed their sixth Super Bowl championship during Kraft's tenure. No other team has more in NFL history.

INSTALLING HIS VISION

It didn't take long for Kraft's vision to come into focus. His personal investment in the team restored the faith of Patriots fans and rejuvenated interest throughout New England. The year he bought the team, season ticket sales soared to new heights, eclipsing 40,000 for the first time in franchise history. By the start of his first season, every game was sold out, a feat that had never been accomplished in the franchise's previous 34 seasons. That achievement ensured local broadcast blackouts would be lifted and every Patriots game, home and away, would be televised throughout New England for the first time in team history. From 1994-2019, every game was sold out. Entering the 2023 season, the Patriots have sold out 305 consecutive home games, including all preseason and playoff games, dating back to the first regular season home game in 1994 (not including the COVID-19 2020 season).

Kraft and the Patriots organization have built a winning team in the community. Established in 1994, the New England Patriots Foundation was created to support charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout New England.

"MY OBJECTIVE IN BUYING THE PATRIOTS IS TO HELP BRING A CHAMPIONSHIP TO NEW ENGLAND."

— ROBERT KRAFT, JAN. 21, 1994

BEST IN SPORTS

After claiming their third Super Bowl in four years, Forbes named the New England Patriots as the best team in sports. The accompanying article recognized how Robert Kraft built the Patriots organization into a winner on and off the field.

A WINNING TRADITION

Robert Kraft's winning percentage with the Patriots (.678) since taking over the team in 1994 is the highest among all owners/ownership groups with at least 200 wins (regular and postseason). He is one of just four owners with at least 200 wins and a winning percentage over .600.

THE KRAFT ERA

Prior to 1994, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs just six times during their first 34 seasons (1960-93). In the 29 seasons since Robert Kraft has owned the team, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 22 times, 19 times as division champions, and have won 10 conference titles and six Super Bowl championships.

ASCENSION

The transformation of the Patriots under Kraft's leadership constitutes one of the greatest franchise revivals in sports history. After winning back-to-back Super Bowls and three titles in four years, Forbes magazine named the Patriots "The Best Team in Sports" in 2005.

In 2007, the New England Patriots won a then franchise-record fifth consecutive division title. They also became the first NFL team to win 16 games during the regular season and the only team to ever win 18 consecutive games in one season. The undefeated regular season boosted the team's regular season record from 2003-07 to 66-14 for a remarkable .825 winning percentage. The 66 regular season wins in that span are the most by any team over any five-year stretch in NFL history. Additionally, from Oct. 5, 2003, to Nov. 8, 2008, the Patriots won 81 games and lost only 19, matching the most successful 100-game stretch since the league was founded in 1920.

The Kraft-era Patriots also set three significant NFL records for consecutive wins. From 2003-04, the Patriots won 21 consecutive games, including playoffs. From 2006-08, the Patriots won 21 consecutive regular season games. Additionally, the Patriots established an NFL record by winning 10 consecutive playoff games (2001-05). During that time, the Patriots also won 21 consecutive games at Gillette Stadium, the longest home win streak in franchise history. The Patriots tied that home win streak after winning their 21st consecutive home game on Nov. 24, 2019.

The success the Patriots sustained during the first two decades of the new millennium is unrivaled. The Patriots 126 total victories (including playoffs) from 2000-09 were, at the time, the most by any team in one decade in the history of the NFL. The decade of dominance featured more Super Bowl titles (3), conference titles (4), division titles (7), playoff wins (14), victories in a single season (18) and victories in a regular season (16) than any other team. In addition, no other NFL team hosted more playoff games (9) or played in more playoff games (18) than the New England Patriots. The sustained success earned the franchise "Team of the Decade" acclaim from many publications. The ensuing decade was even more productive with 141 total victories, 10 division titles, five conference crowns, 23 playoff games and three Super Bowl wins.

GETTING HIS START

Kraft launched his career in the paper and packaging industry with Rand-Whitney Group, Inc., of Worcester, Massachusetts, a company he later acquired. Under his leadership, the Kraft Group's paper and packaging division has grown into one of the largest privately-owned and fully-integrated forest products companies in the world. The company consists of corrugated packaging facilities, paper mills, global paper and solid wood products distribution, and waste paper processing. International Forest Products, a global distrib-

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft bought the team in 1994, the Patriots have become the most successful franchise in the NFL. For the past 29 seasons (1994-2022), the Patriots have won more Super Bowl Championships (6), more conference championships (10) and more division titles (19) than any other NFL team. In addition to championships, the Patriots have also won more, and more often, than any other NFL team, claiming 349 total victories and a .678 winning percentage, including 33 postseason wins.

utor and marketer founded by Kraft in 1972, annually does business in more than 120 countries, is the seventh-largest exporter in North America and has consistently been ranked among the top 10 in the annual rankings published by The Journal of Commerce. Within his companies, Kraft also built the first paper mill which produces product from 100% post-consumer fiber and waste water in the country. In doing so, he set a new industry standard for environmental responsibility, which he has modeled across his other businesses.

Throughout Kraft's professional career, many of his biggest risks have yielded the greatest rewards. That was true throughout his pursuit of Patriots ownership, beginning in 1985 when he first purchased an option on the land surrounding the old stadium in Foxborough, Massachusetts. It was a large investment for an underdeveloped parcel of land, but proved to be an important first step in a long process toward buying the Patriots. In 1988, he took another step by purchasing the stadium out of bankruptcy court. With a binding lease through 2001, the acquisition of the old stadium proved to be an invaluable asset in Kraft's quest toward owning the team.

When his opportunity came to buy the team in January of 1994, Kraft faced a difficult business dilemma. He had to decide between committing over $172 million of family resources to purchase the Patriots or accept a lucrative $75 million buyout offer to void the final years of the team's stadium lease and allow the team to move out of New England. On Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft passed on the buyout offer, choosing instead to make an 11th-hour bid to buy the team. On Feb. 26, 1994, a day after Kraft earned league approval, season tickets for the 1994 season went on sale and Patriots fans showed their support for Kraft's decision in record numbers. By the end of the first business day, amidst a winter Nor'easter, 5,958 season ticket orders were processed, shattering the previous single-day sales record of 979. The show of support validated Kraft's decision to buy the team and gave him the confidence to focus on another long-term project with great financial risk: the private financing and construction of Gillette Stadium.

In his first year of ownership, the Patriots won their final seven regular season games to qualify for the postseason, ending an eight-year playoff drought. By his fifth anniversary as owner, under the direction of two different head coaches, the Patriots had already established themselves as perennial playoff contenders, qualifying for the postseason four times, twice as division champions. In 1996, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years. After defeating Pittsburgh in the playoffs that year, the Patriots hosted their first conference championship game in franchise history and defeated Jacksonville, 20-6, to advance to Super Bowl XXXI.

BUILDING GILLETTE

From 2000-02, the Kraft Group's construction and real estate development team oversaw the on-time and on-budget construction of Gillette Stadium, a privately-financed facility and the only one of its kind to be financed without the burden of personal seat license fees charged to season ticket members. The financial commitment from Kraft provided a solid foundation on which to build for the first time in the franchise's nomadic history. Moving from Foxboro Stadium into majestic Gillette Stadium marked another worst-to-first transformation for the Krafts, who now operate New England's premier entertainment venue. After opening Gillette Stadium, Kraft was recognized as the Sports Executive of the Year by a national publication and he and Jonathan Kraft were named Sports Industrialists of the Year by another.

The construction of Gillette Stadium was the Kraft Group development team's first project. In 2007, the Kraft Group expanded the development of the site with the construction of Patriot Place, a mixed-use lifestyle center and entertainment destination.

LOVE OF SPORTS

Kraft is widely recognized as one of the most successful owners in professional sports. His long-standing support of soccer in the United States dates back to his efforts in the early 1990s to secure Foxborough as one of the nine host venues for the 1994 FIFA World Cup and become one of three principal investors in Major League Soccer when he founded the New England Revolution in 1995. In 2017, Kraft was named Honorary Chairman of the Board of the United Bid Committee of Canada, Mexico and the United States and a key principal in securing the 2026 FIFA World Cup for North America.

As Chairman and CEO of the New England Patriots, Investor/Operator of the New England Revolution and owner of Gillette Stadium and Patriot Place, Kraft has turned the underdeveloped parcel of land he purchased in 1985 in Foxborough into a world-class sports and entertainment destination in New England.

PERSONAL

A native of Brookline, Massachusetts, Kraft attended public schools before enrolling at Columbia University on an academic scholarship. Following graduation, he received a fellowship to attend Harvard Business School, where he earned his master's degree in business administration.

A Patriots fan since their AFL days in the 1960s, Kraft attended games at each of the team's Boston venues: Boston University Field, Fenway Park, Boston College's Alumni Stadium and Harvard Stadium. When the Patriots moved to then Schaefer Stadium in 1971, Kraft invested in season tickets for his family. He credits the memories and experiences shared with his family and other Patriots fans during those years for his passionate pursuit for ownership of the franchise.

In addition to serving on several NFL owner committees, Kraft also serves on the board of directors for the Apollo Theater. He is also a former member of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, Apollo Global Management and The Engine, a venture firm founded by Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). He is a distinguished trustee for the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, where he established the Kraft Family Blood Donor Center, and is a member of the executive committee of the Massachusetts Competitive Partnership. Kraft is a trustee emeritus at Columbia University, a trustee of Boston College

2023 NFL OWNER COMMITTEES

While Kraft gets credit for resurrecting the once wayward Patriots franchise, he's also often cited as a key contributor in many of the league's major contract negotiations. He is the chairman of the NFL's Media Committee and an active member of three other committees.

Kraft, his heart heavy, lifts NFL

Patriots owner helped bring accord during his wife's final days

The National Football League is back in action. And Patriots owner Robert Kraft is getting much of the credit.

Not only did Kraft help owners and players end a 135-day lockout and agree to a 10-year deal, but he did so while tending to his wife, Myra, who died Wednesday of cancer.

The role Kraft played in the negotiations was not lost on anyone at yesterday's press conference announcing the deal. Nor was the memory of his wife.

"A special thanks to Myra Kraft, who even in her weakest moment allowed Mr. Kraft to come and fight this out and without him, this deal does not get done," said Jeff Saturday, a representative of the NFL Players Association and a center for one of the Patriots' biggest rivals, the Indianapolis Colts.

He added that Kraft is "a man who helped us save football and we're so gracious for that, we're gracious for his family and for the opportunity he presented to get this deal done. So thank you very much — we really appreciate it."

Saturday and Kraft then embraced, in what will be the enduring image of this often contentious labor battle.

Kraft was at the press conference at the invitation of NFL commissioner Roger Goodell and Players Association executive director DeMaurice Smith.

and has received honorary degrees from several colleges and universities. He was awarded the Theodore Roosevelt Award, "presented annually to a distinguished citizen of national reputation and outstanding accomplishments." He has also received the Harvard Business School Alumni Achievement Award as well as the prestigious honor of being inducted into the 231st class of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, one of the nation's oldest and most learned societies. In 2012, he became the first NFL owner to receive the Pro Football Writers Association's George Halas Award. That year, he was also inducted into the Columbia University Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2013, he received the Carnegie Hall Medal of Excellence. In 2016, Kraft was inducted into the Broadcasting & Cable Hall of Fame. In 2022, Kraft was selected by the Sports Business Journal for its Lifetime Achievement Award and received the Ron Burton Humanitarian Award.

Robert Kraft and his family have consistently donated time, expertise and resources to a wide range of charities, nonprofits and causes, resulting in lifetime giving in excess of $800 million. While his philanthropic efforts have been a pillar of his life for more than 50 years, his contributions across a range of causes, particularly focused on social justice and healthcare, have received well-deserved recognition in recent years.

For the past nine years, Kraft has made surprise catalyst gifts to community-based nonprofits with the purpose of creating equity for the community's most vulnerable populations. These gifts have exceeded $18 million through the Kraft Family Foundation, as it seeks to support initiatives that provide equal access and opportunities, facilitate social and economic mobility and create social safety nets where they do not currently exist. In 2019, Kraft became a founding partner in creating the REFORM Alliance, a foundation focused on American criminal justice reform through changing laws, policies, hearts and minds to reduce the number of long-term incarcerations resulting from minor probation and parole violations. Kraft was also awarded the 2019 Genesis Prize, referred to as the "Jewish Nobel" by Time Magazine. As Genesis Prize laureate, Kraft announced a $25 million commitment to establish the Foundation to Combat Antisemitism (FCAS). Kraft's vision for the foundation is to raise global awareness and encourage people everywhere to stand up to all forms of hate – especially the racist and violent rhetoric aimed at Jewish people – through the most easily accessible and most powerful avenue of information in the world today: social media. In the spring of 2023, he launched a national multi-channel media campaign that focused on powerful positive messaging to motivate people to be defenders of and upstanders for Jews to combat antisemitism. Since its launch, the campaign has received over five billion impressions across the nation and continues to grow in its reach and audience.

Kraft has also made significant contributions toward initiatives that support racial equity, including $1 million donation to the New Commonwealth Racial Equity and Social Justice Fund and more than $1 million to a collection of organizations addressing racial inequity through the Kraft Family/Patriots Players Collaborative Fund. Kraft was a founding donor to the Black Leadership Institute at the Institute for Nonprofit Practice and the Equity Leadership Initiative at the Rhode Island Foundation. Over the past decade, the Kraft Family Foundation has donated more than $120 million to nonprofits which serve traditionally under-served communities.

The Kraft family believes that equity of access to quality education and healthcare are the cornerstones to vibrant and successful communities and has established more than three dozen permanent endowments at educational, healthcare and social service organizations. In addition, Kraft has donated more than $50 million to Mass General Brigham to address healthcare disparities caused by race, ethnicity, geography and economic status, including the establishment of the Robert K. Kraft Endowed Chair in Diversity, Equity and Inclusion to further endowing the Kraft Center for Community Health, an initiative designed to develop solutions for the most difficult health problems. The Kraft Center services include Community Care in Reach, an innovative mobile health initiative which offers opioid addiction treatments, COVID-19 testing and vaccinations, as well as other health care services in under-served communities throughout the Boston area. The Kraft family also committed $24 million to Harvard Business School to establish the Robert Kraft Family Fellowship, which will support promising young leaders from underserved backgrounds who would not be able to attend without significant financial aid.

The Kraft family has supported many initiatives and donated more than $20 million to help those in need during the COVID-19 crisis. As local hospitals were experiencing shortages in personal protective equipment, the Kraft family teamed up with former Massachusetts Governor Charlie Baker to secure more than 1.8 million masks for front-line workers and transport them via the Patriots team plane in order to distribute them in Massachusetts, New York and Rhode Island. The Krafts also partnered with Massachusetts Military Support Foundation's Food4Vets program to provide more than 6.5 million meals to military, veterans and their families. In addition to creating a distribution center at Gillette Stadium, they used the Patriots truck to deliver thousands of additional meals to veterans throughout New England as well as some of the communities most impacted by COVID-19. The family provided Gillette Stadium as a host site for 17 weeks of blood drives and facilitated drive-thru testing for thousands of public safety officials and supply chain workers. When schools closed in Boston, they purchased Chromebooks for Boston Public Schools to allow students without computers the opportunity to attend their classes virtually. When vaccinations became available to the public in January 2021, the Kraft family donated the space needed to make Gillette Stadium the first mass vaccination site in the northeast region and the largest vaccination distributor in the state, providing 610,283 vaccinations in less than five months.

DYNASTY VS. DYNASTY

Of all of the great teams throughout the Super Bowl era, the New England Patriots and the San Francisco 49ers have set a standard of extended excellence above all of the others. The 49ers run of success spanned two decades, while New England's streak ran from 2001-19.

Jonathan Kraft is the President of the Kraft Group which is comprised of companies in sports and entertainment, the paper and packaging industry, real estate, and private equity investing. He oversees the day-to-day operations of each company including Gillette Stadium, the New England Revolution and serves as President of the New England Patriots.

As President, Kraft oversees the management and strategic planning of each department within the organization and represents the Patriots in all league matters.

Kraft serves on multiple NFL owner committees including Business Ventures, Legalized Sports Betting and Media Owned and Operated and he is the chairman of the Fan Engagement and Major Events Committee. He is also a member of the 32 Equity Committee.

When the Kraft family purchased the Patriots in 1994, Jonathan led the rebuilding and re-branding of the franchise, growing the fan base and bringing long-overdue stability to the once wayward organization.

In an era when stadium names are regularly changing, Gillette Stadium has remained a constant in New England. The Kraft family intentionally designed the venue with open spaces and room to grow and evolve with its needs. It is now New England's premier entertainment venue. One of the most significant contributions to the organization's sustained success over the past two decades was securing financial approval for the construction of the stadium. Kraft developed the creative private-financing strategy for its $325 million construction. Many financial experts dismissed the viability of his plan, which relied on year-round club memberships for new clientele rather than the more conventional sale of personal seat licenses to existing season ticket holders. Kraft's unprecedented plan was considered a financial risk but proved to be universally successful. In addition to the business and financial accolades the Krafts received for the deal, Kraft and the project team also drew praise for innovative environmental practices in the construction of the stadium.

Throughout the stadium initiative, Kraft led the planning, construction, opening and ongoing operation and development of Gillette Stadium. He has been the creative force behind keeping the fan experience ahead of the ever-evolving sports and entertainment industry trends.

The Kraft family continually invests in the long-term infrastructure with improvements designed to perpetually enhance the fan experience without the sale of personal seat licenses. In the stadium's first 20 years, they committed more than $300 million in stadium enhancements with additions and renovations of dozens of concession areas, lounges, suites and fan gathering sections, including the Optum Field Lounge, the DraftKings Fantasy Sports Zone and the Cross Insurance Pavilion & Business Center. Ubiquitous WiFi has been installed and upgraded with bandwidth to accommodate capacity crowds. Environmentally friendly LED stadium lights, LED stadium signage and more than 14,000 feet of LED ribbon boards are in place throughout Gillette Stadium and in 2021, a new video board was installed in the south end zone.

Most recently, in the largest investment to the stadium since it opened, the Kraft family broke ground on a $250 million improvement and renovation of the north end that will feature a completely reimagined Enel Plaza with a grand staircase leading onto the concourse, a new and enhanced 22-story lighthouse with a 360-degree observation deck, the largest outdoor curve-radius videoboard at a sports venue in the country, a new and improved Row of Honor and new and improved concession locations, restrooms and other fan amenities, bringing the total investment in stadium improvements to over half a billion dollars.

Gillette Stadium has been the home of world-class events in New England for over 20 years under Kraft's direction. From the biggest names in live entertainment to international soccer, the NHL's Winter Classic, NCAA athletics, the Premier Lacrosse League and motor sports offerings, the Kraft Group annually hosts the most diverse array of sports and entertainment events in the region, including the Army Navy Football Game in 2023 and the World Cup in 2026.

Following the construction of Gillette Stadium, Kraft oversaw the Kraft Group's real estate development team's design and construction of Patriot Place, a mixed-use entertainment destination surrounding Gillette Stadium providing guests with a multitude of options, including dining, hospitality, specialty retail, lodging, world-class health care, night life and entertainment.

Prior to the Kraft family's ownership, the Patriots fan base was limited in range and scope. Kraft was committed to expanding the Patriots fan base through innovative multimedia outreach. Under his directive, the Patriots became the first professional sports team to launch a web site in March of 1995 and the first to debut nightly video updates online. In 2004, the team showed their commitment to globalizing the Patriots brand when they launched the NFL's first Chinese-language version of their website. In 2021, the Patriots were awarded Germany as an official "home market" through the NFL's Global Market Programs initiative which has allowed the team to grow its fan base abroad and develop additional opportunities for marketing, fan engagement and business development including in-person and digital marketing opportunities, corporate sponsorships, and events in a new market. In 2023, the Patriots were awarded Austria and Switzerland as official "home markets," in addition to Germany.

In addition to these ventures, after years of managing in-house operations for applying analytics to better understand customers and their buying behaviors, Kraft spun out the in-house technology and services to co-found the Kraft Analytics Group (KAGR) in 2016, a progressive technology and service company providing data management, advanced analytics and consulting services for sports and entertainment organizations.

In March of 2020, when the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic threatened to overwhelm hospitals in the northeast region, the Kraft family answered the call of former Massachusetts Governor Charlie Baker, who had acquired 1.8 million masks in China and sought assistance in expediting the delivery to New England medical professionals and frontline workers. The Kraft family sent the New England Patriots team plane to Shenzhen, China to transport the critical PPE back to Boston for distribution throughout the Commonwealth, Rhode Island and New York. Throughout the global pandemic, the Kraft family hosted numerous COVID-19 relief efforts at Gillette Stadium, including the region's first and largest COVID-19 testing site for frontline workers, 17 weeks of blood drives, the distribution of over 6.5 million meals to veterans, military families and others in need, and the first large-scale vaccination site in the northeast region, providing 610,283 vaccinations in less than five months. In all, the Kraft family has raised and contributed more than $20 million in COVID-19 relief efforts.

A graduate of Williams College, Kraft is a Trustee Emeritus and serves on the Williams College Investment Committee. He received his MBA from Harvard Business School, where he currently serves on the Dean's Board of Advisors. Kraft has served on the Board of Trustees of Massachusetts General Hospital since 2010 and was named chair in 2019. He is Chairman of the Board of Directors for the Paper + Packaging Board. He is also on the Board of Trustees for Belmont Hill School and Dexter Southfield. Additionally, Kraft is a member of the M.I.T. School of Engineering Dean's Advisory Council, is a board member for Mass General Brigham and sits on the advisory board for the Billie Jean King Leadership Initiative.

DECADES OF DOMINANCE (2010-19)

The New England Patriots earned more wins (141) in the past decade (2010-19) than any other team in the NFL has over any 10-year span, with 125 regular season victories and 16 playoffs wins. They also own the highest winning percentage (.698) of any team in professional sports since 1994. The Patriots won a league-high three Super Bowls in the 2010s, increasing their total to six and tying the Pittsburgh Steelers for most all-time. The Patriots won more conference championships (5), appeared in more conference championship games (8) and won more division titles (10) than any other NFL team in a decade. This landmark decade comes on the heels of another dominant decade, as the Patriots also led the NFL in Super Bowl victories, conference championships, conference championship game appearances and division titles in the 2000s.

DECADES OF DOMINANCE (2000-09)

When Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that just 18 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s. The tallies listed below represent totals during the 2000-09 seasons.

SUPER BOWLS: 86, 90, 01, 03, 04, 14, 16, 18

Bill Belichick completed his 48th season as an NFL coach in 2022 and is in his 24th season as head coach of the New England Patriots. Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win six Super Bowl titles. In 2018, Belichick won his sixth Super Bowl, joining George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only NFL coaches with six championships. He enters his 49th consecutive year as an NFL coach in 2023, the most consecutive seasons of any NFL coach. Pro Football Hall of Famer Dick LeBeau (45) is second. The only other NFL coach with at least 40 consecutive NFL coaching seasons is Tom Moore with 41.

Entering 2023, Belichick owns the most wins among all active coaches and ranks second all-time with 329 total victories as a head coach. Belichick's winning percentage of .666 ranks second in NFL history among coaches with 150 or more wins, trailing only George Halas (.682). He led the Patriots to a winning record for 19 consecutive seasons (2001-19), behind only Dallas' Tom Landry, who recorded 20 consecutive winning seasons from 1966-85. Belichick has also notched 31 postseason wins in his career, the most by a head coach in NFL history. Belichick, who was hired by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft on Jan. 27, 2000, completed his 23rd season with the Patriots in 2022. In 23 seasons, Belichick has delivered six Super Bowl championships, nine conference titles, 17 division crowns (with 2002 and 2008 lost on tiebreakers) and 30 playoff victories, while posting an overall record of 292-120. In 2019, the Patriots won their 11th consecutive division championship, extending their NFL record previously held by the L.A. Rams (1973-79). Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003), XXXIX (2004), XLIX (2014), LI (2016) and LIII (2018), and in 2007 he became the only NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season. From 2003 to 2004, Belichick coached the Patriots to a winning streak of 21 consecutive games, including the postseason. In 2018, Belichick joined Marv Levy (4) and Don Shula (3) as the only NFL head coaches to lead their team to three consecutive Super Bowl appearances.

Despite an NFL system designed to ensure parity, Belichick's program has produced a remarkable run of sustained on-field success. From 2000-19, the Patriots won 74% of their regular season games (267-94), the highest winning percentage of any major American professional sports team over that span. Over a 100-game stretch from 2003-09, Belichick directed the team to 81 wins, the most in NFL history by a head coach. Additionally, the Patriots finished 2019 with 141 wins (regular and postseason) in the decade from 2010-19, surpassing their previous NFL record for wins in a decade with 126 victories from 2000-09. From 2011-18, Belichick's teams won the AFC East title and advanced in the playoffs, with the Patriots eight straight years of playoff advancement extending their NFL record previously held by Dallas with six (1991-96). Additionally, New England set an NFL record by qualifying for the playoffs for 11 straight seasons (2009-19), besting Dallas and Indianapolis, who qualified for the postseason for nine consecutive years.

Belichick's 31 career playoff wins are the most all-time among head coaches, while New England's 16 playoff victories from 2010-19 are the most in any decade in NFL history. He has compiled a career playoff record of 31-13. His .705 playoff winning percentage places him fifth in NFL history.

In addition, the Patriots have consistently maintained their focus throughout the year and have played their best football late in the season. From 2001 through 2019, the Patriots led the league with a 114-35 (.765) overall record in games played on Thanksgiving or later in the NFL season, including playoffs. The club also posted an NFL-best 45-17 (.726) mark during that time in games played on Christmas or later in the NFL season and were an NFL-best 67-16 (.807) in the month of December.

Additionally, Belichick is the first head coach in NFL history to lead a team to three straight 500-point seasons (2010-12) and the Patriots are the first franchise in NFL history to score 500 or more points in four seasons (2007-589, 2010-518, 2011-513 and 2012-557).

In the victory over the Cleveland Browns at home on Oct. 27, 2019, Belichick became the third head coach in NFL history to win 300 games, doing so in his 434th NFL game, faster than Don Shula (445 games) and George Halas (455 games).

2022 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

The 2022 Patriots overcame a 1-3 start by winning five of their next six games and entered the final week of the season with an 8-8 record and a chance to secure a playoff position with a victory at Buffalo. Unfortunately, a 35-23 loss to the Bills and wins by Pittsburgh and Miami eliminated New England from the postseason.

The Patriots defense finished eighth in the NFL in yards allowed and finished near the top in several categories. The defense finished tied with San Francisco for second in the NFL with 30 takeaways (Dallas had 33), third in the NFL with 19 interceptions (Pittsburgh and San Francisco each had 20) and tied with Dallas for third in the NFL with 54 sacks (Philadelphia had 70 and Kansas City had 55). In addition, the Patriots set a team record with an NFL-leading seven defensive touchdowns, including a stretch of four straight games with a defensive score. The Patriots also tied a team record with five interceptions returned for touchdowns. S Kyle Dugger scored three of those touchdowns, the most defensive touchdowns by a Patriots player since the 1970 NFL merger. The Patriots had two players finish with double-digit sacks, with LB Matthew Judon setting a career high with 15½ sacks and LB Josh Uche with a career-high 11½ sacks.

On offense, RB Rhamondre Stevenson reached 1,000 rushing yards for the first time in his career. He became New England's first 1,000 yard rusher since the 2016 season.

Another highlight of the 2022 season was third-round draft pick Marcus Jones, who scored on offense, defense and special teams to become the fourth player in NFL history to do so and the first since the 1947 season. Jones also finished second in the NFL with a 12.5 yard punt return average and finished second in the NFL with 1,007 total return yards. He became the Patriots first rookie to earn Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors when he was selected as a punt returner.

THE PATRIOT YEARS

Once he became the Patriots head coach, Belichick needed just one season to successfully implement his plan for success. In 2001, his second season in charge, the Patriots rebounded from a 5-11 record in 2000 to improve to 11-5, tying what was then the franchise record for regular-season wins. With a 20-17 victory over the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, the Patriots tied the franchise's then-record of 14 overall wins. In 2003 and 2004, the Patriots eclipsed those marks in each season, posting identical 14-2 records in the regular season and notching 17 total wins and a Super Bowl title in each year.

From 2003-04, Belichick directed the Patriots through the most prosperous two-year period for any team in NFL history, netting back-to-back Super Bowl victories and consecutive 17-2 campaigns. The team's 34 victories from 2003-04 mark the highest two-year win total in the NFL's 101-year history. An

COACH OF THE DECADE(S)

Bill Belichick is one of just two coaches in NFL history to be selected to two NFL All-Decade Teams. The other is former Steelers coach Chuck Noll, who was on the 1970s and 1980s All-Decade Teams.

EXTRA POINTS

- Belichick spent 20 years as an assistant coach in the NFL and 2023 marks his 29th season as a head coach. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the only man in NFL history to serve 20 or more seasons as an assistant coach and at least 20 seasons as a head coach.
- Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories, including postseason games (21 from 2003-04), and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05).
- Belichick's career winning percentage of .666 (329-165) is the second-highest all-time among head coaches with 150 or more wins.
- In 2007, Belichick led the Patriots to the NFL's first 16-0 regular season and joined George Halas and Don Shula as the only coaches in NFL history to direct their teams to an undefeated regular season.
- Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in four seasons (2001, 2003, 2004).
- With 49 years of NFL coaching experience, Belichick is the longest tenured coach among active NFL head coaches. His 49 consecutive years as an NFL coach entering 2022 are the most in NFL history. Dick LeBeau, who coached 45 straight years through 2017 is second.
- The 2018 AFC Championship victory was Belichick's ninth conference championship win as a head coach. His nine conference titles are the most in NFL history during the Super Bowl era, besting Don Shula's six.
- Three former assistants on Belichick's staffs and one former player are head coaches in the NFL or college in 2023: Kirk Ferentz, Iowa; Josh McDaniels, Las Vegas; Nick Saban, Alabama; Mike Vrabel, Tennessee Titans. Four of Coach Belichick's former assistants are NFL general managers in 2023: Nick Caserio, Houston; Jason Licht, Tampa Bay, Monte Ossenfort, Arizona and Dave Ziegler, Las Vegas.
- Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win at least 14 regular-season games in five separate seasons.
- Belichick is the first head coach in NFL history with 17 straight seasons with at least 10 victories. George Seifert is second with eight (1989-96).

overall winning streak of 21 consecutive games, including the postseason – also unprecedented in NFL annals – spanned the two seasons. New England was undefeated at home in both 2003 and 2004, and set a franchise record by winning 21 straight home games from 2002-05. New England matched the franchise record of 21 straight wins at home from 2017-19.

During the 2004 season, the Patriots tied the regular-season record by a defending Super Bowl champion (14-2). New England capped the year with another memorable playoff run, culminating in a 24-21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

In 2005, New England won 11 games despite being forced to use 45 different starters, an NFL record for a division champion. After starting the season 4-4 and facing a rash of injuries, the Patriots won six of their next seven games to claim their third straight division title.

In 2006, Belichick directed the Patriots to a berth in the AFC Championship Game for the third time in four years and for the fourth time in six seasons. New England won the AFC East division for the fourth consecutive season and set a franchise record by allowing just 14.8 points per game. The Patriots 14 total victories tied what was then the second highest total in franchise history.

In 2007, Belichick earned Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year honors as the Patriots became the fourth team in the league's history to complete an undefeated regular season and the first to achieve the feat since the NFL increased the number of regular season games from 14 to 16 in 1978. Belichick joined Pro Football Hall of Famers George Halas and Don Shula as the only head coaches to complete undefeated regular seasons. New England's 18 overall victories in 2007 tied the 1985 Chicago Bears and the 1984 San Francisco 49ers for the most in league history. New England became the first team in NFL history and the first major American pro sports team since 1884 to open a season with 18 straight wins. The Patriots set the then-NFL records for points (589) and touchdowns (75), while their +315 point differential still stands as the best in NFL history.

"Bill is a great friend and has done a tremendous job for a long time. He certainly taught me a lot and has been a real positive mentor to me."

— NICK SABAN, HEAD COACH AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

"I HAVE A GREAT DEAL OF RESPECT FOR HIM. HE'S THE BEST COACH THAT EVER COACHED THE GAME."

— RODNEY HARRISON, PATRIOTS HALL OF FAMER

In 2008, Belichick led the Patriots to an 11-5 record. Despite losing QB Tom Brady to a season-ending injury in Week 1, New England ranked among the NFL's top-10 teams in terms of yards gained (5th), points scored (8th), fewest yards allowed (10th) and fewest points allowed (8th), marking the fourth time the club finished in the top 10 in all of those categories since joining the NFL in 1970. The Patriots also finished in the top 10 in all of those categories in 2015 and 2016. At the conclusion of the regular season, the Patriots were among the league's hottest teams, winning five of their last six games and going undefeated in December (4-0).

In 2009, the Patriots finished the season with a 10-6 record and claimed another AFC East title. They became the first team to win more than half of their games in nine straight seasons since free agency began in 1993.

In 2010, Belichick led a very young squad to an NFL-best 14-2 record, a division title and its eighth playoff appearance in his 11 seasons as New England's head coach, receiving several major awards in the process. Belichick was named Associated Press Coach of the Year for the third time, joining Don Shula (four-time winner) and Chuck Knox as the only three-time winners. In addition, Belichick earned Peter King's SI.com and Pro Football Weekly Coach of the Year.

Coach Belichick guided the Patriots to a league-best 518 points scored in 2010, third-most in franchise history behind the team's 589 points in 2007 and 557 in 2012. The club-record +28 turnover differential was a contributing factor to New England eclipsing 500 points for just the second time in team history. Belichick's constant emphasis on protecting the football paid off with two NFL records. The Patriots went an NFL-record seven consecutive games without committing a turnover. The Patriots had just 10 turnovers in 2010 (five interceptions and five fumbles), which tied a then-NFL record for fewest turnovers in a season. The New Orleans Saints committed eight turnovers in 2019.

In 2011, Belichick guided the Patriots to a 13-3 record, his fifth AFC Conference Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLVI. Under Belichick's guidance, the Patriots finished the 2011 season with 6,848 total net yards, setting a new franchise record for most total net yards in a season. That total is fifth all-time in NFL history.

In 2012, Belichick became the eighth head coach in NFL history to record 200 overall victories and in the process, guaranteed a .500 or better record for the Patriots for the

HALL OF FAMERS

From 1981-88, Coach Belichick tutored the linebackers for the New York Giants. His unit featured Lawrence Taylor and Harry Carson, both of whom are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

THE BELICHICK LIBRARY

Coach Belichick is an avid collector of football-related books, and along with his late father, Steve, amassed a library of more than 800 volumes. The library is believed to be one of the largest collection of football books in the world, behind the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Library of Congress. In 2006, Coach Belichick moved his entire library to the Naval Academy, where his father coached for 33 years. The books are housed in a display at Ricketts Hall in Annapolis for future generations of football players, coaches and fans to enjoy.

SUPER COMEBACK

Bill Belichick coached the Patriots back from a 25-point deficit to win Super Bowl LI. A comeback of that magnitude is extremely rare. There had been 2,656 games where a team led by 25 points or more in NFL history, including the postseason. Those teams were 2,689-7-2, a winning percentage of .997.

12th straight season with a 12-4 mark. Additionally, the Patriots made their second consecutive AFC Championship Game appearance.

From 2003-12, Belichick won more regular season games (126) and more games overall (140) over a 10-year stretch than any other head coach in NFL history. He repeated the same feat by winning 126 games from 2007-16.

In 2013, Belichick guided New England to a 12-4 record, a fifth consecutive AFC East crown and third straight appearance in the AFC Championship Game. With his fifth victory of the season in 2013, Belichick passed Chuck Noll for fifth place on the NFL wins list with his 210 as a head coach.

In 2014, Belichick led the Patriots to a win in Super Bowl XLIX, his fourth Super Bowl win as a head coach, matching Noll for the most Super Bowl victories. In the process, he won three postseason games to set an NFL record for career playoff victories by a head coach.

Belichick earned his 21st career postseason victory in the AFC Championship Game vs. Indianapolis on Jan. 18, 2015, passing Tom Landry for the most playoff wins by a head coach in NFL history.

Belichick passed Curly Lambeau for sole possession of fourth place on the all-time wins list with his 230th career victory, a 17-16 win at N.Y. Jets on Dec. 21, 2014. He added to his record with his 12th straight season with 10 or more wins and won his 12th division title.

Belichick earned his 200th regular season victory as a head coach after the Patriots 30-7 win at Minnesota on Sept. 14, 2014.

"He's really special. I've always been a Bill Belichick person. He's got great roots. He's got an aura about him. He's got the fire you want to see, but he always gives other people credit."

— ROGER STAUBACH, HALL OF FAME QUARTERBACK

DOMINANT DEFENSE

2021 marked the 14th season since 2001 that the team kept opponents under 20 points per game, the second-most in the NFL during that time.

SEASONS ALLOWING 20 POINTS PER GAME OR FEWER SINCE 2001

Team	Seasons	Years
Baltimore	15	2001, 03-06, 08-11, 14, 17-18, 19, 20, 22
New England	14	2001, 03-04, 06-10, 14-17, 19, 21
Pittsburgh	13	2001, 04-08, 10-12, 15, 17, 19, 20

In 2015, Belichick guided New England to a 12-4 record, a record seventh consecutive AFC East crown and fifth straight AFC Championship Game.

Belichick appeared in his 10th AFC Championship Game, tying Tom Landry for most conference championship game appearances by a head coach.

In 2016, Belichick guided New England to a 34-28 overtime win against Atlanta in Super Bowl LI, his fifth Super Bowl win as a head coach, passing Chuck Noll for most Super Bowl victories by a head coach. Belichick led the Patriots to a 14-2 regular season record to become the first head coach to win at least 14 regular season games in five separate seasons. He also captured his 14th AFC East title, passing Tom Landry and Don Shula with 13. It was the eighth consecutive division crown for New England, which established another NFL record.

Belichick reached his 11th conference championship game as a head coach in 2016 to move out of a tie with Tom Landry for most by a head coach since the 1970 merger.

With a win vs. the N.Y. Jets in Week 16, Belichick won his 200th regular season game with the Patriots, becoming the fifth NFL coach to reach 200 regular season wins with one team.

Belichick led New England to a 13-3 regular season record in 2017, his eighth conference championship, an appearance in Super Bowl LII and the team's 15th division title since he became head coach in 2000.

Belichick also passed Tom Landry and Don Shula by coaching in his 37th career playoff game in the Divisional Playoff win vs. Tennessee.

With a 13-3 record in 2017, Belichick became the first coach in NFL history with 13 or more wins in seven different seasons.

"I get a big kick out of the perception publicly — all the media, and mostly the fans, because they don't see [and] he doesn't give you much. He's not there to draw attention to himself. But if you get in a social situation around Bill, he's got so much personality. He's interesting. He's funny. He's a great friend. I can't respect our relationship more than I do. He's about as good a friend as you can expect to have. If you go to dinner, you're going to talk about a lot of subjects. It's real apparent that Bill has no ego. He's not there to impress you about his championships. He's just sharing and asking. He shares with guys he knows are interested. It's like going to graduate school times 100."

— TONY LARUSSA, WORLD SERIES-WINNING BASEBALL MANAGER

TOP-10 OFFENSE & DEFENSE

2016 marked the ninth time in team history and the fifth time under Bill Belichick that both the offense and defense have finished in the top 10.

PATRIOTS SEASONS WITH A TOP 10 OFFENSE AND TOP 10 DEFENSE UNDER BELICHICK (Since 1970 Merger)

2016	Offense-4	Defense-8

In 2018, Belichick guided New England to a 13-3 win against the Los Angeles Rams in Super Bowl LIII, his sixth Super Bowl win as a head coach, extending his NFL record for Super Bowl victories by a head coach. Belichick, who led New England to its eighth straight conference championship game, devised a game plan that kept the high-flying Rams offense, who averaged 30 points per game, to just a field goal, tying the fewest points ever allowed in a Super Bowl.

Belichick coached the Patriots to an 11-5 regular season record and extended his NFL record by capturing his 16th division title. It was also the club's 10th straight, which is also an NFL record.

Belichick entered the 2018 season tied with Tom Landry for third all-time in NFL history with 250 career regular season wins, behind Don Shula (328) and George Halas (318). The 27-20 opening-day win over Houston pushed him past Landry into sole possession of third place.

Belichick led New England to a 12-4 record in 2019 and his 13th career 12-win season, 17th division title, 11th consecutive division title and 11th straight season with a playoff berth. It was his 18th postseason berth, tied with Tom Landry for second all-time, behind the 19 by Don Shula. Under Belichick's guidance, the Patriots defense finished No. 1 in the NFL in total defense (275.9 yards per game) and scoring (14.1 points allowed per game).

Despite a season without a traditional offseason due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the 2020 Patriots battled all season. They finished fourth in the NFL with 2,346 rushing yards in 2020, the fourth-highest rushing total in team history. The Patriots finished the season with 4.67 yards per rushing attempt, the fourth-highest average in team history. In addition, the Patriots scored 20 rushing touchdowns, tied for sixth in the NFL in 2020.

The Patriots were a disciplined team in 2020, committing an NFL-low 62 penalties, tied for the sixth-lowest since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule and second-fewest in team history behind the 57 penalties by the 2008 Patriots team (second-fewest in a 16-game season).

Belichick was a member of two blue-ribbon panels that selected the NFL 100 All-Time Team and the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Centennial class.

"I've always obviously looked up to him as a coach, even before he became a head coach. He's a guy that I admired. We've had the chance to talk about a lot of different things. We talk occasionally. Usually it's me calling with a question. I've got a lot of respect for him."

— JOHN HARBAUGH, HEAD COACH OF THE BALTIMORE RAVENS

"Bill Belichick. He is to this century what Paul Brown was to the previous century. With the way he has built teams, his strategic mind, the success he's had — he would be my easy choice."

— STEVE SABOL, FORMER PRESIDENT OF NFL FILMS ON HIS CHOICE FOR BEST NFL COACH OF THE PAST DECADE

BETTER THAN AVERAGE

Bill Belichick led the Patriots to 19 straight winning seasons (2001-19), second all-time, behind 20 by Tom Landry.

Consecutive Seasons with a Winning Record

Head Coach	Team	Years
Tom Landry	Dallas	20 - 1966-85
Bill Belichick	New England	19 - 2001-19
Curly Lambeau	Green Bay	14 - 1934-47
Curly Lambeau	Green Bay	12 - 1921-32
Andy Reid	Kansas City	10 - 2013-22
George Halas	Chicago	10 - 1933-42
John Madden	Oakland	10 - 1969-78

The Patriots defense tied for the NFL lead with Miami, New Orleans and Pittsburgh with 18 interceptions.

The Patriots special teams units were strong all season. Jake Bailey's punting in 2020 allowed a total of 71 punt return yards on 12 returns. It marked the fewest punt return yards allowed by the Patriots in team history and the sixth-fewest punt return yards allowed in an NFL season. The 12 punt returns were second in NFL history, behind the 11 by the 2008 New England team.

The 2021 Patriots returned to the postseason following a 10-7 record and a second-place record in the AFC East that earned a Wild Card playoff position. The Patriots were led by rookie QB Mac Jones, who became one of just 12 rookie quarterbacks since 1970 to lead his team to a winning record. The Patriots defense finished fourth in the NFL and second in points allowed with just 17.8 points allowed per game, while the rushing attack finished eighth in the NFL. Belichick tied Don Shula for the most postseason berths by a head coach with his 19th postseason berth overall. He has now led his teams to 21 winning seasons, behind only George Halas (34), Don Shula (27) and Curly Lambeau (27).

Following a 2-4 start, the Patriots went on a seven-game winning streak to improve to a 9-4 record. The winning streak included wins against the top-seeded Tennessee Titans and a 14-10 win at Buffalo behind a 222-yard rushing performance.

Belichick's recent accomplishments are the latest triumphs in an NFL coaching career that began in 1975, during which he has helped produce eight Super Bowl titles, 12 conference championships and 24 division titles. Now in his 49th season in the NFL, he has more years of NFL experience than any of the other 31 active head coaches. He won his first two Super Bowls as the defensive coordinator for the New York Giants in 1986 and again in 1990 before claiming six Super Bowl championships with the Patriots.

"When I first got the job [in Denver], Bill left Cleveland and people asked me how I would rank the head coaches. I had Bill number one and Joe Collier and Jeff Fisher as two and three. They kind of laughed at me at that time and they said, 'What do you mean? Why would you rank him there? He didn't have a lot of success in Cleveland.' I said, 'You just wait and see'."

— MIKE SHANAHAN, TWO-TIME SUPER BOWL CHAMPION HEAD COACH

A COACHING JOURNEY

Belichick began his coaching career after graduating from Wesleyan University and accepting a staff assistant position with the Baltimore Colts in 1975. At the age of 23, he was named special assistant to Head Coach Ted Marchibroda. In 1976, Belichick joined Rick Forzano's staff with the Detroit Lions as an assistant special teams coach. The following year, he was given his first positional coaching assignment as the Lions tight ends and receivers coach. In 1978, Denver Broncos Head Coach Red Miller hired Belichick as the assistant special teams coach and assistant to defensive coordinator Joe Collier.

Belichick then spent 12 seasons with the New York Giants (1979-90) before becoming head coach of the Cleveland Browns (1991-95). He later joined Bill Parcells for several seasons as assistant head coach/secondary with New England (1996) and assistant head coach/secondary with the N.Y. Jets (1997-99) before returning to Foxborough.

Belichick returned to the Patriots as head coach after three seasons with the New York Jets as the team's assistant head coach/secondary coach, holding the responsibility of calling the team's defensive plays. In 1998, the Jets surrendered just 266 points, propelling the team to its first division title. After finishing the regular season with a franchise-best 12-4 overall record, the Jets advanced to the AFC Championship Game. In his first season with the Jets in 1997, Belichick's defense surrendered just 287 points, an average of 17.9 points per game, marking a significant 10.5-point per-game improvement from 1996.

NEW YORK GIANTS (1979-90)

In 1979, Belichick joined Ray Perkins' staff with the New York Giants as a defensive assistant and special teams coach, launching a 12-season tenure with the Giants. After the 1980 campaign, he drew the added responsibility of coaching the Giants linebackers. In 1983, he began coordinating the defense on Bill Parcells' staff and continued coaching the linebackers, a unit that would become known as one of the most dominant groups of all-time, featuring Pro Football Hall of Famers Lawrence Taylor and Harry Carson. He was officially appointed defensive coordinator in 1985, a position he held for the next six seasons. During his time as the Giants' defensive signal caller, his units were never ranked lower than 11th in the NFL and finished as high as second in the league three times, including the Super Bowl seasons of 1986 and 1990. Belichick's contributions with the Giants throughout the 1980s brought him national recognition as one of the best young assistant coaches in the NFL.

CLEVELAND BROWNS (1991-95)

Prior to joining the Patriots as an assistant, Belichick spent five seasons (1991-95) rebuilding the Cleveland Browns, whose 3-13 finish the year prior to his arrival was, up until that point, the worst in the history of the franchise. By 1994, the

"(He) has meant so much to me, not only professionally but personally. He's really mentored me, taught me how to be a good coach, taught me how to identify a way to win each week, taught me how to evaluate players, taught me how to be a part of the draft. He was a mentor in other ways, a very big influence in my life, from off-the-field things, decisions you had to make, those kinds of things. There was nothing that he turned me away for. He would always be there to give me his advice. To me, that's the greatest thing I got from him — he was willing to help me in any way to become a good coach and a good person."

— JOSH McDANIELS, ON BILL BELICHICK'S IMPACT ON HIM

Browns were one of the NFL's best teams, boasting the second-best record in the AFC.

Belichick's first head coaching opportunity came following the 1990 season, when his defensive efforts with the New York Giants helped claim a second Super Bowl title in five years. At the age of 38, he became the NFL's youngest head coach. In his first season, Belichick began the rebuilding process by restoring the foundation of the aging squad he inherited. In 1991, the Browns improved to 6-10 and played in 11 games that were decided by a touchdown or less.

Following back-to-back 7-9 campaigns in 1992 and 1993, the Browns improved to 11-5 in 1994, a mark that is still tied for the second-highest victory total in the history of the Browns franchise. The 1994 squad was defined by its defense, which allowed a league-low 204 points. In their return to the playoffs, the Browns defeated the Patriots, 20-13, in a first-round Wild Card game on New Year's Day 1995.

The 1995 season was disrupted by the mid-season announcement that the Cleveland Browns franchise would be moved to Baltimore at the conclusion of the campaign. The announcement caused an undeniable mid-season distraction, contributing to a 5-11 finish. Belichick did not accompany the franchise's move to Baltimore after the 1995 season.

AN ASSISTANT WITH THE PATRIOTS

Patriots fans witnessed Belichick's impact on a team first-hand in 1996 when he joined the Patriots after five seasons as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns. That year, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years with an 11-5 record and won their first two playoff games at Foxboro Stadium to advance to Super Bowl XXXI. The 1996 Patriots defense allowed just 19.6 points per game and forced 34 turnovers, second in the AFC. In two playoff games, the defense allowed just nine points combined, propelling the Patriots to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI against Green Bay.

In the spring of 2009, Bill Belichick and former Patriots offensive coordinator Charlie Weis joined Jon Bon Jovi on stage to help support Hannah and Friends, a foundation created by Weis to benefit individuals with special needs.

"Bill Belichick is the best coach I've ever competed against. I think it's safe to say he'll go down as the greatest NFL coach of all time."

— PEYTON MANNING, FORMER NFL QUARTERBACK

PHILANTHROPY

Throughout his career, Coach Belichick has been active in a wide array of charitable endeavors in New England, New York, Cleveland and beyond.

Coach Belichick has been involved in the establishment of scholarship programs in New England, Maryland and Ohio. In 2013, he launched the Bill Belichick Foundation, a nonprofit organization created to provide coaching, mentorship and financial assistance to individuals, communities and organizations with a focus on the sports of football and lacrosse. The foundation has seen results of its work all over the globe. The program "Fields of Growth" was awarded a grant in 2014 via the foundation to build a lacrosse field in Uganda, and the group decided to name it in honor of the coach. Belichick has also supported and participated in events to aid Wesleyan University, his alma mater, which established a full, four-year scholarship for incoming students named the Belichick Scholarship. Additionally, he has presented the Steve Belichick Award in conjunction with the Annapolis Touchdown Club. The award, presented in the name of Coach Belichick's late father, a longtime Naval Academy assistant coach, honors an Annapolis resident deeply involved in sports without seeking a spotlight for their achievements.

Upon returning to New England in 2000, Belichick established an annual scholarship recognizing an outstanding student athlete at Annapolis High School.

Coach Belichick has dedicated his time to sharing his vast experience and insight with high school coaches, many of whom are building their own coaching careers and are shaping the next generation of football players. In 2013, Belichick served as a guest speaker at the Notre Dame coaches clinic. In 2010, Belichick was the keynote speaker at Rutgers University's coaching clinic. In 2009, he addressed more than 500 Florida high school coaches at the Florida Gators Coaching Clinic. In previous years, Belichick has also addressed high school coaches at USA Football's New England Coaching Camp and has spoken with Alabama high school coaches at the Alabama Coaching Clinic. Coach Belichick was also a keynote speaker at the Frank McGuire Foundation's coaching seminar, addressing 600 New York-area high school coaches.

Coach Belichick has also lent his support to numerous foundations and fundraisers. He participated in the Samsung's Four Seasons of Hope annual fundraising gala, where he introduced longtime friend Jon Bon Jovi to a list of honorees that included Joe Torre, Arnold Palmer, Magic Johnson and Boomer Esiason. The star-studded affair raised over $500,000 to aid children and families in need. He was honored by Roxbury Comprehensive Community Center (RoxComp) and presented with the "Healthy Living Award." He is also a supporter of Hall

"You're talking about a guy that'll be a first-ballot Hall of Fame coach when he gets in there... That's the biggest guy, and you like to go up against the very best, and that's who he is."

—FORMER NFL HEAD COACH REX RYAN

The Bill Belichick Foundation donated funds to a program to help build a lacrosse field in Uganda and the group decided to name the field after coach Belichick.

FOOTBALL FAMILY

Bill Belichick is one of only five head coaches in NFL history whose father played in the NFL. The others are Joe Walton, David Shula, Mike Nolan and Todd Haley. Belichick's father, Steve, played fullback for the Detroit Lions in 1941 and coached for 33 years at the Naval Academy.

of Famer Jim Brown's Amer-I-Can Foundation and has made speeches and appearances for Brown's foundation. He also aids Hannah and Friends, a foundation founded by long-time colleague Charlie Weis to benefit individuals with special needs.

In 2010 Coach Belichick supported a charity called Friends of Jaclyn, an organization that helps children with cancerous brain tumors be "adopted" by teams of all levels. He served as co-chair of a gala event in Boston that raised awareness for this cause.

Since becoming the Patriots head coach, Coach Belichick has participated in dozens of community events in New England, including the Best Buddies Challenge, the March of Dimes Walk America, the Rodman Ride for Kids, RoxComp's Reading is the Best Medicine Program and the Mayors Cup Regatta on the Charles River to benefit AccesSportAmerica, a charity dedicated to the fitness of children and adults with disabilities. He is a supporter of the Pawtucket Police Athletic League. He has also participated in several events benefiting the Lazarus House, a non-profit charity serving the homeless of Merrimack Valley.

While in Cleveland, the Belichick family launched a charitable foundation benefiting the Zelma George Home, a shelter for homeless women and children. The Belichicks also established an annual scholarship awarded to an Annapolis High School senior for academic and athletic achievement.

ACADEMICS

Coach Belichick has received prestigious awards from two alma maters: Wesleyan University and Phillips Academy in Andover, Massachusetts. At Wesleyan's commencement in 2002, Coach Belichick received the prestigious Baldwin Medal, awarded annually by the Wesleyan University Alumni Association. It recognizes outstanding contributions to public interest and to the university. In 2005, he received a Doctor of Humane Letters degree from Wesleyan. He was inducted into the Wesleyan University Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008. He is proud to remain close to his Phillips Academy roots, where he was bestowed the Distinguished Alumni Award in 1987 and the Distinguished Service Award in 2008. He was also honored at Phillips Academy when the school declared a day in his honor in 2002. Additionally, Belichick was among the 2011 inductees for Phillips Andover Academy's Athletics Hall of Honor.

"[The Kraft family] made one of the great moves in the history of the NFL by hiring Bill Belichick and all that he's done. They've done famous things together. It's been fun to watch that. I've enjoyed that a lot. I have a tremendous respect for Bill and the job that Robert [Kraft] has done."

— PETE CARROLL, HEAD COACH OF THE SEATTLE SEAHAWKS

"If you love football, you love working for him. I've never been around a better listener than Bill. I always thought he was very easy to communicate with – very honest, very direct and very open."

— KIRK FERENTZ, HEAD COACH AT THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

Belichick was a co-host on NFL Network's "NFL 100 All-Time Team" series showcasing the 100 greatest players in league history. He was nominated for Sports Emmy for Outstanding Sports Personality for his contributions.

"There's no hidden agenda here [in New England]. You're supposed to know what your job is and do your job. It's an easy set of circumstances to work with."

— SCOTT PIOLI, FORMER ASSISTANT GM OF THE ATLANTA FALCONS

Coach Belichick has enjoyed several annual offseason visits to New England schools to interact with students. His speaking engagements included visits to Southern Connecticut State University, Boston College, Wesleyan, Brown University, Salem State College, Phillips Andover Academy and a panel discussion on sports at the Fenn School's Alumni Dinner. He was a guest speaker at the 2006 NCAA Lacrosse All-American banquet held at the Final Four in Philadelphia and at the 2008 NCAA Lacrosse Championship Banquet at Gillette Stadium. In 2004, he received honorary doctorates at Boston University and the New England Institute of Technology, where he also delivered the commencement address to over 900 graduates. In 2008, he addressed a group of 100 Foxborough-area middle school students and hosted them at a screening of the movie "The Express." Coach Belichick also delivered the commencement address at Suffield Academy in 2011.

PLAYING

Belichick lettered in football, lacrosse and squash while attending college at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Connecticut. He earned three letters in football while competing at center and tight end. As a senior, he was named captain of his lacrosse team. He was inducted into the Wesleyan University Athletics Hall of Fame as part of its inaugural class in 2008.

EDUCATION OF A COACH

In 2005, legendary author and historian David Halberstam wrote, "The Education of a Coach," a book which chronicled Bill Belichick's life and career in football.

PERSONAL

Bill Belichick was born April 16, 1952, in Nashville, Tennessee, and raised in Annapolis, Maryland. His father, Steve, played fullback for the Detroit Lions in 1941 and coached for 33 years at the Naval Academy. Bill was a standout prep athlete at Annapolis High, where he has since been inducted into the school's hall of fame. In 2020, Belichick became the first recipient of the key to the city of Annapolis. He attended Phillips Academy in Andover, Massachusetts, before enrolling at Wesleyan, where he earned his bachelor's degree in economics in 1975. In 2018, Belichick was one of six people appointed to the President's Council on Sports, Fitness and Nutrition, a committee that engages, educates and empowers all Americans to adopt a healthy lifestyle that includes regular physical activity and good nutrition.

In 2019, Belichick joined Chuck Noll (1970s-80s) as the only other coach in NFL history to be selected to two NFL All-Decade teams. Last year he was also featured as a regular co-host on NFL Network's "NFL 100 All-Time Team" series showcasing the 100 greatest players in league history. For his part in the series, Belichick was nominated for a Sports Emmy for Outstanding Sports Personality - Studio Analyst.

He was also a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's centennial blue-ribbon panel that helped construct 2020's Hall of Fame class that includes 10 senior nominees, five modern era nominees, three contributors and two coaches. Belichick was also honored in a pregame ceremony at Super Bowl LIV honoring the NFL 100 team that also featured Tom Brady, Rob Gronkowski, Randy Moss, Adam Vinatieri, John Hannah and Mike Haynes.

Belichick was also awarded a "game ball" from the Fritz Pollard Alliance in 2019, acknowledging his efforts in creating coaching opportunities for minorities.

In 2020, Belichick was honored by the lacrosse community as he was named the winner of Spirit of Tewaaraton Award. The award is presented to an individual who has contributed to the sport of lacrosse in a way that reflects the spirit of the values and mission of the Tewaaraton Award.

PRONOUNCED AY-cord

COACHING

Cameron Achord enters his sixth season overall with the New England Patriots in 2023, and his fourth as special teams coordinator. Achord served as assistant special teams coach from 2018-19.

In 2022, Achord's punt return unit ranked first in the NFL for punt return yards and third in total return yards, led by Marcus Jones. Jones ranked second in total return yards, punt return average and first in punt return yards and the longest punt return. He was named to the 2023 Associated Press All-Pro first team as a punt returner.

In both 2020 and 2021, the special teams units ranked 4th in opponent kickoff return starting field position. Special teamer Matthew Slater was selected to his tenth Pro Bowl and earned his third Second-team All-Pro honors.

In 2021, the punt team ranked 9th in net punting after ranking 1st in net punting and 2nd in return yards allowed in 2020.

Since taking over as coordinator in 2020, the punt return unit has ranked first overall on yards-per-return. Two special teams players, Slater and punter Jake Bailey, were selected to the Pro Bowl. Punt returner Gunner Olszewski led the league in punt return yards (346) and punt return average, earning his first First-team All-Pro honor.

Achord joined the Patriots after five seasons with Southwest Mississippi Community College, where he served in roles as offensive coordinator, special teams coordinator, quarterbacks, running backs and tight ends coach, as well as recruiting coordinator. In 2014, Achord's kickoff return unit ranked third and the punt return unit ranked second in the nation in return average. In 2016 under his tutelage, tight end Ravian Pierce earned All-American honors. Achord also played a key role in Patriots special teams blocking a franchise-record four punts in 2019 and the team allowing just 71 punt return yards on only 12 punt returns in 2021.

Prior to his stint at Southwest, Achord spent the 2010-11 seasons as a special teams graduate assistant and worked with the linebackers at the University of Southern Mississippi. He spent the 2012 season as an offensive graduate assistant with the Eagles, working with the quarterbacks.

PLAYING

A four-year starter at free safety at Belhaven University, Achord served as a team captain in 2008 and 2009. He was a two-time Academic All-American honoree and twice named a Mid-South Conference Player of the Week. In addition, he was an All-Conference back in 2009 and an Honorable Mention back in 2007. In 2010, he participated in the NAIA Senior Classic.

PERSONAL

Achord is a Brookhaven, Miss., native and 2005 graduate of Brookhaven Academy. He is also a 2009 graduate of Belhaven University with degrees in computer information science and sports administration. He received a master's degree in sports management from the University of Southern Mississippi in 2011. Achord and his wife, Emily, welcomed their son, Dawson, in 2023.

SUPER BOWLS: 16,18

COACHING

Brian Belichick enters his fourth season as safeties coach following three seasons as a coaching assistant with the New England Patriots.

Over the last three years, since Belichick became the safeties coach, the defense has ranked in the top three in the NFL for interceptions, registering 19 in 2022 (3rd), 23 in 2021 (2nd) and 18 in 2020 (1st).

In 2022, Kyle Dugger became the first New England Patriots player in the Super Bowl era with three defensive touchdowns in a single season after he returned two interceptions and a fumble recovery for touchdowns. Dugger was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week in Week 17 for his interception returned for a touchdown against the Dolphins.

Following the 2022 season, Belichick served as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the West team in the East-West Shrine Bowl, assisting the team to a 12-3 victory.

PERSONAL

Belichick originally joined the organization as a scouting assistant in 2016. He graduated from Trinity College in 2016, where he majored in anthropology and played midfield for the Bantam lacrosse team.

Belichick attended Suffield Academy (Suffield, Connecticut) and was an all-league selection in both football and lacrosse.

12TH COACHING SEASON
12TH NFL SEASON
12TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 14, 16, 18

COACHING

Steve Belichick enters his fourth season working with the linebackers following four seasons coaching in the secondary and four years as a coaching assistant.

For the last two seasons, Belichick worked with Matthew Judon to reach career high sack totals in back-to-back seasons after recording 12½ in 2021 and 15½ in 2022. The 15½ sacks ranked third in team history and his 102.5 sack yards ranked first in team history. Judon earned his fourth straight Pro Bowl invitation and second straight with the Patriots. Judon also earned PFWA-All-AFC Team honors and was named the Week 5 AFC Defensive Player of the Week.

Belichick also guided Josh Uche to new career highs in 2022. Uche finished with a career high 11½ sacks for 49.5 yards. He had six sacks in a three-game span, second most in team history. Uche earned AFC Player of the Week honors in Week 14 after his three sack performance against Arizona.

In 2019, Belichick led a secondary as part of a defense that finished No. 1 in the NFL in total defense (275.9 yards per game) and scoring (14.1 points allowed per game). Additionally, CB Stephon Gilmore turned in a career season, becoming the first Patriot to win Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year after finishing with a career-high six interceptions and his second straight year with 20 passes defensed, joining Ty Law (1998 & 2003) as the only Patriots with two seasons of 20-plus passes defensed. Gilmore also earned AFC Defensive Player of the Month honors for October and safety Devin McCourty was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Month for September after he intercepted a pass in each of the first four games of the season.

Under his guidance in 2018, the Patriots safeties were part of a defense that held the L.A. Rams to a Super Bowl record-tying low three points en route to a victory in Super Bowl LIII. Duron Harmon also duplicated his performance from the previous season by leading the team and tying a career-high with four interceptions. In 2017, the Patriots safeties played a critical role within a unit that finished fifth in the NFL by allowing 18.5 points per game. Devin McCourty was also selected to his fourth career Pro Bowl under Belichick's instruction.

PLAYING

After playing four years of lacrosse at Rutgers, Belichick walked on to the football team as a long snapper.

SUPER BOWLS: 01, 03, 04

COACHING

Brown enters his third season as wide receivers/kick returners coach after serving as the running backs/kick returners coach in 2020. He joined the New England Patriots coaching staff in an NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship position in 2019.

In 2022, the punt return unit ranked first in the NFL for punt return yards and third in total return yards. Brown worked closely with rookie DB Marcus Jones, who ranked second in total return yards, punt return average and first in punt return yards and the longest punt return. Jones was named to the 2023 Associated Press All-Pro first team as a punt returner.

Under his and Ross Douglass' guidance in 2022, WR Jakobi Meyers set new career highs in reception yards (804) and six receiving touchdowns, tripling his previous season high of two receiving touchdowns.

Following the season, Brown served as the head coach of the West team in the East-West Shrine Bowl, leading his team to a 12-3 victory.

PLAYING

Brown spent his entire 15-season career as a wide receiver with the New England Patriots after being drafted by the team in the eighth round (198th overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft out of Marshall. Brown is a three-time Super Bowl champion (XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXIX), a five-time co-captain, earned Pro Bowl honors in 2001 and was given the Ron Burton Community Service Award in 2004. He is the team's all-time leading punt returner with 252 career returns and 2,625 punt return yards, ranks third all-time in receptions with 557 and ranks third all-time in all-purpose yardage with 11,069 total yards. Brown was inducted to the Patriots Hall of Fame in 2012.

7TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 18

COACHING

DeMarcus Covington enters his seventh season overall with the Patriots in 2023 and his fourth as defensive line coach. Covington served as outside linebackers coach in 2019 after two seasons as a coaching assistant.

He joined the organization in 2017 after spending the 2016 season as co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Eastern Illinois. Prior to his time with the Panthers, Covington coached the defensive line at UT Martin in 2015. From 2013-14, he spent two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant at Ole Miss and in 2012, was a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Alabama-Birmingham.

Covington helped the Patriots defense finish ranked 8th in the NFL in 2022. The defensive unit ranked first in the NFL in rushing touchdowns allowed, having only given up seven all season. The team also recorded 54 total sacks on the season, the fifth most in team history and tied for third most in the league. Under the guidance of Covington, Deatrich Wise Jr. recorded a new career high in sacks in 2022 with 7½, Matthew Judon reached career high sack totals in back-to-back seasons after recording 12½ in 2021 and 15½ in 2022 and Josh Uche recorded new career highs with 11½ sacks for 49.5 yards.

Following the season, Covington was selected to serve as the defensive coordinator for the Senior Bowl's American team.

Under Covington's guidance in 2019, Jamie Collins Sr. set career highs with seven sacks and three interceptions as part of a defense that finished No. 1 in the NFL in total defense (275.9 yards per game) and scoring (14.1 points allowed per game). He was the only player in the NFL with six or more sacks and three or more interceptions in 2019. No other Patriot has reached those marks in the same season. Kyle Van Noy also set a single-season career high with 6½ sacks and earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors following a Week 4 win at Buffalo when he led the team with eight tackles, two sacks, three quarterback hits and two forced fumbles.

PLAYING

Covington played collegiately at wide receiver for Samford University, where he registered 62 receptions for 586 yards and two touchdowns from 2007-10. He graduated from Samford in 2011.

PERSONAL

Off the field, Covington created Next Level in 2012, a non-profit football camp that serves as an outlet to the youth of his home town of Birmingham, Alabama, for a full day of football-related drills and activities. Covington and wife, Natasha have two sons, Cassius and Cayman.

COACHING

Joe Houston enters his fourth season coaching in the NFL and fourth season with the New England Patriots in 2023 after spending 2019 with Alabama as a special teams analyst.

Houston aided Special Teams Coordinator Cam Achord in coaching the punt return unit ranked first in the NFL for punt return yards and third in total return yards, led by Marcus Jones. Jones ranked second in total return yards, punt return average and first in punt return yards and the longest punt return. He was named to the 2023 Associated Press All-Pro first team as a punt returner.

Following the 2022 season, Houston served as the special teams coordinator for the West team in the East-West Shrine Bowl, assisting the team to a 12-3 victory.

Prior to joining the Crimson Tide, Houston spent three years at Iowa State as a quality control coach in 2016-17 and as special teams coordinator in 2018. In 2015, Houston worked as a quality control assistant at Toledo. He began his coaching career in 2012, when he spent three seasons at El Camino College as a special teams coach and assisted in the secondary.

PLAYING

Houston was a placekicker at USC from 2007-10 under coaches Pete Carroll and Lane Kiffin. After earning starting kicking duties in 2010, Houston led the team in scoring (73 points), made 10 field goals and was a perfect 43-for-43 for extra point attempts in his senior year. Houston also spent two seasons in the Arena Football League with the Chicago Rush and the Nebraska Danger after his collegiate career.

JOE JUDGE
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

18TH COACHING SEASON
12TH NFL SEASON
10TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 14, 16, 18

COACHING

Joe Judge returned to the New England Patriots in 2022 as an offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach, following a two-year stint as head coach of the New York Giants (2020-21). He will serve as the assistant head coach during the 2023 season. In addition to his on-field responsibilities, Judge also oversees the development and coordination of all of the rookie team development programs and all team building. Also assists Bill Belichick in personnel matters.

Under Judge's guidance in 2023, Mac Jones finished with a 65.2 completion percentage, his second straight season with a pass completion of at least 65 percent. Jones, Justin Herbert and Joe Burrow are the only players to accomplish that feat in their first two NFL seasons. Also rookie Bailey Zappe was called into action and became the first rookie to win and record a 100-plus passer rating in his first two starts since Sonny Jergensen in 1957.

Judge enters his 10th season with the New England Patriots after originally joining the organization as assistant special teams coach in 2012. He was promoted to special teams coach following Scott O'Brien's retirement in 2015 and in 2019, he served as special team coordinator/wide receivers coach.

Judge's Patriots special teams units enjoyed successful seasons in Judge's first eight years with New England. In 2019, the Patriots special teams unit blocked a franchise record four punts. Under Judge's guidance in 2018, Patriots special teams played a key role as part of the Super Bowl LIII Champion squad. In particular, the punt coverage team repeatedly pinned the L.A. Rams offense deep in their own territory throughout the game, forcing the Rams to start three of their drives inside their own 10-yard line. Special teams were also critical in a Week 7 win at Chicago, scoring touchdowns on a kickoff return and a blocked punt en route to a 38-31 victory.

In 2017, the kickoff and kickoff receiving teams each finished third in the NFL in average drive start position. Additionally, RB Dion Lewis led the AFC and finished fourth in the NFL with a 24.8 yards-per return average and earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after returning a kickoff 103 yards for a touchdown in a Week 10 game at Denver. P Ryan Allen also enjoyed a successful season under Judge, limiting opponents to just 23 punt returns for a 4.6 yard average, the lowest in team history. Special teamer Matthew Slater was selected to his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl, matching Steve Tasker for the most special teams Pro Bowl honors in NFL history.

In 2016, Judge's kickoff team led the AFC in kickoff drive start position and finished third in the NFL, while finishing second in the league in drive start position in 2015. Additionally, the kickoff return team finished seventh in the NFL in kickoff return drive start position and fourth in the AFC in 2016. Judge's punt teams have enjoyed similar success, finishing second in the NFL in punt coverage and second in opponents return average. As a punt returner, WR Danny Amendola led the entire NFL in punt return average in 2015 while averaging 12 yards-per-return. Having worked with Judge since 2012, WR Julian Edelman became one of the most efficient punt returners in the NFL. In 2012, Edelman averaged 15.5 yards-per-return while being limited by injury to only 17 punt returns that season. Edelman became second all-time in Patriots history with a career punt return average of 11.7 yards, which also tied him for eighth all-time in the NFL for punt return average. Likewise, Judge oversaw some standout kickoff return performances. In 2016, RB Dion Lewis scored on the longest kickoff return touchdown in team postseason history with a 98-yard return for a touchdown vs. Houston in the AFC Divisional Playoff. In 2015, WR Keshawn Martin had the longest kickoff return in the AFC with his 75-yard return vs. Tennessee. In the 2016 postseason, DB Jonathan Jones finished tied for first in the NFL in postseason special teams tackles.

In addition to K Stephen Gostkowski leading the NFL in scoring for four seasons under Judge's tutelage, Gostkowski was also elected to the Pro Bowl in 2013, 2014 and 2015. With 156 points in 2017, Gostkowski became the first player in NFL history with five 150-point seasons. He is one of three players to lead the league in scoring for at least five seasons. Under Judge's guidance, Gostkowski was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week five times and AFC Special Teams Player of the Month three times, while Allen earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors twice while working with Judge. Additionally, under Judge's tutelage, Allen became the Patriots all-time leader in punt average with a 45.0 career average. As a rookie in 2013, Allen set a Patriots rookie record with his 39.9 net average on punts and in 2016 finished second in the AFC in net punt average. Additionally, Matthew Slater was selected to seven straight Pro Bowls as a special teamer and earned Associated Press First Team: All-Pro honors for the first time in his career in 2016, while Nate Ebner tied for the NFL lead in special teams tackles. Slater and Ebner were also the only two special teams players in the entire NFL to be selected to the All-Pro team.

In Judge's first season in 2012, New England led the NFL in extra points and finished second in punt return yards and fewest punt return yards allowed. In 2013, the Patriots finished tied for the most field goals made and field goal percentage. In 2016, the field goal unit led the league in field goals made and was second in field goal percentage. In his first five years in New England, Judge's field goal blocking unit had the second-most blocked field goals across the entire NFL with seven blocked field goals.

Judge came to the Patriots after a three-year stint at the University of Alabama as a football analyst under coach Nick Saban. While on the Alabama staff, Judge was a member of two National Championship teams in 2009 and 2011 and assisted with the special teams units. At Alabama, Judge's special teams units boasted a First-Team All American kicker and Groza Award finalist (Leigh Tiffin, 2009), a First-Team All American return specialist (Javier Arenas, 2009), an SEC

All-Freshman team punter (Cody Mandell, 2010) and a returner, who finished his career ranked second all-time in NCAA return yards (Arenas).

Prior to going to Alabama, Judge spent one season at Birmingham-Southern where he served as special teams/linebackers coach in 2008. He began his coaching career at Mississippi State as a graduate assistant under Sylvester Croom from 2005-07. While at Mississippi State, Judge tutored a freshman All-SEC punter, five All-SEC linebackers and a returner who finished as the all-time SEC leader in career return yards and kickoff return yards.

PLAYING

Judge played for Mississippi State from 2000-04, earning three letters. He was also named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and made the Dean's List.

PERSONAL

Judge played quarterback and strong safety during a four-year high school career at Landsdale (Pa.) Catholic High School under Jim Algeo. He was named All-Area as a junior and senior.

Judge was born Dec. 31, 1981, in Philadelphia, Pa. His father, Joseph, played football at Temple and professionally with the Hamilton Tigercats of the CFL. Judge turned to coaching saying, "I love the game, and they were not paying me to play anymore so this was the best path for me to stay in the game that I love." Judge is currently working on his PhD in education in order to hone his teaching skills to become the best coach he can be. Judge's wife, Amber, was an All-SEC soccer player at Mississippi State, and they have four children together - Sean, Michael, Emma Riley and Ella Grace.

ADRIAN KLEMM

OFFENSIVE LINE

14TH COACHING SEASON
10TH NFL SEASON
6TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 01, 03, 04

COACHING

Adrian Klemm was hired by New England as the offensive line coach after serving as Oregon's associate head coach, offensive line coach and run game coordinator for the 2022 season.

Klemm played in the NFL as an offensive lineman for seven seasons, including five seasons with the Patriots (2000-04) , and was part of three Super Bowl Championships with New England. Klemm was Bill Belichick's first draft pick with the Patriots, originally drafted in 2000.

Klemm coached in the NFL as the Steelers' assistant offensive line coach from 2019-2020, prior to his stint at Oregon. The Steelers won the AFC North in 2020 while allowing the fewest sacks in the NFL, seven fewer than the next closest team. The offensive line allowed a sack in just 2.1 % of the team's passing attempts, leading the nation by 1.3 %, with the 2nd through 10th-ranked teams in the category separated by just 1.5%. He was promoted to offensive line coach before the 2021 season. The Steelers went 29-19-1 in his three seasons with the team. Klemm's offensive line paved the way for rookie running back Najee Harris to run for 1,200 yards and earn Pro Bowl honors in his first NFL season in 2021. The Steelers finished the season with a 9-7-1 record and reached the Wild Card round of the NFL Playoffs. While at Oregon in 2022, Klemm's offensive line led the nation with only five sacks surrendered on the year. The unit's 0.39 sacks per game was the fewest by a non-academy team in a non-pandemic season since Toledo in 2015.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Klemm produced several all-conference players and NFL Draft picks at both UCLA and SMU. Klemm started working at UCLA in 2012 and immediately elevated the offensive line to be one of the best in the Pac-12. He spent two seasons as UCLA's offensive line coach and run game coordinator before adding associate head coach duties in 2014. During Klemm's five seasons at UCLA, eight Bruins earned All Pac-12 honors, nine went on to play in the NFL and two-time All American Xavier Su'a-Filo was named the Walter Morris Trophy winner, given to the top lineman in the Pac 12.

Klemm began his coaching career under his former college coach, June Jones, at SMU. Several offensive linemen developed into All Conference-USA players and two became NFL Draft picks under Klemm, as SMU won back-to-back Conference USA titles in 2009 and 2010.

PLAYING

After a standout playing career at Hawai'i, Klemm was the 46th overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft. He spent seven seasons in the NFL with the New England Patriots (2000-04) and Green Bay Packers (2005-06), winning three Super Bowl titles while with the Patriots. As a collegiate player, Klemm was the left tackle for Jones during his senior season (1999). He was a part of the biggest turnaround in NCAA history as Hawai'i improved from 0-12 to 9-4 and won a bowl game that season.

PERSONAL

Klemm earned his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Excelsior College in 2008.

SUPER BOWLS: 18

PRONOUNCED DER-on

COACHING

Deron Mayo enters his sixth season as strength & conditioning assistant coach with the New England Patriots in 2023. Mayo joined the organization in 2018 after playing linebacker for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League for six seasons. He assists Moses Cabrera in the team's year-round strength and conditioning program.

PLAYING

Mayo played linebacker for six seasons in the CFL for the Calgary Stampeders. He appeared in 87 regular season contests and five playoff games during his pro career and won a Grey Cup with the Stampeders in 2014. Mayo totaled 277 tackles on defense, 33 tackles on special teams, 14 sacks, one interception and one fumble recovery over six seasons. Mayo played his final collegiate season with Old Dominion after spending his first three seasons at Hofstra University (2007-09). He was co-captain of the Old Dominion Monarchs in 2010 and became the first ODU grad to sign with an NFL team when he went to training camp with the Denver Broncos in 2011.

PERSONAL

Mayo is a Hampton, Virginia, native, and played four seasons at Kecoughtan High School. He was named to the All-Peninsula District First Team and All-Area Second Team as a senior. Deron's older brother, Jerod, was a first-round draft pick of the New England Patriots in 2008 and played eight seasons for the team before his retirement following the 2015 season. Mayo earned his Bachelor of Science in exercise science from Hofstra. He holds a CSCS certification through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and is currently studying a master's degree in High Performance Sport at the University of Technology-Sydney (UTS).

SUPER BOWLS: 14

COACHING

Jerod Mayo began his coaching career as inside linebackers coach with the New England Patriots in 2019. Under Mayo's tutelage in his first coaching season, Dont'a Hightower earned his second career Pro Bowl nod after the eight-year veteran totaled 71 tackles, 5½ sacks, four passes defensed and one fumble returned for a touchdown as part of a defense that finished No. 1 in the NFL in total defense (275.9 yards per game) and scoring (14.1 points allowed per game).

In 2022, the Patriots defense finished ranked 8th and tied for second with San Francisco with 30 total takeaways. Mayo guided Matthew Judon to reach career high sack totals in back-to-back seasons after recording 12½ in 2021 and 15½ in 2022. The 15½ sacks rank third in team history and his 102.5 sack yards rank first in team history. Judon earned his fourth straight Pro Bowl invitation and second straight with the Patriots. He also earned PFWA-All-AFC Team honors and was named the Week 5 AFC Defensive Player of the Week.

Mayo also guided Josh Uche to new career highs in 2022. Uche finished with a career high 11½ sacks for 49.5 yards. He had six sacks in a three-game span, second most in team history. Uche earned AFC Player of the Week in Week 14 after his three sack performance against Arizona.

PLAYING

Mayo was drafted by the Patriots in the first round (10th overall) of the 2008 draft and spent his entire NFL career in New England, retiring following the 2015 season. Mayo played linebacker and appeared in 103 games during his career, racking up 905 total tackles. He was named captain for seven consecutive seasons (2009-15) and is a 2014 Super Bowl Champion. Mayo made the Pro Bowl after the 2012 and 2010 seasons where he led the league in tackles and made the 2010 Associated Press All-Pro First Team. He led the Patriots in total tackles in each of his first five seasons and became just the second Patriots player to win the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year award. Mayo played collegiately at Tennessee from 2005-07 and appeared in 32 games, registering 236 total tackles.

BILL O'BRIEN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

31ST COACHING SEASON
13TH NFL SEASON
6TH PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Bill O'Brien re-joined the New England Patriots on January 26, 2023, as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. O'Brien spent five seasons with the Patriots, from 2007 through the 2011 season, and contributed to five winning seasons, four AFC East Division titles and two AFC Conference Champions during his time with New England. The Patriots finished in the top 10 in offense every year during O'Brien's time with the Patriots. He was appointed to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2011 following two seasons as quarterbacks coach (2009-10) and one season as wide receivers coach (2008). He originally joined the Patriots as a coaching assistant in 2007, following 14 seasons coaching at the collegiate level.

After leaving New England, O'Brien served as the head coach at Penn State (2012-13), where he garnered national and conference Coach of the Year honors in 2012. He was named the head coach of the Houston Texans in 2014. In his seven seasons with the Texans, Houston won four AFC South titles and advanced to the AFC Divisional Round twice. He most recently served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Alabama (2021-22).

In O'Brien's final season with New England in 2011, the franchise set a record with 6,848 total net yards and was third in the NFL in points per game (32.1). O'Brien coached the Patriots to 513 points on 61 touchdowns, good for the fourth-most in team history. In 2010, New England led the NFL in scoring with 32.4 points per game and ranked eighth in total offense. In 2009, the Patriots offense finished third in the NFL after averaging 397.3 yards in total offense.

In 2008, Patriots wide receivers contributed to an offense that posted the third highest yardage output in franchise history, despite the loss of starting quarterback Tom Brady in Week 1. Wes Welker produced his second consecutive season with 100-plus receptions and was selected to his first Pro Bowl. Both Welker and Randy Moss posted 1,000-yard receiving seasons in 2008, each achieving the first back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons in franchise history.

Prior to entering the NFL, O'Brien coached in the Atlantic Coast Conference for 12 seasons, including tenures at Georgia Tech (1995-2002), Maryland (2003-04) and Duke (2005-06).

O'Brien completed a two-year tenure at Duke as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2005-06. O'Brien joined the Duke coaching staff after spending two seasons as the running backs coach at the University of Maryland. In his first season with Maryland in 2003, the Terrapins finished second in the ACC in rushing and defeated West Virginia in the Gator Bowl.

O'Brien spent eight seasons at Georgia Tech (1995-2002) and served as the Yellow Jackets' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in his final two seasons. In addition to his normal duties, he also served as an assistant head coach in 2002 and was Georgia Tech's recruiting coordinator from 1999-2000. He spent his first three seasons at Georgia Tech as an offensive graduate assistant (1995-97), before beginning a three-year stint as the Yellow Jackets' running backs coach (1998-2000). In each of O'Brien's three seasons coaching the running backs, Georgia Tech finished no lower than third in the conference in rushing. During his two-year tenure as offensive coordinator (2001-02), the team played in a bowl game each season. In 2001, under O'Brien's direction, the Yellow Jackets led the ACC in passing and finished third in the league in scoring.

O'Brien began his coaching career at Brown, coaching tight ends in 1993 and tutoring inside linebackers in 1994.

PLAYING

O'Brien was a linebacker and defensive end at Brown University from 1990-92.

PERSONAL

Bill O'Brien was born on October 23, 1969 in Dorchester, Mass., and raised in Andover. He and his wife, Colleen, have two sons, Jack and Michael.

MIKE PELLEGRINO

CORNERBACKS

9TH COACHING SEASON
9TH NFL SEASON
9TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 16, 18

COACHING

Mike Pellegrino enters his ninth season overall with the Patriots, and fifth as cornerbacks coach. Pellegrino originally joined the organization as a football operations intern in 2015 and spent four seasons as a coaching assistant.

In 2022, Pellegrino led a secondary as part of a defense that finished No. 1 in the NFL in interception yards (383), interceptions returned for touchdowns (five) and defensive touchdowns (seven). The unit also ranked third in interceptions (19) and tied for second in total takeaways (30). Cornerbacks Jack Jones, Jonathan Jones and Marcus Jones combined for eight of the 19 interceptions and three of five interceptions returned for touchdowns.

Following the 2022 season, Pellegrino served as the co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach for the West team in the East-West Shrine Bowl, assisting the team to a 12-3 victory.

Under Pellegrino's guidance in 2021, J.C. Jackson finished second in the league in total takeaways with nine and led the league in passes defensed with 23. Jackson was named to the Pro Bowl and was also named second-team All-Pro.

In Pellegrino's first season as cornerbacks coach in 2019, the defense finished No. 1 in the NFL in total defense (275.9 yards per game) and scoring (14.1 points allowed per game). Additionally, Stephon Gilmore turned in a career season, becoming the first Patriot to win Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year after finishing with a career-high six interceptions and his second straight year with 20 passes defensed, joining Ty Law (1998 & 2003) as the only Patriots with two seasons of 20-plus passes defensed. Gilmore also earned AFC Defensive Player of the Month for October.

PERSONAL

Pellegrino graduated from Johns Hopkins in 2015 where he majored in political science with a minor in entrepreneurship and management. He was a two-time All-American and team captain for the lacrosse team as a long stick midfielder. Pellegrino was selected by the New York Lizards in the second round of the Major League Lacrosse Collegiate Draft in 2015. He played one season with New York and spent the 2016-17 seasons with the Boston Cannons, all while working as a coaching assistant with the Patriots.

Pellegrino was born on July 24, 1993, to Kerri-Ann and Joseph Pellegrino. The Long Island native's father is a retired NYPD officer and his older brother, Joseph Jr., currently serves in the NYPD. Pellegrino married his wife Amanda in 2022. Amanda ran track at Towson University and is currently a pediatric occupational therapist at Boston Children's Hospital.

3RD PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Evan Rothstein enters his third season with the New England Patriots and first as assistant quarterbacks. He spent the last season as an offensive assistant after spending the 2021 season in a research and analysis/coaching role.

Following the 2022 season, Rothstein served as the running backs coach for the West team in the East-West Shrine Bowl, assisting the team to a 12-3 victory.

He joined New England after nine seasons with the Detroit Lions. Rothstein joined the Lions organization in 2012 and worked two seasons as the team's special teams quality control coach before becoming the team's special projects coach in 2014. Rothstein was then promoted to an offensive assistant/research & analysis role from 2015-17, followed by two-plus seasons as the team's head coach assistant/research & analyst. From 2018-20, Rothstein worked with the coaching staff in all facets of preparation for the team's weekly opponents, in addition to assisting head coach Matt Patricia.

Rothstein arrived in Detroit after spending two seasons (2010-11) as the offensive quality control coach for Syracuse. Rothstein interned with the Syracuse video operations department during the fall of 2009 before briefly returning to SUNY Cortland as their offensive line coach for the spring of 2010. He then returned to the Syracuse football staff as their offensive line quality control coach in July of 2010.

As an undergraduate at SUNY Cortland, Rothstein began his coaching career with the Red Dragons where he served as the student assistant coach, quality control and director of video operations from 2006-09.

PERSONAL

A native of Merrick, N.Y., Rothstein attended Bellmore John F. Kennedy High School, earning recognition as a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete. Rothstein graduated from SUNY Cortland with a bachelor of science in sport management in 2009 and a master of science in sport management in 2012. He and his wife, Carol, have two daughters, Emma and Jacqueline, and one son, Ryan.

VINNIE SUNSERI

RUNNING BACKS

5TH COACHING SEASON
7TH NFL SEASON
4TH PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Vinnie Sunseri enters his fourth season with the New England Patriots in 2023 and his third working with the running backs. Sunseri joined the team after spending one year as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Alabama, under coach Nick Saban.

In 2022, Rhamondre Stevenson finished with 1,040 rushing yards, the team's first 1,000-yard rusher since the 2016 season. Stevenson also recorded 69 receptions, the fourth most in team history and fourth most in the NFL by a running back.

Under Sunseri's guidance in 2021, RB Damien Harris finished the season with career highs in rushing yards (929), rushing touchdowns (15), receptions (18), and receiving yards (132). The 15 rushing touchdowns tied for second in the NFL and the most by a Patriots player in his first or second season. Harris eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark five times in the 2021 season.

PLAYING

Sunseri played safety in the NFL and was originally drafted by New Orleans in the fifth round (167th overall) and spent two seasons with the Saints. In 2014, he played in nine games, primarily on special teams, recording six special teams tackles. Sunseri missed the 2015 season due to injury. He had a brief stint with the New England Patriots, spending training camp with New England in 2016 and later spending time on the practice squad. In October of 2016, Sunseri was released by the Patriots and signed to the 49ers practice squad in November. Shortly after, he was promoted to San Francisco's active roster, playing in six games and registering four defensive tackles. Sunseri played collegiately at Alabama from 2011-13 recording 105 tackles, 1½ sacks, four interceptions, 12 passes defensed, one forced fumble and three fumble recoveries.

PERSONAL

Vinnie Sunseri graduated with a bachelor's degree in business management from Alabama in 2015. He was born Oct. 25, 1991, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania to Sal and Roxann Sunseri. His father is currently the defensive line coach at Colorado. He has two sisters, Jaclyn and Ashlyn, and a brother, Tino, who is the quarterbacks coach at JMU. Sunseri and his wife, Kaci, were married in July 2022.

COACHING

Billy Yates enters his third season with the Patriots as an assistant offensive line coach after spending three seasons as an assistant coach with the Detroit Lions, including the 2020 season as the team's assistant offensive line coach.

Following the 2022 season, Yates served as the assistant offensive line coach for the West team in the East-West Shrine Bowl assisting the team to a 12-3 victory.

Yates was a part of the William Clay Ford Minority Coaching Assistantship for the 2018-19 seasons, helping the defensive side of the ball under Matt Patricia. Prior to joining Detroit, he was named head of strength and conditioning at Bowling Green State University in 2016. From 2013 through the 2015 season, Yates served as the assistant strength coach at Texas Tech.

PLAYING

Yates spent five seasons (2004-08) playing with the New England Patriots, where he played in 67 games and was a part of the Patriots during their Super Bowl XXXIX run.

Yates played collegiately at Texas A&M before spending eight seasons in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins (2003), Patriots (2004-08) and the Cleveland Browns (2009-10). He joined Miami as a rookie free agent.

PERSONAL

Yates and his wife, Tamika, have a son, William.

MATT GROH

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

SUPER BOWLS: 14, 16, 18

Matt Groh enters his 13th season with the Patriots and his second as Director of Player Personnel. He served two years as a national scout, six as an area scout and the 2021 season as College Scouting Director. He joined the organization in July 2011 as a scouting assistant and served in that role for two seasons. Groh was a quarterback at Princeton University, where he graduated in 2003 with a psychology degree. He later earned a law degree from the University of Virginia in 2008. A native of Hingham, Mass., Groh graduated from Chaminade High School on Long Island. Groh and his wife, Courtney, have a daughter, Emma, and a son, Ryan.

JOSEPH ANILE

PRO SCOUT

Joseph Anile enters his second season with New England after spending five seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars. Anile was hired by Jacksonville in the summer of 2017 as a Scouting Assistant, and rose to Scouting Associate before serving as a Pro Scout in the 2021 season.

During his time in Jacksonville, Anile performed a variety of duties within the scouting department. His responsibilities included coordination of free agent workouts, preparation for free agency, advance scouting of upcoming opponents, management of the waiver wire, assisting the WR coach during practices and the evaluation of players in the NFL and other professional leagues.

Anile graduated from Colby College (Waterville, Maine) in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in economics. A multi-sport, award-winning athlete, Anile played quarterback for Colby's football team and defense on its lacrosse team as well as winning a national championship for the Long Island Royals AAA U16 hockey team. He is the nephew of the late legendary college football coach and longtime NFL personnel director, Dom Anile.

MIKE ARONIAN

SENIOR SOFTWARE ENGINEER

Michael Aronian enters his fifth season as a software engineer for the New England Patriots. Michael joined the organization as an intern in November 2018 before joining the staff full time in April of 2019. Michael studied Mathematics at Salem State University. Prior to joining the Patriots, Michael worked with 5th and 4th grade students in special education at Bedford Public Schools. Michael was born and raised in Chelmsford, Mass., where he attended Chelmsford High School.

ALEX BROOKS

AREA SCOUT

SUPER BOWLS: 18

Alex Brooks begins his sixth season with the New England Patriots in 2023 and third as an area scout, responsible for the Southwest territory. He originally joined the Patriots as a scouting assistant in May 2018. Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Brooks spent the 2018 Spring Season at John Carroll University, serving as assistant DL/RB Coach. Prior to coaching, Brooks played at West Virginia University from 2013-2016. He was coached by Dana Holgorsen and was a member of the 10-3, 2016 team that made an appearance in the Russell Athletic Bowl. He graduated from West Virginia with a degree in Sports Psychology and a minor in Communications in May 2017. A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Brooks graduated from Mayfield High School in 2013 where he was a letterman in football and track.

MAYA CALLENDER

SCOUTING ASSISTANT

Maya Ana Callender joins the Patriots in 2023 following four years serving as the Director of Football Operations & Pro Liaison at Princeton University from 2019-23. She was responsible for internal and external aspects of the program.

Prior to Princeton, Callender spent a year at Belhaven University in Jackson, Mississippi while working in an interim director of football operations role.

The Bronx, New York native graduated from Utica University in 2016 with a Marketing Management degree where she was a four-year head manager for the football program.

Callender completed a training camp football operations rotational internship with the Philadelphia Eagles, where she worked with internal operations and personnel staff. She was also named a 2022 Nunn Wooten Scouting Fellow for the Buccaneers.

STEVE CARGILE

PRO SCOUTING DIRECTOR

SUPER BOWLS: 14, 16, 18

Steve Cargile is in his 13th season with the Patriots personnel department and his third as pro scouting director. He joined the organization in February 2011 as a scouting assistant. Cargile also assisted with coaching special teams during the 2011 season. He was named the 2016 AFC Scout of the Year by the Fritz Pollard Alliance. Prior to joining the Patriots, Cargile was an NFL safety with several different teams from 2004-09. He was originally signed by the Dallas Cowboys as a rookie free agent out of Columbia in 2004 and also had stints with Tampa Bay, Denver, Cleveland and the N.Y. Giants during his NFL career.

Cargile played wide receiver and safety during his time at Columbia, earning Second Team All-Ivy League honors in 2003 for his efforts on defense. He graduated in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in economics.

EXTRA POINTS

- In 2016, Lawrence and his wife lost a baby to a miscarriage and sought comfort from Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep, an organization that helped him and his wife heal from the loss of their unborn child.

  "It's one of those stigmas that you want to keep to yourself," said Guy. "You don't want to share and this organization helps you pretty much heal and gives you the resources throughout the process."

  In 2017, Guy took the opportunity to provide public support for Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep by donning the organization's logo and colors on one cleat during the "My Cause, My Cleats" initiative in November.

  In 2018, Guy participated in "My Cause, My Cleats" again by supporting My Life, My Choice, which fights against human trafficking and Show Your Soft Side, an organization dedicated to helping stop the abuse of cats and dogs.
- Lawrence has overcome learning challenges associated with dyslexia and dyscalculia, which went undiagnosed until he arrived on campus at Arizona State. Read more about it by scanning the QR code.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Jack Jones was drafted by the New England Patriots in the fourth round (121st overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

SEASONAL REVIEWS

- Placed on injured reserved list (9/8).

2022 (13/2)

- Played in 13 regular season games with two starts and recorded 30 total tackles (25 solo, 5 assist), two interceptions one of which he returned 40 yards for a touchdown, six passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Was inactive for two games before being placed on injured reserve on Dec. 31 for the final two games.
- Made his NFL debut in the season opener at Miami (9/11), rotating in at cornerback.
- Jones became the first NFL rookie with a forced fumble, a fumble recovered and an interception returned for a touchdown in a single game with his performance at Green Bay (10/2).
- Made his first NFL start at Green Bay (10/2) at cornerback in place of the injured Jalen Mills. Forced and recovered a fumble on WR Romeo Doubs in the first quarter to give the Patriots a first down at the 50-yard line. Later in the second quarter he intercepted a QB Aaron Rodgers pass and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown. It was only the second time that Rodgers has had an interception returned for a touchdown at Lambeau Field (3,511 pass attempts).
- Intercepted QB Jared Goff vs. Detroit (10/9) at the New England 3-yard line in the first quarter for his second straight game with a pick. Jones is the first New England rookie with a pick in back-to-back games since 2013 when Logan Ryan and Duron Harmon each had games with back-to-back interceptions.
- Made his second start of the season when he lined up in place of the injured DB Jalen Mill at Arizona (12/12). It was his second career start. Jones left the game in the first quarter due to injury.
- Was inactive due to injury at Las Vegas (12/18). and vs. Cincinnati (12/24).
- Placed on injured reserve on Dec 31.

EXTRA POINTS

- Patriots 2022 fourth-round pick Jack Jones was in the starting lineup at cornerback at Green Bay on Oct. 2, 2021 in place of the injured Jalen Mills. It was Jones' first NFL start. He forced and recovered a fumble on WR Romeo Doubs in the first quarter to give the Patriots a first down at the 50-yard line. Later in the second quarter, he intercepted a QB Aaron Rodgers pass and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown. It was only the second time that Rodgers has had an interception returned for a touchdown at Lambeau Field (3,511 pass attempts). Jones is the first rookie in NFL history with a forced fumble, a fumble recovered and an interception returned for a touchdown in a single game.

fumble, and recording a pass deflection on defense.

- Recovered a fumble against Notre Dame.
- Played in the Rose Bowl, making one stop against Penn State.

PERSONAL

- Dominated both sides of the ball and on special teams at Long Beach Poly High School.
- Named a 2015 Prep Star All-American Dream Team.
- Earned a spot in the Tacoma News Tribune Western 100.

JONATHAN JONES NEXT STEP FOUNDATION

• The mission of the Jonathan Jones Next Step Foundation, Inc. is to educate youth on practical life application, to encourage professional development and to empower them through education and mentorship. Established in 2019, the idea was birthed from Jones' love and recognition for developing youth; whether it is by way of football camps, meal distributions or fundraisers, and to pour back into them. However, he was no stranger to volunteerism; growing up, he would volunteer in the community at a local soup kitchen and became a change agent at a young age. He knew that when he became a professional football player, he would then have the vehicle and platform to give back on a larger scale.

- Played in all 16 games with seven starts and totaled a career-high 71 tackles, one forced fumble, two interceptions and six passes defensed. Also made three special teams tackles.

JONATHAN JONES FOUNDATION WORK

NEXT STEP FOUNDATION

The mission of the Jonathan Jones Next Step Foundation, Inc. is to educate youth on practical life application, to encourage professional development and to empower them through education and mentorship. Established in 2019, the idea was birthed from Jones' love and recognition for developing youth; whether it is by way of football camps, meal distributions or fundraisers, and to pour back into them. However, he was no stranger to volunteerism; growing up, he would volunteer in the community at a local soup kitchen and became a change agent at a young age. He knew that when he became a professional football player, he would then have the vehicle and platform to give back on a larger scale.

"I've always wanted to give back to the youth," said Jones, "and being in the position that I am in now, it is a must that I continue to pour into the youth." - Jones

SUMMER FOOTBALL CAMP

Each year, the JJNSF Inc. hosts its annual football camp in Carrollton, GA. This camp, for boys and girls, is located at Carrollton High School's facility. Over a four hour time frame, campers check-in, receive a camp shirt, warm up/agility work, fastest man challenge and get an opportunity to meet and greet/pictures with Jonathan Jones and NFL teammates.

In 2021, Jones and The Next Step Foundation hosted the football camp and together with PCI, A Global Communities Partner, placed an emphasis on educating youth about safeguarding tips. Jones informed campers about how to be safe when they are online and to be cautious about befriending them. Jones also told campers to set up privacy settings with their parents and to not post outer images of their homes online - especially if their address is visible. Jones also had special guests in town, Patrick Chung (Retired New England Patriots), Casey Hayward Jr (Las Vegas Raiders), Terrance Brooks (Houston Texans), Tyrell Adams (San Francisco 49ers), along with former Auburn Tigers teammates.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Next Step Foundation prides itself in community involvement in both Boston and Carrollton, GA. The Foundation has partnered with the Rouse Foundation, whose mission is to provide support to impoverished and disadvantaged communities and persons in the United States and around the world. The Next Step Foundation and The Rouse Foundation collaborate annually for the Back to School drive, giving away school supplies, shoes and book bags to those in need. In 2020, Jones and The Next Step Foundation donated $5,000 which covered all of the school supplies for the event. In 2021, Jones and The Step Foundation purchased all of the school supplies for the K-8 students in Carrollton.

EXTRA POINTS

- Mac Jones is the highest drafted offensive player in Bill Belichick's history with New England. The previous highest offensive player drafted was Nate Solder in 2011 with the 17th pick overall.
- Jones is the fourth quarterback to be selected 15th overall in the draft since 1970. The Patriots selected QB Tony Eason with the 15th pick overall in the 1983 draft. Eason, Dwayne Haskins (2019 – Washington) and Marc Wilson (1980- Oakland) are the only quarterbacks to ever be selected in that position in the draft since 1970.
- The Patriots drafted Jones from Alabama with their first pick in the 2021 NFL Draft with the 15th pick overall. It is the fourth time overall that the Patriots have selected a quarterback in the first round. Jones joins Jim Plunkett from Stanford (1st overall in 1971), Tony Eason from Illinois (15th overall in 1983) and Drew Bledsoe from Washington State (1st overall in 1993).

VIDEO FEATURE

- Jones revisits an old note he wrote to his high school coach in this video feature, "Dear Coach".

SECOND-BEST COMPLETION %

- QB Mac Jones has a 66.5 completion percentage through his first two seasons, the second-highest in a quarterback's first two NFL seasons, behind the 68.2 completion percentage Joe Burrow recorded in 2020 and 2021.

HIGHEST PASS COMPLETION IN FIRST TWO SEASONS

Joe Burrow	68.2
Mac Jones	66.5
Deshaun Watson	66.4

- Finished 22-for-36 for 195 yards and one touchdown vs. Buffalo (12/1). His touchdown pass was a 48-yard pass to DB Marcus Jones in the first quarter.
- Finished 21-for-33 for 240 yards and two touchdowns vs. Cincinnati (12/24). Completed a 48-yard pass to WR Jakobi Meyers in the fourth quarter for his fifth 40-yard touchdown pass of his career and his second 48-yard touchdown pass of the season.

2021 (17/17, 1/1)

- Started in all 17 regular season games and finished the season 352-of-521 for 3,801 yards with 22 touchdowns and 13 interceptions. Also recorded 44 rushing attempts for 129 yards.
- Selected to the Pro Bowl and in the PFWA All-Rookie Team for the first time in his career.
- Became the first rookie quarterback in New England history to make a start in the postseason in the Wild Card Round loss at Buffalo, (1/15).
- Helped lead the Patriots to a 10-7 record and became the 12th rookie quarterback since 1970 to lead his team to a winning record and the eighth to lead his team to 10 or more wins during his rookie season.
- His 10 wins are the most in a season by a Patriots rookie quarterback, surpassing the six wins by Jim Plunkett in 1971.
- Jones led all rookie quarterback in 2021 with 3,801 passing yards and his 3,801 yards were the fifth-highest total by a rookie quarterback in NFL history.
- His 22 touchdowns are tied for the eighth-most among rookie quarterbacks.
- His completion percentage of 67.6 in 2021 was the second-best for a rookie quarterback, behind the 67.7 by Dak Prescott of Dallas in 2016.
- Jones won his first six road games, joining Prescott in 2016 and Ben Roethlisberger of Pittsburgh in 2014 as the only rookie quarterbacks to win each of their first six road games in league annals.
- Jones helped lead the Patriots to seven straight wins. He is the fourth rookie quarterback in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to wins in at least seven consecutive games.
- Eclipsed 300-yards passing in two games:
  - Week 7 vs. N.Y. Jets (307)
  - Week 12 vs. Tennessee (310)
- Had two or more touchdown passes in seven games with three touchdowns vs. Cleveland (11/14) and vs. Jacksonville (1/2).
- Jones became the 13th rookie quarterback to reach 300 completions in a season and finished with 352 completions. His completions are the fifth-best for a rookie quarterback.
- Finished 29-of-39 for 281 yards with one touchdown, no interceptions and a completion percentage of 74.6 as a starter in his NFL debut vs. Miami (9/12) for the fourth-highest completion percentage by a rookie in Week 1 since 1970 (min. 10 attempts).
- Named Offensive Rookie of the Month for November by the National Football League. Jones is the first Patriots rookie to receive a rookie of the month honor since DL Chandler Jones in September of the 2012 season. Jones led the Patriots to a perfect record in November, completing 76-of-99 passes for 854 yards and seven touchdown passes. He completed 76.8 percent of his passes and had a quarterback rating of 117.2.
- Followed a 74.4 completion percentage in the opener against Miami by completing 73.3 percent of his passes (22-of-30 passes) for 186 yards at N.Y. Jets (9/19). He is the first quarterback with a 70-plus completion percentage in each of his first two games (min. 10 attempts in each game).
- Completed 19-straight passes during a stretch from the second quarter to the fourth quarter vs. Tampa Bay (10/3), tied for the longest streak in team history. Tom Brady had a streak of 19 consecutive passes in Week 1 of the 2015 season vs. Pittsburgh on Sept. 10, 2015. The streak of 19 consecutive completions is the most by a rookie in 30 years.
- Tied Joe Burrow (135 completions in 2020) for the most completions by a rookie quarterback in his first five starts in NFL history.
- Had his first 300-yard passing game after finishing 24-of-36 for 307 yards with two touchdowns vs. N.Y. Jets (10/24).
- Completed 22-of-26 passes for an .846 pass completion percentage at Atlanta (11/18), which is tied for the fourth-best in team history. Jones was 19-of-23 for an .826 completion percentage vs. Cleveland on Nov. 14, the sixth-highest in team history.
- Finished 23-of-32 for 310 yards with two touchdowns for a 71.9 completion percentage vs. Tennessee (11/28).
- Secured his seventh straight victory with a Monday Night Football win over Buffalo (12/6).

TDS THREE WAYS

- Jones returned a third quarter interception 69 yards for a touchdown vs. Cincinnati on Dec. 24. He scored on a punt return for a touchdown, a touchdown reception and an interception returned for a touchdown to become the fourth player in NFL history to do so in a season, joining Frank Bacon (1920), Bill Dudley (1947) and Tommy Harmon (1947). Jones returned a punt 84 yards for a touchdown vs. the New York Jets on Nov. 20 and scored on a 48-yard touchdown pass vs. Buffalo on Dec. 1 in addition to the pick-6 against the Bengals. The only other player in the Super Bowl era to score a 40-plus touchdown in each of those ways in their entire career is Deion Sanders.
- Jones is one of 10 NFL players to score on offense, defense and special teams through a career since 1970. Jones joins, Deion Sanders, George Martin, Nolan Cromwell, Terence Newman, Bobby Humphery, William White, Mike Fuller, Chris Moore and Dale Carter.
- Since 1990, DB Marcus Jones is the 9th Patriots player with a touchdown reception on his first NFL reception.

DB Marcus Jones, vs. Buffalo, Dec. 1, 2022 – 48-yd TD reception
LB Elandon Roberts, vs. Miami, Dec. 29, 2019 – 38-yd TD reception

TE Rob Gronkowski, vs. Cincinnati, Sept. 12 2010 – 1-yd TD reception
OL Tom Ashworth, vs. Tampa Bay, Dec. 17, 2005 – 1-yd TD reception
LB Mike Vrabel, at San Diego, Sept. 29, 2002 – 1-yd TD reception
TE Lovett Purnell, vs. N.Y. Jets, Sept. 14, 1997 – 10-yd TD reception
TE Mike Bartrum, at Baltimore, Oct. 6, 1996 – 1-yd reception

- Jones registered his first career interception in the third quarter at Arizona on Dec. 12. He had a 48-yard touchdown reception vs. Buffalo (12/1) and returned a punt 84 yards for a touchdown vs. the New York Jets (11/20). The only other NFL player with a receiving touchdown, a punt or kick returned for a touchdown and an interception in the same season is Deion Sanders in 1992.

First Team.

- Also named to the PFWA All-NFL Team (punt returner), PFWA All-AFC Team (punt returner) and PFWA All-Rookie Team (punt returner).
- Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 11 vs. N.Y. Jets (11/20) after returning a punt 84 yards for a touchdown with five seconds to play to give the Patriots a 10-3 victory.
- Jones scored on offense - 48-yard touchdown reception vs. Buffalo (12/1), defense - 69-yard interception return vs. Cincinnati (12/24) and on special teams - 84-yard punt return vs. N.Y. Jets (11/20), to become the fourth player in NFL history to score on offense, defense and special teams in a season, joining Frank Bacon (1920), Bill Dudley (1947) and Tommy Harmon (1947).
- Jones is one of 10 NFL players to score on offense, defense and special teams through a career since 1970. Jones joins Deion Sanders, George Martin, Nolan Cromwell, Terence Newman, Bobby Humphrey, William White, Mike Fuller, Chris Moore and Dale Carter.
- Jones joins Deion Sanders as the only other player in the Super Bowl era to score a 40-plus touchdown on offense, defense and special teams in their entire career.
- Became just the second player since 1970 to record a receiving touchdown, a punt or kick return touchdown and an interception in the same season. The other was Deion Sanders in 1992.
- Jones started to play on offense in addition to defense and special teams vs. Buffalo (12/1) and scored on a 48-yard pass from QB Mac Jones on his first offensive play int he first quarter. He became the first defensive back to record a touchdown reception on offense since 2000 when S Marcus Coleman of the New York Jets caught a 45-yard touchdown pass from QB Vinny Testaverde against Buffalo on Sept 17, 2000. Jones joined LB Mike Vrabel (six 1-yard touchdowns and four 2-yard touchdowns from Tom Brady), LB Elandon Roberts (38-yard touchdown from Tom Brady vs. Miami on Dec. 29, 2019) and LB/DE John Tanner as the only defensive players to catch touchdowns. Tanner caught a 2-yard touchdown pass from QB Jim Plunkett on Nov. 24, 1974 at Baltimore. Is the first Patriots player to catch a touchdown on his first reception since Roberts touchdown pass. Jones's 48-yard touchdown on his first offensive play is the longest by a Patriots player on his first play since WR Stephen Starring caught a 73-yard touchdown pass from Steve Grogan on his first offensive play vs. Baltimore on Sept. 4, 1983.

- Returned a fourth quarter punt 84 yards for a touchdown with five seconds remaining vs. N.Y. Jets (11/20) to win the game. It is tied with Julian Edelman (84-yard touchdown return vs. Denver on Nov. 2, 2014) for the fifth-longest punt return in team history. It is the second longest go-ahead 4th quarter touchdown in team history. The only longer return was the 91-yard missed field goal return for a touchdown by Ron Burton at Denver on Nov. 11, 1962..Jones was named the AFC Special Team Player of the Week for his performance. Jones is the fourth Patriots rookie to earn an AFC Special Teams Player of the Week award since 2000, joining Jake Bailey (Week 3 and 11 in 2019), Bethel Johnson (Week 13 in 2003) and Laurence Maroney (Week 7 in 2006).
- Had a season-long 46-yard kickoff return in the second quarter at Minnesota (11/24).
- Made his first NFL start as a defensive back in a nickel defensive alignment vs. Buffalo (12/1). He finished the game with one pass defensed. He also had one special teams tackle. Also lined up on offense for the first time and scored on a 48-yard touchdown pass from QB Mac Jones on his first play from scrimmage in the first quarter.
- Picked off QB Colt McCoy pass in the third quarter for his first NFL interception at Arizona (12/12).

- Continued as a three-phase threat, playing on defense, offense and special teams vs. Cincinnati (12/24) He started at cornerback and recorded a team-high 14 total tackles, returned an interception 69 yards for a touchdown, recovered a fumble at the Cincinnati 44-yard line in the fourth quarter, had one reception for 15 yards, returned two punts for 11 yards and returned three kicks for 65 yards.

EXTRA POINTS

- Jalen Mills has embraced his nickname "The Green Goblin." The origins of the nickname started out as a joke during his rookie season with Philadelphia when he dyed his hair green. Mills is not sure whether it was a coach or the media but the spiderman villain nickname was inspired and took off with the fans.

  Said Mills, "It just kind of came from my rookie year and then just throughout my years playing for the Eagles, my style of play. That's what I get it from. It's kind of something that I stuck with."

Matthew Slater was re-signed by the New England Patriots as an unrestricted free agent on March 21, 2018 ... Originally drafted by the New England in the fifth round (153rd overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to his 10th Pro Bowl in 2021, becoming only the second player in team history to accomplish that feat. It is the most special teams Pro Bowl honors in NFL history over Steve Tasker's seven.
- Three-time Super Bowl champion.
- Joined Tom Brady and Patrick Chung as the only players in NFL history to play in 11 consecutive postseasons (2009-19). Brady holds the record with 14 consecutive postseason appearances.
- Selected to the New England Patriots All-Dynasty Team and 2010s All-Decade Team as a special teamer.
- Named to seven straight Pro Bowls from 2011 to 2017 as a special teams player.
- Is the team's all-time leader in special teams tackle with 172. Since 1994, Slater is third among all NFL players, behind only Larry Izzo (205) and Keith Burns (197).
- Named to the Associated Press All-Pro: First Team for the second time in his career in 2019. His first selection came in 2016. Also earned Associated Press All-Pro: Second Team honors in 2017, 2020 and 2021.
- Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance vs. Dallas (11/24) in Week 12 of the 2019 season, when he recorded his first career punt block.
- Elected special teams captain by teammates for 12 straight seasons from 2011-22.
- Has played wide receiver, safety and a major role on special teams in his 15 NFL seasons.
- Led the team in special teams tackles three straight seasons: 21 in 2010, 17 in 2011, 20 in 2012. Missed four games due to injury in 2013 and still finished second on the team with 14 special teams tackles, just one behind the team leader. Again led the team with 14 special teams tackles in 2014 and 17 in 2015. Led the team in this category in six of his first 11 seasons.
- Has finished with double-digit special teams tackles in 11 of his 15 total seasons in the NFL.
- Moved past Larry Izzo (17) to become the Patriots all-time leader in postseason special teams tackles with 23.
- Became the third New England player to play in 100 career regular season games at Gillette Stadium with 110. He ranks second all-time in most regular season games played at Gillette Stadium.
- Has played in 223 games with New England second only to the 285 games by Tom Brady.
- Played in his 25th postseason game in 2021, tied for the ninth-most in NFL history.

EXTRA POINTS

EXTRA POINTS

- JuJu Smith-Schuster was originally born as simply John Smith. The origins of the nickname came from JuJu's aunt when he was just a few years old. His aunt originally began calling him John-John but quickly switch it to JuJu which permanently stuck. When he was just eight years old Smith-Schuster changed his name in football program listings in 2012 from "John" to "JuJu." When he was 18 he legally changed his last name from "Smith" to "Smith-Schuster" as a tribute to his stepfather who helped raise him. He told the Los Angeles Time the last name change just felt like the right thing for him to do.
- Smith-Schuster grew up playing in the Snoop Youth Football League, founded by famous rapper Snoop Dogg. Snoop Dogg served as a coach in the league and even coined the nickname "SportsCenter" for Smith-Shuster.

Follow Rhamondre Stevenson's journey to the NFL from not being eligible for a NCAA scholarship due to grades, to working at Walmart, to JUCO, then to being an honor roll student and standout running back at Oklahoma, to being drafted by the Patriots in the fourth round of the 2021 Draft.

EXTRA POINTS

- While in high school, RB Rhamondre Stevenson started gaining attention for the impressive stats he posted as a junior. Unfortunately, due to his grades, Stevenson was academically ineligible to receive a football scholarship despite being recruited. Following his senior year of high school, Stevenson took a year off from football working part-time jobs at Wal-Mart and Jimmy John's. But after a year away, he decided to follow a group of his friends and enroll in Cerritos Community College. During his time at Cerritos, he shared a two-bedroom apartment with up to six other guys at times and rode his bicycle 20 minutes to and from practice every day. After putting up monster stats in his second season at Cerriots, he committed to Oklahoma. Oklahoma led him to the 2021 NFL Draft where in the fourth round on the third day the Patriots selected Stevenson. In addition he worked on his academics and made the Dean's List while at Oklahoma.

- Had 15 carriers for 60 yards rushing vs. Indianapolis (11/6). Recorded his first career receiving touchdown with a 3-yard pass from QB Mac Jones in the second quarter.
- Had 15 rushing attempts for 26 yards vs. N.Y. Jets (11/20).
- Set career highs in receptions and receiving yards at Minnesota (11/24) after finishing with 9 receptions for 76 yards. His previous high in receptions was 8 vs. Chicago (10/24) and his previous high in receiving yards was 72 yards at N.Y. Jets (10/30/22).
- Went over 100 yards for the second time in 2022 and for the fourth time in his career after finishing with a career-high 172 yards on 19 carries for 9.1-yards per carry at Las Vegas (12/18). Stevenson's 172-yards are the most by a

CATCHING IN 2022

- Stevenson finished the 2022 season with a team-leading 69 receptions, the fourth-most by a running back in team history. It is the ninth time in team history that a running back has led the team in receptions in a season.

EXTRA POINTS

- Cole Strange is the first Patriots player to be drafted from Chattanooga since RB Mario Grier in 1996 in the sixth round. Grier played in 32 games for New England from 1996 through 1997.
- He is also the highest drafted player from Chattanooga, over taking WR Terrell Owens, who was the 89th pick overall in the third round of the 1996 draft by San Francisco.
- Strange started wearing the vertical bar facemask his senior season at Chattanooga. The idea started when the veteran offensive line group, who had been together for four years, wanted to do something different to finish out their final season playing alongside each other. So they decided to all wear the same facemask and landed on the vertical bar. Strange brought the bar with him to the NFL and is one of only three NFL regulars to sport the vertical bar in their facemask.

- Serves as the backup quarterback for the New England Patriots.

2022 (4/2)

- Began the season as the third string quarterback but moved to the back up quarterback spot after the injury to Mac Jones and then the injury to Brian Hoyer.
- Played in four games with two starts and completed 65-of-92 passes for 781 yards with five touchdowns and three interceptions.
- Elevated to the backup quarterback due to Mac Jones being injured ahead of the game at Green Bay (10/2). Made his NFL debut in the first quarter against the Packers after Brian Hoyer left with an injury. His first completion was a 9-yard pass to WR Lil'Jordan Humphrey in the second quarter. Led the team on a 75-yard, seven-play drive that resulted in his first touchdown pass on a 25-yard strike to WR DeVante Parker in the third quarter. That was the first touchdown pass by a rookie quarterback in 2022. Later in the fourth quarter he led the team on a 66-yard, seven-play drive that resulted in a 5-yard rushing touchdown by Damien Harris. Took the Patriots to overtime against the Packers. Finished 10-of-15 for 99 yards with one touchdown. Was the first player to ever make his NFL debut as a visitor at Lambeau Filed and throw a touchdown pass in that game.
- Made his first NFL start vs. Detroit (10/9) and led the team to a 29-0 victory. Finished 17-of-21 for 188 yards with one touchdown and one interception and completed 80.1 percent of his passes. His touchdown pass was a 24-yard pass to WR Jakobi Meyers in the third quarter.
- Made his second straight start at Cleveland (10/16) and led the team to a 38-15 victory. Finished 24-of-34 for 309 yards with two touchdown passes. Had a 2-yard touchdown pass to WR Tyquan Thornton in the third quarter. Also had a 31-yard touchdown pass to TE Hunter Henry in the third quarter. He became the first Patriots rookie quarterback to win in his first home and first road game. Had a passer rating of 118.4. He is the first rookie quarterback to win both of his first two starts with a 100-plus passer rating since Sonny Jurgensen in 1957.

THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY RTX

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to bring the Patriots story to life. It's incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery has undergone renovations over the last three years and houses all six Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those titles. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

HISTORY OF THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME

The Patriots Hall of Fame was established in 1991 as a way to honor the greatest players in franchise history. A selection committee of media and staff was formed to select players for induction and appropriately, John Hannah was the first player enshrined. Eight additional players were inducted from 1992-95. Andre Tippett (1999) and Bruce Armstrong (2001) rounded out the Patriots Hall of Fame's first 11 members. In 2007, the Patriots introduced a new method of selecting players for the team's hall of fame in advance of the opening of The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX. Moving forward, one player will be enshrined in the Patriots Hall of Fame each year, with a nomination committee determining three finalists each spring and fans voting for the final choice through Patriots.com each spring.

SENIOR SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Patriots formed a senior selection committee to ensure that early era players are not overlooked in the voting process. The committee consists of veteran media and staff members who gather to discuss candidates who have been retired for at least 25 years to identify the player most deserving of Patriots Hall of Fame recognition.

John Hannah • G • Alabama

Patriots Seasons (13): 1973-85 • Pro Bowls (9)
Pro Football Hall of Fame 1991 • Patriots Hall of Fame 1991

Hannah spent his entire 13-season career with the Patriots, from 1973 through the Super Bowl season of 1985 ... The first Patriots player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... One of two Patriots voted to the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team ... Named to the Patriots 35th Anniversary Team in 1994 ... Named the Player of the Century on the Patriots Team of the Century in 2000 ... Played in 183 games, while missing only five games due to injury ... Selected to nine Pro Bowls (1976, 1978-85) ... Named All-Pro for 10 consecutive years (1976-85) ... Won the NFL Players Association's Offensive Lineman of the Year Award for four straight seasons (1978-81) ... Powered an offensive line that helped set an NFL record with 3,165 rushing yards in 1978 - a record that stood for 41 years until Baltimore broke it in 2019 ... Named to the Patriots All-Time Team in 2009.

Andre Tippett • LB • Iowa

Patriots Seasons (11): 1982-88, 90-93 • Pro Bowls (5)
Pro Football Hall of Fame 2008 • Patriots Hall of Fame 1999

Tippett spent his entire 12-year career with the Patriots ... Elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2008, joining John Hannah as the only two players to earn induction to the Hall of Fame after spending their entire career with the Patriots ... From 1984-85, Tippett recorded 35 sacks, a total that stands tied as the second-highest two-season sack total by a linebacker in NFL history ... He achieved his record sack totals despite playing his career as a strong-side linebacker (opposite the opposing tight end), a position from which few other players have excelled in the pass rush to the extent that Tippett did ... He was named to the NFL's 1980s All-Decade Team and was named the NFL's linebacker of the year by the NFL Players Association for three straight seasons from 1985-87 ... Finished his career as the only Patriots player to record 100 career sacks, a mark that stands as the franchise's all-time record ... Set the Patriots franchise single-season sack record with 18½ in 1984 ... Also holds the second and tied for third-highest totals with 16½ in 1985 and 12½ in 1987 ... Was a member of the 1985 AFC Champions ... Has worked in the Patriots front office since his 1994 retirement and currently serves as the team's executive director of community affairs ... Named to the Patriots All-Time Team in 2009.

Ty Law • CB • Michigan

Patriots Seasons (10): 1995-2004 • Pro Bowls (4)

Pro Football Hall of Fame 2019 • Patriots Hall of Fame 2014

Law spent 10 seasons with the Patriots (1995-2004) after joining the team as a first-round (23rd overall) draft pick out of Michigan in 1995 ... Law was a three-time Super Bowl Champion (XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXIX), a four-time Pro Bowl player (1998, 2001, 2002, 2003) and a two-time All-Pro (1998, 2003) during his tenure with the Patriots ... Law tied Raymond Clayborn's career franchise-record with 36 interceptions and finished with the most interception-return yards in team history with 583 ... His six interceptions returned for touchdowns are also a franchise best ... Law had nine interceptions in 1998 to become the first Patriots player to lead the NFL in that category ... He was a playmaker who played some of his best games in the postseason ... He helped lead the Patriots to their first Super Bowl title in 2001 when he intercepted a Kurt Warner pass against the Rams and returned it 47 yards for a touchdown for the first points of the game ... In the 2003 AFC Championship Game, Law intercepted three Peyton Manning passes while leading the Patriots to a 24-14 victory over the Indianapolis Colts ... Law was part of a record-breaking Patriots defense in 2003 that led the NFL in five key categories: opponents points per game (14.9), interceptions (29), fewest touchdown receptions allowed (11), opponent's passer rating (56.2) and pass deflections (121) as the team captured its second Super Bowl title in a win over the Carolina Panthers ... Law is a member of the NFL's all-decade team for the 2000s as well as the Patriots all-1990s and all-2000s decade teams. He was also selected to the Patriots 50th Anniversary Team.

Richard Seymour • DL • Georgia

Patriots Seasons (8): 2001-08 • Pro Bowls (5)
Pro Football Hall of Fame 2022 • Patriots Hall of Fame 2020

Seymour joined Troy Brown (2012), Tedy Bruschi (2013), Kevin Faulk (2016), Ty Law (2014), Matt Light (2018) and Willie McGinest (2015), as the seventh player to enter the Patriots Hall of Fame as a three-time Super Bowl champion with the team ... Seymour spent the first eight seasons of his 12-year NFL career with the Patriots and played an important role in delivering six division titles, four conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships to New England ... He was named to five straight Pro Bowls with the Patriots (2002-06) and earned three straight first-team All-Pro honors (2003-05) ... His five Pro Bowl berths are the most by any Patriots defensive lineman since the 1970 NFL merger ... Seymour was also a four-time team co-captain ... In 2009, he was voted to the Patriots 50th Anniversary Team and the 2000s All-Decade Team ... Seymour has been a finalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame for four straight seasons and was elected in 2022 ... Seymour was drafted by the Patriots sixth overall in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft out of Georgia ... He immediately established himself as one of the team's premier players and helped the Patriots win their first Super Bowl during his rookie season ... During his time with the Patriots, he anchored a defense that allowed an average of 17.8 points per game and allowed fewer than 20 points per game in six of his eight seasons with New England ... Seymour also blocked seven field goals in his career ... Overall, Seymour started in 105-of-111 games, totaling 460 tackles, including 256 solos stops with 39 sacks ... Seymour was traded to Oakland in the summer of 2009, where he played the final four years of his career, producing two additional Pro Bowl seasons.

Leon Gray • T • Jackson State

Patriots Seasons (6): 1973-78 • Pro Bowls (2)
Patriots Hall of Fame 2019

Gray was a third-round draft pick in 1973 by the Miami Dolphins as an offensive tackle out of Jackson State ... He was cut by Miami before the start of the season and claimed off waivers by New England ... By the 1976 season, he was viewed as arguably the best left tackle in the game ... He was a key member of an offensive line that allowed a franchise-low 14 sacks in 1977 ... Gray teamed with Patriots and Pro Football Hall of Famer John Hannah to form what is generally considered one of the best guard/tackle tandems in NFL history ... At the end of the 1976 season, Gray was selected to play in the Pro Bowl – the first of two such honors as a Patriot and the first of four trips to the Pro Bowl during his 11-year NFL career ... In 1976, Gray helped power a Patriots rushing game that averaged 210.6 yards per game (which remains a franchise record) and led the Patriots to their first 11-win season in franchise history... In 1978, Gray once again paved the way as the Patriots surpassed their season rushing record with 3,165 yards, an NFL record that stood for 41 seasons ... Gray was named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press, Pro Football Weekly and the PFWA ... He was also selected to the Pro Bowl for the second time ... After six seasons with the Patriots, Gray finished his career with Houston (1979-81) and New Orleans (1982-83) ... Sadly, Gray died in November of 2001 at the age of 49.

Rodney Harrison • S • Western Illinois

Patriots Seasons (6): 2003-08 • Pro Bowls (2)
Patriots Hall of Fame 2019

Harrison played the final six seasons of his 15-year NFL career with the Patriots after spending his first nine seasons with the San Diego Chargers ... He played a key role in helping the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles in his first two seasons with New England in 2003 and 2004 ... Harrison came up big on the biggest stage, with seven interceptions in nine postseason games with the Patriots, including two in Super Bowl XXXIX ... His seven postseason interceptions are tied for the third-most in NFL postseason history, and his four picks in the 2004 playoffs are tied for the third-most in a single postseason ... Harrison had a knack for coming up with interceptions at crucial times. In the 2004 regular season and playoffs, five of his six interceptions came inside the opponent's 20-yard line with four of those picks coming inside the 4-yard line and two of them coming in the end zone ... His only 2004 interception that did not come inside the 20-yard line was a fourth-quarter interception in Super Bowl XXXIX that ended Philadelphia's last drive to clinch the championship ... In his first two seasons in New England, Harrison was not only the Patriots leading tackler each year, but he also led all NFL defensive backs in tackles both seasons ... He set a career-high with 140 tackles in 2003, followed by a 138-tackle performance in 2004 ... Additionally, he was the leading tackler in the 2003 and 2004 postseasons, while also recording two sacks, six interceptions, seven passes defensed and two forced fumbles in the six games leading to New England's back-to-back Super Bowl championships ... He is the all-time leader in sacks by a defensive back with 30½, including nine during his time with the Patriots ...He is the only defensive back in NFL history with 30 sacks and 30 interceptions, with eight of those picks coming during his Patriots career ... Harrison was voted a team captain in each of his six seasons with the Patriots.

CONTRIBUTORS

William H. "Billy" Sullivan Jr. • Founder

Patriots Hall of Fame 2009

On the occasion of the Patriots 50th anniversary season in 2009, one of Robert Kraft's first announcements was the induction of the team's founder, William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr., into the team's Hall of Fame. Sullivan became the first non-player to be inducted into The Hall. On Nov. 16, 1959, William H. Sullivan, Jr. was awarded the eighth and final charter franchise of the American Football League … Sullivan, with nine other investors, sold non-voting public stock in the franchise to raise capital to help post the franchise fee of $25,000 … In 1975, Sullivan purchased additional stock to become majority owner, and in 1976, he purchased all the remaining non-voting stock in the team … In 1983, Schaefer Stadium was renamed Sullivan Stadium to honor Sullivan's contributions to the franchise … Sullivan owned the Patriots through 1988, when he sold the franchise to Victor Kiam.

Gil Santos • Radio Broadcaster

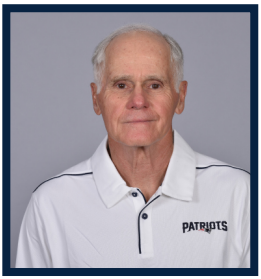
Patriots Hall of Fame 2013

During a pregame ceremony to honor Gil Santos and Gino Cappelletti prior to the 2012 regular season finale, Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft announced that Santos, the legendary Voice of the New England Patriots, would be a 2013 inductee into the Patriots Hall of Fame ... Santos, who valiantly overcame life-threatening health complications early in 2012 to return to the broadcast booth, announced his intention to retire after the 2012 season ... For 36 seasons, spanning five decades, he earned the moniker "Voice of the New England Patriots." ... In 36 seasons, he missed just one game, a preseason game in 1971 ... Santos called the action for 745 career Patriots games ... Santos began calling games for the Boston Patriots at Fenway Park in 1966 ... For the first five seasons, he provided color analysis alongside veteran play-by-play man Bob Starr ... When the team moved to Foxborough in 1971, Santos moved into his role as play-by-play voice of the Patriots (1971-79) ... WBZ lost the Patriots radio rights in the 1980s, but got them back in 1991 and returned Santos to his natural position as Voice of the New England Patriots, a position he held for 22 seasons.

Tracy Sormanti • Cheerleader Director

Patriots Hall of Fame 2021

Tracy Sormanti, the team's longtime cheerleading director, passed away on Friday, Dec. 4, 2020 after a three-year battle with multiple myeloma ... Sormanti, just 58 years old, was in her 32nd season of service with the Patriots organization ... Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft announced her induction in the summer of 2021 ... Kraft said, "Tracy Sormanti was one of my first hires after I bought the team, and after nearly three decades, I can confidently say that there was no one more dedicated to her job or caring and compassionate about those she coached. Like all great coaches, she was meticulous in her preparation and brought the best out of her squads." ... Sormanti, a Rhode Island native, first joined the organization in 1983 as a Patriots cheerleader ... She was a member of the Patriots cheerleading squad from 1983-84 and again from 1991-93, concluding her cheerleading career by representing the Patriots at the 1993 Pro Bowl. Shortly after Kraft bought the team in 1994, he named Sormanti the cheerleading director ... Over 27 seasons, Sormanti's squads performed at 10 Super Bowls, visited more than 30 countries and two dozen foreign operating bases on military tours, and made thousands of community appearances.



Dante Scarnecchia • Assistant Coach

Patriots Hall of Fame 2023

Dante Scarnecchia was announced as a Hall of Fame contributor by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft at the annual Hall of Fame nomination committee meeting on April 6, 2023 ... Scarnecchia spent 36 years in the NFL, including 34 seasons with the Patriots (1982-88, 1991-2013, 2016-19) ... He joined the Patriots in 1982, leaving in 1989 to coach the Indianapolis Colts, before returning to the Patriots two years later ... He remained with the team until retiring following the 2013 season ... He was rehired as the offensive line coach in 2016 before retiring for the second time after the 2019 season ... Scarnecchia was the longest tenured NFL coach when he retired for the second time following the 2019 season ... Scarnecchia was on the Patriots coaching staff for 22 of the franchise's 28 playoff seasons and coached in 48 of the 59 playoff games in team history, including 10 Super Bowls and five Super Bowl titles ... Scarnecchia coached the offensive line for 19 seasons for the Patriots, a position he coached for 32 of his 48 seasons in the coaching profession ... When Bill Belichick was named the Patriots head coach in 2000, he made Scarnecchia his assistant head coach/offensive line coach, positions he held for 14 seasons before retiring after the 2013 season and then served as offensive line coach upon his return in 2016 through the 2019 season.

HISTORICAL TIMELINE: 1959-68

1959

Nov. 22 American Football League's owners meet at the Hotel Nicollet in Minneapolis, Minn., and vote unanimously in favor of admitting Boston to the AFL and granting the franchise to a group represented by Mr. William H. Sullivan, Jr. League founder Lamar Hunt notified Sullivan in a letter dated Nov. 18 that Boston would be admitted.

Nov. 22 Northwestern RB Ron Burton is selected as first draft choice and Syracuse RB Gerhard Schwedes is made first territorial choice.

Dec. Mike Holovak is named director of player personnel. He is the first executive hired.

Dec. 20 Clemson QB Harvey White becomes the first player to sign a Boston Patriots contract.

1960

Feb. 8 Lou Saban is appointed first head coach.

Feb. 20 As the result of a public contest, the team nickname of Patriots is chosen. The Patriots also announce that the team colors will be red, white and blue.

April 1 Boston University Field is named as the Patriots first home.

April 2 Patriots become first pro team in history to issue public stock.

April 19 Uniformed Patriot centering football (creative work of cartoonist Phil Bissell) is adopted as team logo.

July 4 Team opens first training camp at the University of Massachusetts, 350 players attended.

Aug. 14 Patriots play their first home game, a 24-14 preseason loss to the Dallas Texans before 11,000 fans at Harvard Stadium.

Sept. 9 In their first regular season game, the Patriots open with a 13-10 loss to Denver at BU Field before a crowd of 21,597.

Sept. 16 DB Chuck Shonta recovered a fumble on the final play of the game and ran for a touchdown to give the Patriots their first victory with a 28-24 advantage over the N.Y. Titans at the Polo Grounds in New York.

Nov. 25 The Patriots host the Houston Oilers in front of 27,123 fans at BU Field, recording the first sellout in the history of the AFL.

1961

Oct. 10 Mike Holovak replaces Lou Saban as head coach.

Dec. 17 The Patriots ended the season with a 41-0 shutout over San Diego to finish with a 9-4-1 record, second in the AFL Eastern Division.

1962

Sept. 16 Opened the season at Harvard Stadium and beat the Houston Oilers, 34-21. The Patriots played the remainder of their games at Boston University Field.

1963

Oct. 11 Patriots play their first game in Fenway Park and beat Oakland, 20-14.

Dec. 28 With a 26-8 victory over Buffalo, the Patriots win the AFL's Eastern Division title in the league's only season-ending tie-breaker game.

In the AFL's first ever preseason game on July 30, 1960, the Patriots defeat Buffalo 28-7 at War Memorial Stadium. Patriots DE Bob Dee (left) recovered a fumble for the league's first touchdown.

1964

Jan. 5 The Patriots fall in the AFL title game, 51-10, to the Chargers in San Diego.

Oct. 4 Gino Cappelletti boots six field goals in a win at Denver, setting the team's single-game record.

Dec. 20 Gino Cappelletti finished the season with 155 total points, an AFL record and ranks 13th in NFL history. He won AFL MVP honors.

1966

Rommie Loudd becomes the first African-American assistant coach in the AFL when Mike Holovak adds him to the Patriots coaching staff prior to the 1966 season. The following season, Loudd was named director of player personnel.

Dec. 17 Jim Nance rushes for 78 yards against the N.Y. Jets in the season finale giving him 1,458 yards rushing for the season, a Patriots single-season team record until 1995. Nance was later honored with the league's Most Valuable Player award.

1967

Aug. 13 Patriots played the Baltimore Colts of the NFL in a preseason game. It was the first time the Patriots had played an NFL team. The Patriots lost the game 33-3.

Dec. 17 Jim Nance finishes the season with 1,216 yards rushing and becomes the first player in AFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

1968

Nov. 10 Gino Cappelletti became the first player in AFL history to score more than 1,000 points in his career, reaching the milestone on a 19-yard touchdown catch vs. San Diego.

HISTORICAL TIMELINE: 1969-81

1969

Jan. 30 Patriots appoint Clive Rush as vice president and head coach.

1970

Feb. 1 The AFL and NFL announce a merger, forming a common league with 26 teams, 13 in the American Football Conference and 13 in the National Football Conference.

April 4 Foxborough selected as the new playing site for the Patriots.

Sept. 23 Official ground-breaking ceremonies begin for the construction of the Patriots new stadium in Foxborough. The stadium opened nearly one year later.

Feb. 1 Stephon Gilmore is named 2019 AP NFL Defensive Player of the Year, the first Patriot to ever win the award. He becomes the first defensive back to win the award since 2010 and only the sixth overall.

April 20 The Patriots unveil new uniforms for the 2020 season. The blue home uniforms are mostly identical to the "Color Rush" navy-on-navy uniforms that debuted in 2016. The away trip uniform is white and complementary to the blue home uniform with strong red and blue stripes on the shoulders and blue numbers outlined in silver and red.

May 11 Richard Seymour is elected to the Patriots Hall of Fame by fan voting on Patriots.com.

Dec. 6 In a 45-0 win over the L.A. Chargers, the Patriots became the sixth team in NFL history with both a punt returned for a touchdown and a blocked field goal returned for a touchdown in the same game.

HISTORICAL TIMELINE: 2021-23

2021

April 29 The Patriots draft QB Mac Jones from Alabama with the 15th pick overall in the 2021 NFL Draft. He is the highest drafted offensive player in the Bill Belichick era.

Nov. 14 The Patriots played in their 1,000 game in franchise history in a 45-7 win vs. Cleveland at Gillette Stadium.

Dec. 6 The Patriots traveled to the Buffalo Bills for a Monday Night Football game in cold and windy conditions and prevailed, 14-10, for their seventh straight win of the season after starting the season with a 2-4 record.

Dec. 22 J.C. Jackson, Matthew Judon and Matthew Slater were selected to the Pro Bowl. Rookie QB Mac Jones was added to the Pro Bowl roster following the regular season.

2022

Jan. 1 The Patriots beat Jacksonville Jaguars, 50-10, and clinched a postseason berth with the victory.

Jan. 14 The Patriots faced a rematch at Buffalo in the first round of the playoffs when their season ended with a 47-17 defeat.

Feb. 10 Richard Seymour is elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

May 17 Vince Wilfork is elected to the Patriots Hall of Fame by fan voting on Patriots.com.

Sept. 18 Robert Kraft celebrates his 500th game as owner of the Patriots with a 17-10 win at Pittsburgh.

Dec. 1 Devin McCourty played and started in his 200th career game vs. Buffalo to become one of only 90 NFL players to start 200 career games.

Dec. 24 Rookie DB Marcus Jones returned an interception 69 yards for a touchdown vs. Cincinnati. He scored on a punt return for a touchdown, a touchdown reception and an interception returned for a touchdown to become the fourth player in NFL history to do so, joining Frank Bacon (1920), Bill Dudley (1947) and Tommy Harmon (1947). Jones returned a punt 84 yards for a touchdown vs. the New York Jets on Nov. 20 and scored on a 48-yard touchdown pass vs. Buffalo on Dec 1 in addition to the pick-six against the Bengals. The only other player in the Super Bowl era to score a 40-plus touchdown in each of those ways in their entire career is Deion Sanders.

Jan. 13 DB Marcus Jones was selected as a first-team All-Pro as a punt returner, becoming the first Patriots rookie to earn first-team All-Pro honors.

March 10 Devin McCourty announced his retirement, concluding 13 seasons with the New England Patriots after originally joining the team as a first-round draft pick (27th overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft out of Rutgers. McCourty played the most defensive snaps across the league since entering the NFL in 2010 with 12,506 and had the most interceptions with 35 during that time. The 12-time team captain and three-time Super Bowl champion started all 205 regular season games he played in for the Patriots.

April 6 Long time assistant coach Dante Scarnecchia was announced by Robert Kraft as a contributor to the Patriots Hall of Fame.

May 3 Former LB Mike Vrabel is elected to the Patriots Hall of Fame by fan voting on Patriots.com.

RON BURTON COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

In 2003, Patriots owner Robert Kraft established the annual New England Patriots Ron Burton Community Service Award. The honor recognizes the Patriots player who most embodies the qualities of Burton, who was the first player drafted by the team in 1960 and was known for his commitment to the community and helping others. The award is given annually at the New England Patriots Premiere, and the recipient is honored on a permanent trophy that resides in the Patriots Football Operations area. .

PATRIOTS OVERTIME GAMES

The Patriots are 22-25 all-time in regular-season and postseason overtime games during their 63-year history. New England set an NFL record with an eight-game overtime winning streak (including playoffs) from 2000-03. The Patriots are 16-19 when the game is decided by a field goal and 6-6 when a touchdown is the deciding factor. Below is a brief description of each overtime game.

REGULAR SEASON (19-25)

09/26/77 ..... at Cleveland 30, Patriots 27 L
John Smith sent the game into overtime with a 28-yard field goal with no time remaining in regulation. Cleveland's Don Cockroft capped a 10-play, 53-yard drive with a 35-yard game-winning field goal after 4:45 of overtime.

09/03/79 ..... Pittsburgh 16, at Patriots 13 L
Pittsburgh's Matt Bahr drilled a 41-yard field goal to give the Steelers the victory at the 5:10 mark in overtime. The clutch field goal came on Bahr's first professional career attempt.

11/25/79 ..... Buffalo 16, at Patriots 13 L
Buffalo's Nick Mike-Mayer kicked a 29-yard field goal 4:45 into overtime to give the Bills the victory.

12/08/80 ..... at Miami 16, Patriots 13 L
Uwe von Schamann kicked his third field goal of the day, a 23-yard game-winner, which gave Miami the three-point victory, 3:20 into overtime.

09/27/81..... at Pittsburgh 27, Patriots 21 L
The Patriots scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to recover from a 21-7 deficit. Unfortunately, Terry Bradshaw hit Lynn Swann with a 24-yard touchdown pass 3:19 into overtime to thwart the Patriots hopes for victory.

11/08/81..... Miami 30, at Patriots 27 L
Patriot John Smith nailed a 34-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining in regulation that sent the game into overtime. The Dolphins Uwe von Schamann kicked a 30-yard field goal 7:09 into the extra quarter that gave Miami the victory.

PATRIOTS OVERTIME GAMES

11/23/03 ..... Patriots 23, at Houston 20 ..... W
The Patriots set the all-time NFL mark with their eighth consecutive overtime victory in a nail-biter in the Lone Star State. The Texans took a 20-13 lead into the final minute of the game, but Tom Brady found Daniel Graham for a four-yard touchdown strike to tie the game at 20 with just 40 seconds left in regulation. The extra frame was a possession battle until the Patriots mounted a 76-yard drive in the final minutes of overtime, ending in a 28-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri with 45 seconds left.

11/13/08..... N.Y. Jets 34, at Patriots 31..... L
The Patriots had their NFL-record eight-game overtime winning streak snapped in a loss to the Jets at Gillette Stadium. New England rallied from a 24-6 second-quarter deficit to tie the game at 24-24 early in the fourth quarter. N.Y. held a 31-24 lead into the final minute, but Randy Moss made a memorable tiptoe catch on a pass from Matt Cassel along the side of the end zone for a 16-yard touchdown with one second left to force overtime. But, N.Y. won the coin toss and marched 64 yards on 14 plays to set up a game-winning 34-yard field goal by Jay Feely.

10/11/09 ..... at Denver 20, Patriots 17 L
The Patriots failed to hold onto a 17-7 halftime lead in a 20-17 overtime loss to Denver. QB Tom Brady was limited to five completions for 63 yards in the second half. New England entered the final quarter with a 17-10 lead, but Denver marched 98 yards in 12 plays before QB Kyle Orton completed an 11-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Marshall to tie the game at 17 with 5:21 remaining in regulation. With under two minutes remaining, New England moved to the Denver 49-yard line before DE Vonnie Holliday forced a fumble on a Brady sack to end the Patriots scoring threat. Denver took the overtime kickoff and moved 58 yards in 11 plays to set up a 41-yard game-winning field goal.

10/17/10..... at Patriots 23, Baltimore 20 ..... W
Kicker Stephen Gostkowski drilled a 35-yard field goal in overtime to give New England a 23-20 victory over the Baltimore Ravens at Gillette Stadium. Tom Brady, who finished the game 27-of-44 for 292 yards, completed 16-of-24 passes for 156 yards with one touchdown during a fourth quarter rally as New England scored the final 13 points to get the win and overcome a 20-10 fourth quarter deficit.

10/21/12..... at Patriots 29, N.Y. Jets 26 ..... W
The Patriots squandered a 10-point fourth-quarter lead but came through in the clutch when Rob Ninkovich and Jermaine Cunningham combined for a strip-sack of Jets QB Mark Sanchez in overtime as the Patriots defense was able to seal the victory following a Stephen Gostkowski field goal in the Patriots opening drive of the extra session. Tom Brady led two clutch drives - one late in the fourth quarter and the other in overtime and Gostkowski drilled two field goals - a 43-yarder as time expired in regulation and the 48-yarder in the first overtime drive.

10/20/13..... Patriots 27, at N.Y. Jets 30..... L
The Patriots 11-point halftime lead evaporated on the second play of the second half when Tom Brady threw an interception to Jets S Antonio Allen, who returned the pick for a 23-yard touchdown. New England netted -5 yards on offense in the third quarter while the Jets scored 17 points in the frame to take a 27-21 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Patriots managed to tie the score on the final drive of regulation when Stephen Gostkowski drilled a 44-yard field goal with :19 left on the clock. The Patriots won the overtime coin toss but only managed one first down and were forced to punt. New York then engineered a 14-play, 56-yard drive that included a 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the Patriots and Jets K Nick Folk hit a 42-yard field goal to win the game and end a five-game losing streak to New England.

11/24/13..... at Patriots 34, Denver 31..... W
New England fumbled on its first three offensive possessions of a cold, windy November game and entered the locker room down 24-0 at halftime. The Patriots came back in the second half and scored on five straight possessions to take a 31-24 lead in the fourth quarter. Peyton Manning then led Denver on a 10-play, 79 yard touchdown drive to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. The Patriots won the overtime coin toss and took the wind, giving the Broncos the first possession in the extra frame. The two teams traded possessions until a high-arching Patriots punt by Ryan Allen was muffed by Denver and recovered by New England deep in Broncos territory. Stephen Gostkowski drilled a 31-yard field goal to cap the greatest comeback in franchise history.

11/29/15..... at Denver 30, Patriots 24 L
The Denver Broncos overcame a 21-7 fourth-quarter deficit to win, 30-24, in overtime and hand the visiting Patriots their first loss of the season. Facing a late 21-17 fourth-quarter deficit, Denver QB Brock Osweiler led the Broncos on a 5-play, 83 yard drive capped off by a 4-yard touchdown strike to WR Andre Caldwell that gave the Broncos their first lead of the night at 24-21 with 1:09 left to play. Not to be outdone, Tom Brady then led New England 51 yards down the field into Denver territory, completing three of his four passes, before Stephen Gostkowski connected on a game-tying 47-yard field goal as time expired. The Patriots won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive but were stopped on three straight plays. On Denver's second play from scrimmage, RB C.J. Anderson scampered 48 yards to the end zone giving Denver a dramatic victory in the snowy conditions at Mile High.

12/27/15 ..... at N.Y. Jets 26, Patriots 20 L
Tom Brady rallied the Patriots from a 17-3 deficit to tie the game at 20 with under two minutes to play in regulation on a 9-yard touchdown pass to RB James White. The 11-play, 66 yard drive was highlighted by two critical fourth-down conversions to TE Rob Gronkowski, the second being a 26-yard completion on fourth-and-9 that put New England at the Jets 9-yard line. Brady hit White for the game-tying score on the very next play. After winning the coin toss the Patriots elected to kick, which resulted in a 5-play, 80 yard drive capped off by a 6-yard touchdown reception from WR Eric Decker that gave New York the victory.

PATRIOTS OVERTIME GAMES

10/17/21..... Dallas 35, at Patriots 29..... L
Cowboys quarterback Dak Prescott passed for 445 yards and three touchdowns, the most important of which coming on a 35-yard connection with receiver Cee-Dee Lamb in overtime to give Dallas a 35-29 victory. After falling behind following an interception that was returned for a touchdown, Mac Jones connected with WR Kendrick Bourne on a 75-yard touchdown pass to move in front, 29-26, with just over two minutes in regulation. Dallas converted a third-and-25 situation to get into field goal range to send the game into overtime. After stopping New England on the opening drive,Dallas scored on its first offensive drive to secure the win.

10/02/22 ..... at Green Bay 27, Patriots 24..... L
The Packers survived a tougher-than-expected game at Lambeau Field, beating the Patriots 27-24 on a K Mason Crosby walk-off 31-yard field goal on the final play of overtime. Entering the game without Mac Jones (out with an ankle injury), New England was quickly forced to play third-string quarterback Bailey Zappe when backup Brian Hoyer exited with a head injury during the first quarter. Zappe took over the rest of the way, finishing 10-of-15 for 99 yards with a 25-yard touchdown in the third quarter to WR DeVante Parker. QB Aaron Rodgers threw a pick-six that rookie DB Jack Jones returned 40 yards to give the Patriots a 10-3 halftime lead.

POSTSEASON (3-0)

01/19/02..... at Patriots 16, Oakland 13*..... W
Adam Vinatieri boomed a 45-yard field goal with 27 seconds remaining in regulation to tie the game up at 13 and send it into overtime. The game time temperature dipped to 25 degrees and the field was covered by five inches of snow that didn't let up until the game was over. In overtime, the Patriots drove 61 yards on 15 plays and Vinatieri nailed a 23-yard field goal for the 16-13 victory. The Patriots became just the second team in postseason overtime history (16 games) to win the contest on the opening drive of the extra stanza.
-AFC Divisional Playoff Game

02/05/17..... . Patriots 34, Atlanta 28*..... W
James White's 2-yard touchdown run in overtime sealed a victory and capped off the greatest comeback in Super Bowl history as the Patriots erased a 25-point third quarter deficit. Down 21-3 the Patriots didn't do much to help their cause early in the second half as Atlanta added to their lead on a 6-yard touchdown reception from Matt Ryan to Tevin Coleman to make the score 28-3. From there it was all Patriots, with the key turning point in the game being a fourth quarter strip sack by Dont'a Hightower that gave the Patriots possession deep in Atlanta territory down 28-12 with under nine minutes left to play. A 6-yard Danny Amendola touchdown reception along with a James White 2-point conversion made the score 28-20. After Atlanta's ensuing drive stalled deep in New England territory, Tom Brady led a 10-play, 91-yard drive that ended with a 1-yard James White touchdown run and a second successful 2-point conversion to tie the score at 28-28. After winning the overtime coin toss, Tom Brady orchestrated an 8-play, 75-yard drive that ended in James White's winning 2-yard touchdown run that captured the Patriots fifth Super Bowl title.
-Super Bowl LI

01/20/19..... . Patriots 37, at Kansas City 31*..... W
Rex Burkhead's 2-yard touchdown run in overtime sent the Patriots to their third straight Super Bowl and clinched a 37-31 AFC Championship victory over the Kansas City Chiefs on a frigid night at Arrowhead Stadium. The Patriots opened up a 14-0 halftime lead in which they dominated the time of possession and held a high-powered Chiefs offense to just 32 total yards of offense. Both teams would trade scores throughout the second half with Kansas City roaring back to take two fourth-quarter leads, the last coming on a 2-yard touchdown run by Damien Williams with 2:03 left to play that put Kansas City ahead, 28-24. Tom Brady then led a 6-play, 65-yard drive capped off by a 4-yard touchdown run by Rex Burkhead to retake the lead briefly before Chiefs kicker Harrison Butker tied the game at 31 at the end of regulation. After winning the overtime coin toss, Brady led a methodical 13-play, 75-yard drive, highlighted by three third-down conversions that culminated in Burkhead's 2-yard game-winning score to send New England on to Super Bowl LIII.

NOTES

The network the Patriots rely on

On game day, you don't want your network dropping the ball. That's why we teamed up with the NFL to engineer a private network that enables critical real-time communications between coaches on the field, where every second matters.

And in the stands at Gillette Stadium, we deployed our 5G Ultra Wideband network, so fans can post, stream and share the action from their seats. Verizon – the network Patriots fans rely on.

verizon

The official 5G network of the New England Patriots.

Coverage may vary within stadium.

PATRIOTS PLAYOFF RESULTS

ALL-TIME PLAYOFF RESULTS

The Patriots have played in 59 playoff games during their 63-year history, compiling an overall playoff record of 37-22. The Patriots won an NFL-record 10 consecutive playoff games from the 2001 season to the 2005 season. Since Robert Kraft purchased the Patriots in 1994, the team is 33-16 in the playoffs, and its 33 playoff victories are the most in the NFL over that span. Neutral site Super Bowls

GAME NOTES

- This was the first of 10 championship games involving the Patriots. (also Super Bowls XX, XXXI, XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXIX, XLII, XLVI, XLIX and LI).
- The 610 yards yielded by the Patriots defense still ranks as the highest total ever given up by the Patriots.
- The Patriots committed only one penalty versus the Chargers. It is the lowest single game total in team playoff history (tied with Dec. 28, 1985 at N.Y. Jets).

GAME NOTES

- Head coach Bill Belichick tied NFL records by matching Don Shula with his sixth Super Bowl appearance and tying Chuck Noll with his fourth Super Bowl win.
- Tom Brady joined Terry Bradshaw and Joe Montana as the only quarterbacks with four Super Bowl victories, while matching Joe Montana's NFL-record three Super Bowl MVP Awards.
- Brady extended his Super Bowl records for passing yards (1,605) and completions (164), while passing Joe Montana for most touchdown passes (13) in Super Bowl history.
- Brady set Super Bowl records with 20 first-half completions and 37 total completions.
- Shane Vereen's 11 receptions were a Super Bowl record for a running back, and Ryan Allen set a Super Bowl record with a 64-yard punt.

GAME NOTES

- The Patriots completed the biggest comeback in team history when they overcame a 25-point deficit to beat Atlanta, 34-28, in overtime in Super Bowl LI. The Patriots trailed 28-3 with 8:36 to play in the third quarter before scoring 31 points on five of their final six offensive drives to claim the win.
- Bill Belichick won his fifth Super Bowl in 2016 to give him the most Super Bowl wins by any head coach in NFL history.
- Brady set three Super Bowl records against Atlanta in Super Bowl LI: Most passes in a game (62), Most completions (43) and most passing yards (466).
- With the win in Super Bowl LI and another MVP Award, Brady now has the most Super Bowl wins as a quarterback and most Super Bowl MVP awards.

GAME NOTES

- The Patriots set a Super Bowl record with 613 total yards, with 500 net yards passing and 113 yards on the ground.
- The Patriots became the first team to have three receivers with 100-plus yards in the Super Bowl with Danny Amendola (152), Chris Hogan (128) and Rob Gronkowski (116).
- Tom Brady broke his own Super Bowl record for passing yards with 505 yards following his 466-yard performance the year before in Super Bowl LI vs. Atlanta. His 505 passing yards are also the most ever in a postseason game and is the first 500-yard passing game in NFL postseason history.
- Rob Gronkowski's 116 receiving yards are the most ever by a tight end in a Super Bowl and his nine catches gave him 68 career postseason receptions, surpassing Dallas Clark (64) for the most receptions by a tight end in NFL postseason history.

GAME NOTES

- The Patriots victory in Super Bowl LIII is their sixth Super Bowl win, tying the Pittsburgh Steelers for the most Super Bowl victories.
- With the victory in Super Bowl LII, Bill Belichick joined George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only coaches with six championships.
- Tom Brady has now won six Super Bowls, breaking a tie with Hall of Fame DL Charles Haley (5) as the only NFL player to play on six Super Bowl winning teams. Haley won two with San Francisco and three with Dallas.
- Julian Edelman was named Super Bowl MVP after finishing with 10 receptions for 141 yards. He became the seventh wide receiver to win Super Bowl MVP honors and the second Patriots wide receiver to win the award. Deion Branch was named MVP for his performance in Super Bowl XXXIX.

Ten seasons, three Super Bowl championships: it's been a great ride for Bob Socci as the radio voice of the Patriots. Socci returns for his 11th season in the booth as play-by-play broadcaster on 98.5 The Sports Hub and its 33-station network. He has won rave reviews for his enthusiasm and accuracy since taking the helm for the 2013 campaign. Before joining the Patriots, Bob served as the voice of the Naval Academy Midshipmen for 16 seasons, and called Triple A baseball, most recently for the Pawtucket Red Sox, for a decade.

Socci is joined in the booth by former Patriots quarterback Scott Zolak, who is entering his 11th season as action analyst. Prior to moving upstairs, he spent a season with the legendary broadcast team of Gil Santos and Gino Cappelletti as a sideline reporter. Prior to that, he served six seasons as a co-host of "Patriots Preview" and "Patriots Postgame" on the Radio Network. He's currently heard daily as co-host of the "Zolak and Bertrand" Show on the Sports Hub, where his experience as a pro athlete and his boundless energy keep Boston listeners engaged and entertained all year long.

The gameday experience on the network starts three hours before kickoff with "Patriots Preview," with hosts Marc Bertrand, Jim Murray and Christopher Gasper. The co-host of the Sports Hub's midday show, Bertrand is entering his ninth season as quarterback of the Network's pregame show. He previously helmed the "Patriots Pregame Social" on Patriots.com for two seasons. A UMass grad, he won Associated Press awards for both his play-by-play and talk shows covering the Minutemen. Bertrand is also a frequent contributor to NBC Sports Boston. Murray is a native of Melrose, Massachusetts and can be heard each weekday afternoon on the highly rated "Felger and Massarotti" show. Gasper is back for his 16th season on "Patriots Preview." The Lynn, Massachusetts, native is a sports columnist for The Boston Globe. Gasper and Murray also co-host the Saturday morning "Gasper & Murray" show on the Sports Hub.

The men in charge of the "Patriots Postgame" are Joe Murray and Leroy Irvin. Greg Bedard of the Boston Sports Journal will also contribute. Murray has been an on-air host at 98.5 The Sports Hub since 2011. He enters his second season co-hosting the "Patriots Postgame". The Hyde Park native is a 16-year veteran of the sports radio industry. Irvin has been co-hosting on the Sports Hub in various dayparts since 2018. He's also part of the "Get Up Crew" heard each weekday morning on Beasley Media Boston's sister station HOT 96.9 FM. A native of Dorchester, Leroy was also the founder and host of the Play Action Sports podcast.

The football season never ends on the Patriots flagship station, 98.5 The Sports Hub. From morning-after breakdowns with "Toucher and Rich," X's and O's with "Zolak and Bertrand," to no-holds-barred opinions from "Felger and Massarotti," the Patriots are always front and center. Mike Reiss, Phil Perry, Bert Breer and Paul Perillo also contribute and can be heard weekdays. One of the first sports franchises to broadcast their games on FM, the Patriots begin their 29th season of airing every block, tackle and kick in crystal-clear stereo. The Patriots are entering their 15th season on The Sports Hub, where you'll also find the broadcasts of the New England Revolution, Boston Bruins and Boston Celtics.

PATRIOTS IN-HOUSE CONTENT

The Kraft Sports & Entertainment Content team creates and manages all the content for the Patriots website, app, social media accounts, podcasts and television shows.

PATRIOTS.COM

The team's official website offers all the Patriots news and transactions as well as exclusive video, audio, photos and features.

In particular, live video includes every Bill Belichick and Mac Jones press conference, the Dunkin Pregame Show and the Postgame Show presented by Cyberseason, along with other events such as special episodes of Patriots All Access and the Patriots Hall of Fame induction ceremony.

On demand video ranges from daily news updates, special features, player interviews, game highlights, podcasts and Patriots Cheerleaders. Video offerings also include exclusive content such as postgame locker room celebrations and the "Belichick Breakdown" where Coach gives his unique insight into opponents and plays.

AUDIO/PODCASTS

Live, original radio shows and on demand podcasts produced from the studios at Gillette Stadium are available on Patriots.com, the Patriots app, and most of the popular podcast platforms. The line-up includes "Patriots Unfiltered," the team's flagship show featuring the content producers from Patriots.com. Other live shows include "Catch-22" with Evan Lazar and Alex Barth and "Patriots Playbook" with John Rooke. The Patriots podcast offerings include the above shows as well as "Pats From the Past", where Patriots Senior Editor, Paul Perillo and Senior Executive Producer Matt Smith, sit down for extended conversations with former Patriots. The show's long format and Perillo and Smith's combined 40-plus years of experience with the team make for great interviews with fan favorites over the decades. Additional audio and podcast content includes video conferences and conference calls, player interviews, Training Camp-cast, Patriots Prospect Reports and special live NFL Draft shows. Check Patriots.com for in-season and offseason schedules.

PATRIOTS OFFICIAL APP

The Patriots app offers everything from Patriots.com as well as live radio game feeds, full GameCenter and tools for managing your Patriots tickets. Available for all iOS and Android mobile devices.

PATRIOTS SOCIAL MEDIA

Over 17 million people follow the Patriots on their various social media accounts where content is generated on a daily basis for each platform. The Patriots are active on multiple platforms including Facebook (NewEnglandPatriots), Twitter (@patriots), Instagram (@patriots), Snapchat ('patriots'), YouTube (patriots), TikTok (@patriots), LinkedIn and Pinterest (patriots).

2023 PATRIOTS CHEERLEADERS

The New England Patriots Cheerleaders and Pat Patriot Mascot look forward to another successful year in 2023, developing relationships with fans and aspiring young cheerleaders throughout New England. While the Patriots Cheerleaders have become accustomed to entertaining thousands of Patriots fans from the sidelines, the squad also works closely with the Patriots Foundation, supporting the efforts of charitable organizations throughout New England, using their celebrity status to make a difference in the community. Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, T.A.P.S., Cradles to Crayons, the MSPCA, Teen Safety Summit, Operation Backpack and Special Olympics are a few of the Patriots Cheerleaders' favorite organizations to partner with. In addition to its philanthropic efforts, the squad also makes public appearances for local businesses and corporations, spreading cheer to fans at a variety of events throughout New England and across the country. Those events include parades, trade shows and grand openings to name a few.

The New England Patriots Cheerleaders proudly maintain a well-established Junior Cheerleader program, where youth ages 7-17 attend clinics with the squad and make community appearances with the Patriots Cheerleaders throughout the season in connection with the squad's community efforts. For more information on the Junior Patriots Cheerleaders program, please visit https://www.patriots.com/cheerleaders/junior-cheerleaders.

A hybrid virtual and in-person audition process drew more than 300 applicants to compete for the opportunity to join the 2023 co-ed cheerleading team. The squad is populated with a range of students and professionals, including an oncology nurse, speech-language pathologist, financial analyst and business owner. Squad members come from across New England and the U.S., including Arizona, North Carolina, New York and California. This year's squad will continue to serve as Patriots ambassadors throughout New England. For more information on the Patriots Cheerleaders or Pat Patriot Mascot, email cheerleaders@patriots.com or visit www.patriots.com/cheerleaders.

PATRIOTS FOUNDATION

CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM

Robert Kraft established the New England Patriots Foundation in 1994 as a way to give back to the communities the Patriots call home. The mission of the foundation is to aid individuals and families that are often marginalized in today's society. Through the implementation of year-round programming and support of philanthropic agencies, the foundation is building stronger communities throughout New England.

With the incredible support of current and former Patriots players and coaches and Patriots fans around the globe, the Patriots Foundation has grown tremendously, helping to meet the needs of the region's most vulnerable populations. Over the years, the foundation has provided support to thousands of local nonprofits with initiatives that provide family healthcare, fight homelessness and hunger, support military and veterans, teach the importance of nutrition and exercise and encourage education and mentoring. While the foundation supports a number of different causes, there is one common theme – addressing the most pressing needs of our New England communities.

Thanks to the support of our five cornerstone partners — Bank of America, Cross Insurance, CVS, Dellbrook and Gillette — the Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation will expand upon our efforts, positively impacting more New Englanders throughout the year. To learn more about the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation's community efforts, visit www.patriots.com/community. If you have any questions, please contact us at 508-543-8200 or charitableevents@patriots.com.

The Kraft family and the Patriots organization believe that social justice reflects a society where all individuals have equal footing and unchallenged access to opportunities throughout their lives – irrespective of their ethnic origin, gender, gender identity, race, religion or zip code. We are committed to providing individuals in New England and around the world with equal access to opportunities for success, well-being and personal growth by building bridges and creating a sense of community through philanthropic investments. We strongly believe that by continuing to listen and educate ourselves, together we can create a world of equity, work to end systemic racism and create meaningful change to address the societal issues that are impacting marginalized and under-resourced communities.

Players Social Justice Fund

For the fifth consecutive season, the Patriots Players' Social Justice Fund provided support for organizations focused on social justice and racial equality, including the areas of education, economic development, police relations and criminal justice. The fund is renewed every year and matched by the Kraft family – up to $250,000. Thanks to the generous support of players, coaches, scouts and staff members, this year's fund amounted to $432,500. Over the past five seasons, the Patriots Players' Social Justice Fund has raised and distributed over $2.3 million to organizations in Boston, Greater Boston and the New England region.

Five nonprofit organizations each received $82,500 in grants, including Coaching 4 Change, The Educational Justice Institute, Silver Lining Mentoring, Smart From the Start and Young Man with a Plan. A $20,000 matching grant was given to Boxing Power & Fitness in Dorchester.

Foundation to Combat Anti-Semitism

Robert K. Kraft founded the Foundation to Combat Antisemitism in 2019 to help address the rising hate against Jews in the United States and the existential threat it poses to Jewish people. The Foundation is focused on winning the hearts and minds of non-Jews through powerful, positive messaging and partnerships, motivating and equipping them to be defenders and upstanders for Jews as they continue to face antisemitism. FCAS' work includes understanding and responding to antisemitic messages and hate speech posted online and sharing the story of the Jewish people and the threats they face today to drive awareness and solidarity amongst all audiences, especially non-Jews.

In March 2023, FCAS launched #StandUpToJewishHate, a new, national campaign designed to raise awareness of antisemitism and hate targeting Jews and to empower all people, especially, non-Jews, to stand up against it when it impacts their communities. The campaign is focused on educating people to the fact that although Jews make up 2.4% of the American population, they are the victims of 55% of religious based hate crimes. As part of its goal of raising awareness of antisemitism with the broader public, FCAS established 🟦, the Blue Square emoji already on most phones, as a simple, but powerful unifying symbol of solidarity and support for the Jewish community, making it easy for anyone to #StandUpToJewishHate. The campaign is encouraging all people to post and share 🟦 on their social media channels.

COMMUNITY CAPTAINS

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation are excited to partner with Bank of America to continue the "Community Captains" program. This charitable initiative was created in the fall of 2021 to build deeper relationships with nonprofits and strengthen the impact on the populations they serve. During this two year partnership, the Patriots Foundation and Bank of America work closely with six nonprofit organizations with a goal of establishing a deeper understanding of their community efforts and to help each charity serve its constituents more effectively.

In May 2023, six new nonprofit organizations were selected as the 2023-2025 Community Captains. Throughout the 2023 season, the Kraft family, New England Patriots Foundation and Bank of America will conduct site visits at all six nonprofit organizations as an opportunity to learn more about each organization, hear from their staff and volunteers and see how the Patriots and Bank of America can support their efforts. During these visits, a total of $300,000 in grants will be presented to the nonprofits - $50,000 per organization – to support their areas of greatest need.

In addition to financial support, each of the nonprofits receive in-kind donations, participate in networking opportunities with staff from the Patriots and Bank of America, enjoy access to Bank of America's Better Money Habits program, and much more. The six Community Captains include Blue Star Families (Mass.); Bridge Over Troubled Waters (Boston, Mass.); Friends of the Children (Roxbury, Mass.); My Brothers Table (Lynn, Mass.); New England Center and Homes for Veterans (Boston, Mass.) and Rhode Island Free Clinic (Providence, R.I.).

EXTRA POINTS

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots have a longstanding commitment to supporting active duty military, veterans and their families. As part of the year-round Salute to Service initiative, the Kraft family and Patriots Foundation are committed to celebrating those who dedicate their lives to protecting our freedoms. Our partners at Cross Insurance share the same commitment to military, veterans and their families. Together, we celebrate and honor the true Patriots for their selfless dedication to our country.

Month of the Military Child

April is designated as the "Month of the Military Child," providing an opportunity to recognize and thank the children of our service members and veterans. To commemorate this special occasion, the Patriots Foundation– with the support of Cross Insurance – brought 'Football For You' to Naval Station Newport. Current and former Patriots players led a free football clinic for military children. The foundation and Cross Insurance also hosted "Patriots Gamers" at Helix eSports at Patriot Place. Twenty current Patriots players played in a video game tournament with children of service members.

Tragedy Assistance Programs for Survivors (TAPS)

For the past six years, the Kraft family and the Patriots have teamed with Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) to recognize military families whose loved ones paid the ultimate sacrifice. Each year, the Patriots Salute to Service game is dedicated to their loved ones. Players wore decal stickers on the back of their helmets with the initials of a former military member who lost his or her life in service to our country. Patriots coaches and cheerleaders wore buttons with the names and photos of fallen servicemen and women. Prior to the game, the Kraft family hosted a special ceremony, thanked the families and loved ones for their sacrifice and shared special messages from the players.

Vietnam Veterans Pinning Ceremony

Each year, the Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation invite Vietnam veterans for a special pinning ceremony at Gillette Stadium. The United States of America Vietnam War Commemoration established the Commemorative Partner Program, an initiative to thank and honor Vietnam veterans and their families. The Patriots have joined them in their efforts to pay tribute to those who served. On March 29, Vietnam War Veterans day, Josh Kraft, Andre Tippett and Jonathan Cross of Cross Insurance presented Vietnam veteran lapel pins to men and women to recognize, thank and honor them for their service during the Vietnam War.

PATRIOTS FOUNDATION Gillette
CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM

In 2011, the foundation established the Celebrate Volunteerism initiative as a way to share examples of dedicated volunteers, build awareness of the need for volunteering, identify and educate others about volunteer opportunities and inspire New Englanders to follow the Kraft family's example of becoming lifelong volunteers. We are excited to partner with our good friends at Gillette to inspire the next generation of volunteers and to celebrate individuals for their dedication and service to our New England communities.

Myra Kraft Community MVP Awards

Myra Kraft COMMUNITY MVP AWARDS
PATRIOTS FOUNDATION · CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM
PRESENTED BY: Gillette

For the past 26 years, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation have been celebrating New England area volunteers with a special award. The program was initially known as the "Community Quarterback Awards," but in 2011, it was renamed in honor of Myra Kraft, celebrating her lifelong commitment to volunteering. Applications open each spring and the honorees are recognized during a special luncheon at Gillette Stadium. Since its inception, the program has recognized more than 450 volunteers and provided more than $3 million in grants to local nonprofit organizations.

Patriots Difference Maker of the Week Award

CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM
PATRIOTS FOUNDATION

Each week during the NFL season, a volunteer is celebrated for going above and beyond to give back to their local community with the Patriots Difference Maker of the Week Award. The honorees are celebrated in weekly press releases and are invited to a special year-end celebration at Gillette Stadium. Since the awards inception, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation have recognized more than 180 volunteers and donated more than $800,000 in support of their nonprofit organizations.

Ron Burton Community Service Award

The Ron Burton Community Service Award is named in honor of the late Ron Burton, the first player drafted by the team in the inaugural year of 1960 and a community leader whose widespread charitable work was a model for how a Patriots player can make an impact off the field. This award is presented annually to one Patriots player that goes above and beyond to give back to the community. Deatrich Wise Jr. was celebrated as the 20th recipient of the award during the 2022 Patriots Premiere.

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation are dedicated to supporting initiatives that provide clothing, food, gifts and other essential items to children and families in need. Since the foundation's inception, the Kraft family has remained steadfast in its commitment to provide essential items to families in need, partnering with hundreds of local charitable organizations that provide healthy meals and unwavering support to the most vulnerable populations in our region. With the support of Dellbrook|JKS, we are able to provide essential services to those experiencing homelessness.

Empowerment Coats

Since 2014, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation have purchased thousands of Empowerment coats. The weather resistant coats transform into sleeping bags and can be worn as an over-the-shoulder bag. Current and former Patriots players, Patriots cheerleaders and Pat Patriot have distributed the coats to homeless shelters all across the region. The coats were designed by the Empowerment Plan, a Detroit-based nonprofit that distributes the specially designed winter gear to individuals living on the streets. The nonprofit is working to break the cycle of homelessness by employing parents from shelters to manufacture these coats. Every single person that has been employed by the Empowerment Plan has moved out of the shelter within the first four-to-six weeks of working there. More importantly, none of them have returned to homelessness. The Patriots Foundation and Dellbrook|JKS have partnered to donate an outreach van to Pine Street Inn, a homeless shelter in Boston, to best serve this vulnerable population.

Kraft Sports + Entertainment has a long history of supporting initiatives designed to empower and encourage women in the sports industry. The goal of our women's empowerment initiatives is to support girls and women in all industries by providing resources for success. We look forward to building upon these efforts with our partners at CVS Health and appreciate their shared commitment to celebrating and empowering women and girls.

Female-Led Nonprofit Summit

In September 2022, the Patriots Foundation and CVS Health invited five female-led New England nonprofits to Gillette Stadium for a day to learn from business and nonprofit leaders. Ten employees from every organization listened to a panel and participated in breakout sessions led by executives at The Kraft Group and CVS Health. Each nonprofit received a $5,000 grant to support its efforts.

Female Trailblazers Panel

To celebrate Women's History Month, the Patriots Foundation and CVS Health partnered to host a "Female Trailblazers" panel. The panel featured women who have paved the way for other women in their respective industries. The panelists shared stories about their lives and careers and offered advice to both men and women on what they can do to uplift the women in their lives.

Day of Pampering

Each October, in honor of Crucial Catch month, the Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation host a group of women for a day of pampering at Gillette Stadium. All of the invitees – who are undergoing cancer treatments – enjoy an unforgettable day filled with manicures, massages, relaxation yoga and more. In 2022, Robert Kraft surprised the women with tickets to attend the Patriots Crucial Catch game.

PATRIOTS FOUNDATION
CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation are dedicated to providing year-round support to children and families in need but understand that the holidays and winter months can be a particularly challenging time of the year. For 30 years, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation have hosted a series of events to bring smiles and lifelong memories to children and families across New England.

Thanksgiving-In-A-Basket

Every year since purchasing the team, the Kraft family has been joined by current and former Patriots players and their families to supply complete Thanksgiving meals to hundreds of families in need at the Thanksgiving-in-a-Basket event at Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries in Boston. All recipients are individuals who are currently enrolled in Goodwill's job training and youth programs. The current and former Patriots players personally carry the baskets to the cars of each family and ensure that every family receives a complete Thanksgiving meal. The event hits a milestone this year, marking 30 years since it was first held.

Children's Holiday Party

The annual Children's Holiday Party is one of the Kraft family's longstanding charitable traditions through the Patriots Foundation, celebrating 30 years of the event this winter. Each year, 250 children in need from the Salvation Army and community centers throughout the region are hosted by the Kraft family for a night of food, fun and great holiday memories. Patriots players, cheerleaders and Pat Patriot join the children to play holiday-themed games, sign autographs and offer gifts from the Patriots Foundation.

Gifts from the Gridiron

Since 2010, the foundation has partnered with Bass Pro Shops at Patriot Place to host a holiday shopping event for children from local homeless shelters. During this holiday event, youth are provided $400 gift cards to purchase winter clothing, toys and gifts for loved ones. Each child pairs up with a current or former Patriots player, cheerleader or member of the Patriots Women's Association who help the children to select and wrap their gifts. The evening also features dinner, photos with Santa in Bass Pro Shop's Santa's Wonderland, crafts, games, music and more. With the support of Patriots players, hundreds of children have enjoyed this unforgettable holiday shopping experience.

PATRIOTS FOUNDATION
CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation would not be able to support as many children, individuals and families in need without the generous contributions from our fans. Throughout the year, sponsors, premium seating clients, season ticket members and avid Patriots fans across the globe support fundraising events and initiatives for the Patriots Foundation.

Boston Marathon

For more than a decade, the Patriots Foundation has been an official charity team of the Boston Marathon. In addition to training, the runners raise funds to support the foundation's Myra Kraft Community MVP Awards program.

Marathon TEAM

License Plates

Fans in Massachusetts and Rhode Island have the opportunity to purchase a Patriots license plate, celebrating the team's six Super Bowl championships. Fans in New Hampshire can also purchase Patriots decal stickers for their New Hampshire decal plates. All proceeds from this charitable program will support nonprofits in their respective states.

Massachusetts 6X CHAMPIONS NE PATS Foundation

Patriots Premiere

The Patriots Premiere is the largest annual fundraising event for the Patriots Foundation. It is a red-carpet gala hosted on the field of Gillette Stadium for the team's biggest supporters to kick off the start of a new season. The event features special appearances by the Kraft family, Patriots coaches, players and cheerleaders.

PATRIOTS PREMIERE

Patriots Platelet Pedalers

The Patriots Platelet Pedalers ride the Pan Mass Challenge each year, with the funds earmarked for Dr. Ken Anderson, the Kraft Family Professor of Medicine at Harvard Medical School and Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, to support his multiple myeloma research and development of novel therapies.
