Gillette STADIUM

www.GilletteStadium.com @GilletteStadium

Gillette Stadium, home of the New England Patriots, is the region's premier sports and entertainment venue. Since opening in 2002, fans have enjoyed more regular season and postseason victories than any other team in the NFL. In 23 seasons, the venue has hosted more than 13 million football fans attending Patriots games and has been the site of seven AFC Championship games – six of which were Patriots victories. Since 2002, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home with an overall mark of 156-52, including a 19-4 playoff record in Foxborough.

The Kraft family has continually invested in Gillette Stadium to keep the venue on the cutting edge and enhance the fan experience. Recent stadium improvements are highlighted by the addition of the signature 22-story Gillette Stadium Lighthouse, featuring a 360-degree observation deck open to guests year-round, and the installation of the largest outdoor curved-radius videoboard at a sports venue in the country. Additional venue enhancements include the 50,000 square-foot G-P Atrium, a reimagined fan plaza, enhanced Row of Honor, field-level Bud Light Celebration Beer Hall, the Ticketmaster entry canopy, new and improved concessions like the Pepsi Grab & Go offering, connectivity on the upper concourse for movement east to west, increased restroom capacity and permanent bar and concession locations featuring new product offerings. During last season, Gillette Stadium also added a new sensory room, available at all full-stadium events for guests with sensory sensitivities or challenges with regulating sensory input. Just like Gillette Stadium's initial construction, subsequent stadium renovations are entirely privately financed by the Kraft family.

Gillette Stadium also features a variety of communal spaces where fans can gather before, during and after games. These amenities include the DraftKings Sports Zone and the Commons on the Main Concourse, as well as the Encore Boston Harbor Terrace and the JetBlue Landings on the Upper Concourse. Additionally, the Cross Insurance Club, which runs the length of the stadium on both sidelines, offers members access to 120,000 square feet of indoor space and premium outdoor seats. Finally, the stadium's Bank of America Luxury Suite Levels are home to 92 luxury suites that are among the largest in the NFL, ranging from 800 to 2,700 square feet. Each suite is fully furnished to ensure a top-tier event experience and features in-suite catering and beverage service, restrooms and a dedicated suite attendant.

Construction is also underway on a new stand-alone football training facility, located adjacent to the stadium and practice fields. The three-level structure will more than double the square footage of the team's current footprint located inside Gillette Stadium. While the day-to-day activities will primarily be spent in and around the new center, the core pieces for the team's game-day needs, including their stadium locker room, will remain intact. This new facility has a targeted completion date of spring 2026.

In conjunction with providing a high-level fan experience, Gillette Stadium is also committed to delivering sustainable, world-class events with the goal of managing and reducing environmental impact. In recognition of these continued efforts, the venue recently earned ISO 20121: Sustainable Events Management and LEED Gold certifications and was selected as a winner of the inaugural Front Office Sports 2024 Most Sustainable award.

GILLETTE STADIUM FUN FACTS

The Height of Design
The stadium's prominent signature lighthouse in the north end zone rises 22 stories above the playing field, towering over the stadium itself, which is 16 stories tall. The 218-foot lighthouse is the tallest lighthouse in the United States.

New View
The lighthouse features a 360-degree observation deck with unique views of the Boston skyline, into Gillette Stadium and of the surrounding neighborhoods.

Long Way to the Top
The Lantern Room at the top of the lighthouse can be accessed via a 34-second elevator ride. There are also 372 interior stairs.

On the Big Screen
The north end zone videoboard measures 22,000 square feet, making it the largest outdoor curved-radius videoboard at a sports venue in the country. Combined with the south end zone videoboard, the half-acre north end zone board gives Gillette Stadium three-quarters of an acre of video scoreboards, providing ample space to enjoy game action, replays, statistics and more.

Bridging the Gap
The north end hospitality and function spaces bridge the gap between the Cross Insurance Clubs, the Luxury Suite Levels and the upper concourse, giving all levels of the stadium 360-degree connectivity. These spaces are highlighted by the G-P Atrium, the largest Patriots game day hospitality space to open since 2002.

Gillette Stadium is also the full-time home of Major League Soccer's New England Revolution and annually hosts international soccer matches, NCAA athletics, professional lacrosse, Feld Motor Sports and high school football state championships. The stadium hosted the 2023 Army-Navy Game and 2016 NHL Winter Classic and will host the 2026 Navy-Notre Dame Game, as well as seven 2026 FIFA Men's World Cup matches, including a quarterfinal match. Additionally, Gillette Stadium is one of the world's top grossing concert venues according to Billboard and has hosted more than 100 concerts in venue history. The biggest acts in music have headlined the home of the Patriots and Revolution over the years, including Taylor Swift, Kenny Chesney, The Rolling Stones, Bruce Springsteen, Billy Joel, Elton John, Coldplay, Ed Sheeran and Beyoncé, just to name a few.

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to make the experience interactive. Its incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery houses all six Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those championships. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

"One of the greatest things about sports is the bond players and fans share. You feel like you've lived through the same experiences and share the same memories. That was one of our motivations in building The Hall. We wanted to create a place where our fans and alumni could visit and relive those moments together. We wanted to preserve the legacy of this franchise and give our greatest players the most prominent display of any hall of fame in the world."

— ROBERT KRAFT

The experience begins as visitors enter an elevator on the ground floor and hear a voice from Patriots history welcoming them to the Hall of Fame. The journey continues through 20,000 square feet and two stories until visitors reach one of The Hall of Fame's signature exhibits and its premier photo opportunity: the Patriots' six Lombardi trophies.

The Hall of Fame features interactive exhibits designed to educate and entertain. Visitors receive instruction on how plays in the Patriots' playbook are designed. They also step inside a game-used replay booth and make the call on an instant replay review with instruction from former NFL Vice President of Officiating Mike Pereira. Fans can make Malcolm Butler's famous championship-clinching interception in The Hall of Fame's incredible Super Bowl Experience exhibit. Additionally, visitors can spike a football like legendary tight end Ron Gronkowski and test their spike compared to Gronk's.

The Hall of Fame's 26 high-definition touch screen kiosks allow visitors to interact with the exhibits in unique ways. Exclusive video content is also displayed on 29 high-definition TV monitors, four projection screens and the 45-foot-wide panoramic movie screen in the RTX Theater, where a 17-minute signature film plays every 20 minutes.

Each Patriots Hall of Famer is immortalized on 30-foot high, five-foot wide video pylons utilizing high-resolution LED displays. Fans can choose which Hall of Fame player to highlight on one of four touch screen kiosks, causing the pylons to come alive with video and images of each player while additional information is displayed on the screen below.

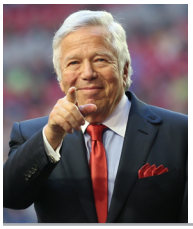

To complement the audiovisual experiences, there are thousands of football artifacts on display at The Hall of Fame, ranging from the priceless (a football from the 1876 Harvard-Yale game) to the quirky (the infamous snow plow that cleared the way for a Patriots win over the Dolphins in 1982) to the sublime (The Patriots' six Super Bowl rings).

In partnership with RTX, The Patriots Hall of Fame presents an integrated math and science education program featuring STEM modules that engage K-12 students in real-life, football-related experiences using the engineering design process and other standards-based activities. It also worked with RTX to develop two education interactive experiences – In the Numbers and By the Numbers. Both use football to teach math and science in an interactive, entertaining way. In the Numbers uses a game-show format and challenges guests to answer math and science questions to advance a player down the field for a touchdown. By the Numbers asks users to input data and then watch to see if the data enables a completed pass or a successful field goal kick.

In 2015, Yankee magazine named the Patriots Hall of Fame "Best Sports Museum." In 2009, the hall of fame received a Gold MUSE Award from the American Association of Museums and The Hall's signature film, "Patriots Way," won a CINE Golden Eagle Award. The Hall of Fame was also named to Boston Globe Magazine's Best of the New and was a Yankee magazine Editor's Choice recommendation. For more information, please visit www.patriotshalloffame.com.

Robert Kraft, founder, chairman and CEO of the Kraft Group, is an American entrepreneur, investor and philanthropist whose portfolio of businesses and brands range across many verticals, including paper and packaging, sports and entertainment, real estate and venture investing. His holdings include the New England Patriots, New England Revolution, Gillette Stadium, International Forest Products, Rand-Whitney Group, Rand-Whitney Containerboard and a portfolio of more than 100 venture and private-equity investments.

A lifelong football fan and 23-year New England Patriots season ticket holder before buying the team, Kraft became the chairman and CEO of the Patriots when he took ownership on Jan. 21, 1994. That day he pledged, "My objective in buying the Patriots is to help bring a championship to New England." That seemed to be a tall order considering the team's prior success rate. Now, 31 years later, the Patriots boast six Lombardi Trophies, 10 Super Bowl appearances and the highest winning percentage in all of professional sports.

In the five years prior to Kraft's ownership, the team had only won 19 of 80 games (.238 winning percentage) with no playoff appearances. In fact, in the 34-year history of the franchise (1960-93), the Patriots had won just 229 games (including playoffs), averaging just 6.6 wins per season, and had qualified for the playoffs a mere six times.

The year Kraft bought the team (1994), the Patriots advanced to the playoffs for the first time in eight seasons. In his first five years of ownership, the Patriots won 49 games and qualified for the playoffs four times, even advancing to the Super Bowl in just his third season at the helm (1996). Over Kraft's 31 seasons (1994-2024), the Patriots won an unprecedented 357 games (including playoffs) for an average of 11.5 wins per season.

Playoff games offer another stark contrast. Prior to 1994, Patriots fans had only been treated to one home playoff game, which the Patriots lost to the Houston Oilers in 1978. Since 1994, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 22 times — 19 as division champions — and hosted 27 home playoff games, in which they own a 23-4 (.852) record.

The worst-to-first ascent of the New England Patriots since Kraft purchased the team may be the greatest in sports history. Under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots are second to Pittsburgh with just five seasons with a sub .500 record since 1994, they recorded at least nine wins in 24 of 31 seasons, and they won more division titles (19) and conference crowns (10) than any other NFL team. In 2018, the Patriots claimed their sixth Super Bowl championship during Kraft's tenure. No other team has more in NFL history.

INSTALLING HIS VISION

It didn't take long for Kraft's vision to come into focus. His personal investment in the team restored the faith of Patriots fans and rejuvenated interest throughout New England. The year he bought the team, season ticket sales soared to new heights, eclipsing 40,000 for the first time in franchise history. By the start of his first season, every game was sold out, a feat that had never been accomplished in the franchise's previous 34 seasons. That achievement ensured local broadcast blackouts would be lifted and every Patriots game, home and away, would be televised throughout New England for the first time in team history. Entering the 2025 season, the Patriots have sold out 324 consecutive home games, including all preseason and playoff games, dating back to the first regular season home game in 1994 (not including the COVID-19 2020 season).

Kraft and the Patriots organization have built a winning team in the community. Established in 1994, the New England Patriots Foundation was created to support charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout New England.

"MY OBJECTIVE IN BUYING THE PATRIOTS IS TO HELP BRING A CHAMPIONSHIP TO NEW ENGLAND."

— ROBERT KRAFT, JAN. 21, 1994

ASCENSION

The transformation of the Patriots under Kraft's leadership constitutes one of the greatest franchise revivals in sports history. After winning back-to-back Super Bowls and three titles in four years, Forbes magazine named the Patriots "The Best Team in Sports" in 2005.

In 2007, the New England Patriots won a then-franchise record fifth consecutive division title. They also became the first NFL team to win 16 games during the regular season and the only team to ever win 18 consecutive games in one season. The undefeated regular season boosted the team's regular season record from 2003-07 to 66-14 for a remarkable .825 winning percentage. The 66 regular season wins in that span are tied with Kansas City for the most by any team over any five-year stretch in NFL history. Additionally, from Oct. 5, 2003, to Nov. 8, 2008, the Patriots won 81 games and lost only 19, matching the most successful 100-game stretch since the league was founded in 1920.

The Kraft-era Patriots also set three significant NFL records for consecutive wins. From 2003-04, the Patriots won 21 consecutive games, including playoffs. From 2006-08, the Patriots won 21 consecutive regular season games. Additionally, the Patriots established an NFL record by winning 10 consecutive playoff games (2001-05). During that time, the Patriots also won 21 consecutive games at Gillette Stadium, the longest home win streak in franchise history. The Patriots tied that home win streak after winning their 21st consecutive home game on Nov. 24, 2019.

The success the Patriots sustained during the first two decades of the new millennium is unrivaled. The Patriots' 126 total victories (including playoffs) from 2000-09 were, at the time, the most by any team in one decade in the history of the NFL. The decade of dominance featured more Super Bowl titles (3), conference titles (4), division titles (7), playoff wins (14), victories in a single season (18) and victories in a regular season (16) than any other team. In addition, no other NFL team hosted more playoff games (9) or played in more playoff games (18) than the New England Patriots. The sustained success earned the franchise "Team of the Decade" acclaim from many publications. The ensuing decade was even more productive with 141 total victories, 10 division titles, five conference crowns, 23 playoff games and three Super Bowl wins.

GETTING HIS START

Kraft launched his career in the paper and packaging industry with Rand-Whitney Group, Inc., of Worcester, Massachusetts, a company he later acquired. Under his leadership, the Kraft Group's paper and packaging division has grown into one of the largest privately-owned and fully-integrated forest products companies in the world. The company consists of corrugated packaging facilities, paper mills, global paper and solid wood products distribution, and waste paper processing. International Forest Products, a global distributor

BEST IN SPORTS

After claiming their third Super Bowl in four years, Forbes named the New England Patriots as the best team in sports. The accompanying article recognized how Robert Kraft built the Patriots organization into a winner on and off the field.

A WINNING TRADITION

Robert Kraft's winning percentage with the Patriots (.650) since taking over the team in 1994 is the highest among all owners/ownership groups with at least 200 wins (regular and postseason). He is one of just four owners with at least 200 wins and a winning percentage over .600.

| Joe Robbie | Dolphins | 1966-89 | .609 |
| Pat Bowlen | Broncos | 1984-2018 | .596 |

THE KRAFT ERA

Prior to 1994, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs just six times during their first 34 seasons (1960-93). In the 30 seasons since Robert Kraft has owned the team, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 22 times, 19 times as division champions, and have won 10 conference titles and six Super Bowl championships.

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft bought the team in 1994, the Patriots have become the most successful franchise in the NFL. For the past 31 seasons (1994-2024), the Patriots have won more Super Bowl Championships (6), more conference championships (10) and more division titles (19) than any other NFL team. In addition to championships, the Patriots have also won more, and more often, than any other NFL team, claiming 353 total victories and a .664 winning percentage, including 33 postseason wins.

and marketer founded by Kraft in 1972, annually does business in more than 120 countries, is the sixth-largest exporter in North America and has consistently been ranked among the top 10 in the annual rankings published by The Journal of Commerce. Within his companies, Kraft also built the first paper mill which produces product from 100% post-consumer fiber and waste water in the country. In doing so, he set a new industry standard for environmental responsibility, which he has modeled across his other businesses.

Throughout Kraft's professional career, many of his biggest risks have yielded the greatest rewards. That was true throughout his pursuit of Patriots ownership, beginning in 1985 when he first purchased an option on the land surrounding the old stadium in Foxborough, Massachusetts. It was a large investment for an underdeveloped parcel of land, but proved to be an important first step in a long process toward buying the Patriots. In 1988, he took another step by purchasing the stadium out of bankruptcy court. With a binding lease through 2001, the acquisition of the old stadium proved to be an invaluable asset in Kraft's quest toward owning the team.

When his opportunity came to buy the team in January of 1994, Kraft faced a difficult business dilemma. He had to decide between committing over $172 million of family resources to purchase the Patriots or accept a lucrative $75 million buyout offer to void the final years of the team's stadium lease and allow the team to move out of New England. On Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft passed on the buyout offer, choosing instead to make an 11th-hour bid to buy the team. On Feb. 26, 1994, a day after Kraft earned league approval, season tickets for the 1994 season went on sale and Patriots fans showed their support for Kraft's decision in record numbers. By the end of the first business day, amidst a winter Nor'easter, 5,958 season ticket orders were processed, shattering the previous single-day sales record of 979. The show of support validated Kraft's decision to buy the team and gave him the confidence to focus on another long-term project with great financial risk: the private financing and construction of Gillette Stadium.

In his first year of ownership, the Patriots won their final seven regular season games to qualify for the postseason, ending an eight-year playoff drought. By his fifth anniversary as owner, under the direction of two different head coaches, the Patriots had already established themselves as perennial playoff contenders, qualifying for the postseason four times, twice as division champions. In 1996, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years. After defeating Pittsburgh in the playoffs that year, the Patriots hosted their first conference championship game in franchise history and defeated Jacksonville, 20-6, to advance to Super Bowl XXXI.

BUILDING GILLETTE

From 2000-02, the Kraft Group's construction and real estate development team oversaw the on-time and on-budget construction of Gillette Stadium, a privately-financed facility and the only one of its kind to be financed without the burden of personal seat license fees charged to season ticket members. The financial commitment from Kraft provided a solid foundation on which to build for the first time in the franchise's nomadic history. Moving from Foxboro Stadium into the majestic Gillette Stadium marked another worst-to-first transformation for the Krafts, who now operate New England's premier entertainment venue. After opening Gillette Stadium, Kraft was recognized as the Sports Executive of the Year by a national publication and he and Jonathan Kraft were named Sports Industrialists of the Year by another.

The construction of Gillette Stadium was the Kraft Group development team's first project. In 2007, the Kraft Group expanded the development of the site with the construction of Patriot Place, a mixed-use lifestyle center and entertainment destination.

LOVE OF SPORTS

Kraft is widely recognized as one of the most successful owners in professional sports. His long-standing support of soccer in the United States dates back to his efforts in the early 1990s to secure Foxborough as one of the nine host venues for the 1994 FIFA World Cup and become one of three principal investors in Major League Soccer when he founded the New England Revolution in 1995. In 2017, Kraft was named Honorary Chairman of the Board of the United Bid Committee of Canada, Mexico and the United States and a key principle in securing the 2026 FIFA World Cup for North America.

As Chairman and CEO of the New England Patriots, Investor/Operator of the New England Revolution and owner of Gillette Stadium and Patriot Place, Kraft has turned the underdeveloped parcel of land he purchased in 1985 in Foxborough into a world-class sports and entertainment destination in New England.

PERSONAL

A native of Brookline, Massachusetts, Kraft attended public schools before enrolling at Columbia University on an academic scholarship. Following graduation, he received a fellowship to attend Harvard Business School, where he earned his master's degree in business administration.

A Patriots fan since their AFL days in the 1960s, Kraft attended games at each of the team's Boston venues: Boston University Field, Fenway Park, Boston College's Alumni Stadium and Harvard Stadium. When the Patriots moved to then Schaefer Stadium in 1971, Kraft invested in season tickets for his family. He credits the memories and experiences shared with his family and other Patriots fans during those years for his passionate pursuit for ownership of the franchise.

Robert Kraft and his family have consistently donated time, expertise and resources to a wide range of charities, nonprofits and causes, resulting in lifetime giving in excess of $900 million. He continues to support initiatives that provide equal access and opportunities, facilitate social and economic mobility and create social safety nets where they do not currently exist.

In 2019, Kraft was awarded the Genesis Prize, referred to as the "Jewish Nobel" by Time Magazine. As a Genesis Prize laureate, Kraft established the Foundation to Combat

While Kraft gets credit for resurrecting the once wayward Patriots franchise, he's also often cited as a key contributor in many of the league's major contract negotiations. He is the chairman of the NFL's Media Committee and an active member of two other committees.

Patriots owner helped bring accord during his wife's final days

The National Football League is back in action. And Patriots owner Robert Kraft is getting much of the credit.

Not only did Kraft help owners and players end a 135-day lockout and agree to a 10-year deal, but he did so while tending to his wife, Myra, who died Wednesday of cancer.

The role Kraft played in the negotiations was not lost on anyone at yesterday's press conference announcing the deal. Nor was the memory of his wife.

"A special thanks to Myra Kraft, who even in her weakest moment allowed Mr. Kraft to come and fight this out and without him, this deal does not get done," said Jeff Saturday, a representative of the NFL Players Association and a center for one of the Patriots' biggest rivals, the Indianapolis Colts.

He added that Kraft is "a man who helped us save football and we're so gracious for that, we're gracious for his family and for the opportunity he presented to get this deal done. So thank you very much — we really appreciate it."

Saturday and Kraft then embraced, in what will be the enduring image of this often contentious labor battle.

Kraft was at the press conference at the invitation of NFL commissioner Roger Goodell and Players Association executive director DeMaurice Smith.

Indianapolis Colts center Jeff Saturday embraced Robert Kraft in Washington yesterday after lauding the Patriots owner and his wife, Myra, who died last week.

Antisemitism (FCAS). Since its founding, Kraft has committed $150 million to support FCAS' mission. Kraft's vision for the foundation is to raise global awareness and encourage people everywhere to stand up to all forms of hate through powerful messaging and storytelling. In the spring of 2023, he launched a national multi-channel media campaign that focused on using empathy to motivate people to stand up to all forms of hate, including Jewish hate, and has reached the largest television audiences available by creating Super Bowl ads in 2024 and 2025.

Kraft became a founding partner in creating the REFORM Alliance, a foundation focused on American criminal justice reform through changing laws, policies, hearts and minds to reduce the number of long-term incarcerations resulting from minor probation and parole violations. Kraft also was a founding donor to the New Commonwealth Racial Equity and Social Justice Fund and the Black Leadership Institute at the Institute for Nonprofit Practice and the Equity Leadership Initiative at the Rhode Island Foundation. He donated a million dollars to the National Museum of African American History and Culture and has donated millions more to a collection of organizations addressing racial inequity through the Kraft Family/Patriots Players Collaborative Fund. Over the past decade, the Kraft Family Foundation has donated more than $125 million to nonprofits which serve traditionally under-served communities.

The Kraft family believes that equity of access to quality education and healthcare are the cornerstones to vibrant and successful communities and has established more than three dozen permanent endowments at educational, healthcare and social service organizations. In addition, Kraft has donated more than $50 million to Mass General Brigham for cancer care and to address healthcare disparities caused by race, ethnicity, geography and economic status. He created the Robert K. Kraft Endowed Chair to support inclusion, respect and fairness and endowed the Kraft Center for Community Health, an initiative designed to develop solutions for the community's most difficult health problems. The Kraft Center services include Community Care in Reach, an innovative mobile health initiative which offers opioid addiction treatments and vaccinations, as well as other healthcare services in under-served communities throughout Massachusetts. The Kraft family also committed $24 million to Harvard Business School to establish the Robert Kraft Family Fellowship, which will support promising young leaders from under-served backgrounds who would not be able to attend without significant financial aid.

The Kraft family supported many initiatives and donated more than $20 million to help those in need during the COVID-19 crisis. Those initiatives included the assistance in acquiring and distributing face masks to front-line workers in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and New York; supporting a meal distribution program that distributed over 6.5 million meals to military, veterans and their families; and hosting the first mass vaccination site in the northeast region and the largest vaccination distributor in the state, providing 610,283 vaccinations in less than five months.

In addition to serving on several NFL owner committees, Kraft also serves on the board of directors for the Apollo Theater and the Massachusetts Competitive Partnership, as well as the board of trustees of The Paley Center for Media. He was a distinguished trustee for the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, where he established the Kraft Family Blood Donor Center. He was also a member of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, Apollo Global Management and The Engine, a venture firm founded by Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). Kraft is a trustee emeritus at Columbia University, a trustee of Boston College and has received honorary degrees from several colleges and universities. He was awarded the Theodore Roosevelt Award, "presented annually to a distinguished citizen of national reputation and outstanding accomplishments." He has also received the Harvard Business School Alumni Achievement Award as well as the prestigious honor of being inducted into the 231st class of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, one of the nation's oldest and most learned societies. In 2012, he became the first NFL owner to receive the Pro Football Writers Association's George Halas Award. That year, he was also inducted into the Columbia University Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2013, he received the Carnegie Hall Medal of Excellence. In 2016, Kraft was inducted into the Broadcasting & Cable Hall of Fame. In 2022, Kraft was selected by the Sports Business Journal for its Lifetime Achievement Award.

FCAS'S STAND UP TO JEWISH HATE AND ALL HATE CAMPAIGN

STAND UP TO JEWISH HATE

The Foundation to Combat Antisemitism was founded by Robert Kraft in 2019 with a vision to stop the trajectory of hate by educating those sitting on the sidelines, giving them the tools to Stand Up to Jewish Hate and All hate. Since its launch in 2022, The Foundation's iconic Blue Square has become the universal symbol for fighting Jewish hate and all hate. With national television, social media, billboards and celebrity endorsements The Blue Square advertising campaign has reached over 175 million people, inspiring them to stand up against hate.

Jonathan Kraft is the President of the Kraft Group which is comprised of companies in sports and entertainment, the paper and packaging industry, real estate, and private equity investing. He oversees the day-to-day operations of each company including Gillette Stadium, the New England Revolution and serves as President of the New England Patriots.

As President, Kraft oversees the management and strategic planning of each department within the organization and represents the Patriots in all league matters.

Kraft serves on multiple NFL owner committees including Business Ventures, Finance, Legalized Sports Betting and Media Owned and Operated and he is the chairman of the Fan Engagement and Major Events Committee. He is also a member of the 32 Equity Committee.

When the Kraft family purchased the Patriots in 1994, Jonathan led the rebuilding and re-branding of the franchise, growing the fan base and bringing long-overdue stability to the once wayward organization.

In an era when stadium names are regularly changing, Gillette Stadium has remained a constant in New England. The venue was intentionally designed with open spaces and room to grow and evolve with its needs. It is now New England's premier entertainment venue. One of the most significant contributions to the organization's sustained success over the past two decades was securing financial approval for the construction of the stadium. Kraft developed the creative private-financing strategy for its $325 million construction. Many financial experts dismissed the viability of his plan, which relied on year-round club memberships for new clientele rather than the more conventional sale of personal seat licenses to existing season ticket holders. Kraft's unprecedented plan was considered a financial risk but proved to be universally successful. In addition to the business and financial accolades the Krafts received for the deal, Kraft and the project team also drew praise for innovative environmental practices in the construction of the stadium.

Throughout the stadium initiative, Kraft led the planning, construction, opening and ongoing operation and development of Gillette Stadium. He has been the creative force behind keeping the fan experience ahead of the ever-evolving sports and entertainment industry trends.

The Kraft family continually invests in the long-term infrastructure with improvements designed to perpetually enhance the fan experience without the sale of personal seat licenses. In the stadium's first 20 years, they committed more than $300 million in stadium enhancements with additions and renovations of dozens of concession areas, lounges, suites, and fan gathering sections, including digital and technological upgrades and pre-eminent hospitality spaces to enhance the game day and event experience for all visitors. Most recently, in the largest investment to the stadium since it opened, Gillette Stadium underwent a $250 million improvement and renovation of the north end featuring a completely reimagined entrance and front door to the stadium with a grand staircase leading onto the concourse, a new and enhanced 22-story lighthouse with a 360-degree observation deck, the largest outdoor curve-radius videoboard at a sports venue in the country, a renovated Row of Honor and new and improved concession locations, restrooms and other fan amenities, bringing the total investment in stadium improvements to over half a billion dollars.

Gillette Stadium has been the home of world-class events in New England for over 20 years under Kraft's direction. From the biggest names in live entertainment to international soccer, the NHL's Winter Classic, NCAA athletics, the Premier Lacrosse League and motor sports offerings, Gillette Stadium annually hosts the most diverse array of sports and entertainment events in the region, including the Army Navy

Football Game in 2023 and the World Cup in 2026.

Following the construction of Gillette Stadium, Kraft oversaw the Kraft Group's real estate development team's design and construction of Patriot Place, a mixed-use entertainment destination surrounding Gillette Stadium providing guests with a multitude of options, including dining, hospitality, specialty retail, lodging, world-class health care, night life and entertainment.

Prior to the Kraft family's ownership, the Patriots fan base was limited in range and scope. Kraft was committed to expanding the Patriots fan base through innovative multimedia outreach. Under his directive, the Patriots became the first professional sports team to launch a web site in March of 1995 and the first to debut nightly video updates online. In 2004, the team showed their commitment to globalizing the Patriots brand when they launched the NFL's first Chinese-language version of their website. In 2021, the Patriots were awarded Germany as an official "home market" through the International Home Marketing Area (IHMA) initiative which has allowed the team to grow its fan base abroad and develop additional opportunities for marketing, fan engagement and business development including in-person and digital marketing opportunities, corporate sponsorships, and events in a new market. In 2023, the Patriots were awarded Austria and Switzerland as official "home markets," in addition to Germany. In April of 2024, the Patriots also added Brazil as a home market.

In addition to these ventures, after years of managing in-house operations for applying analytics to better understand customers and their buying behaviors, Kraft spun out the in-house technology and services to co-found the Kraft Analytics Group (KAGR) in 2016, a progressive technology and service company providing data management, advanced analytics and consulting services for sports and entertainment organizations.

In March of 2020, when the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic threatened to overwhelm hospitals in the northeast region, the Kraft family answered the call of former Massachusetts Governor Charlie Baker, who had acquired 1.8 million masks in China and sought assistance in expediting the delivery to New England medical professionals and frontline workers. The New England Patriots team plane was utilized to transport the critical PPE back to Boston. Throughout the global pandemic, Gillette Stadium hosted the region's first and largest COVID-19 testing site for frontline workers and the first large-scale vaccination site in the northeast region.

A graduate of Williams College, Kraft is a Trustee Emeritus and a member of the Williams College Investment Committee. He received his MBA from Harvard Business School, where he currently serves on the Dean's Board of Advisors. Kraft has served on the Board of Trustees of Massachusetts General Hospital since 2010 and was named chair in 2019. He is on the Board of Directors for TKO Group Holdings, Inc., which comprises UFC and WWE. He is also on the Board of Trustees for Belmont Hill School and Dexter Southfield. Additionally, Kraft is a member of the M.I.T. School of Engineering Dean's Advisory Council, a board member for Mass General Brigham and sits on the advisory board for the Billie Jean King Foundation.

DECADES OF DOMINANCE (2010-19)

The New England Patriots earned more wins (141) in the past decade (2010-19) than any other team in the NFL has over any 10-year span, with 125 regular season victories and 16 playoffs wins. They also own the highest winning percentage (.698) of any team in professional sports since 1994. The Patriots won a league-high three Super Bowls in the 2010s, increasing their total to six and tying the Pittsburgh Steelers for most all-time. The Patriots won more conference championships (5), appeared in more conference championship games (8) and won more division titles (10) than any other NFL team in a decade. This landmark decade comes on the heels of another dominant decade, as the Patriots also led the NFL in Super Bowl victories, conference championships, conference championship game appearances and division titles in the 2000s.

DECADES OF DOMINANCE (2000-09)

When Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that just 18 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s. The tallies listed below represent totals during the 2000-09 seasons.

HEAD COACH

15TH COACHING SEASON
12TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 01, 03, 04

COACHING

Mike Vrabel was introduced by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft as the 16th head coach in franchise history in a press conference at Gillette Stadium on Jan. 13, 2025.

"In the interview process, Mike showed us that he had a very deep understanding of our current team and, most importantly, he had a clear and focused strategy of how to get us back to a championship way that is so important to all of us, but also something that I think our fan base really deserves and expects," Kraft said.

Vrabel is a three-time Super Bowl champion with New England and was voted into the Patriots Hall of Fame in 2023. He is recognized as one of the most versatile linebackers and best free agent signings in team history. Vrabel is the seventh individual to become the head coach for a franchise he once helped win a Super Bowl as a player and the only one with three Super Bowl wins, joining Jerod Mayo (New England - 1), Bart Starr (Green Bay- 2), Forrest Gregg (Green Bay- 2), Art Shell (Oakland- 2), Jeff Saturday (Indianapolis - 1) and Jason Garrett (Dallas -2).

Said Vrabel after being hired by the Patriots, "In the end, it was clear to me, and to my family, and my soul, that this was the place that I wanted to be. I'm excited, excited to get to work, excited to meet the people in this building that have made this special, find out what they need, find out how I can help them, how we can enhance the things that they do well, and then find out what the areas of focus are and get to work."

Vrabel is the second head coach for the Patriots that was formerly a Patriots player. He is the sixth Patriots head coach in team history to have played professional football. The five other Patriots head coaches that played professional football include: Lou Saban (1960-61), Mike Holovak (1961-68), Clive Rush (1969-70), Raymond Berry (1984-89) and Jerod Mayo (2008-15).

Vrabel has spent his football life around accomplished leaders. After entering the NFL as a player in 1997, he played or coached under Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer and Bill O'Brien. He gleaned attributes from each that helped form his philosophies as a head coach.

"We're going to be moving," said Vrabel. "We're going to demand effort and finish. People ask what non-negotiables are — our effort and our finish is going to be the contract we make with our teammates … Time to get to work."

Vrabel has 14 years of coaching experience, including 11 years in the NFL and three seasons at Ohio State. The Tennessee Titans hired him as their head coach in 2018 and he led the Titans to two division titles and three playoff appearances during his six seasons at the helm. In 2019, the Titans upset the Patriots in Foxborough in the wild card round, then defeated the No. 1 seed Ravens in Baltimore the following week to advance to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs. In 2021, the Titans claimed the top seed in the AFC with a 12-5 record, earning Vrabel NFL Coach of the Year honors.

Vrabel became the linebackers coach at Ohio State in 2011 and then served as the defensive line coach for the Buckeyes for two seasons (2012-13).

In 2014, Vrabel was hired by Houston Texans head coach Bill O'Brien as the linebackers coach (2014-16) and was promoted to defensive coordinator for the Texans in 2017. After six seasons as the head coach of the Titans (2018-23), he spent last season with the Cleveland Browns as a coaching and personnel consultant.

With playoff appearances in 2019, 2020 and 2021, Vrabel became the sixth head coach in Oilers/Titans history to coach at least three playoff teams. The others are Jeff Fisher (six), Jack Pardee (four), Bum Phillips (three), Jerry Glanville (three) and Wally Lemm (three). The Titans won back-to-back AFC South titles in 2020 and 2021, marking the first time the organization accomplished the feat since the Oilers won the first three AFL Eastern division titles from 1960 to 1962.

CHAMPIONSHIP DNA

Mike Vrabel is one of seven head coaches that won a Super Bowl for a team and then became the head coach of that team. The others are Jerod Mayo (Patriots), Forrest Gregg (Green Bay), Bart Starr (Green Bay), Art Shell (Oakland), Jeff Saturday (Indianapolis) and Jason Garrett (Dallas).

"In the interview process, Mike showed us that he had a very deep understanding of our current team and, most importantly, he had a clear and focused strategy of how to get us back to a championship way that is so important to all of us, but also something that I think our fan base really deserves and expects."

— ROBERT KRAFT, PATRIOTS CHAIRMAN & CEO

The team had not gone to the playoffs in three consecutive seasons since a seven-year postseason stretch by the Oilers from 1987 to 1993.

In his first season as head coach of Tennessee in 2018, Vrabel guided the Titans to a 9-7 record and to within one game of a playoff berth, all while enduring one of the NFL's toughest schedules. The Titans played a league-high nine games during the regular season against seven eventual playoff qualifiers, and their four wins against playoff clubs tied for the most in the league. Only New England, the Los Angeles Rams and Carolina had as many. The Titans committed only 82 penalties in 2018. Not only was that number the best in franchise history over a 16-game season, but it was also the lowest total by an NFL team since 2014.

The Titans improved from having the 13th-ranked NFL defense in 2017 to an eighth-overall ranking in 2018 (333.4 yards allowed per game). They finished third in scoring defense at 18.9 points allowed per game, their best mark since 2008. The 2018 Titans defense also ranked second in the red zone (44.7 touchdown percentage), 10th on third down (36.6 percent), sixth in passing defense (216.9 yards per game), second in touchdowns allowed (32) and first in fourth-quarter defense (65.9 yards per game).

In 2019, Vrabel led the franchise to the AFC Championship game for the first time since 2002 after posting his second consecutive 9-7 mark in the regular season. His 20 wins over the first two seasons were the second most in franchise history (Jack Pardee, 21 wins), and he became the first head coach to win multiple playoff games within the first two years. The 2019 Titans became just the third team since 1990 to bounce back from a 2-4 start (or worse) and reach a conference title game (2002, Titans and 1996, Jacksonville).

In 2020, the Titans made their second consecutive playoff appearance under Vrabel. The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second fewest in the league and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

The 2020 Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total. The Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher (2,027 by Derrick Henry), a 3,000-yard passer (3,819 by Ryan Tannehill) and a 1,000-yard receiver (1,075 by A.J. Brown).

Following the 2021 season, Vrabel received one of the NFL's highest honors when he was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year after directing the Titans to a 12-5 regular-season record. The Titans won the AFC South, and they claimed the top seed in the AFC playoff field for the first time since 2008. They did so despite needing to use 91 total players during the season, the most in NFL history in a non-strike year. From after the final preseason roster cuts through the end of the season, the team placed 26 different players on injured reserve and 21 different players on the reserve/COVID-19 list, plus additional practice squad players that received those designations.

The 2021 Titans ranked second in rushing defense (84.6 yards allowed per game), 12th in total defense (329.8), sixth on third down (36.7 percent), sixth in scoring defense (20.8 points per game) and ninth in sacks (43). Offensively, the Titans finished fifth in rushing (141.4 yards per game) despite missing Derrick Henry for nine games due to injury. The offense also ranked eighth on third down (43.6 percent), fifth in the red zone (63.9 percent) and first in goal-to-go efficiency (87.5 percent).

AS A PLAYER

Vrabel retired from the NFL in July of 2011 after a 14-year playing career with Pittsburgh (1997-2000), New England (2001-08) and Kansas City (2009-10).

Vrabel's accomplishments as a player included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). He appeared in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 722 tackles, 11 interceptions (one returned for a touchdown), 20 forced fumbles and 9 fumble recoveries. A cerebral and versatile athlete, he also saw action as a tight end and totaled 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording 8 postseason sacks and two additional postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Patriots before the 2001 season, following a four-year career with the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he was used primarily on special teams and as a reserve linebacker after being drafted in the third round of the 1997 NFL Draft (91st overall) out of Ohio State. During his eight-year tenure in New England, Vrabel played a major role in the Patriots dynastic run that included three Super Bowl championships in four years (2001, 2003 and 2004). He exemplified positional versatility during his Patriots career by starting at both inside and outside linebacker, regularly lining up on offense in short-yardage and goal-line situations and continually making valuable contributions on various special teams units.

As a Patriot, he caught eight regular season passes and two more in the playoffs. All 10 of his receptions were for touchdowns, including receptions in back-to-back Super Bowl wins over the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl XXXVIII and Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX. He earned Pro Bowl and First-Team Associated Press All-Pro honors following the 2007 season, the year the Patriots became the first team in NFL history to win 18 consecutive games in one season. During his Patriots career, Vrabel helped propel the Patriots to multiple NFL and franchise-record win streaks, including 21 consecutive wins (2003-04), 21 consecutive regular season wins (2006-08), 21 consecutive wins at home (2002-05) and 10 straight playoff victories (2001-05). During the 2006 season, he played a major role when the defense set a then-franchise record by allowing just 14.8 points per game.

Vrabel finished his playing career after the 2010 season following two seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs after being part of a trade that included QB Matt Cassel.

COLLEGE

Vrabel played defensive end for Ohio State from 1993 through the 1996 season. He set Ohio State career records with 36 quarterback sacks and 66 tackles for losses during his collegiate career. He compiled 12 sacks as a sophomore and 13 as a junior. As a senior in 1996, he was recognized as a consensus first-team All-American. Vrabel finished his college career by being named the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996, becoming the first of two players to ever win the award twice, joining Wendell Bryant of Wisconsin.

He was named to the Ohio State Football All-Century Team in 2000 and in 2021 was inducted into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame.

PERSONAL

Vrabel was born on Aug. 14, 1975, in Akron, Ohio and was named a USA Today All-American second-team pick at Walsh Jesuit High in Stowe, Ohio.

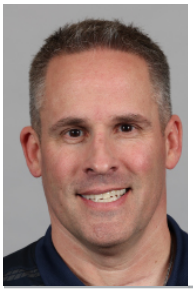

Vrabel and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Tyler and Carter. Tyler started on the offensive line for Boston College and then spent time with the Atlanta Falcons' practice squad after joining the team as a rookie free agent. Carter committed to play baseball at Wabash Valley College and then spent two seasons with Volunteer State Community College before transferring to Tennessee Tech for his final year.

Joined by former Ohio State teammates Luke Fickell and Ryan Miller, Vrabel co-founded the 2nd & 7 Foundation. The non-profit's mission is "to promote reading by providing free books and positive role models to kids in need while encouraging young athletes of the community to pay it forward." Founded in 1999 in Columbus, Ohio, the 2nd & 7 Foundation now has reading programs across the country. Students receive books from the foundation's original "Hog Mollies" series.

Vrabel returned to Ohio State in 2004 to complete his degree in exercise science.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

25TH COACHING SEASON
24TH NFL SEASON
19TH PATRIOTS SEASON SUPER BOWLS: 01, 03, 04, 14, 16, 18

COACHING

Josh McDaniels re-joins the Patriots coaching staff in 2025 as offensive coordinator. The 2025 season will be McDaniels' 19th season with the Patriots overall and his 14th as the team's offensive coordinator over three stints.

In 13 seasons as offensive coordinator, McDaniels has guided the offense to eight top-10 rankings, including the NFL's No. 1 ranked offense in 2007, 2012 and 2017. Additionally, Tom Brady was elected to the Pro Bowl eight times and eclipsed 4,000 yards passing eight times. Overall, McDaniels has been part of six Super Bowl championships with New England, three as the team's offensive coordinator.

In his first stint with New England, McDaniels played a key role on a staff that won three Super Bowl titles and four AFC championships. He first joined the Patriots organization as a personnel assistant on the 2001 team that defeated the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, served as a defensive assistant on the 2003 club that won Super Bowl XXXVIII and was promoted to quarterbacks coach in 2004, a season that culminated with a victory over the Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

In addition to his role with Patriots quarterbacks, McDaniels added the title of offensive coordinator in 2006. In his second season as New England's offensive play caller in 2007, McDaniels oversaw a unit that broke several NFL records, including points scored, touchdowns scored and most players scoring a touchdown.

Under McDaniels' tutelage, 2007 NFL MVP Tom Brady broke the NFL record for touchdown passes in a season (50) and led the league in both passing yards (4,806) and passer rating (117.2). Brady also set franchise marks in nearly every major passing category, while WR Wes Welker set the franchise record for receptions in a season (112) and WR Randy Moss broke the NFL record for touchdown receptions with 23. The Patriots offense also posted the franchise's highest average yards per rush in 22 seasons with 4.1 yards per carry, and the team's 17 rushing touchdowns were the second highest total in the previous 20 years.

McDaniels left the Patriots to become the head coach of Denver in 2009. During his first season in Denver, QB Kyle Orton set career-highs for pass attempts, completions, passing yards, touchdown passes and passer rating while tying his career low for interceptions. Orton's 3,802 yards were the sixth-highest for a season in Broncos history. In 2010, the Broncos ranked seventh in the NFL in passing yards per game and finished 13th in total yards per game. WR Brandon Lloyd led the NFL in receiving yards with 1,448 and finished second in the AFC with 11 touchdown catches en route to his first Pro Bowl invitation.

In 2011, McDaniels moved on to St. Louis to become the offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams. Under McDaniels' guidance that season, Rams RB Steven Jackson eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the seventh consecutive season despite running behind an offensive line that started eight different combinations over the course of the season.

In 2016 under McDaniels' guidance, Patriots quarterbacks set NFL records by starting the season with 258 pass attempts without an interception. They threw just two interceptions overall and notched the best touchdown to interception ratio (16.00) in a single season.

Brady was elected to 10 Pro Bowls during his 11 seasons with McDaniels serving as his position coach. After Brady suffered a season-ending knee injury in the 2008 regular season opener, another McDaniels protégé, Matt Cassel, led the club to a 10-5 record as a starter. In his first season as an NFL starter, Cassel posted the fourth-best completion percentage in Patriots history (63.4) while passing for 3,693 yards with 21 touchdowns and 11 interceptions.

McDaniels spent the 2022-23 seasons as the head coach of the Las Vegas Raiders. In his first season at the helm in Las Vegas, McDaniels led an offense that scored on 42.4 percent of the team's offensive possessions (73-for-172), which ranked fifth in the NFL. Under McDaniels' guidance, running back Josh Jacobs became the first Raider to lead the league in rushing since 1985, totaling 1,653 yards. In addition, wide receiver Davante Adams set a franchise record with 1,516 receiving yards and a league-leading 14 touchdowns in 2022.

Prior to joining Bill Belichick's staff, McDaniels spent one season as a graduate assistant under Nick Saban at Michigan State.

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

15TH COACHING SEASON
4TH NFL SEASON
2ND PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Jeremy Springer enters his second season in New England as special teams coordinator after spending the 2022 and 2023 seasons as a special teams assistant with the Los Angeles Rams.

In his first season as special teams coordinator in 2024, Springer led a unit that ranked second in the NFL with a 90.3 grade, per Pro Football Focus. Cornerback Marcus Jones finished second in the NFL with a 14.8-yard punt return average (26 returns for 386 yards).

Under Springer, S Brenden Schooler was named to the Associated Press All-Pro First Team as the core special teamer, the first All-Pro honor of his career. He was also named to his first-career Pro Bowl and his second-consecutive NFLPA All-Pro and PFWA All-NFL teams as a special teamer. Schooler led the Patriots with 9 special teams tackles and a blocked punt in 2024.

K Joey Slye and P Bryce Baringer also set team records in Springer's first season. Slye set a team record with a 63-yard field goal at San Francisco (9/29/24), the fourth-longest kick in NFL history. Baringer set the highest punting average in a single season in franchise history with a 49.8 punting average. Baringer also became the second Patriots punter to have back-to-back seasons with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line after finishing with 31 in 2024.

Prior to entering the NFL in 2022, Springer spent eight seasons coaching at the collegiate level.

Following his college career as a standout linebacker at the University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP) from 2007 through the 2011 season, Springer began his professional career as a football operations assistant at UTEP for two seasons before serving two seasons at the school as a graduate assistant coach where he worked with the defensive line and special teams units.

Springer spent three seasons at Texas A&M as a special teams quality control coach (2015-17), three seasons at Arizona as a special teams coordinator (2018-20) and one season at Marshall as special teams coordinator (2021) before joining the NFL.

PLAYING

Springer played collegiately at UTEP from 2007-11 as a linebacker and on special teams. He played in 33 games, recording 161 tackles, 10 tackles for loss and one interception.

In his freshman year, he earned the Conference USA Academic Medal and was a four-time member of the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll.

PERSONAL

Springer is a native of Los Fresnos, Texas. He has a twin brother, Justin, who played football at Kansas.

TERRELL WILLIAMS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

28TH COACHING SEASON
14TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Terrell Williams joins New England as defensive coordinator after spending the 2024 season at the Detroit Lions as defensive line coach/run game coordinator.

In 2024, the Lions defense led the NFL in third down defense (32.4 percent), ranked fifth in rushing defense with 98.4 rushing yards allowed per game and 18 rushing touchdowns allowed, seventh in points allowed average (20.1) and seventh in red zone defense (50.9 percent).

Prior to the Lions, Williams spent six seasons at the Tennessee Titans under Mike Vrabel, where he served as the defensive line coach (2018-22) and as assistant head coach/defensive line coach (2023). Over that span, Williams' unit ranked fourth in the NFL in yards allowed (10,044). In 2022, the Titans had the best rushing defense in the league, allowing just 76.9 rushing yards per game and a 3.4 yards per carry average.

Under Williams' tutelage, DE Denico Autry became the Titans' first player to have three consecutive seasons with 8 or more sacks since Jevon Kearse (1999-2001). He also developed DT Jeffrey Simmons to become a two-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection while helping DE Jurrell Casey earn his fourth and fifth Pro Bowl honors in 2018 and 2019. In Williams' first season in Tennessee, the Titans defense ranked eighth overall in total defense (333.4 yards per game), third in points allowed (18.9 per game), 10th on third down (36.6 percent) and second in the red zone (44.7 touchdown percentage).

Williams spent three seasons (2015-17) as the defensive line coach with the Miami Dolphins prior to his time in Tennessee. During those three seasons, DE Cameron Wake ranked eighth in the NFL in sacks (29), and All-Pro DT Ndamukong Suh had the eighth-most sacks among defensive tackles with 15½. Both were named to the Pro Bowl in 2016, the year the Dolphins earned their first playoff berth since 2008. Wake finished the season ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL with 11½ sacks.

In Williams' first season with Miami in 2015, Williams played a major role in the Dolphins becoming one of just four teams in the league to have three players with at least 6 sacks: Wake (7.0), Suh (6.0) and DE Olivier Vernon with 7½.

Williams began coaching in the NFL in 2012 as the defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders (2012-14). The Raiders were eighth in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per play (3.97) in 2014.

Prior to entering the NFL, Williams spent 14 seasons coaching the defensive line at the collegiate level. He spent time at Texas A&M (2010-11), helping the team win its first Big 12 championship in 2010. The next year, Williams helped the Aggies lead the nation in sacks with 51 and finish third nationally with an average of 8 tackles for loss per game.

While at Purdue (2006-09), Williams worked closely with First-Team All-American and future NFL first-round pick DL Anthony Spencer, who led the NCAA in tackles for loss. In his of second of two seasons at Akron (2004-05), Williams also helped guide the team to its first Mid-American Conference Championship and bowl game appearance. Williams also coached at Youngstown State (2002-03), North Carolina A&T (1999-2001) and Fort Scott (1998). Throughout his time in the collegiate ranks, Williams also worked summer internships in the NFL: Jacksonville Jaguars (1999), Seattle Seahawks (2007) and Dallas Cowboys (2008).

PLAYING

Williams transferred to East Carolina from West Los Angeles College and played nose guard for the Pirates. He helped the team to a victory over Stanford in the 1995 Liberty Bowl.

PERSONAL

Williams is a native of Los Angeles, Calif., and earned a bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in history from East Carolina.

He and his wife, Tifini, have two sons, Tahj and Tyson, who passed away in 2012.

SCOTT BOOKER

SAFETIES

23RD COACHING SEASON
8TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Scott Booker joins the Patriots as safeties coach after most recently serving as nickels/senior defensive assistant for the Buffalo Bills in 2024.

Booker spent six seasons with the Tennessee Titans under Mike Vrabel, serving as a defensive assistant in his first two years (2018-19) and as safeties coach for his final four seasons (2020-23). Under Booker's tutelage, S Kevin Byard led the Titans in tackles for three consecutive seasons (2020-22) and led the team in interceptions for two straight years (2021-22). In 2021, Byard earned Associated Press First Team All-Pro honors and was named to the Pro Bowl as he led all NFL safeties with 13 passes defensed. A year prior in 2020, the Titans ranked seventh in the NFL with 15 interceptions, the most for the franchise since 2012, and Byard set a career high with 111 tackles.

As a defensive assistant in 2019, Booker helped Byard and S Kenny Vaccaro solidify themselves as one of the league's top safety duos. Both started all 16 games of the regular season, a first for Tennessee since 2010, and Byard's 5 interceptions ranked second among safeties in the league. Byard and Vaccaro combined for 6 interceptions on the year, and only four teams had more from their safeties. Byard and Vaccaro each recorded an additional interception in the Titans' divisional round win at Baltimore in the playoffs. In Booker's first season with the Titans, he worked primarily with the safeties and had a key role in Tennessee's sixth-ranked pass defense (216.9 yards per game) and eighth-ranked opponent passer rating (88.4).

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Booker spent 15 years as a college coach. His most recent college position was as safeties coach and special teams coordinator for Nebraska in 2017. Booker spent most of his college coaching career with Notre Dame, first as an offensive intern from 2010-11, then as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator from 2012-16. Throughout his Notre Dame tenure, the Irish reached six bowl games, including the 2012 BCS National Championship game and the 2015 Fiesta Bowl. Also in 2012, TE Tyler Eifert won the John Mackey Award, given to the nation's best tight end, and was a consensus First-Team All-American. Eifert and tight ends Ben Koyack and Troy Niklas were all drafted after playing for Booker.

On the special teams side, K Kyle Brindza set school records for field goals made (57), field-goal attempts (81) and 50-yard field goals made (4). Brindza also claimed the top three single-season point totals by a kicker in Notre Dame history. Notre Dame's special teams unit scored 4 touchdowns in 2015, the most by an Irish team since 2000, and led the nation in blocked kicks in 2014.

Booker coached the secondary at Western Kentucky in 2009 after serving in the same role at Kent State from 2005-08. His first coaching job was as a graduate assistant at Kent State from 2003-04. In 2006, Booker helped the Golden Flashes to rank at the top of the MAC in pass efficiency defense, pass defense and interceptions.

PLAYING

Booker was a four-year letterwinner at Kent State from 1999-2002, earning a spot on the MAC All-Academic team in 2001. He played for a two-time Super Bowl-winning coach in Dean Pees, who was the Patriots' linebackers coach from 2004-05 and defensive coordinator from 2006-09.

PERSONAL

Booker graduated with his bachelor's degree in business administration in 2003 and his master's degree in sports studies in 2006, both from Kent State. He and his wife, Jen, have one daughter, Morgan.

THOMAS BROWN

TIGHT ENDS/PASSING GAME COORDINATOR

15TH COACHING SEASON
6TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 21

COACHING

Thomas Brown joins the Patriots as tight ends coach and passing game coordinator. He most recently served as the interim head coach of the Chicago Bears in 2024 when Chicago made a head coaching change after Thanksgiving. Brown began the season as offensive passing game coordinator this season with Chicago, his first with the organization.

Brown was the offensive coordinator for the Carolina Panthers in 2023 and assumed play-calling duties mid-season. In a poll of players, Brown was named one of the top offensive coordinators in the league by the NFLPA.

Brown went to Carolina after spending three seasons with the Los Angeles Rams from 2020-22. He began as running backs coach in 2020 before being promoted to assistant head coach in 2021, the year the Rams won Super Bowl LVI. Brown held that title for two years (2021-22), while also coaching running backs in 2021 and tight ends in 2022. In the Rams' Super Bowl-winning season, Brown played a key role in an offense that tied for seventh in the NFL in points scored (460) and points per game (27.1) and ninth in total yards (6,325) and yards per game (372.1). The Rams were one of six teams to have two running backs rush for over 680 yards with Sony Michel (845 yards) and Darrell Henderson (688 yards). In his first season in Los Angeles in 2020, the Rams' rushing attack finished 10th in the league with 126.1 rushing yards per game.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Brown spent nine years in college football. In 2019, Brown was the running backs coach at South Carolina, where two players rushed for over 500 yards. From 2016-18, Brown served as the Miami Hurricanes' offensive coordinator and running backs coach. In 2018, the Hurricanes rushed for 2,489 yards, averaged 5.2 yards per carry and scored 25 rushing touchdowns. Brown also coached running backs Travis Homer and Mark Walton to All-ACC honors throughout his tenure in Miami, with Walton becoming the program's 11th 1,000-yard rusher.

In returning to his alma mater, Georgia, in 2015, Brown tutored both future pros RB Nick Chubb and RB Sony Michel as the duo combined for 1,900 rushing yards. At the University of Wisconsin in 2014, Brown coached Heisman Trophy runner-up RB Melvin Gordon, who rushed for 2,587 yards and 32 total touchdowns. Gordon's season was the second-best ever by a running back at the time, and he combined with RB Corey Clement to rush for 3,536 yards on the year, which broke a single-season FBS record for rushing yards by teammates. Wisconsin's 6.91 yards per rushing attempt average was the fourth-best mark in FBS history.

Brown also served stints as running backs coach at Marshall (2013) and the University of Tennessee Chattanooga (2012). His coaching career began as a strength & conditioning coach at Georgia in 2011.

PLAYING

Brown was drafted by the Atlanta Falcons in the sixth round (172nd overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft. He spent the 2009 season with the Cleveland Browns before retiring to pursue coaching opportunities.

A standout running back and kickoff returner at the University of Georgia from 2004-07, Brown finished his college career as the fifth-leading rusher in Georgia history with 2,646 career rushing yards. He led the team in rushing in 2005 and 2006, and he helped the Bulldogs reach the 2005 SEC Championship game. Brown totaled 26 career touchdowns, a combination of rushing, receiving and kickoff return touchdowns. In 2004, Brown was a freshman All-SEC selection after totaling 172 carries for 875 yards and 8 touchdowns, as well as 16 receptions for 150 yards (1,043 all-purpose yards). He had four 100-yard rushing games that season, earning him team honors of Offensive Newcomer of the Year and the Victors Club Award. In his final season at Georgia, Brown earned SEC Offensive Player of the Week honors after rushing for 180 yards and 3 touchdowns against Ole Miss.

PERSONAL

A native of Tucker, Georgia, Brown attended Tucker High School, and he graduated with a bachelor's degree in speech communications from Georgia. He and his wife, Jessica, have three children: Orlando, Tyson and Judah.

RUNNING BACKS

28TH COACHING SEASON
8TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Tony Dews joins the Patriots in 2025 as running backs coach after holding the same position at the New York Jets for the 2024 season.

Prior to New York, Dews spent six seasons at the Tennessee Titans under Mike Vrabel, coaching running backs from 2018-22 before transitioning to tight ends for 2023. That season, TE Chigoziem Okonkwo set career-highs in receptions (54) and receiving yards (528).

Under Dews' tutelage from 2018-22, the Titans finished in the top five in rushing offense three times (2019, 2020 and 2021). RB Derrick Henry lead the NFL in rushing attempts, yards and touchdowns with 1,464 carries for 7,101 yards and 68 touchdowns. Henry also had a league-high 32 100-yard rushing games during that span. In 2021, the Titans ranked fifth in rushing offense (141.4 rushing yards per game), and Henry still ranked ninth in the NFL in rushing yards despite missing nine games due to injury.

In 2020, the Titans were second in the league in rushing offense (168.1 yards per game), and Henry became the first player since RB LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in back-to-back years. Henry rushed for a career-high 2,141 yards, good for the eighth 2,000-yard rushing season in NFL history. His 2020 campaign earned him the 2020 Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year award.

Over the final six games of the regular season and the Titans' three playoff games in 2019, Henry had seven 100-yard games and became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games. In Dews' first season as running backs coach in 2018, Henry ranked second in the AFC in rushing yards (1,059) and third in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (12). Additionally, RB Dion Lewis set career-high marks in receptions (59) and receiving yards (400).

Dews has coached every offensive and defensive position besides quarterback throughout his career. He coached in the college ranks at Millersville (1998), West Virginia (1999-01, 2007, 2017), California (PA) (2002), Holy Cross (2003), Central Michigan (2004-05), UNLV (2006), Michigan (2008-10), Pittsburgh (2011), and Arizona (2012-16).

PLAYING

Dews was a four-year letterwinner as a tight end at Liberty from 1992-95. Leading the team in receiving as a junior and senior, he played for legendary coach Sam Rutigliano, who rose through the high school and college ranks to win NFL Coach of the year honors with the Cleveland Browns in 1980. Dews was named a first team All-American in 1995.

PERSONAL

Dews graduated from Liberty where he played from 1992-95 as a tight end. He later earned a master's degree in 2001 from West Virginia. Dews and his wife, Tamika, have four daughters.

TODD DOWNING

WIDE RECEIVERS

27TH COACHING SEASON
25TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Todd Downing joins the Patriots as wide receivers coach in 2025. He comes to New England after two seasons with the New York Jets as passing game coordinator, adding the title of quarterbacks coach in 2024. He spent four seasons in Tennessee as tight ends coach (2019-20) and offensive coordinator (2021-22) under Mike Vrabel. He has a total of three years of experience as offensive coordinator, having served in the role for the first time with the Oakland Raiders in 2017.

As passing game coordinator for the Jets in 2024, QB Aaron Rodgers threw 28 touchdown passes, which ranks third on the single-season list behind Ryan Fitzpatrick and Vinny Testaverde. In addition, Rodgers threw for 3,897 yards, ranking third all-time in single-season franchise history behind Joe Namath in 1967 and Fitzpatrick in 2015. WR Davante Adams recorded his fifth straight 1000-yard season with Downing on staff. Downing further aided the development of WR Garrett Wilson, who was named Offensive Rookie of the Year in 2022 after posting 83 receptions for 1,103 yards and 4 touchdowns. Downing also took over play-calling duties on offense for the final 12 weeks of the season.

The following year (2023) - Downing's first in New York - Wilson set a new career high in receptions (95), despite playing with multiple starting quarterbacks throughout the season. Wilson set career highs in all categories in Downing's second season with the Jets, recording 101 receptions for 1,104 yards and 7 touchdowns. In the final 12 weeks of the season,

Downing's final season in Tennessee in 2022 saw RB Derrick Henry record the third-most scrimmage yards of his career (1,936) and the third-most rushing touchdowns of his career (13). In his first season as the Titans' offensive coordinator in 2021, the Titans ranked fifth in the league in rushing yards per game (141.4) despite missing the reigning NFL rushing champion, Henry, for nine games due to injury. Prior to suffering the injury, Henry led the NFL with 937 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns through the first eight weeks of the season. In his place, running backs D'Onta Foreman (566 yards) and Dontrell Hilliard (350 yards) set career highs in rushing. In the passing game, QB Ryan Tannehill climbed to third all-time on the Titans' single-season passing lists in attempts (531), completions (357) and completion percentage (67.2). His 3,734 passing yards ranked fourth all-time. The 2021 Titans offense ranked eighth in the NFL in third down conversions (43.6 percent), fifth in the red zone (63.9 percent) and first in goal-to-go efficiency (87.5 percent), all in a season where the Titans used a league-high 39 players on offense due to injuries.

His first offensive coordinator job came in 2017 with the Oakland Raiders after two years as the team's quarterbacks coach (2015-16). Throughout this time, he helped QB Derek Carr earn three straight Pro Bowl nods from 2015-17, and the Raiders' offense finished sixth in the NFL in total offense (373.3 yards per game) in 2016. Under Downing's tutelage in 2016, Carr had his best season to date, having completed 357-of-560 passes (63.8 percent) for 3,937 yards, 28 touchdowns, 6 interceptions and a passer rating of 96.7. Carr set a franchise record for most passing yards in a game (513) in an overtime win against Tampa Bay in Week 8, the second time a Downing-coached quarterback threw for over 500 yards in a game (Matthew Stafford on Jan. 1, 2012, at Green Bay). He also had seven fourth quarter or overtime comeback and game-winning drives during the 2016 season, a mark that ranked second in the NFL and set a franchise single-season record. Carr became the first quarterback in NFL history with five game-winning touchdown passes in the fourth quarter or overtime in a single season, earning Castrol Edge Clutch Performer of the Year honors.

Prior to his time with the Raiders, Downing served as quarterbacks coach for the Buffalo Bills in 2014. He went to Buffalo after five years with the Detroit Lions, first as offensive quality control (2009), then as assistant quarterbacks (2010) before serving his final three years as quarterbacks coach (2011-13). In 2011, Downing was instrumental in helping QB Matthew Stafford throw 41 touchdowns and pass for over 5,000 yards en route to the Lions' first playoff berth since 1999.

Before working primarily on the offensive side of the ball, Downing served as a defensive assistant and assistant special teams coach for the St. Louis Rams from 2006-07. He was named assistant secondary/quality control coach for the Rams in 2008.

His first NFL roles came with the Minnesota Vikings, first as a public relations intern/assistant from 2001-02. He was a football systems analyst from 2003-04 and an offensive quality control coach in 2005, helping the Vikings finish in the top five in offense all three of those years and a playoff appearance in 2004.

Downing's coaching career began at his high school alma mater, Eden Prairie High School, from 1999-2000. As an assistant coach, he helped the Eagles win the Minnesota Class 5-A State Title in 2000.

PLAYING

From 2000-03, Downing played quarterback for the Minnesota Maulers, a semi-professional football team part of the Mid-America Football League. He helped the Maulers reach three consecutive championship games.

PERSONAL

A native of Eden Prairie, Minnesota, Downing attended the University of Minnesota and studied business communications.

QUARTERBACKS

7TH COACHING SEASON
6TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Ashton Grant joins the Patriots in 2025 as quarterbacks coach. He comes to New England after serving five seasons in various offensive roles at the Cleveland Browns and one season at Holy Cross. Most recently, Grant served as offensive assistant/quarterbacks in Cleveland from 2023-24. He worked on the Browns offensive staff alongside Mike Vrabel last season.

As offensive assistant/quarterbacks with Cleveland in 2024, Grant oversaw an offense where WR Jerry Jeudy recorded career highs in receptions (90) and receiving yards (1,229) with four touchdowns, leading to his first career selection to the Pro Bowl. Jeudy joined former Cleveland receivers Odell Beckham Jr. and Amari Cooper as the only Browns receivers to register 1,000 receiving yards or more in their first season with the team. In addition, tight end David Njoku led the team with five receiving touchdowns to reach 30 in his career, marking the most receiving touchdowns by a Brown since 1999. Under Grant's tutelage, QB Jameis Winston earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors after a week eight win vs. Baltimore, throwing for 334 yards, three touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 115.3 quarterback rating.

In his first season as offensive assistant/quarterbacks with the Browns in 2023, Grant assisted QB Deshaun Watson achieve a 5-1 record as a starter and QB Joe Flacco register a 4-1 record as a starter. In addition, Flacco became the first Browns player to throw for 300-yards in four consecutive games en route to being named the 2023 NFL Comeback Player of the year. After the season, Grant served as the wide receivers coach in the Senior Bowl.

As an offensive quality control coach in 2022, Grant was an integral piece in assisting the coaching staff. Grant worked closely with the Browns tight ends and coach T.C. McCartney. After the season, Grant served as wide receivers coach for the West team in the East-West Shrine Bowl. In 2021, he worked with Browns wide receivers and coach Chad O'Shea.

In 2020, Grant worked in the running backs room with run game coordinator/running backs coach Stump Mitchell. He oversaw a Browns rushing attack of Nick Chubb (1,067 rushing yards and 12 rushing touchdowns) and Kareem Hunt (1,144 rushing yards and 11 total touchdowns) that became the only pair of NFL teammates to each record at least 840 rushing yards in 2020, highlighted by a win vs. Houston in week 10 where Chubb (126 rushing yards) and Hunt (104 rushing yards) became the first Browns to each record 100 yards rushing in the same game since 1966.

Prior to the Browns, Grant served as a quality control coach at Holy Cross from 2019-20. He primarily handled special teams quality control under head coach Bob Chesney. Grant helped the Crusaders to their first Patriot League Championship in 10 years, and just the third NCAA football subdivision berth in program history.

PLAYING

Grant played wide receiver for four years at Assumption from 2014-17, where he owns the school record for receiving yards (3,204), touchdown receptions (36), and touchdown receptions in a single season (13) from 2014-17, including an NE10 Championship in 2015. Grant participated in training camps with Kansas City and Chicago.

PERSONAL

A native of Manchester, Conn., Grant was named to the NE10 All-Conference team at Assumption twice, as well as the NE10 Offensive Player of the Year in 2016. He is the son of Glenford Grant and Jessica Chalk. Grant has one brother, Shawn, who played football at nearby Westfield State in 2016-17. Grant and his wife, Briana, have one daughter, Ava.

JUSTIN HAMILTON

CORNERBACKS

15TH COACHING SEASON
3RD NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Justin Hamilton joins the Patriots in 2025 as cornerbacks coach. He comes to New England after serving two seasons in the NFL. Hamilton spent the 2023 season as a defensive quality control coach in Tennessee under Mike Vrabel. Most recently, Hamilton served as assistant defensive backs coach in Indianapolis last season.

Hamilton oversaw a Colts secondary in 2024 that recorded 16 interceptions, which ranked tied for fourth in the NFL. Additionally, the Colts defense ranked top ten in the NFL in several categories under his guidance: Fourth in yards allowed per game (361.2), seventh in passing yards allowed per game (229.4), and ninth in points allowed per game (25.1).

In 2023, Hamilton assisted the Titans in leading the NFL in opponent red zone touchdown scoring percentage (37.7).

Prior to making the jump to the NFL, Hamilton spent four years in several roles at Virginia Tech, his alma mater, including director of player development-defense, defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

In 2021 as the defensive coordinator, Hokies cornerback Jermaine Waller earned All-ACC second-team honors, while four other members of the Hamilton-led defense earned All-Conference honorable mention: safety Nasir Peoples, defensive back Chamarri Conner, linebacker Dax Hollifield and defensive lineman Jordan Williams. Hamilton played a role in the development of a pair of high school quarterbacks- cornerback Caleb Farley and safety Divine Deablo- who went on to be drafted as defensive backs. Farley was selected by the Titans in the first round (22nd) overall in the 2021 NFL draft, while Deablo was selected in the third round (80th overall) by the Raiders.

Working with the Virginia Tech safeties as defensive coordinator in 2020, the team ranked third in the ACC with 12 interceptions, and Deablo earned first-team ACC recognition after leading the team with four interceptions.

Before his time at Virginia Tech, Hamilton spent four years at Virginia Military Institute in varying roles. As outside linebackers/co-special teams coach in 2016, returner Mason Dermott earned second-team All-Southern Conference honors after leading the conference with 978 combined kickoff and punt yards and ranking second in the league with a 23.2 yard kickoff return average. In 2017, Hamilton helped linebacker Allan Crastenberg earn All-Southern Conference second-team honors after posting a team-high 118 tackles and three interceptions. Hamilton began his coaching career as a strength and conditioning coach at Virginia-Wise in 2010. He then served as the team's defensive coordinator from 2011-13.

PLAYING

Hamilton was a four-year letterman for Virginia Tech where he played (2002-05) as a running back, wide receiver and defensive back. As a senior defensive back in 2005, he recorded three interceptions on a team that made its second straight appearance in the ACC Championship Game, eventually knocking off Louisville in the Gator Bowl. Hamilton was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the seventh round (222nd overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft. As a rookie, he totaled 15 tackles in 10 games with the Browns. Between 2006 and 2008, he appeared in 12 total games with Cleveland and Washington.

PERSONAL

A native of Clintwood, Va., Hamilton graduated from Virginia Tech with a bachelor's degree in consumer studies. He and his wife, Brittany, have two sons, Kam and Ace, and one daughter, Channing.

JASON HOUGHTALING

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

20TH COACHING SEASON
5TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

PRONOUNCED HO-tail-ing

COACHING

Jason Houghtaling enters his first season as assistant offensive line coach with the Patriots. He previously served as assistant offensive line coach for the Chicago Bears in 2024.

Prior to Chicago, Houghtaling spent three seasons with the Tennessee Titans on Mike Vrabel's staff as assistant offensive line coach (2021-22) and offensive line coach (2023). Behind the Titans offensive line in 2023, RB Derrick Henry finished second in the NFL in rushing yards (1,167) and led the AFC in yards per game (68.6) and rushing attempts (280). In 2022, C Ben Jones was named to his first Pro Bowl, and Henry finished second in the NFL with 1,538 rushing yards. Despite battling injuries on the offensive line in 2021, the Titans offense finished fifth in the league in rushing average (141.4 yards per game), and LG Rodger Saffold III earned his first career Pro Bow honor.

Prior to his role with the Titans, Houghtaling spent 15 years in the college ranks, mostly with Wagner College. He was the Wagner's head coach from 2015-19, coaching 28 All-Northeast Conference selections. He also served two stints as offensive coordinator (2011-12, 2014), helping Wagner total a 16-6 NEC record with two league titles throughout his three seasons in the position. In 2012, Houghtaling tutored QB Nick Doscher, who set school records in total offense (8,404 yards) and passing yards (6,100). The 8,404 yards of total offense ranked second in conference history.

Houghtaling was Wagner's offensive line coach from 2007-09, and his first job in college coaching was as running backs coach in 2006. Houghtaling's other college coaching roles include offensive line at Colgate (2020), offensive coordinator at Cornell (2013), offensive coordinator at Williams College and head coach at Hudson Valley Community College (2010). He began his coaching career at his high school alma mater, Windsor Central High School, where he spent two years coaching offensive line and linebackers. He then served as defensive coordinator, defensive line coach and strength and conditioning coach at Milford Academy (Berlin, N.Y.) before joining the staff at Wagner.

PLAYING

Houghtaling originally attended Lafayette, where he was a defensive lineman for the Leopards. Ultimately, injuries cut short his playing career, and transferred to Binghamton, where he graduated with a degree in history in 2004. He then earned a master's degree in education from Wagner in 2009.

PERSONAL

A native of Windsor, New York, Houghtaling and his wife, Mary, have two daughters: Abbie and Emma. He is known as "Hoss" to players and fellow coaches.

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

10TH COACHING SEASON
2ND NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Chuckie Keeton joins the Patriots as an offensive assistant after spending the 2024 season as an offensive assistant for the Seattle Seahawks.

In Seattle, Keeton worked closely with the quarterbacks, most notably Geno Smith. Smith broke four franchise records in 2024, setting new single-season marks for highest completion percentage (70.4), passing yards (4,320), pass attempts (578) and completions (407).

Prior to Seattle, Keeton spent eight years in the college ranks. He was an offensive analyst at Marshall in 2023 after two years as running backs coach at Utah State (2021-22), his second stint with the Aggies after working as a quality control coach in 2018. Keeton's first coaching job was as a quality control coach at Oregon State from 2016-17, and he was also a graduate assistant at Texas Tech from 2019-20.

PLAYING

Keeton played quarterback for Utah State University from 2011-15, setting school records in career completion percentage (65.4 percent), interception percentage (2.0 percent) and passing efficiency (145.2). His career marks in touchdown passes (58), completions (568), total offense (7,621 yards), passing yards (6,387) and passing attempts (869) all rank inside the top five on the program's all-time lists. Keeton set or matched five single-season and eight single-game records throughout his career. He earned First-Team All-WAC honors as a sophomore in 2012 as he led Utah State to an 11-2 finish and a top-25 national ranking.

PERSONAL

A native of Houston, Texas, Keeton attended Cypress Creek High School, where he was a two-time All-District 15 5A selection. He graduated from Utah State in the fall of 2015 with a degree in business administration.

COACHING

Robert Kugler enters his second season with the New England Patriots as assistant offensive line coach. He originally joined the Patriots in 2024 after spending the 2022 and 2023 seasons in the same role for the Carolina Panthers.

Kugler got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant and tight ends coach in 2017 at the University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP). He spent the 2018-19 seasons as a graduate assistant at the University of Washington before becoming the offensive quality control coach at Appalachian State in 2020. In his sole season on staff, Kugler helped lead the Mountaineers to an average of 265.6 rushing yards per game, ranking sixth in FBS.

Kugler's first NFL job came in 2021 when he was hired as an assistant offensive line coach for the Houston Texans. He then spent two seasons (2022-23) with the Carolina Panthers as assistant offensive line coach.

PLAYING

Kugler played college football at Purdue from 2012-15, where he was a two-time team captain and started 43 consecutive games at center. He went to training camp in 2016 with the Buffalo Bills after being signed as a rookie free agent.

PERSONAL

Kugler graduated from Purdue with a degree in history and political science. He and his wife, Emily, have two sons, Anthony and Noah.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

17TH COACHING SEASON
6TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

PRONOUNCED COOR COACHING

Zak Kuhr joins the Patriots in 2025 as inside linebackers coach. He comes to New England after spending four seasons (2020-23) in various roles under head coach Mike Vrabel with the Tennessee Titans. Most recently, Kuhr served as a defensive assistant with the New York Giants last season.

As a defensive assistant with the New York Giants in 2024, Kuhr oversaw a group that finished eighth in opponent passing yards allowed (210.6 yards per game). In addition, he was part of a group finished in the top half of the league in defensive red zone touchdown rate (53.7%).

In 2023 with the Titans as an inside linebackers assistant, Kuhr coached LB Azeez Al-Shaair, who played greater than 97% of the team's snaps, leading the team with 163 total tackles, ranking fifth in the NFL. Kuhr's group also finished in the top half of the league in rush defense, allowing 107.7 yards on the ground per game.

In 2022, the Titans ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game) with Kuhr as inside linebackers assistant. Kuhr saw five different players start multiple games at inside linebacker: Zach Cunningham, David Long Jr., Dylan Cole, Monty Rice and rookie Jack Gibbens. Long Jr. started 12 games and recorded 86 total tackles, with both categories marking career highs for Long Jr.

The Titans saw four contributing inside linebackers in 2021 with Kuhr overseeing the group: Rashaan Evans, Jayvon Brown, Long Jr. and Cunningham. The group registered a total of 212 tackles and five interceptions. After being claimed off waivers from Houston late in the season, Cunningham started the final four games of the regular season and led the defense over that stretch with 25 tackles. Cunningham also recorded 10 tackles in the team's divisional playoff contest.

Prior to joining the Titans, Kuhr spent one season as an assistant coach for head coach Tom Herman at Texas in 2019. The Longhorns finished with an 8-5 record, including a win in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

From 2017-18, Kuhr served a variety of offensive roles under head coach Everett Withers at Texas State. In his first year, Kuhr was the co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach, overseeing a trio of Anthony Taylor, Anthony Smith and Robert Brown Jr. that combined for over 1,200 yards and five touchdowns. He was later promoted to associate head coach for the 2018 season.

Before his tenure at Texas State, Kuhr spent one season at Rutgers coaching running backs in 2016. His offensive prowess began at James Madison, where he served as a running backs coach in 2014 before being promoted to co-offensive coordinator the following season. Under Kuhr's direction, the Dukes led the nation in third down efficiency (54%) while ranking second in scoring offense (44.3 points per game) and third in total offense (528.8 yards per game).

Kuhr began his collegiate coaching career as an intern under Urban Meyer at Ohio State for two seasons (2011-12). He mentored running back Carlos Hyde, who went on to earn All-American honors. In addition, it was at Ohio State where Kuhr first worked with Mike Vrabel, who was an assistant for the Buckeyes at the time.

PERSONAL

A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Kuhr launched his coaching career in his hometown at a young age, working as an assistant coach at Mandarin High School and Westside High School, where he served as offensive coordinator. Kuhr went on to spend two seasons (2009-10) as special teams coordinator at Edward Waters College. He graduated from the University of Florida in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in sports management.

COACHING

Riley Larkin joins the Patriots as an offensive assistant after spending the 2024 season as assistant quarterbacks coach at Ohio State University.

Larkin spent two years at Ohio State, first serving as an offensive assistant in 2023 before being promoted to assistant quarterbacks coach in 2024. At Ohio State, Larkin worked closely with QB Will Howard, who led the team to its first national title since 2014 and was named the offensive MVP of the national championship game. Nationally, Howard ranked seventh in quarterback rating (83.0), third in passing efficiency (173.72), fifth in passing touchdowns (33) and eighth in passing yards (3,779). He finished the season with career highs in passing attempts, completions, completion percentage, passing yards and touchdowns, having completed 309-of-423 passes for 4,010 yards (73.1 percent), 35 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. Howard also had 105 rushing attempts for 226 yards and 7 touchdowns.

Prior to Ohio State, Larkin was an offensive analyst at Middle Tennessee State in 2022, his first college coaching position. He spent three years coaching quarterbacks at the high school level, first at McLean High School (Va.) from 2019-20 and then at Ravenwood High School in Brentwood, Tennessee, helping the team to a 10-3 record and an appearance in the state quarterfinals. Ravenwood QB Chris Parson earned All-State honors.

PLAYING

From 2015-18, Larkin was a three year letter winner at John Carroll University, where he played quarterback. He was a member of the 2016 team that won a conference championship and reached the national semi-finals. Larkin served as a captain of the team as a senior in 2018.

PERSONAL

Larkin is a native of Kent, Ohio. As a Kent Roosevelt High School student, he served as a Special Olympics coach and volunteer. Larkin later earned his bachelor's degree in adolescent young adult education and social studies in 2019 from John Carroll. His father, Tom, and mother, Amy, both attended John Carroll. Larkin has a brother, Luke, and a sister, Shannon.

OFFENSIVE LINE

34TH COACHING SEASON
18TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Doug Marrone joins the Patriots as offensive line coach after most recently serving as a senior analyst for football strategy with Boston College in 2024. He comes to New England after previously serving as head coach for the Buffalo Bills (2013-14) and the Jacksonville Jaguars (2016-20). Marrone was also the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for the New Orleans Saints from 2006-08.

Marrone's most recent NFL stint was with New Orleans as offensive line coach. In 2022, Marrone's offensive line group played a key role in New Orleans ranking fifth in the NFL in total offense (394.4 yards per game) and eighth in rushing yards per game (141.3) through the first eight weeks of the season.

He returned to the Saints after tutoring an offensive line group at the University of Alabama that won the Southeastern Conference Championship and advanced to the College Football Playoff final in 2021. Marrone developed left tackle Evan Neal, who in his first season at the position was a consensus All-American and the seventh-overall pick by the New York Giants in the 2022 NFL Draft.

Marrone joined the Crimson Tide after four-plus seasons as head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars. He served as assistant head coach and offensive line coach from 2015-16 and was named interim head coach for the final two games of the 2016 season, going 1-1. He was promoted to head coach in 2017, finishing 10-6 and reaching the 2017 AFC Championship game. The 2017 Jaguars team was tied for the NFL's biggest win/loss improvement (plus-seven) among first-year head coaches, and Marrone was recognized as the AFC Coach of the Year by the Kansas City Committee of 101. Throughout his tenure as Jacksonville's head coach from 2017-20, Marrone coached eight players to 11 Pro Bowl selections and five players to AP All-Pro selections.

Prior to Jacksonville, Marrone was the head coach of the Buffalo Bills from 2013-14. In 2014, he led the Bills to their first winning record since 2004 when the team finished 9-7. The 2013 Bills led the league in red zone scoring percentage (95.5 percent) and led the AFC and finished second in the NFL in rushing (144.2 yards per game).

Marrone's first head coaching job came at his alma mater, Syracuse, a position he held from 2009-12. He led the Orange to bowl game victories in 2010 and 2012, and Marrone earned AFCA Region 1 Coach of the Year honors in 2011.

Before becoming a college head coach, Marrone spent seven years in the NFL, most notably with New Orleans from 2006-08 as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. During this span, the Saints led the NFL in total offense twice (391.5 average yards per game in 2006, 410.7 avg. in 2008) and passing yards per game twice (281.4 avg. in 2006, 311.1 avg. in 2008). In 2007, the Saints offensive line held their opponents to the fewest sacks allowed in the NFL (16) and second-lowest in 2008 (franchise-record 13). From 2006-08, New Orleans tied for the fewest sacks allowed with 52 despite leading the NFL with 1,868 passing attempts. Saints QB Drew Brees secured the NFL passing title in 2006 (4,418 yards) and 2008 (5,069 yards) en route to becoming the second passer in NFL history to reach 5,000 passing yards in a season.

Marrone's first NFL coaching job came as offensive line coach for the New York Jets from 2002-05. The team made the playoffs twice (2002, 2004) during his tenure, and RB Curtis Martin led the NFL in rushing in 2004. Prior to New York, Marrone spent a decade in the college ranks, mainly coaching offensive line and tight ends. He spent two years in the SEC, coaching tight ends and offensive tackles at Tennessee (2001) and offensive line at Georgia (2000). Marrone was the director of football operations at Georgia Tech in 1995 before coaching tight ends in 1996 and offensive line from 1997-99. He had one-year stints as offensive line coach at Northeastern (1994) and Coast Guard (1993), and he started his coaching career as tight ends coach at Cortland (N.Y.) State University.

PLAYING

Marrone played offensive line for Syracuse from 1983-1985. He was drafted by the Los Angeles Raiders in the sixth round (164th overall) of the 1986 NFL Draft. He did not make the Raiders roster in 1986, but he earned a spot on the Miami Dolphins roster in 1987, seeing action in four games. He spent time in training camp with Pittsburgh, Dallas and Minnesota, and he played in one more NFL game with the Saints in 1989. Marrone finished his career by playing two seasons (1991-92) with the London Monarchs of the World League of American Football, helping the Monarchs to win the World Bowl in 1991.

COACHING

Ben McAdoo enters his second season with the New England Patriots. 2025 is McAdoo's first as a senior defensive assistant after joining the Patriots as a senior offensive assistant in 2024. Before the Patriots, McAdoo spent time in various roles with the Carolina Panthers, Dallas Cowboys, Jacksonville Jaguars, New York Giants, Green Bay Packers, San Francisco 49ers and New Orleans Saints.

McAdoo's first offensive coordinator role came with the New York Giants, serving in the position for two seasons (2014-15) before taking over the helm as the team's head coach. In his first season as head coach in 2016, McAdoo led the Giants to an 11-5 record and the team's first playoff berth since 2011. McAdoo's next position in the NFL came with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2020, where he served as quarterbacks coach. McAdoo spent the 2021 season as a consultant for the Dallas Cowboys, and most recently spent the 2022 season as the offensive coordinator for the Carolina Panthers.

McAdoo began his coaching career as an assistant high school coach at Homer-Center & Indiana in Pennsylvania. After graduating from Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), he became a graduate assistant at Michigan State, working with special teams and offense. McAdoo was hired the following year as the offensive line and tight ends coach at Fairfield University, followed by a graduate assistant position at the University of Pittsburgh in 2003. He spent time as the offensive quality control coach for the New Orleans Saints (2004) and assistant offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers (2005) before being hired as the tight ends coach for the Green Bay Packers. McAdoo spent six seasons (2006-11) as the tight ends coach before becoming Green Bay's quarterbacks coach from 2012-13. He was a part of the coaching staff during Green Bay's 2010 Super Bowl Championship.

PERSONAL

Ben McAdoo was born on July 9, 1977 in Homer City, Penn. He graduated from IUP with a degree in health and physical education and earned a master's degree in kinesiology from Michigan State University. He and his wife, Toni, have a daughter, Larkin, and a son, BJ.

14TH COACHING SEASON
5TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Clinton McMillan joins the Patriots in 2025 as defensive line coach. He comes to New England after serving four seasons in various defensive roles at the Tennessee Titans. Most recently, McMillan served as assistant defensive line/pass rush specialist in Tennessee last season.

As an assistant defensive line/pass rush specialist in 2023, McMillan's group allowed an average of 3.81 rushing yards per attempt, ranking seventh in the NFL. In addition, Tennessee's 37.7% defensive red-zone efficiency rate was atop the NFL in 2023. The Titans defense also tied for the fourth-fewest rushing touchdowns (10) and the fifth-fewest overall touchdowns allowed (33).

In 2022, the Titans ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game) with McMillan as a defensive line assistant. Additionally, DT Jeffery Simmons was named to the Pro Bowl after posting 7.5 sacks.

McMillan spent the 2021 season working with the outside linebackers in Tennessee. The group was led by Harold Landry III, who recorded a career-high 12 sacks, earning him Pro Bowl Honors for the first time in his career.

Prior to Tennessee, McMillan spent one season as a senior analyst at Florida State in 2020, a group that had nine first-time starters. Cornerback Asante Samuel Jr. was named first time All-ACC before becoming a second-round NFL Draft pick by the Los Angeles Chargers.

From 2017-19, McMillan served as the defensive run game coordinator and co-special teams coordinator at the University of Tennessee-Martin. In 2019, he helped UT Martin lead the Ohio Valley Conference with 25 sacks. In addition, the Skyhawks ranked among national leaders in several categories, including blocked kicks (9th), punt return defense (10th), blocked punts (11th) and defensive touchdowns (11th). During the 2018 season, UT Martin's defense ranked 17th nationally in tackles for loss (7.6 per game).

UT Martin garnered national attention in McMillan's first year at the school in 2017, ranking first nationally in red-zone defense (60.6 percent), fourth in scoring defense (14.3 points per game), sixth in total defense (273.8 yards per game), and sixth on third-down conversion (28.7 percent).

McMillan began his coaching career at Sanford Seminole High School and Winter Park High School before serving as a graduate assistant at Weber State from 2012-13. From 2014-16, McMillan became a graduate assistant at Marshall, helping the Thundering Herd to a conference championship and back-to-back bowl appearances. Prior to his stint at UT Martin, McMillan was hired as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Ohio Dominican.

PLAYING

McMillan played four seasons at the University of Florida from 2004-07. He appeared in 48 career games at defensive tackle for the Gators. As a senior, he started all 13 games and recorded 23 tackles in 2007. In 2006, he was a member of the BCS National Championship team under Head Coach Urban Meyer.

PERSONAL

A native of Oviedo, Fla., McMillan earned a bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2007 and a master's degree in education from Marshall University in 2016. McMillan and his wife, Mariah, have a daughter, Journie.

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

14TH COACHING SEASON
1ST NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Milton Patterson joins the Patriots as a defensive assistant after four seasons at Florida A&M University, where he was linebackers coach from 2021-23 and defensive coordinator in 2024.

In his first season as defensive coordinator, Patterson guided DL James Ash and DB Kendall Bohler to 2024 All-SWAC Second Team honors. Bohler was also named a semifinalist for the Aeneas Williams Award, given to the nation's best defensive back in HBCU Division I college football. Additionally, DB Michael Oppong earned SWAC Defensive Player of the Week honors after a home-opener win over South Carolina State, and DB Deco Wilson was named the Aeneas Williams Award HBCU Defensive Back of the Week after a win over Alabama State.

In 2023, Patterson played a major role in a defense that ranked in the top 25 in 12 categories, including the No. 1 passing efficiency defense, the No. 2 total defense and No. 2 scoring defense. Defensive lineman Anthony Dunn Jr. earned First Team All-SWAC honors after he finished second in the league in sacks (8) and ninth in tackles for loss (12), and DL Gentle Hunt was named All-SWAC Second Team after he registered 29 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 2 quarterback hurries and 1 forced fumble in 10 games. A year prior, Patterson developed two All-Americans, LB Isaiah Land and DL Kamari Stephens, who were also named to the All-SWAC First Team. In Patterson's first season with the Rattlers in 2021, Land led the nation in sacks (19.5) and tackles for loss (25.5) as he went on to win the 2021 Buck Buchanan Award, given to the best defensive player in FCS football. Land was also the SWAC Defensive Player of the Year and set a Florida A&M single-game record with 5 sacks in a win over South Carolina State. In 2021, DL Savion Williams earned All-SWAC Second Team honors with 6.5 sacks and 11 tackles for loss.

Before Florida A&M, Patterson was the defensive coordinator at Fayetteville State for two years (2020-21). He went to Fayetteville State after serving as the defensive coordinator, linebackers coach and director of recruiting at Clark-Atlanta University from 2017-20. In 2018, Clark Atlanta University's defense ranked second in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and 10th nationally.

In 2017, Patterson was the assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at Alabama State, working mainly with Olympic sports. Prior to this role, Patterson was the co-defensive coordinator, linebackers coach and director of sports performance at Mississippi Valley State (2014-16), where he directed strength and conditioning for all 15 sports in addition to his roles with the football team. Patterson's first coaching job was at his alma mater, Jackson State, where he was an assistant strength and conditioning coach and defensive analyst from 2012-14.

Patterson has also completed coaching internships with the Atlanta Falcons (2018), Chicago Bears (2022) and Tennessee Titans (2023) as part of the Bill Walsh Diversity Fellowship.

PLAYING

Patterson was a four-year letterwinner on the football team at Jackson State as a linebacker, earning All-SWAC honors. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in therapeutic recreation/recreational therapy in 2013.

PERSONAL

The Atlanta, Georgia native attended Banneker High School where he was an All-State honoree and a three-time All-Region honoree. He also was a three-year letterwinner and baseball and a letterwinner in wrestling. Patterson and his wife, Shae, have a son, Nolan.

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

34TH COACHING SEASON
19TH NFL SEASON
2ND PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 07, 11

COACHING

Tom Quinn enters his second season as assistant special teams coach with the New England Patriots after joining the team in 2024.

In 2024, under Quinn's guidance, S Brenden Schooler was named to the Associated Press All-Pro First Team as the core special teamer, the first All-Pro honor of his career. He was also named to his first-career Pro Bowl and his second-consecutive NFLPA All-Pro and PFWA All-NFL teams as a special teamer. Schooler led the Patriots with 9 special teams tackles and a blocked punt in 2024.

Before joining the Patriots staff, Quinn spent time in various roles with the Tennessee Titans and the New York Giants.

Quinn spent the 2023 season with the Tennessee Titans on Mike Vrabel's staff, beginning the year as a special teams assistant before taking over as special teams coordinator for the final six games of the season. Prior to joining the Titans, Quinn was on the staff at Army in 2022, working in game management and analytics.

Working in various roles special teams positions with the New York Giants from 2006-21, Quinn spent the 2018-21 seasons as the assistant special teams coach. In 2021, the Giants were one of only four teams that avoided negative plays, such as turnovers, blocked kicks, or touchdowns allowed, on special teams. Their opponents averaged an NFL-low of 17.8 yards per kickoff return, with the longest gain on 37 returns capped at 32 yards. Kicker Graham Gano furthered his franchise record with 37 consecutive successful field goal attempts, converting 29 of 33 attempts. In 2020, Gano made 31 of 32 field goal attempts. His 96.9 percentage was the second highest in Giants history behind his predecessor, Aldrick Rosas, who made 97.0 percent (32 of 33) in 2018

Under Quinn's guidance, Aldrick Rosas earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2018 after converting 32 of 33 field goal attempts and 31 of 32 extra point tries in the season. His 32 successful field goals marked the fifth-highest total in Giants history. Aldrick Rosas set a Giants record with a 97.0 field goal percentage, trailing the NFL leader and former Giant Robbie Gould by just 1/100th of a percentage point.

From 2018 through 2021, Giants punter Riley Dixon averaged 45.2 yards per punt, ranking second in Giants history behind Steve Weatherford (46.3). Dixon's career 40.6-yard net punting average set the franchise record (since 1976).

Quinn worked as the special teams coordinator for the Giants from 2007-17. In 2016, kickers Josh Brown and Robbie Gould combined to make 21 of 22 field goal attempts, a 95.5 percent success rate, during the team's 11-5 season. Additionally, Dwayne Harris was selected to his first Pro Bowl after leading the Giants in kickoff and punt returns for the second straight season .

In 2015, Josh Brown played in his first Pro Bowl. In 2014, the Giants' kickoff coverage team ranked second in the NFL, limiting opponents to an average return of merely 18.3 yards. Additionally, the Giants led the NFL with five special teams takeaways. In 2011, Quinn's special teams unit helped lead the Giants to a Super Bowl victory over the Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI.

In 2010, Zak DeOssie, serving as the snapper for both punts and placekicks, secured his second Pro Bowl selection in three seasons in 2010. The Giants' kickoff coverage unit ranked fourth in the NFL, with opponents averaging only 19.7 yards per return.

In 2008, three of the Giants' special teams players—kicker John Carney, punter Jeff Feagles and DeOssie—played for the NFC Pro Bowl team. Quinn began his NFL coaching career in 2006 as the assistant special teams coach and was subsequently promoted to special teams coordinator in 2007. In his first season as special teams coordinator, the Giants defeated the Patriots, 17-14, in Super Bowl XLII.

Quinn began his coaching career at Davidson College in 1991 as a linebackers coach, followed by a stint at James Madison University (1992-94) working with the special teams before earning his first defensive coordinator role at Boston University (1995). He moved on to the College of Holy Cross (1996-98) and San Jose State University (1999-01) before joining the staff at Stanford in 2002. From 2002-05, Quinn worked at Stanford, first as tight ends/special teams coach and then as the outside linebackers/special teams coach.

PLAYING

Quinn was a linebacker at the University of Arizona from 1986 to 1990, where he was a member of three bowl teams.

PERSONAL

Quinn attended Foothill High School in Santa Ana, Calif. He earned a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies in 1990 and a master's in education the following year. Quinn and his wife, Alison, have a son, Shane, and two daughters, Logan and Riley.

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

7TH COACHING SEASON
1ST NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Kevin Richardson joins the Patriots as a defensive assistant following two seasons at Illinois as an assistant defensive backs coach.

Coaching the defensive backs in 2024, Richardson helped lead the Fighting Illini to a 10-3 record, tying the program's single-season wins record, and a final regular season ranking of No.20 in the College Football Playoff rankings. The season was capped by a 21-17 victory over No.14 South Carolina in the Cheez-It Citrus Bowl in one of the biggest bowl wins in program history. He helped coach All-Big Ten First Team selection Xavier Scott, who was one of 15 finalists for the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award presented annually to the nation's top defensive back. Scott had four interceptions and Torrie Cox Jr. had three interceptions, ranking second and sixth in the Big Ten. Richardson also coached Matthew Bailey to All-Big Ten Honorable Mention honors and team captain Miles Scott to a Burlesworth Trophy nomination. In total, the Illini ranked fourth in the league with 12 picks during the regular season. Richardson reunited with head coach Bret Bielema, who he played for at Arkansas.

As the defensive backs coach for Long Island University in 2022, the team led the NEC in interceptions with 13, including 11 from defensive backs. DB Victor Nelson Jr. was named an All-American after ranking second in the FCS with six interceptions.

Richardson helped coach one of the best defensive turnarounds in the nation as a defensive graduate assistant at Illinois in 2021. The Fighting Illinois's scoring defense, third down defense, and total defense improved more than 50 spots in the national rankings from 2020. Working with the defensive backs, Richardson coached Devon Witherspoon Kerby Joseph, Sydney Brown, and Jartavius "Quan" Martin, who all went on to be drafted in the NFL. He also coached Tony Adams, who became an undrafted free agent in the NFL after his time at Illinois.

PLAYING

Richardson played in 48 games for Arkansas from 2013-18 as a defensive back, recording 125 total tackles and four interceptions while serving as a team captain and earning Phil Steele All-SEC third team honors in 2017. He shared the field as teammates of Deatrich Wise Jr. and Hunter Hunry while at Arkansas. The former walk-on's biggest moments included a 22-yard fumble return for a touchdown against Ole Miss in 2017 with six minutes left in the fourth quarter to help Arkansas win, 38-37. Richardson also recorded interceptions against SEC standouts Jalen Hurts (Alabama) and Jarrett Stidham (Auburn). Following his career at Arkansas, Richardson signed with the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats before beginning his coaching career.

PERSONAL

A native of Jacksonville, Ark., Richardson graduated from Arkansas with a degree in sociology in 2017. He and wife, Jailyn, got married in July 2025.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

16TH COACHING SEASON
12TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Mike Smith joins the Patriots in 2025 as outside linebackers coach. He comes to New England after serving two seasons as outside linebackers/pass rush specialist with the Minnesota Vikings (2022-23). Smith has NFL experience with the Green Bay Packers, Kansas City Chiefs and the New York Jets in various defensive capacities.

With Smith overseeing the outside linebackers in 2023, Minnesota allowed 98.7 rushing yards per game, ranking eighth in the NFL. In addition, several Vikings had career seasons under Smith's tutelage: LB Danielle Hunter recorded a career-high 16.5 sacks and a Pro Bowl berth, DT Harrison Phillips totaled a career-best 3.0 sacks, LB D.J. Wonnum tied his career high with 8.0 sacks, and S Harrison registered 3.0 sacks, tying his career best.

In 2022, Smith coached two outside linebackers in Minnesota to earn Pro Bowl honors. LB Hunter started every game for the first time since 2019, recording a career-high 22 quarterback hits to go with a team-leading 10.5 sacks and a career-best 3 passes defensed. LB Za'Darius Smith finished the 2022 season fifth in the NFC in sacks (10.0), and fourth in tackles for loss (15). On top of a Pro Bowl berth, he earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 8) and NFC Defensive Player of the Month (October).

In his first season with Green Bay in 2019, Smith saw the most productive pass-rushing duo in the NFL. Za'Darius Smith (13.5) and Preston Smith (12.0) both posted career-high sack totals as they became the first duo in team history (since 1982) to post 12-plus sacks each in the same season, and the first duo in NFL history to both register 12-plus sacks in their first season as teammates.

Smith tutored LB Dee Ford of the Kansas City Chiefs during the 2018 season, who tied for second among NFL linebackers with a career-high 13 sacks on the way to earning the first Pro Bowl berth of his career. Ford was also tied for the league lead with J.J. Watt with a career-best seven forced fumbles, tied for the second most in franchise history behind only LB Derrick Thomas (eight, 1992). Smith also coached veteran LB Justin Houston record 9 sacks and 5 forced fumbles in 12 games of action. Ford and Houston became the first Kansas City duo to both total five-plus fumbles in the same season since Jared Allen and Tamba Hali in 2006.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Smith coached his alma mater at Texas Tech for three seasons (2013-15) in a variety of defensive roles. Smith worked the previous three seasons for the New York Jets, his first NFL stop, coaching the outside linebackers in 2012 and serving as a coaching intern in 2010-11. He was a part of a coaching staff in 2012 that helped the Jets rank second in the league in passing yards allowed per game (189.8) and opponent completion passer rating (78.2). In 2010, he was a member of a defensive staff that helped the Jets rank third in the league in total defense (291.5 yards per game), run defense (90.9 yards per game) and yards allowed per carry (3.56) as the team advanced to the AFC Championship game.

Smith's coaching career began in 2009, when he served as linebackers coach at Hawaii, helping LB Blake Soares post a team-high 107 tackles (58 solo) on his way to earning first-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors.

PLAYING

Smith was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker at Texas Tech, where he was named MVP and captain as a senior in 2004. At the time of his graduation, he was one of just five Texas Tech players to have appeared in 50-plus career games. He was tied for the team lead with 83 tackles as a senior, earning All-Big 12 Honorable Mention, as he helped lead the Red Raiders to an 8-4 overall record and an upset win over fourth-ranked California.

Smith was drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the seventh round (234th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft. He played from 2005-07 for Baltimore before his career was cut short due to injuries in 2008.

PERSONAL

A native of Lubbock, Texas, Smith earned a degree in communication studies at Texas Tech. He and his wife, Emily, have two daughters, Kennedy and Finley, and a son, Weston.

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS AND STRATEGY

8TH COACHING SEASON
8TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

John "Stretch" Streicher joined the Patriots in 2025 as vice president of football operations and strategy. Streicher came to the Patriots after spending a year working under Sean McVay at the Los Angeles Rams as the game management coordinator. Streicher was apart of a Rams team that upset the Minnesota Vikings in the Wild Card Round of the 2024 NFL Playoffs.

Prior to his year at the Rams, Streicher spent six seasons at the Tennessee Titans in various roles on Mike Vrabel's staff from 2018-23. He began in Tennessee as special assistant to the head coach. Streicher was then promoted to coordinator of football development before becoming the Titans Director of Football Administration in 2023.

Working closely with Vrabel, Streicher helped the Titans finish with four winning seasons and three postseason appearances. In 2021, Streicher was a part of a coaching staff that earned its third consecutive playoff appearance, where the Titans won their second straight AFC South title, claiming the AFC's top overall seed with a 12-5 record. Tennessee preceded their 12-5 record with an 11-5 record and the team's first division title since 2008 with Streicher on staff.

Prior to his time with the Titans, Streicher spent two years as director of football operations (2016-17) at Texas State, where he oversaw recruiting and the day-to-day operations of the team. From 2014-15, Streicher held roles such as special assistant to the head coach and director of football operations at James Madison.

Streicher started his career working for the Ohio State football team while as a student, spending six total seasons at his alma mater. He spent four seasons as an equipment manager and later worked as a student assistant coach on the defensive staff while completing a master's degree.

PERSONAL

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Streicher graduated from The Ohio State University with a bachelors degree in 2012 and continued his education gaining a master's degree in 2014 in organizational leadership.

PRONOUNCED BEAR-ringer

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Bryce Baringer was drafted by the New England Patriots in the sixth round (192nd overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

SEASONAL REVIEWS

2024 (17/0)

- Served as the punter and holder on extra points and field goals. Had a total of 70 punts for 3,486 yards and a 49.8 punting yard average, the highest in team history for a single season and fourth in the NFL in 2024. Jake Bailey previously held the team record with a 48.7 yard average in 2020.
- Had three games in 2024 with at least two 60-yard punts with a 65 and 67-yard punt vs. Seattle (9/15), a 61 and 75-yard punt at Chicago (11/10) and a 62 and 64-yard punt vs. L.A. Chargers to give him six career games with at least 60-yard punts.
- Landed two punts inside the 20-yard line vs. Buffalo (1/5/25), finishing the season with 31 punts inside the 20-yard line to become the second Patriots punter with back-to-back seasons with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line after Jake Bailey had 36 in 2019 and 31 in 2020.
- Had a streak of at least one 50-yard punt in a game for 27-straight games. It was the longest active streak in the NFL until it ended vs. the L.A. Rams on Nov. 17.
- Had a 61-yard punt and a 75-yard punt in the third quarter at Chicago (11/10). The 75-yarder is the second-longest of his career, behind the 79-yard punt he had vs. Indianapolis on Nov. 12, 2023.

EXTRA POINTS

Bryce Baringer had an unconventional path to the NFL. He began his collegiate career by earning a walk-on spot at Illinois in 2018 as a true freshman, but due to being buried on the depth chart and the cost of out-of-state tuition, he transferred home to Michigan State as a regular student. Outside of a four-game stint on the Michigan State team due to injuries on the roster, Baringer did not have a walk-on spot available to him in 2019. After a year serving as the team's photographer to maintain access to the facilities to train, Baringer attended an open tryout with a new coaching staff at the Spartans and made the team, establishing himself as the Spartans top punter in 2020 and going on to have record-breaking seasons in 2021 and 2022. In 2022, he was named the Big 10 Punter of the Year and a consensus All-American by all five major associations.

2023 (17/0)

- Served as the punter and holder on extra points and field goals. Had a total of 98 punts, which was second most in the NFL, for 4,598 yards and a 46.9 yard average.
- Led the NFL in punts inside opponents 20-yard line and set a team record with 38. Baringer surpassed the previous team mark of 36 punts inside the 20-yard line set by Jake Bailey in 2019. Had the second-longest punt in the NFL in 2023 with a 79-yard punt vs. Indianapolis (11/12), the fifth-longest in team history.
- Had at least one punt of 50 yards or more in all 17 games, setting a team record for the longest single season streak in team history (at any point of the season). Zoltan Mesko had a 12-game streak in 2011.
- Landed a season-high five of his eight punts inside the 20-yard line vs. New Orleans (10/8).
- Had three games in 2023 when he drilled at least two 60-yard punts, with a 60-yard and 63-yard punt at Miami on Oct 29, a 79-yard and a 65-yard punt vs. Indianapolis on Nov. 12 and a 63 and 60-yard punt vs. the NY Jets on Jan. 7. He is the only Patriots punter with at least two games with two 60-yard punts in a season.
- Had a total of 38 punts inside opponents 20-yard line, the most in a season for the Patriots. Jake Bailey had 36 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2019.

COLLEGE

- Four-year letter winner and one of the most decorated punters in Michigan State history, owning school records for career average (46.0) and single-season average (49.0 in 2022).
- Earned first-team consensus All-America honors from the NCAA after being named a first-team All-American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, Associated Press and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA).
- Also earned first-team All-America honors from CBS Sports and second-team accolades from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

ROOKIE IN THE RECORD BOOK

Baringer connected on a 79-yard punt in the second quarter vs. Indianapolis on Nov. 12, 2023 in Frankfurt, Germany, the fifth-longest punt in team history.

LONGEST PUNTS IN PATRIOTS HISTORY

| Name | Yards |
|---|---|
| Shawn McCarthy | 93 at Buffalo, Nov. 3, 1991 |
| Luke Prestridge | 89 vs. Miami, Oct. 21, 1984 |

| Rich Camarillo | 76 vs. N.Y. Jets, Sept. 19, 1982 |
| Lee Johnson | 76 at Cincinnati, Sept. 9, 2001 |

- His career punting average of 46.0 yards per punt (161 punts for 7,406 yards) is not only a school record, but also the best in Big Ten history (previous: Reggie Roby of Iowa with 45.5-yard average from 1979-82).
- The 46.0-yard average is the sixth best in FBS history for punters between 150-249 career punts.
- Led the Big Ten in punting in back-to-back seasons (48.4 in 2021; 49.0 in 2022).
- Finished his career with 64 punts of 50-plus yards (40 percent) and 55 inside the 20 (34 percent).
- Former walk-on rejoined the team in 2020 following a year off the active roster in 2019; earned a scholarship in 2021.
- Transferred from Illinois during the 2018 spring semester after redshirting the 2017 season at Illinois.

PERSONAL

- Son of Bruce and Kimberly Baringer.
- Graduated with a bachelor's degree in advertising creative in December 2021.
- Also lettered in golf, soccer and basketball in high school.
- Three-year letter winner under Coach Pat Fox at Notre Dame Prep High School.
- Started punting in December of his junior season.
- Married to wife, Bella.

MINNEAPOLIS MIRACLE

On January 14, 2018, in the NFC Divisional Playoff round, Diggs made the play of a lifetime, coined as the 'Minneapolis Miracle' by Vikings play-by-play announcer Paul Allen. Trailing, 24-23, with 10 seconds left in the fourth quarter, Diggs hauled in a deep pass from QB Case Keenum and scampered for a 61-yard touchdown as time expired for a walk-off win vs. New Orleans. The Vikings advanced to the NFC Championship, and it was the first time in NFL history that a playoff game ended on a touchdown on the final play. He finished with 6 catches for 137 yards and a touchdown.

- Caught the longest touchdown pass of his career when he hauled in a 75-yard touchdown pass from QB Kirk Cousins at Green Bay (9/16/18) in the fourth quarter to pull within 2 points of the Packers. It was his second touchdown of the game after a 3-yard touchdown reception earlier in the fourth quarter. After WR Adam Thielen caught a 22-yard pass for a score, Diggs caught a 2-point conversion from Cousins to tie the game at 29. Extended his scoring streak to five consecutive regular season games.
- Turned in his third 100-plus yard game of the season by catching 10 passes for 119 yards and 1 touchdown vs. New Orleans (10/28), becoming the second-fastest Viking to reach 3,000 career receiving yards in his 48th career game.
- Inactive vs. Detroit (11/4) due to injury.
- Caught 13 passes for 126 yards and 1 touchdown at Chicago (11/18), joining WR Cris Carter as the only Vikings to record four games of 10-plus receptions in a single season.
- Notched 8 receptions for 47 yards and 1 touchdown vs. Chicago (12/30), officially moving past the single season - 100 reception/1,000 receiving yard milestones for the first time in his career.

2017 (14/14, 2/2 – MINNESOTA)

- Played in 14 games with 14 starts and totaled 64 catches for 849 yards and 8 touchdowns. Added 8 rushing attempts for 13 yards.
- Started in the Divisional round vs. New Orleans (1/14) and the NFC Championship at Philadelphia (1/21) and ended the postseason with 14 catches for 207 yards and 1 touchdown.
- Hit season highs in receptions (8) and receiving yards (173) vs. Tampa Bay (9/24). Also scored 2 touchdowns: a 17-yard touchdown reception from QB Case Keenum in the second quarter and 59-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter.
- Inactive vs. Green Bay (10/15) and vs. Baltimore (10/22) due to injury.
- Helped the Vikings clinch the NFC North title with 5 catches for 30 yards and his sixth touchdown of the season vs. Cincinnati (12/17).
- Caught 5 passes for 60 yards and his seventh touchdown of the season at Green Bay (12/23). His 7 touchdowns were the most by a Vikings WR since Sidney Rice in 2009.
- Caught 6 passes for 65 yards and a touchdown vs. Chicago (12/31), the first time in his career he has tallied a touchdown in three straight games.
- In the 'Minneapolis Miracle,' hauled in a deep pass from QB Case Keenum and ran for a 61-yard touchdown as time expired for a walk-off win vs. New Orleans (1/14) in the Divisional Playoff round, the first time in NFL history that a playoff game ended on a touchdown on the final play. He finished with 6 catches for 137 yards and a touchdown.

2016 (13/11 – MINNESOTA)

- Played in 13 games with 11 starts and finished with 84 receptions for 903 yards and 3 touchdowns. Added 3 rushing attempts for 10 yards and 6 punt returns for 45 yards.
- Ended the season with a 75% catch rate, which ranked fifth in the NFL.
- Teamed with WR Adam Thielen to become the first Vikings

WR duo with 900 yards each since Randy Moss and Cris Carter in 2000.

- Had three games with over 100 receiving yards:
  - Week 1 at Tennessee (103)
  - Week 2 vs. Green Bay (182)
  - Week 10 at Washington (164)
- Had two games with 10-plus receptions:
  - Week 9 vs. Detroit (13)
  - Week 10 at Washington (13)
- In the season opening victory at Tennessee (9/11), recorded 7 receptions for 103 yards.
- Set a career high in receiving yards with 182 vs. Green Bay (9/18) on 9 receptions. Caught a 25-yard touchdown pass from QB Sam Bradford in the third quarter. Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance.
- With his performances at Tennessee (9/11) and vs. Green Bay (9/18), became the third Vikings WR with back-to-back 100-yard receiving games in the first two weeks of the season and the first since Cris Carter in 1997.
- Inactive vs. Houston (10/9), at Detroit (11/24) and vs. Chicago (1/1) due to injury.
- Set a career high in receptions with 13 for 80 yards vs. Detroit (11/6). Also posted a 12-yard rush and returned three punts for 29 yards, including a long of 19 yards.
- Matched his career-high 13 receptions for 164 yards at Washington (11/13), becoming the first player in NFL history to reach 13 catches in consecutive weeks. Set a Vikings franchise record for total receptions in back-to-back games (26).

2015 (13/9, 1/1 – MINNESOTA)

- Played in 13 games with nine starts and finished with 52 receptions for 720 yards and 4 touchdowns. Added 3 rushing attempts for 13 yards.
- Started in the Wild Card round vs. Seattle (1/10) and registered 4 catches for 26 yards.
- His 720 receiving yards and 13 catches of 20-plus yards ranked second among NFL rookies, behind only Oakland WR Amari Cooper.
- Became the first Vikings rookie to lead the team in receptions en route to All-Rookie honors from the PFWA.
- Ranked third in team history in rookie receptions with 52 and fifth in rookie receiving yards with 720.
- Had back-to-back games with 100-plus receiving yards:
  - Week 6 vs. Kansas City (129)
  - Week 7 at Detroit (108)
- Inactive for the first three games of the season and made his NFL debut at Denver (10/4) due to injuries to WRs Charles Johnson and Jarius Wright. Totaled 6 receptions for 87 yards, which tied a Vikings record for the most catches by a player in his debut game. It ranked third in club history for most receiving yards in a debut.
- Made his first career start vs. Kansas City (10/18) and had his first career game with 100 receiving yards. Finished with 129 yards on 7 receptions.
- Had his second straight game with over 100 receiving yards and scored his first career touchdown at Detroit (10/25). Caught 6 passes for 108 yards and hauled in a diving 36-yard touchdown pass from QB Teddy Bridgewater in the third quarter to give Minnesota the lead. Earned Pepsi Rookie of the Week honors.
- Became first Vikings rookie WR since Randy Moss in 1998 to post consecutive 100-yard games - 129 vs. Kansas City (10/18) and 108 at Detroit (10/25).
- Scored a touchdown in back-to-back games for the first time in his career when he caught a season-long 40-yard touchdown pass from QB Teddy Bridgewater at Chicago (11/1) in the fourth quarter to tie the game. Caught a 4-yard pass on the next drive to help set up the game-winning 36-yard field goal by K Blair Walsh.
- Joined fellow rookie classmates OT T.J. Clemmings, LB Edmond Robinson, LB Eric Kendricks, CB Trae Waynes and S Anthony Harris to tie a Vikings record with 6 rookies starting a game when they all opened the Thursday Night Football matchup at Arizona (12/10).
- Had the first multi-touchdown game of his career when he found the end zone twice vs. Chicago (12/20). Brought in a 15-yard touchdown pass from QB Teddy Bridgewater in the first quarter and a 33-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter. Added a 22-yard kickoff return in the third quarter.

EXTRA POINTS

Dobbs graduated with a degree in aerospace engineering from Tennessee and has since combined his love for football and space, coining the nickname, "The Passtronaut." Through the NFLPA's virtual externship program, Dobbs spent two years (2020-21) with the NASA Kennedy Space Flight Center. In 2022, Dobbs established The Astrordinary Dobbs Foundation, which is dedicated to supporting, encouraging and inspiring all members of the community, particularly the youth, through educational, economical, professional and recreational empowerment.

"We're promoting my background growing up, which was in STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics), aerospace and aviation," Dobbs said. "So, we love giving back to the community itself, who supported me throughout my career, but also just promoting STEM engagement, giving back to those less fortunate and just being involved. It's very important to me to support those communities and to be able to represent my own foundation. It's really cool. As I said, just having the platform, being able to give back."

ADVOCATE & EXAMPLE

Dobbs is an advocate for those with Alopecia Areata, a condition he was diagnosed with in third grade. Alopecia affects the hair follicles and often leads to hair loss. Dobbs has been open about his journey as he hopes to inspire others to be their complete selves and pursue their dreams.

SEASONAL REVIEWS

2024 (16/16)

- Started in all 16 games that he played in at cornerback and finished with 59 total tackles (50 solo, 9 assists), 2 interceptions, 1 quarterback hit, 1 fumble recovery for a touchdown and 11 passes defensed.
- Was awarded Second Team All-Pro honors by the Associated Press as one of the NFL's premiere players at the position. Played man coverage at the second-highest rate of any cornerback in the NFL and was often shadowing the opponent's No. 1 receiver. Was the only cornerback to face 10 or more deep targets without allowing a touchdown. Ranked seventh in passer rating (70.5) and 10th in completion rate (54.8%).
- Started in the season opener at Cincinnati (9/8) - his first game back since a season-ending injury at Dallas in 2023 (10/1/23) - and covered WR Ja'Marr Chase on 20 of his 28 routes, limiting him to 3 receptions for 14 yards.
- Recorded his first interception of the season in the first quarter vs. Miami (10/6), jumping the route of a pass intended for WR Odell Beckham Jr. to give New England a first down at the Miami 36-yard line and help position the Patriots for their first touchdown of the game, a 33-yard rushing touchdown by RB Rhamondre Stevenson. Recorded 1 pass defensed on a pass intended for WR Tyreek Hill in the end zone in the third quarter and shadowed the receiver for 21 routes, allowing just 3 catches for 55 yards to go with the 1 pass defensed.
- Played a key role in the 19-3 win at Chicago (11/10), limiting the Bears to 142 total yards, the lowest total since holding the Jets to 103 total yards on Nov. 20, 2022.
- Scored his first NFL touchdown at Miami (11/24) and registered the Patriots first score on defense in 2024 when he recovered a RB Jaylen Wright fumble forced by S Marte Mapu and returned the ball 63 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter, the third-longest fumble return in team history.
- Recorded his second interception of the season vs. Indianapolis (12/1) and second turnover in back-to-back games when he picked off a pass from QB Anthony Richardson intended for WR Alec Pierce on a second-and-7 situation in the fourth quarter.
- Had 3 passes defensed at Arizona (12/15) on passes from QB Kyler Murray intended for WR Marvin Harrison Jr. Shadowed Harrison Jr. on 21 routes, allowing just 1 catch for 23 yards on five targets.

Rhamondre Stevenson as time expired and forced overtime.

- Had a pass defensed on WR Keenan Allen in the fourth quarter at Chicago (11/10) on a fourth-and-10 situation to force a punt and further seal the 19-3 victory. Also had three punt returns for 45 yards with a long of 24 yards in the second quarter. Played a key role in limiting the Bears to 142 total yards, the lowest total since holding the Jets to 103 total yards on Nov. 20, 2022.
- Played on offense for the first time in 2024 in the third quarter vs. the L.A. Rams (11/17) and had his first-career rushing attempt with a 5-yard run. Marked his first offensive snap since the 2023 season-opener vs. Philadelphia on Sept. 10, 2023, when he saw offensive action for one play. Played on offense in five games as a rookie in 2022, finishing with 4 receptions for 78 yards and a 48-yard touchdown reception. Also vs. the L.A. Rams (11/17), was in on a second offensive play in the fourth quarter. Also led the team with 9 tackles (6 solo, 3 assisted).
- Tied for the team lead in tackles with LB Jahlani Tavai at Miami (11/24) with 8 total, adding 3 passes defensed and three punt returns for 38 yards with a long of 20 yards in the fourth quarter.
- Had two passes defensed vs. Indianapolis (12/1), one in the end zone on a pass from QB Anthony Richardson intended for WR Adonai Mitchell on third-and-6 to force a field goal in the third quarter and one on a third-and-2 situation in the fourth quarter on a pass also intended for Mitchell. Saw snaps on offense when he was used as a decoy in a two-back shotgun formation. Added two punt returns for 31 yards with a long of 19 yards in the second quarter.
- Entered the game at Arizona (12/15) at wide receiver in the second quarter and caught an 18-yard reception from QB Drake Maye, his first reception since he caught a 15-yard reception on Dec. 24, 2022 vs. Cincinnati.

- Was limited to two games due to injury with one start and recorded 5 tackles (4 solo, 1 assist) and 1 fumble recovery. Also returned three punts for 21 yards.
- Played as a reserve cornerback and returned punts for New England vs. Philadelphia (9/10). He had 3 punt returns for 21 yards, averaging 7.0 yards-per-return, and 1 fair catch. On defense, recorded 1 tackle (1 assist) and a fumble recovery on a crucial forced fumble by Jabrill Peppers late in the fourth quarter to give the ball back into the offense's hands.
- Started at corner in place of an injured Jonathan Jones vs. Miami (9/17). Exited the game with an injury and did not return.
- Placed on injured reserve on Sept. 22.

2022 (15/4)

- Played in 15 regular season games with four starts, two in the nickel defense and two at cornerback.
- Saw action on the offensive, defensive and special teams units. Recorded 35 total tackles (31 solo, 4 assist), 2 interceptions, one of which he returned 69 yards for a touchdown, one fumble recovery, seven passes defensed and eight special teams tackles. Also recorded four receptions for 78 yards, including a 48-yard touchdown reception.
- Served as the primary punt and kick returner on special teams. Returned 29 punts for 362 yards including a 84-yard touchdown return. Returned 27 kickoffs for 645 yards.
- Finished second in the NFL with a 12.5-yard punt return average, second in total return yards with 1,007 yards and seventh in kickoff return average with a 23.9 yard average.
- He was named to the Associated Press All-Pro First Team as a punt returner, the first Patriots rookie to be named All-Pro First Team.
- Also named to the PFWA All-NFL Team (punt returner), PFWA All-AFC Team (punt returner) and PFWA All-Rookie Team (punt returner).
- Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 11 vs. N.Y. Jets (11/20) after returning a punt 84 yards for a touchdown with five seconds to play to give the Patriots a 10-3 victory.
- Jones scored on offense - 48-yard touchdown reception vs. Buffalo (12/1), defense - 69-yard interception return vs.

Cincinnati (12/24) and on special teams - 84-yard punt return vs. N.Y. Jets (11/20), to become the fourth player in NFL history to score on offense, defense and special teams in a season, joining Frank Bacon (1920), Bill Dudley (1947) and Tommy Harmon (1947).

- Jones is one of 10 NFL players to score on offense, defense and special teams through a career since 1970. Jones joins Deion Sanders, George Martin, Nolan Cromwell, Terence Newman, Bobby Humphrey, William White, Mike Fuller, Chris Moore and Dale Carter.
- Jones joins Deion Sanders as the only other player in the Super Bowl era to score a 40-plus yard touchdown on offense, defense and special teams in their entire career.
- Became just the second player since 1970 to record a receiving touchdown, a punt or kick return touchdown and an interception in the same season. The other was Deion Sanders in 1992.
- Jones started to play on offense in addition to defense and special teams vs. Buffalo (12/1) and scored on a 48-yard pass from QB Mac Jones on his first offensive play in the first quarter. He became the first defensive back to record a touchdown reception on offense since 2000 when S Marcus Coleman of the New York Jets caught a 45-yard touchdown pass from QB Vinny Testaverde against Buffalo on Sept 17, 2000. Jones joined LB Mike Vrabel (six 1-yard touchdowns and four 2-yard touchdowns from Tom Brady), LB Elandon Roberts (38-yard touchdown from Tom Brady vs. Miami on Dec. 29, 2019) and LB/DE John Tanner as the only defensive players to catch touchdowns. Tanner caught a 2-yard touchdown pass from QB Jim Plunkett on Nov. 24, 1974 at Baltimore. Jones is the first Patriots player to catch a touchdown on his first reception since Roberts touchdown pass. Jones's 48-yard touchdown on his first offensive play is the longest by a Patriots player on his first play since WR Stephen Starring caught a 73-yard touchdown pass from Steve Grogan on his first offensive play vs. Baltimore on Sept. 4, 1983.
- Made his NFL debut in the season opener at Miami (9/11), rotating in as a defensive back.
- Lined up to return kicks for the first time in the home opener vs. Baltimore (9/25). He had two returns for 45 yards.
- Lined up to return punts for the first time in 2022 at Green Bay (10/2). Averaged 24.5 yards on two returns. His first NFL punt return was for 29 yards in the second quarter, followed by a 20-yard punt return in overtime.
- Returned a fourth quarter punt 84 yards for a touchdown with five seconds remaining vs. N.Y. Jets (11/20) to win the game. It is tied with Julian Edelman (84-yard touchdown return vs. Denver on Nov. 2, 2014) for the fifth-longest punt return in team history. It is the second longest go-ahead 4th quarter touchdown in team history. The only longer return was the 91-yard missed field goal return for a touchdown by Ron Burton at Denver on Nov. 11, 1962. Jones was named the AFC Special Team Player of the Week for his performance. Jones is the fourth Patriots rookie to earn an AFC Special Teams Player of the Week award since 2000, joining Jake Bailey (Week 3 and 11 in 2019), Bethel Johnson (Week 13 in 2003) and Laurence Maroney (Week 7 in 2006).
- Had a season-long 46-yard kickoff return in the second quarter at Minnesota (11/24).
- Made his first NFL start as a defensive back in a nickel defensive alignment vs. Buffalo (12/1). He finished the game with one pass defensed. He also had one special teams tackle. Also lined up on offense for the first time and scored on a 48-yard touchdown pass from QB Mac Jones on his first play from scrimmage in the first quarter.
- Picked off QB Colt McCoy's pass in the third quarter for his first NFL interception at Arizona (12/12).
- Continued as a three-phase threat, playing on defense, offense and special teams vs. Cincinnati (12/24). He started at cornerback and recorded a team-high 14 total tackles, returned an interception 69 yards for a touchdown, recovered a fumble at the Cincinnati 44-yard line in the fourth quarter, had one reception for 15 yards, returned two punts for 11 yards and returned three kicks for 65 yards.
- Returned to action at Buffalo (1/8) after missing the game vs. Miami (1/1) due to injury. Recorded six total tackles (5 solo, 1 assist). Returned three punts for 25 yards and four kickoffs for 82 yards.

SEASONAL REVIEWS

2024 (17/17 - TENNESSEE)

- Started all 17 games at linebacker, finishing with 71 tackles, the second-highest total of his career (42 solo, 29 assists), 9 sacks, 15 quarterback hits and 4 passes defensed.
- Had a season-high 2 sacks vs. the New York Jets (9/15), taking down QB Aaron Rodgers for a 5-yard loss in the second quarter and for a 7-yard loss in the third quarter to force a punt.
- Had a season-high 8 tackles at Indianapolis (12/22).

2023 (17/10 - TENNESSEE)

- Returned after missing the entire 2022 season because of injury and played in all 17 games with 10 starts at outside linebacker, finishing with 70 tackles, 10½ sacks and 21 quarterback hits. Became the Titans' first player since DE Kyle Vanden Bosch (2005 and 2007) with 10 or more sacks in multiple seasons. Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week after setting a career-high with three sacks at Miami (12/11/23).
- Played as a reserve at outside linebacker vs. Atlanta (10/29) and notched 5 tackles, including 2 sacks and 5 quarterback pressures. Forced the Falcons to settle for a field goal by dropping QB Desmond Ridder for a 3-yard loss on third-and-5 in the opening quarter. Sacked QB Taylor Heinicke for an 8-yard loss midway through the fourth quarter.
- Had a single-game career high 9 tackles at Tampa Bay (11/12). Added a sack for a 7-yard loss when he took down QB Baker Mayfield to force a punt in the fourth quarter.
- At Miami (12/11), named AFC Defensive Player of the Week after notching 5 tackles, including a career-best 3 sacks and 6 quarterback pressures. Recorded the team's first 3-sack performance in the regular season since DT Jeffery Simmons in 2021. Sealed the victory with a 3-yard sack of QB Tua Tagovailoa on fourth-and-2 with less than 30 seconds remaining in the contest.
- At Houston (12/31), recorded 5 tackles, including a sack, two other stops for loss and a team-best 3 quarterback pressures. His 3 tackles for loss tied his single-game career high. Sacked QB C.J. Stroud for a 12-yard loss in the final quarter.

2022 (0/0 - TENNESSEE)

- Placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2 after suffering an injury in the preseason.

2021 (17/17, 1/1 - TENNESSEE)

- Named to his first career Pro Bowl after starting all 17 regular season games. Finished with 75 tackles, a career-high and team-leading 12 sacks to rank 10th in the NFL, 22 quarterback hits and 1 forced fumble.
- Started in the Divisional Round vs. Cincinnati (1/22) and registered 6 tackles, including 1½ sacks and 5 quarterback pressures.
- Started at outside linebacker in his 50th career game and tallied 4 tackles, including a half sack and a career-high and team-best 12 quarterback pressures vs. Indianapolis (9/26). Combined with LB Ola Adeniyi to sack QB Carson Wentz for a 10-yard loss on third-and-10 late in the third quarter.
- Had 2 sacks at Jacksonville (10/10), taking down QB Trevor Lawrence for a 4-yard loss in the second quarter and a 13-yard loss to force a punt in the third quarter.
- Became Tennessee's first player since DE Kyle Vanden Bosch in 2005 with 2 or more sacks in consecutive games vs. Buffalo (10/18) after recording 2 sacks at Jacksonville the week prior (10/10). Halted a Bills drive by sacking QB Josh Allen for an 8-yard loss on third-and-10 in the first quarter. Dropped Allen for a 3-yard sack in the second quarter. Teamed with DT Naquan Jones to stuff Josh Allen for no gain on a rush up the middle in the third quarter.
- At Indianapolis (10/31), recorded 5 tackles, including a sack in his fifth consecutive contest. Added a forced fumble. Ended a Colts' drive by sacking QB Carson Wentz for a 7-yard loss on third-and-6 in the second quarter. His 8½ sacks were the most by a Titans/Oilers player in the first eight games of a season since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Tracked down a scrambling Wentz and forced a fumble that was recovered by the Colts late in the second quarter.
- Collected 5 tackles, including a sack and a quarterback pressure vs. New Orleans (11/14). Sacked QB Trevor Siemian for a 3-yard loss late in the second quarter. Registered his eighth consecutive game with at least a half sack, which extended the longest such streak of his career, joining DE Jevon Kearse (12 consecutive games from 1999 to 2000) as the franchise's only players to accomplish the feat since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.
- Posted 3 tackles, including a sack and 2 quarterback pressures in the shutout victory vs. Jacksonville (12/12). Halted the Jaguars' opening drive by dropping QB Trevor Lawrence for an 8-yard sack on third-and-11 in the first quarter. With 11 sacks in 2021, became the first Titans player with 11 sacks in a season since DE Jason Babin had 12½ sacks in his 2010 Pro Bowl campaign.
- Recorded 6 tackles, including 1½ sacks and 5 quarterback pressures vs. Cincinnati in the Divisional Round (1/22). With 4½ career postseason sacks in five games, he became Tennessee's first player with at least 4 career postseason sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Sacked QB Joe Burrow for an 8-yard loss in the first quarter and teamed with DT Kyle Peko to sack Burrow for a 7-yard loss in the fourth quarter.

2020 (16/16, 1/1 - TENNESSEE)

- Started all 16 games at outside linebacker and led the team with 5½ sacks and 32 quarterback pressures. Recorded 69 tackles, an interception and a career-high 5 passes defensed. #### 2024 (13/12)

- Played in 13 games with 12 starts after he became the starting quarterback in Week 6 vs. Houston (10/13). He served as the backup to QB Jacoby Brissett for the first five weeks of the season. Finished the year having completed 225-of-338 passes (66.6 percent) for 2,276 yards, 15 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. Added 54 rushing attempts for 421 yards and a 7.8-yard rushing average, the sixth-highest in a season by a quarterback with at least 50 rushing attempts.
- Named to the 2024 Pro Bowl.
- Saw first NFL action at the New York Jets (9/19), entering the game with 4:24 remaining in the fourth quarter.
- Made his first NFL start vs. Houston (10/13), finishing 20-of-33 for 243 yards and 3 touchdowns. Completed his first touchdown on a 40-yard pass to WR Kayshon Boutte in the second quarter, the longest pass for the Patriots since a 48-yard pass play from QB Bailey Zappe to RB Kevin Harris at Buffalo on Dec. 31, 2023, and the longest touchdown pass for New England since QB Mac Jones completed a 58-yard touchdown pass to TE Pharaoh Brown at the New York Jets on Sept. 24, 2023. The 40-yard touchdown pass on his first-career touchdown pass is the longest for a rookie Patriots quarterback on his first career touchdown pass since QB Drew Bledsoe's first career touchdown pass resulted in a 54-yard touchdown to TE Ben Coates on Sept. 5, 1993 vs. Buffalo. Became the fourth Patriots rookie quarterback to throw at least 3 touchdown passes in a single game, joining Drew Bledsoe, Jim Plunkett and Mac Jones. Became the 14th rookie quarterback in NFL history to throw for at least 3 touchdowns in his first-career start, joining M.C. Reynolds (3), Jacky Lee (3), Dan Marino (3), Kevin Sweeney (3), Ed Rubbert (3), Todd Marinovich (3), Tony Banks (3), John Stofa (4), Josh Freeman (3), Matt McGloin (3), Marcus Mariota (4), Trevor Lawrence (3) and Will Levis (4). Threw 3 touchdowns and led the team in rushing with 38 yards, becoming the first quarterback to lead his team in rushing and throw for at least 3 touchdown passes

VIDEO FEATURE

Click or scan on the QR Code to learn more about Drake's journey from being a homegrown North Carolina kid and the youngest of four elite athletes to being the third overall pick in the 2024 NFL Draft.

TOP OF THE ORDER

The Patriots used the third pick in the 2024 draft for the first time in team history and used the pick to select QB Drake Maye from North Carolina. It marked the fifth time since 1970 that the team drafted a quarterback in the first round - Jim Plunkett from Stanford (1st overall in 1971), Tony Eason from Illinois (15th overall in 1983), Drew Bledsoe from Washington State (1st overall in 1993), Mac Jones from Alabama (15th overall in 2021) and Drake Maye from North Carolina (3rd overall). Maye is the first Patriots drafted in the top 10 since 2008 when the team selected current head coach and former LB Jerod Mayo with the 10th pick overall out of Tennessee.

THE MAYE WAY

Maye, the youngest of four boys, hails from a family of athletes. His father, Mark, also played quarterback at the University of North Carolina from 1983-1988. His brother, Luke, played basketball at North Carolina (2015-19), winning a national title in 2017 with the Tar Heels. Luke now plays overseas in Japan. His brother, Cole, won a baseball national championship in 2017 with the University of Florida as a pitcher. His brother, Beau, also played basketball at the University of North Carolina. Despite the rich tradition of family athleticism, Drake Maye, measuring at 6'4, is the shortest of the four brothers (Luke at 6'8; Cole at 6'7; Beau at 6'8).

MAYE-KING HISTORY

Since 1950, Drake Maye and Dan Marino are the only quarterbacks with at least 500 passing yards and at least 5 touchdown passes in their first two starts. Maye threw for 243 yards and 3 touchdowns in his first career start vs. Houston (10/13) and 276 yards and 2 touchdowns last week at Jacksonville (10/20).

41-YARD QB RUN

QB Drake Maye had a 41-yard run in the first quarter vs. Indianapolis (12/1/24). The run is tied for the third-longest run by a Patriots quarterback, and it is the fifth time a Patriots quarterback had a 40-yard run in a game. It is the longest run by a Patriots quarterback since QB Cam Newton had a 49-yard run vs. the New York Jets on Jan. 3, 2021.

LONGEST RUNS BY A PATRIOTS QUARTERBACK

| Player | Game | Yards |
|---|---|---|

in his first-career start since at least 1950.

- Had 2 touchdowns against Jacksonville (10/20) in London to give him 5 touchdowns in his first two starts, the most passing touchdowns through two-career starts by a Patriots player. Jimmy Garoppolo (2016), Tom Ramsey (1987), and Tom Yewcic (1962) each had 4.
- Scored his first rushing touchdown with a 17-yard scoring run in the first quarter in the win vs. the New York Jets (10/27), the longest touchdown run by a Patriots QB since Bailey Zappe scored on a 17-yard touchdown run at Buffalo on Dec. 31, 2023. Finished the game with 3 rushing attempts for 46 yards with long runs of 17 yards and 18 yards before leaving the game in the second quarter due to injury.
- Had 95 yards rushing on 8 attempts at Tennessee (11/3), the third time in team history that a Patriots quarterback reached at least 90 yards rushing in a game and the third-most rushing yards by a Patriots QB in team history. Had a 26-yard run in the first quarter, the longest run by a Patriots QB since Cam Newton's 49-yard run vs. the New York Jets on Jan. 3, 2021, and added a 22-yard run in the third quarter. Maye is the only Patriots QB with two 20-yard runs in a single game since 1980. On third-and-5 with four seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, extended the play by 11.82 seconds, the second-longest time to throw on any touchdown pass since tracking began in 2016, to connect with RB Rhamondre Stevenson for a 5-yard touchdown pass to

MAYE CLIMBS THE RANKS

Maye finished the season with 54 rushing attempts for 421 yards for a 7.8-yard average, the sixth-highest in a season by a quarterback with at least 50 rushing attempts.

MAYE FINISHES WITH 95 YDS RUSHING

Maye finished the game at Tennessee (11/3/24) with 95 yards rushing. It is the fourth time in team history a New England quarterback reached at least 90 yards rushing in a game and the first time since Steve Grogan had 103 yards rushing vs. the New York Jets on Oct. 18, 1976. Maye's 95 yards are the third-most in team history. Maye had 8 rushing attempts for 95 yards for a 11.9-yard average.

| Babe Parilli | 9/11/65 | at Buffalo | 71 |

ROOKIE PRO BOWLER

Maye is the sixth Patriots player to be selected to the Pro Bowl as a rookie, joining Mike Haynes (1976), John Stephens (1988), Curtis Martin (1995), Devin McCourty (2010) and Mac Jones (2021).

force overtime.

- Set career-highs in completions and passing yards vs. the L.A. Rams (11/17), finishing 29-of-39 for 282 yards and 2 touchdowns.
- Recorded his 10th touchdown to a different receiver on a 38-yard touchdown pass to TE Austin Hooper in the fourth quarter at Miami (11/24), tying former Denver Broncos QB Steve Ramsey (1971-73) for the most consecutive touchdown to a different receiver to start a career.
- Was 24-of-30 for 238 yards for an 80.0 completion percentage and added 59 rushing yards vs. Indianapolis (12/1) en route to the team's most yards on offense (422) since it had 409 total yards on offense at Minnesota on Nov. 24, 2022. Had a 41-yard run in the first quarter, which is tied for the third-longest run by a Patriots quarterback. It is the fifth time a Patriots quarterback had a 40-yard run in a game, and it is the longest run by a Patriots quarterback since QB Cam Newton had a 49-yard run vs. the New York Jets on Jan. 3, 2021. Converted the third 2-point conversion of the season when he connected with WR Kayshon Boutte in the fourth quarter after an 11-yard touchdown run by RB Antonio Gibson.
- Had his second-straight game completing 80% of his passes after finishing 19-of-23 for 202 yards for a career-high 82.6 completion percentage at Arizona (12/15). The only other Patriots quarterback to ever have back-to-back games with an 80 percent completion percentage was QB Mac Jones in 2021 (11/14) at Cleveland with an 82.6 completion percentage and at Atlanta (11/18) with an 84.6 completion percentage.
- Threw a 36-yard touchdown to WR DeMario Douglas in the second quarter vs. the L.A. Chargers (12/28), extending his streak of throwing a touchdown pass to eight-straight games. Tied Jim Plunkett (1971) for the longest such streak by a rookie in franchise history. The NFL rookie record is 13-straight games with a touchdown pass by Peyton Manning in 1998 and Baker Mayfield in 2018 with Cleveland. Maye's streak is the longest for a rookie in the NFL since Justin Herbert had a 10-game streak in 2020. Has been responsible for 17 touchdowns (15 passing, 2 rushing) in his first 12 career games. The only Patriots player with more touchdowns in their first 12 games with the team was Butch Songin (21 in 1960), while Randy Moss (17 in 2007) and Jim Plunkett (17 in 1971) also had 17. The 36-yard touchdown pass to WR DeMario Douglas was his fourth touchdown pass of at least 30 yards and his second 30-yarder to Douglas. Maye's four touchdown passes of least 30 yards are the most by the team since Mac Jones had five such passes in 2022.
- Started the game vs. Buffalo (1/5/25), but left after the first series and was replaced by QB Joe Milton III.

COLLEGE

- Started 12 games for UNC in 2023, completing 269 of his 425 passes (63.3%) for 3,608 yards and 24 touchdowns with nine interceptions. Rushed 112 times for 449 yards and nine touchdowns.
- In 2022, became just the sixth QB since 2010 to post 4,000 pass yards, 35 pass TDs, 650 rush yards and seven rush TDs in a season, joining Kyler Murray (2018), DeShaun Watson (2015, '16), Marcus Mariota (2014), Johnny Manziel (2013) and Robert Griffin III (2011).
- Started all 14 games at quarterback in 2022, completing 342-of-517 passes (66.2%) for 4,321 yards and 38 TDs, while rushing for 698 yards and seven touchdowns. Became the fifth quarterback in ACC history with over 5,000 yards of total offense for a single season, finishing with 5,019 yards. Awarded ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year and First-Team All-ACC honors. Was a finalist for the Manning Award.

PERSONAL

- An early enrollee who is a four-star prospect listed as the nation's 57th-best player, the No. 6 pro-style quarterback and the No. 3 player in North Carolina in the 247Sports Composite.
- Tallied 6,713 yards and 86 TDs on 398-of-581 (68.5%) passing over his two prep seasons.
- Led Myers Park to a 12-1 record, a league title and a berth in the third round of the state playoffs.

HONORS & AWARDS

2023: AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Wk. 10)

FAMILY TIES

Spillane is the grandson of RB Johnny Lattner, the 1953 Heisman Trophy winner. Lattner secured the award in his senior season at Notre Dame, after he rushed for 651 yards (4.9-yard average) and 9 touchdowns, in addition to catching 14 passes for 204 yards. He had 2 touchdowns off of just 10 kickoff returns and saw some action on defense, recording 4 interceptions in the Irish's 9-0-1 campaign. Notre Dame finished second in the AP Poll in 1953 behind Maryland. Lattner played one season in the NFL with Pittsburgh after he was selected seventh overall in the 1954 NFL Draft. Spillane wears No. 14 to honor Lattner, who wore No. 14 at Notre Dame.

- Totaled 9 tackles (7 solo, 2 assists), 2 interceptions and 2 passes defensed in a 17-13 victory vs. Green Bay (10/9), notching his first game with multiple interceptions, becoming the first Raiders defender since 2020 (S Jeff Heath, 11/15/20) to record 2 interceptions in a single game. Also became the first Raiders linebacker to have 2 interceptions in a single game since 2001 (William Thomas, 12/15/01 at SD). The first interception came on a pass from QB Jordan Love intended for WR Romeo Doubs in the second quarter, which Spillane returned 24 yards to the Green Bay 7-yard line to help set up a 26-yard field goal by K Daniel Carlson. The second was on a pass by Love intended for WR Christian Watson in the fourth quarter, which he returned 4 yards to the Las Vegas 42-yard line.
- Recovered a fumble by RB Josh Reynolds that was forced by LB Luke Masterson in the first quarter at Detroit (10/30).
- Tied for the team lead with 7 total tackles (4 solo, 3 assists) and added 1 sack, 1 pass defensed and 1 interception (25 INT return yards), becoming the first Raiders defender since 2016 (Khalil Mack, 11/27/16 vs. CAR) to record 1.0-plus sack and 1-plus interception in a single game. The interception came on a pass from QB Zach Wilson intended for WR Allen Lazard in the fourth quarter to help seal the 16-12 victory. Earned Week 10 AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance.
- Tied for the team lead with 10 total tackles (7 solo, 3 assists) and added 1.0 sack, 2 tackles for loss and a quarterback hit vs. Minnesota (12/10), notching his fourth game with 10-plus tackles.
- Finished with a team-high 12 tackles (5 solo, 7 assists), registering his sixth game with 10-plus total tackles vs. Denver (1/7).

Follow Rhamondre Stevenson's journey to the NFL from not being eligible for a NCAA scholarship due to grades, to working at Walmart, to JUCO, then to being an honor roll student and standout running back at Oklahoma, to being drafted by the Patriots in the fourth round of the 2021 Draft.

EXTRA POINTS

- While in high school, RB Rhamondre Stevenson started gaining attention for the impressive stats he posted as a junior. Unfortunately, due to his grades, Stevenson was academically ineligible to receive a football scholarship despite being recruited. Following his senior year of high school, Stevenson took a year off from football working part-time jobs at Wal-Mart and Jimmy John's. But after a year away, he decided to follow a group of his friends and enroll in Cerritos Community College. During his time at Cerritos, he shared a two-bedroom apartment with up to six other guys at times and rode his bicycle 20 minutes to and from practice every day. After putting up monster stats in his second season at Cerriots, he committed to Oklahoma. Oklahoma led him to the 2021 NFL Draft where in the fourth round on the third day the Patriots selected Stevenson. In addition he worked on his academics and made the Dean's List while at Oklahoma.

Connected with QB Mac Jones on a short pass that resulted in a 41-yard gain to help set up the Patriots first score of the day when RB Damien Harris scored on a 3-yard touchdown run. Stevenson left the game in the fourth quarter due to injury and did not return.
- Made his first NFL career start vs. Cleveland (11/14). Recored his first 100-yard game and his first two-touchdown game. Stevenson finished with 100 yards on 20 carries for a 5.0-yard average. He scored on a 5-yard run in the second quarter and a 2-yard run in the third quarter.
- Ran for a game-high 69 yards at Atlanta (11/18) on 12 carries to go with one catch for 9 yards.
- Carried the ball a career-high 24 times at Buffalo (12/6) totaling 78 yards.
- Started at running back at Indianapolis (12/18), carrying the ball 10 times for 36 yards, with an additional 4 yards on 1 catch.
- Returned to action vs. Jacksonville (1/2), putting together his second 100-yard rushing game after finishing with 107 yards on 19 carries for a 5.6-yard average. He had his first 100-yard game vs. Cleveland on Nov. 14 with 100 yards on 20 carries. He also had his second two-touchdown game of his career after scoring on a 1-yard touchdown run in the third quarter and a 6-yard run in the fourth quarter for his second two-touchdown game of the season.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Cole Strange was drafted by the New England Patriots in the first round (29th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

SEASONAL REVIEWS

2024 (3/2)

- Limited to three games with two starts at center for the final two games, his first action at the position.
- Began the season on the Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform List due to an injury suffered in the 2023 season and was not activated to the 53-man roster until Dec. 10.
- Inactive at Arizona (12/15) after being activated to the 53-man roster and returned to action at Buffalo (12/22) for the first time in 2024. Saw his playing time on the extra point unit against the Bills.
- Made his first start of the season and his first NFL start at center due to an injury to C Ben Brown vs. the L.A. Chargers (12/28). All of his previous 27 starts were at left guard. Continued in that role vs. Buffalo (1/5).

2023 (10/10)

- Was slowed at the start of the year by an injury that he suffered in training camp that forced him to miss the entire preseason.
- Returned to action Week 2 vs. Miami (9/17).
- Played and started in 10 games, all at left guard. He was inactive for four games - vs. Philadelphia (9/10), at Dallas (10/1), vs. New Orleans (10/8) and at Las Vegas (10/15) - due to injury.
- Made his first start of the season vs. Miami (9/17) after missing the preseason and Week 1. In the final minutes of the fourth quarter, Strange caught a lateral from TE Mike Gesicki when the team was trying to convert a fourth-down

EXTRA POINTS

- Cole Strange is the first Patriots player to be drafted from Chattanooga since RB Mario Grier in 1996 in the sixth round. Grier played in 32 games for New England from 1996 through 1997.
- He is also the highest drafted player from Chattanooga, overtaking WR Terrell Owens, who was the 89th pick overall in the third round of the 1996 draft by San Francisco.
- Strange started wearing the vertical bar facemask his senior season at Chattanooga. The idea started when the veteran offensive line group, who had been together for four years, wanted to do something different to finish out their final season playing alongside each other. So they decided to all wear the same facemask and landed on the vertical bar. Strange brought the bar with him to the NFL and is one of only three NFL regulars to sport the vertical bar in their facemask.

- Started at left guard vs. Kansas City (12/17) but left in the second quarter due to injury.
- Placed on injured reserve on Dec. 18.

2022 (17/17)

- Served as the starting left guard for all 17 games of the 2022 regular season.
- Started in the season opener at Miami (9/11). He became the 25th Patriots rookie under Bill Belichick to start on opening day.

COLLEGE

- Five-year starter on the offensive line using the COVID-19 rule for a sixth year of eligibility in 2021.

Follow Jahlani's Journey from backyard football with his brothers, to dominating high school, to attending the University of Hawaii and now as a New England Patriots linebacker

EXTRA POINTS

- Patriots LB Jahlani Tavai comes from an athletic family: older brother, J.R., is a former Tennessee Titans linebacker and younger brothers Jonah and Justus played college football at San Diego State.
- Tavai starred in high school as a nose guard. He was undersized and did not attract the attention of many colleges. But after finding out one of the English teachers at his high school was the son of then-Hawaii coach Norm Chow, he reached out to the teacher, Cameron Chow, and asked if Cameron could tell his dad to scout his tape. Cameron followed up and passed along Jahlani's tape to his dad, and the very next day Jahlani had a scholarship offer. According to Jahlani, his football career would have been over after high school if it wasn't for this connection.

2023 (17/16)

- Tavai is the only NFL player within the last decade to play at least 70%of the snaps on offense or defense and 70% of the snaps on special teams, a feat he accomplished in 2023.
- Played in 17 games with 16 starts and recorded a career-high 107 tackles (63 solo, 44 assists), 1 sack for a loss of 9 yards, 2 interceptions, 4 quarterback hits, 5 tackles for loss, 2 forced fumbles, 5 passes defensed and 3 special teams tackles.
- Part of the 7th-ranked defense that finished fourth in the NFL against the run in 2023, allowing 93.2 yards rushing per game. It is the third lowest in team history since the 1970 merger.
- Compiled 10 or more tackles in two games :
  - Week 14 at Pittsburgh (14)
  - Week 17 at Buffalo (10)
- He became the first Patriots linebacker with at least two picks in a season since LB Jamie Collins Sr. had three interceptions in 2019.
- Recorded his first sack of the season on a third-down play in the third quarter at Dallas (10/1) to force the Cowboys to settle for a field goal.
- Intercepted a pass following a hit by S Jabrill Peppers to end a Raiders drive at the New England 14-yard line in the first quarter at Las Vegas (10/15). It was the second interception of Tavai's career.
- Recorded his first forced fumble vs. Washington (11/5) as a member of the Patriots when he forced a fumble after a short gain by RB Brian Robinson Jr. that was recovered by DL Davon Godchaux at the Washington 25-yard line. The turnover helped set up the Patriots first touchdown on a 14-yard pass from QB Mac Jones to TE Hunter Henry three plays later.
- Was a part of a defense vs. Los Angeles Chargers (11/3) that held them to just 29 yards on 24 carries for a 1.2-yard average. It is the fewest rushing yards allowed since holding Miami to 15 yards on Oct. 29, 2015.
- Set a career-high in total tackles with 14 total tackles at Pittsburgh (12/7).
- Registered his second interception of the season vs. Kansas City (12/17) when he picked off a QB Patrick Mahomes pass in the fourth quarter.
- Forced a fumble at Denver (12/24) after RB Javonte Williams caught a pass that was recovered by DL Jeremiah Pharms Jr. at the New England 39-yard line.

THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY RTX

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to bring the Patriots story to life. It's incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery has undergone renovations over the last three years and houses all six Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those titles. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

HISTORY OF THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME

The Patriots Hall of Fame was established in 1991 as a way to honor the greatest players in franchise history. A selection committee of media and staff was formed to select players for induction and appropriately, John Hannah was the first player enshrined. Eight additional players were inducted from 1992-95. Andre Tippett (1999) and Bruce Armstrong (2001) rounded out the Patriots Hall of Fame's first 11 members. In 2007, the Patriots introduced a new method of selecting players for the team's hall of fame in advance of the opening of The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX. Moving forward, one player will be enshrined in the Patriots Hall of Fame each year, with a nomination committee determining three finalists each spring and fans voting for the final choice through Patriots.com each spring.

SENIOR SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Patriots formed a senior selection committee to ensure that early era players are not overlooked in the voting process. The committee consists of veteran media and staff members who gather to discuss candidates who have been retired for at least 25 years to identify the player most deserving of Patriots Hall of Fame recognition.

Ty Law • CB • Michigan

Patriots Seasons (10): 1995-2004 • Pro Bowls (4)

Pro Football Hall of Fame 2019 • Patriots Hall of Fame 2014

Law spent 10 seasons with the Patriots (1995-2004) after joining the team as a first-round (23rd overall) draft pick out of Michigan in 1995 ... Law was a three-time Super Bowl Champion (XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXIX), a four-time Pro Bowl player (1998, 2001, 2002, 2003) and a two-time All-Pro (1998, 2003) during his tenure with the Patriots ... Law tied Raymond Clayborn's career franchise-record with 36 interceptions and finished with the most interception-return yards in team history with 583 ... His six interceptions returned for touchdowns are also a franchise best ... Law had nine interceptions in 1998 to become the first Patriots player to lead the NFL in that category ... He was a playmaker who played some of his best games in the postseason ... He helped lead the Patriots to their first Super Bowl title in 2001 when he intercepted a Kurt Warner pass against the Rams and returned it 47 yards for a touchdown for the first points of the game ... In the 2003 AFC Championship Game, Law intercepted three Peyton Manning passes while leading the Patriots to a 24-14 victory over the Indianapolis Colts ... Law was part of a record-breaking Patriots defense in 2003 that led the NFL in five key categories: opponents points per game (14.9), interceptions (29), fewest touchdown receptions allowed (11), opponent's passer rating (56.2) and pass deflections (121) as the team captured its second Super Bowl title in a win over the Carolina Panthers ... Law is a member of the NFL's all-decade team for the 2000s as well as the Patriots all-1990s and all-2000s decade teams. He was also selected to the Patriots 50th Anniversary Team.

Troy Brown • WR • Marshall

Patriots Seasons (15): 1993-2007 • Pro Bowls (1)
Patriots Hall of Fame 2012

Brown spent his entire 15-season NFL career with the Patriots (1993-2007) after being drafted by the team in the eighth round (198th overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft out of Marshall ... Brown retired in 2008 as the Patriots all-time leading receiver with 557 career receptions ... He is the team's all-time leading punt returner with 252 career returns and 2,625 punt return yards ... He places fifth in the team's record book with 6,366 career receiving yards and is tied for second in franchise history with three punt returns for touchdowns ... Brown played in 192 games, placing him eighth on the franchise's all-time games played list, and his 15 seasons with the franchise ties Julius Adams for the fourth-longest tenure in a Patriots uniform behind Steve Grogan and Matthew Slater (16) and Tom Brady's franchise-record 20 seasons ... Brown was a five-time co-captain for the club (2002-06) and earned Pro Bowl honors in 2001 ... In 2004, he added defense to his resume as he saw significant action in the defensive backfield and finished second on the team with three interceptions ... Brown's significant contributions in all three phases of the game – offense, defense and special teams – made him one of the most versatile and beloved players in the history of the Patriots franchise ... Brown was a key contributor to each of the Patriots first three Super Bowl victories ... In 2001, Brown led the team with 18 postseason receptions as New England won its first world championship in Super Bowl XXXVI ... In the championship game against the St. Louis Rams, Brown led the team with six receptions and 89 yards, including a key 23-yard grab on the game-winning drive ... Two years later, he tied for the team lead with 17 playoff receptions as the Patriots won Super Bowl XXXVIII over Carolina.

Tedy Bruschi • LB • Arizona

Patriots Seasons (13): 1996-2008 • Pro Bowls (1)
Patriots Hall of Fame 2013

Bruschi closed his 13-year career as one of the most productive Patriots players in the team's history ... As a team captain, Bruschi's relentless work ethic and on-field intensity helped set the tone for the entire team ... Bruschi was originally drafted by the Patriots in the third round of the 1996 NFL Draft ... Bruschi left the football field having played a major role in leading the Patriots to 11 winning records, including nine playoff seasons, eight division championships, five conference titles and three Super Bowl crowns ... In Bruschi's 211 career games (including regular season and playoffs), the Patriots had a 144-67 (.682) record, including a 16-6 (.727) playoff mark ... Bruschi earned his first Pro Bowl honor following the 2004 season after co-captaining a Patriots defense that allowed just 16.25 points per game, the sixth-fewest in franchise history ... Bruschi is the only player in NFL history to return four consecutive interceptions for touchdowns and his career total of four picks returned for scores ranks second in Patriots history ... He is tied for seventh in NFL history among linebackers, and Bruschi is the only Patriots linebacker to return multiple interceptions for scores in a single season (2002 and 2003) ... Beyond his impressive numbers, fans and his peers revered him for his accomplishments off the field and for his dedication to the New England area ... After Bruschi suffered a stroke in February 2005, he dedicated himself to raising funds and awareness to fight stroke along with the American Stroke Association ... He established "Tedy's Team," a vehicle to help battle stroke, the number one cause of disability in the United States.

Leon Gray • T • Jackson State

Patriots Seasons (6): 1973-78 • Pro Bowls (2)
Patriots Hall of Fame 2019

Gray was a third-round draft pick in 1973 by the Miami Dolphins as an offensive tackle out of Jackson State ... He was cut by Miami before the start of the season and claimed off waivers by New England ... By the 1976 season, he was viewed as arguably the best left tackle in the game ... He was a key member of an offensive line that allowed a franchise-low 14 sacks in 1977 ... Gray teamed with Patriots and Pro Football Hall of Famer John Hannah to form what is generally considered one of the best guard/tackle tandems in NFL history ... At the end of the 1976 season, Gray was selected to play in the Pro Bowl – the first of two such honors as a Patriot and the first of four trips to the Pro Bowl during his 11-year NFL career ... In 1976, Gray helped power a Patriots rushing game that averaged 210.6 yards per game (which remains a franchise record) and led the Patriots to their first 11-win season in franchise history... In 1978, Gray once again paved the way as the Patriots surpassed their season rushing record with 3,165 yards, an NFL record that stood for 41 seasons ... Gray was named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press, Pro Football Weekly and the PFWA ... He was also selected to the Pro Bowl for the second time ... After six seasons with the Patriots, Gray finished his career with Houston (1979-81) and New Orleans (1982-83) ... Sadly, Gray died in November of 2001 at the age of 49.

Steve Grogan • QB • Kansas State

Patriots Seasons (16): 1975-90
Patriots Hall of Fame 1995

Grogan spent 16 seasons with the Patriots from 1975-90, a franchise record until surpassed by Tom Brady, who spent 20 seasons in a Patriots uniform ... Finished his career as the Patriots all-time career passing leader with 26,886 yards ... Held a franchise record until 2007 with 182 career touchdown passes ... Rushed for 2,164 yards (4.9 avg.) ... His 35 rushing touchdowns rank fourth in team history ... Tied for seventh in franchise history with 12 rushing scores in a season (1976) ... Held a Patriots single-game record until 2007 with a 153.9 passer rating, achieved by completing 13-of-18 passes for 315 yards with five touchdowns and no interceptions vs. N.Y. Jets (9/9/79) ... Named to the Patriots 35th Anniversary Team in 1994.

Rodney Harrison • S • Western Illinois

Patriots Seasons (6): 2003-08 • Pro Bowls (2)
Patriots Hall of Fame 2019

Harrison played the final six seasons of his 15-year NFL career with the Patriots after spending his first nine seasons with the San Diego Chargers ... He played a key role in helping the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles in his first two seasons with New England in 2003 and 2004 ... Harrison came up big on the biggest stage, with seven interceptions in nine postseason games with the Patriots, including two in Super Bowl XXXIX ... His seven postseason interceptions are tied for the third-most in NFL postseason history, and his four picks in the 2004 playoffs are tied for the third-most in a single postseason ... Harrison had a knack for coming up with interceptions at crucial times. In the 2004 regular season and playoffs, five of his six interceptions came inside the opponent's 20-yard line with four of those picks coming inside the 4-yard line and two of them coming in the end zone ... His only 2004 interception that did not come inside the 20-yard line was a fourth-quarter interception in Super Bowl XXXIX that ended Philadelphia's last drive to clinch the championship ... In his first two seasons in New England, Harrison was not only the Patriots leading tackler each year, but he also led all NFL defensive backs in tackles both seasons ... He set a career-high with 140 tackles in 2003, followed by a 138-tackle performance in 2004 ... Additionally, he was the leading tackler in the 2003 and 2004 postseasons, while also recording two sacks, six interceptions, seven passes defensed and two forced fumbles in the six games leading to New England's back-to-back Super Bowl championships ... He is the all-time leader in sacks by a defensive back with 30½, including nine during his time with the Patriots ... He is the only defensive back in NFL history with 30 sacks and 30 interceptions, with eight of those picks coming during his Patriots career ... Harrison was voted a team captain in each of his six seasons with the Patriots.

CONTRIBUTORS

Bill Parcells • Head Coach

Patriots Hall of Fame 2025

Bill Parcells was the head coach of the New England Patriots for four seasons (1993-96) and led the team to two playoff berths. After inheriting a team that had finished 14-50 in the previous four years, including an NFL worst 2-14 season in 1992, he brought the clout of a two-time Super Bowl Champion to the Patriots sidelines, infusing instant credibility in 1993. He finished his Patriots career with a 34-34 record, including 2-2 in the playoffs. In 1994, a season-ending seven-game win streak allowed the Patriots to clinch their first playoff berth in eight years. The performance earned Parcells NFL Coach of the Year honors. After finishing 6-10 in 1995, the Patriots rebounded with an 11-win season in 1996, tying the then franchise record for wins and earning their first division title in 10 years. After a convincing, 28-3, victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers in the divisional playoff game in foggy Foxborough, the Patriots hosted their first AFC Championship game and defeated the Jacksonville Jaguars, 20-6, to earn a trip to the Super Bowl for just the second time in franchise history. On Feb. 2, 2013, Parcells was voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He is the only coach in NFL history ever to lead four different teams to the playoffs and three different teams to a conference championship game. He is a member of the Patriots 1990s All-Decade Team.

Gil Santos • Radio Broadcaster

Patriots Hall of Fame 2013

During a pregame ceremony to honor Gil Santos and Gino Cappelletti prior to the 2012 regular season finale, Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft announced that Santos, the legendary Voice of the New England Patriots, would be a 2013 inductee into the Patriots Hall of Fame ... Santos, who valiantly overcame life-threatening health complications early in 2012 to return to the broadcast booth, announced his intention to retire after the 2012 season ... For 36 seasons, spanning five decades, he earned the moniker "Voice of the New England Patriots." ... In 36 seasons, he missed just one game, a preseason game in 1971 ... Santos called the action for 745 career Patriots games ... Santos began calling games for the Boston Patriots at Fenway Park in 1966 ... For the first five seasons, he provided color analysis alongside veteran play-by-play man Bob Starr ... When the team moved to Foxborough in 1971, Santos moved into his role as play-by-play voice of the Patriots (1971-79) ... WBZ lost the Patriots radio rights in the 1980s, but got them back in 1991 and returned Santos to his natural position as Voice of the New England Patriots, a position he held for 22 seasons.

Dante Scarnecchia • Assistant Coach

Patriots Hall of Fame 2023

Dante Scarnecchia was announced as a Hall of Fame contributor by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft at the annual Hall of Fame nomination committee meeting on April 6, 2023 ... Scarnecchia spent 36 years in the NFL, including 34 seasons with the Patriots (1982-88, 1991-2013, 2016-19) ... He joined the Patriots in 1982, leaving in 1989 to coach the Indianapolis Colts, before returning to the Patriots two years later ... He remained with the team until retiring following the 2013 season ... He was rehired as the offensive line coach in 2016 before retiring for the second time after the 2019 season ... Scarnecchia was the longest tenured NFL coach when he retired for the second time following the 2019 season ... Scarnecchia was on the Patriots coaching staff for 22 of the franchise's 28 playoff seasons and coached in 48 of the 59 playoff games in team history, including 10 Super Bowls and five Super Bowl titles ... Scarnecchia coached the offensive line for 19 seasons for the Patriots, a position he coached for 32 of his 48 seasons in the coaching profession ... When Bill Belichick was named the Patriots head coach in 2000, he made Scarnecchia his assistant head coach/offensive line coach, positions he held for 14 seasons before retiring after the 2013 season and then served as offensive line coach upon his return in 2016 through the 2019 season.

HISTORICAL TIMELINE: 1982-86

1982

Jan. 15 Ron Meyer, head coach at Southern Methodist University from 1976-81, is named the eighth head coach in club history.

Dec. 12 The Patriots defeat the Miami Dolphins, 3-0, in the "Snow Plow Game." Mark Henderson used a snow plow to clear a kicking surface on the Schaefer Stadium turf for John Smith. Smith then connected on a 33-yard field goal which would be the only scoring of the game.

1983

Jan. 8 In their first playoff appearance since 1978, the Patriots lose to the eventual AFC Champion Miami Dolphins at the Orange Bowl, 28-13.

Feb. 16 General manager Bucko Kilroy is promoted to Vice President and Patrick Sullivan, assistant general manager for four years, is named general manager.

May 23 Schaefer Stadium is renamed Sullivan Stadium in honor of the founder and driving force behind the Patriots franchise, William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr.

June 29 Sullivan Stadium is officially re-dedicated and the Boston Pops perform a concert in the stadium that is free to the public.

1984

June 1 The Patriots organize a fan advisory board, a group of season ticket holders who will help advise the Patriots on how to make Sullivan Stadium a more exciting and more pleasant place to bring a family to watch an NFL game.

June 5 In the first-ever NFL Supplemental Draft, the Patriots select slotback Ricky Sanders of the Houston Gamblers, running back Eric Jordan of the Oakland Invaders and quarterback Walter Lewis of the Memphis Showboats of the USFL.

Oct. 25 Hall of Fame receiver Raymond Berry is named the head coach of the Patriots, replacing Ron Meyer. Berry, a former Patriots assistant coach, becomes the team's ninth head coach.

1985

Oct. 13 Raymond Clayborn establishes a new team record for consecutive starts by starting his 111th straight game. Ray Hamilton had the old mark of 110 (set Sept. 16, 1973 to Oct. 26, 1980). Clayborn celebrated the record-setting day by scoring his first professional touchdown on a 27-yard interception return vs. Buffalo.

Patriots head coach Raymond Berry was carried off the field by his players after the Patriots defeated the Miami Dolphins, 31-14, in the 1985 AFC Championship Game, advancing to Super Bowl XX.

Dec. 28 The Patriots defeated the New York Jets, 26-14, at The Meadowlands (East Rutherford, N.J.) in the AFC wild-card game. With the victory, the Patriots won their first NFL playoff game (the Patriots were 0-3 in the NFL playoffs prior to the game).

1986

Jan. 12 The Patriots defeated the Miami Dolphins, 31-14, to claim their first AFC Championship in team history. In doing so, the Patriots ended an 18-game losing streak at the Orange Bowl that began in 1967. Raymond Berry became the first Patriots head coach to lead his team to the Super Bowl.

Jan. 26 The Patriots reach the Super Bowl for the first time in team history, playing the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XX in the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans. The Bears won the game, 46-10.

1986 (CONT.)

Jan. 27 Defensive end Julius Adams retires after 15 years (all with the Patriots). He was the oldest active defensive lineman in the league at age 37 when he retired, and held the team record until 2000 with 210 games played.

June 12 Coach Raymond Berry, who led the Patriots to the AFC Championship and Super Bowl XX in his first full season as the team's head coach, signs new five-year contract.

June 30 John Hannah, who was selected to the Pro Bowl a then-team record nine times, announces his retirement. He retires after starting 183 games, a team record until 1999.

Sept. 7 1985 AFC Championship banner is raised at Sullivan Stadium in pregame ceremony prior to the season opener vs. Indianapolis. The banner is 10 feet wide and 15 feet long. Mr. William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr. is joined by the governors from each of the New England states.

Sept. 21 QB Tony Eason throws for a then team-record 414 yards. The Patriots lose to Seattle, 38-31, in the game played in Foxboro. Eason was 26-of-45 with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

Dec. 7 WR Stanley Morgan establishes a new team record for catches in one season with his 67th catch (had five catches on the day). Morgan, who finished the season with 84 catches, broke Derrick Ramsey's previous mark of 66 catches, set in 1984.

Dec. 31 NEP Partners purchase a three-year option to buy the Patriots.

1987

Nov. 29 Cornerback Raymond Clayborn ends his consecutive games played streak at 161. Clayborn broke Gino Cappelletti's record of 152 consecutive games played and Ray Hamilton's record 110 consecutive starts.

1988

July 28 Victor K. Kiam II, the owner and chief executive officer of Remington Products, Inc. of Bridgeport, Conn., agrees to purchase the team from William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr.

Oct. 28 Victor K. Kiam II becomes majority owner and chairman of the Patriots. Francis W. Murray, the minority owner, is the vice chairman. William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr., the founder and previous owner, remains as the team's president. The Kiam, Murray and Sullivan team is known as KMS Limited.

Nov. 23 K-Korp, a company co-owned by Robert Kraft, purchases Sullivan Stadium.

Dec. 4 Veteran wide receiver Stanley Morgan catches his 500th career reception vs. Seattle.

1989

Jan.6 Running back John Stephens is named the Old Spice/NFL Rookie of the Year.

1990

Sullivan Stadium is renamed Foxboro Stadium.

Feb.27 Rod Rust is named the head coach of the Patriots, replacing Raymond Berry (who was relieved of his duties on Feb. 26). Rust, a former Patriots defensive coordinator, becomes the team's 10th head coach.

Mar. 14 Former Patriots offensive guard John Hannah and cornerback Mike Haynes are selected to the National Football League's All-1980s team, while current linebacker Andre Tippett earned second-team honors.

Dec. 20 Sam Jankovich, the University of Miami's Athletic Director from 1982-90, is named the chief executive officer of the Patriots.

1991

Jan. 7 Dick MacPherson is named head coach of the Patriots, replacing Rod Rust (who was relieved of his duties on Jan. 4). MacPherson, the head coach at Syracuse for 10 seasons, becomes the team's 11th head coach.

May 3 The installation of a natural grass playing surface at Foxboro Stadium is completed.

July 27 Former Patriots offensive guard John Hannah is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

1992

May 11 James B. Orthwein purchases the controlling interest of the Patriots from Victor K. Kiam II. Orthwein becomes Chairman of the Board of the club, while Francis W. Murray, the club's minority owner, becomes President. Sam Jankovich remains the CEO.

Aug. Gino Cappelletti and Nick Buoniconti are inducted into the Patriots Hall of Fame.

1993

Jan.9 Sam Jankovich, the Patriots chief executive officer for the past two seasons, resigns.

RB LeGarrette Blount tied a team playoff record with 166 rushing yards and set a franchise record with four touchdowns (regular season or playoffs).

Jan.19 The Patriots lose the AFC Championship Game in Denver, 26-16, marking the team's third straight appearance in the conference title game and its second consecutive defeat.

May 19 Ty Law is elected to the Patriots Hall of Fame by fan voting on Patriots.com.

Oct. 5 Tom Brady becomes the sixth quarterback in NFL history to reach 50,000 passing yards in a win vs. Cincinnati.

Nov. 2 WR Julian Edelman set a franchise record with his fourth career punt return touchdown when he returned a punt 84 yards for a touchdown in a win vs. Denver. Tom Brady passes John Elway into fifth place on the NFL's all-time passing yards list.

Nov. 16 RB Jonas Gray amasses 201 yards rushing on 37 attempts and four rushing touchdowns in a win at Indianapolis. Gray set a new team record with four rushing touchdowns and tied the team record for most overall touchdowns in a single game. He became the first Patriots player to rush for 100 yards in each half of a game, the first player in NFL history to score his first four career rushing touchdowns in a game since 1921 and tied a single-game NFL record with 15 rushing first downs.

Dec. 14 The Patriots clinch an AFC East record sixth consecutive division title and qualify for the playoffs for the 22nd time in team history in the win vs. Miami. It is the 16th time in 22 seasons under Robert Kraft ownership that New England has qualified for the playoffs. Bill Belichick passes Don Shula with his 12th division championship, most for a head coach since the 1970 merger.

Dec. 21 The victory at N.Y. Jets is the 250th under Robert Kraft in 368 games, tying George Halas for the fastest an owner has reached 250 wins.

Dec. 23 Seven Patriots are selected to the Pro Bowl: Tom Brady, Julian Edelman, Stephen Gostkowski, Rob Gronkowski, Devin McCourty, Darrelle Revis and Matthew Slater.

Dec. 28 New England finished the 2014 regular season with a 12-4 record and the top seed in the AFC playoffs. The Patriots have earned the number one seed five times (2014, 2011, 2010, 2007, and 2003). New England's 12 wins mark the ninth time in franchise history that the Patriots have recorded 12 or more victories in the regular season, and it is the ninth time in the last 12 years that the Patriots have had at least 12 regular season wins. The Patriots have had at least 12 wins in five straight seasons dating back to 2010. The Patriots finished with a 12-4 regular season record for the third straight year.

2015

Jan. 10 The Patriots defeat Baltimore, 35-31, in an AFC Divisional Playoff after twice facing 14-point deficits in the game (14-0 and 28-14), becoming the first team in NFL postseason history to achieve the feat. The 14-point comeback was the largest in the team's postseason history, topping the 11-point comeback in a 24-21 win at San Diego on Jan. 14, 2007. Bill Belichick passed Tom Landry for most playoff wins with 20 and Tom Brady set a new playoff record with his 46th career postseason touchdown pass.

Jan. 18 The Patriots capture their record-tying eighth Super Bowl berth in franchise history with a 45-7 win over Indianapolis in the AFC Championship Game at Gillette Stadium. The seven Super Bowl appearances since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994 are most in the NFL over that span and Kraft is the first owner to have his team in seven Super Bowl.

Feb. 1 The New England Patriots win their fourth Super Bowl in franchise history in a dramatic, 28-24 victory over the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XLIX in Glendale, Ariz. Bill Belichick matches Chuck Knoll with his fourth Super Bowl victory and Tom Brady ties Joe Montana and Terry Bradshaw for most Super Bowl wins. Brady also matches Montana with his third Super Bowl MVP award while completing a Super Bowl record 37 passes while leading his team back from a 10-point deficit in the fourth quarter, the greatest fourth-quarter comeback in Super Bowl history. He threw at least three touchdown passes in all three playoff games and now owns the NFL record for touchdown passes in the postseason (53) and the Super Bowl (13).Undrafted rookie CB Malcolm Butler intercepted a Seahawks pass at the Patriots goal line with 20 seconds remaining to seal the victory for New England.

Feb. 4 More than a million fans line the streets of Boston as the Patriots take part in a rolling rally through the city.

PATRIOTS OVERTIME GAMES

The Patriots are 22-27 all-time in regular-season and postseason overtime games during their 65-year history. New England set an NFL record with an eight-game overtime winning streak (including playoffs) from 2000-03. The Patriots are 16-21 when the game is decided by a field goal and 6-6 when a touchdown is the deciding factor. Below is a brief description of each overtime game.

REGULAR SEASON (19-27)

09/26/77 ..... at Cleveland 30, Patriots 27 ..... L
John Smith sent the game into overtime with a 28-yard field goal with no time remaining in regulation. Cleveland's Don Cockroft capped a 10-play, 53-yard drive with a 35-yard game-winning field goal after 4:45 of overtime.

09/03/79 ..... Pittsburgh 16, at Patriots 13 ..... L
Pittsburgh's Matt Bahr drilled a 41-yard field goal to give the Steelers the victory at the 5:10 mark in overtime. The clutch field goal came on Bahr's first professional career attempt.

11/25/79 ..... Buffalo 16, at Patriots 13 ..... L

PATRIOTS OVERTIME GAMES

11/23/03 ..... Patriots 23, at Houston 20 ..... W
The Patriots set the all-time NFL mark with their eighth consecutive overtime victory in a nail-biter in the Lone Star State. The Texans took a 20-13 lead into the final minute of the game, but Tom Brady found Daniel Graham for a four-yard touchdown strike to tie the game at 20 with just 40 seconds left in regulation. The extra frame was a possession battle until the Patriots mounted a 76-yard drive in the final minutes of overtime, ending in a 28-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri with 45 seconds left.

11/13/08..... N.Y. Jets 34, at Patriots 31..... L
The Patriots had their NFL-record eight-game overtime winning streak snapped in a loss to the Jets at Gillette Stadium. New England rallied from a 24-6 second-quarter deficit to tie the game at 24-24 early in the fourth quarter. N.Y. held a 31-24 lead into the final minute, but Randy Moss made a memorable tiptoe catch on a pass from Matt Cassel along the side of the end zone for a 16-yard touchdown with one second left to force overtime. But, N.Y. won the coin toss and marched 64 yards on 14 plays to set up a game-winning 34-yard field goal by Jay Feely.

10/11/09 ..... at Denver 20, Patriots 17 ..... L
The Patriots failed to hold onto a 17-7 halftime lead in a 20-17 overtime loss to Denver. QB Tom Brady was limited to five completions for 63 yards in the second half. New England entered the final quarter with a 17-10 lead, but Denver marched 98 yards in 12 plays before QB Kyle Orton completed an 11-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Marshall to tie the game at 17 with 5:21 remaining in regulation. With under two minutes remaining, New England moved to the Denver 49-yard line before DE Vonnie Holliday forced a fumble on a Brady sack to end the Patriots scoring threat. Denver took the overtime kickoff and moved 58 yards in 11 plays to set up a 41-yard game-winning field goal.

10/17/10..... at Patriots 23, Baltimore 20 ..... W
Kicker Stephen Gostkowski drilled a 35-yard field goal in overtime to give New England a 23-20 victory over the Baltimore Ravens at Gillette Stadium. Tom Brady, who finished the game 27-of-44 for 292 yards, completed 16-of-24 passes for 156 yards with one touchdown during a fourth quarter rally as New England scored the final 13 points to get the win and overcome a 20-10 fourth quarter deficit.

10/21/12..... at Patriots 29, N.Y. Jets 26 ..... W
The Patriots squandered a 10-point fourth-quarter lead but came through in the clutch when Rob Ninkovich and Jermaine Cunningham combined for a strip-sack of Jets QB Mark Sanchez in overtime as the Patriots defense was able to seal the victory following a Stephen Gostkowski field goal in the Patriots opening drive of the extra session. Tom Brady led two clutch drives - one late in the fourth quarter and the other in overtime and Gostkowski drilled two field goals - a 43-yarder as time expired in regulation and the 48-yarder in the first overtime drive.

10/20/13 ..... Patriots 27, at N.Y. Jets 30 ..... L
The Patriots 11-point halftime lead evaporated on the second play of the second half when Tom Brady threw an interception to Jets S Antonio Allen, who returned the pick for a 23-yard touchdown. New England netted -5 yards on offense in the third quarter while the Jets scored 17 points in the frame to take a 27-21 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Patriots managed to tie the score on the final drive of regulation when Stephen Gostkowski drilled a 44-yard field goal with :19 left on the clock. The Patriots won the overtime coin toss but only managed one first down and were forced to punt. New York then engineered a 14-play, 56-yard drive that included a 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the Patriots and Jets K Nick Folk hit a 42-yard field goal to win the game and end a five-game losing streak to New England.

11/24/13..... at Patriots 34, Denver 31..... W
New England fumbled on its first three offensive possessions of a cold, windy November game and entered the locker room down 24-0 at halftime. The Patriots came back in the second half and scored on five straight possessions to take a 31-24 lead in the fourth quarter. Peyton Manning then led Denver on a 10-play, 79 yard touchdown drive to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. The Patriots won the overtime coin toss and took the wind, giving the Broncos the first possession in the extra frame. The two teams traded possessions until a high-arching Patriots punt by Ryan Allen was muffed by Denver and recovered by New England deep in Broncos territory. Stephen Gostkowski drilled a 31-yard field goal to cap the greatest comeback in franchise history.

11/29/15..... at Denver 30, Patriots 24 ..... L
The Denver Broncos overcame a 21-7 fourth-quarter deficit to win, 30-24, in overtime and hand the visiting Patriots their first loss of the season. Facing a late 21-17 fourth-quarter deficit, Denver QB Brock Osweiler led the Broncos on a 5-play, 83 yard drive capped off by a 4-yard touchdown strike to WR Andre Caldwell that gave the Broncos their first lead of the night at 24-21 with 1:09 left to play. Not to be outdone, Tom Brady then led New England 51 yards down the field into Denver territory, completing three of his four passes, before Stephen Gostkowski connected on a game-tying 47-yard field goal as time expired. The Patriots won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive but were stopped on three straight plays. On Denver's second play from scrimmage, RB C.J. Anderson scampered 48 yards to the end zone giving Denver a dramatic victory in the snowy conditions at Mile High.

12/27/15 ..... at N.Y. Jets 26, Patriots 20 ..... L
Tom Brady rallied the Patriots from a 17-3 deficit to tie the game at 20 with under two minutes to play in regulation on a 9-yard touchdown pass to RB James White. The 11-play, 66 yard drive was highlighted by two critical fourth-down conversions to TE Rob Gronkowski, the second being a 26-yard completion on fourth-and-9 that put New England at the Jets 9-yard line. Brady hit White for the game-tying score on the very next play. After winning the coin toss the Patriots elected to kick, which resulted in a 5-play, 80 yard drive capped off by a 6-yard touchdown reception from WR Eric Decker that gave New York the victory.

After falling behind following an interception that was returned for a touchdown, Mac Jones connected with WR Kendrick Bourne on a 75-yard touchdown pass to move in front, 29-26, with just over two minutes in regulation. Dallas converted a third-and-25 situation to get into field goal range to send the game into overtime. After stopping New England on the opening drive,Dallas scored on its first offensive drive to secure the win.

10/02/22 ..... at Green Bay 27, Patriots 24..... L
The Packers survived a tougher-than-expected game at Lambeau Field, beating the Patriots 27-24 on a K Mason Crosby walk-off 31-yard field goal on the final play of overtime. Entering the game without Mac Jones (out with an ankle injury), New England was quickly forced to play third-string quarterback Bailey Zappe when backup Brian Hoyer exited with a head injury during the first quarter. Zappe took over the rest of the way, finishing 10-of-15 for 99 yards with a 25-yard touchdown in the third quarter to WR DeVante Parker. QB Aaron Rodgers threw a pick-six that rookie DB Jack Jones returned 40 yards to give the Patriots a 10-3 halftime lead.

09/15/24 ..... Seattle 23, at Patriots 20 ..... L
Seattle K Jason Myers hit a 31-yard field goal in overtime to lift Seattle to a 23-20 win over the Patriots. Myers ensured the game went into overtime with a 38-yard field goal with less than a minute left in regulation. Seattle QB Geno Smith led an 8-play, 71-yard drive to the New England 13-yard line to set up the winning score. Seattle kept their hopes for a win alive late in the game with blocked 48-yard field goal that would have out the Patriots up six with 3:59 left in regulation.

11/03/24 ..... at Tennessee 20, Patriots 17..... L
K Nick Folk kicked a 25-yard field goal with 2:32 left in overtime and the Titans beat New England, 20-17. New England had a final chance after QB Drake Maye forced overtime with a 5-yard touchdown pass to RB Rhamondre Stevens. But S Amani Hooker's second interception of the game clinched the victory with 2:07 left to play. Marcus Jones returned a punt to midfield with 1:45 to play in regulation and Maye drove the Patriots to the 5-yard line and connected with Stevenson on a play that took 11.82 and then elected for an extra point to tie the game and head to overtime.

POSTSEASON (3-0)

01/19/02..... at Patriots 16, Oakland 13*..... W
Adam Vinatieri boomed a 45-yard field goal with 27 seconds remaining in regulation to tie the game up at 13 and send it into overtime. The game time temperature dipped to 25 degrees and the field was covered by five inches of snow that didn't let up until the game was over. In overtime, the Patriots drove 61 yards on 15 plays and Vinatieri nailed a 23-yard field goal for the 16-13 victory. The Patriots became just the second team in postseason overtime history (16 games) to win the contest on the opening drive of the extra stanza.
-AFC Divisional Playoff Game

02/05/17..... Patriots 34, Atlanta 28*..... W
James White's 2-yard touchdown run in overtime sealed a victory and capped off the greatest comeback in Super Bowl history as the Patriots erased a 25-point third quarter deficit. Down 21-3 the Patriots didn't do much to help their cause early in the second half as Atlanta added to their lead on a 6-yard touchdown reception from Matt Ryan to Tevin Coleman to make the score 28-3. From there it was all Patriots, with the key turning point in the game being a fourth quarter strip sack by Dont'a Hightower that gave the Patriots possession deep in Atlanta territory down 28-12 with under nine minutes left to play. A 6-yard Danny Amendola touchdown reception along with a James White 2-point conversion made the score 28-20. After Atlanta's ensuing drive stalled deep in New England territory, Tom Brady led a 10-play, 91-yard drive that ended with a 1-yard James White touchdown run and a second successful 2-point conversion to tie the score at 28-28. After winning the overtime coin toss, Tom Brady orchestrated an 8-play, 75-yard drive that ended in James White's winning 2-yard touchdown run that captured the Patriots fifth Super Bowl title.
-Super Bowl LI

01/20/19..... Patriots 37, at Kansas City 31*..... W
Rex Burkhead's 2-yard touchdown run in overtime sent the Patriots to their third straight Super Bowl and clinched a 37-31 AFC Championship victory over the Kansas City Chiefs on a frigid night at Arrowhead Stadium. The Patriots opened up a 14-0 halftime lead in which they dominated the time of possession and held a high-powered Chiefs offense to just 32 total yards of offense. Both teams would trade scores throughout the second half with Kansas City roaring back to take two fourth-quarter leads, the last coming on a 2-yard touchdown run by Damien Williams with 2:03 left to play that put Kansas City ahead, 28-24. Tom Brady then led a 6-play, 65-yard drive capped off by a 4-yard touchdown run by Rex Burkhead to retake the lead briefly before Chiefs kicker Harrison Butker tied the game at 31 at the end of regulation. After winning the overtime coin toss, Brady led a methodical 13-play, 75-yard drive, highlighted by three third-down conversions that culminated in Burkhead's 2-yard game-winning score to send New England on to Super Bowl LIII.

PATRIOTS PLAYOFF RESULTS

ALL-TIME PLAYOFF RESULTS

The Patriots have played in 59 playoff games during their 65-year history, compiling an overall playoff record of 37-22. The Patriots won an NFL-record 10 consecutive playoff games from the 2001 season to the 2005 season. Since Robert Kraft purchased the Patriots in 1994, the team is 33-16 in the playoffs, and its 33 playoff victories are the most in the NFL over that span. Neutral site Super Bowls

GAME NOTES

- This was the first of 10 championship games involving the Patriots. (also Super Bowls XX, XXXI, XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXIX, XLII, XLVI, XLIX and LI).
- The 610 yards yielded by the Patriots defense still ranks as the highest total ever given up by the Patriots.
- The Patriots committed only one penalty versus the Chargers. It is the lowest single game total in team playoff history (tied with Dec. 28, 1985 at N.Y. Jets).

GAME NOTES

- The Patriots completed the biggest comeback in team history when they overcame a 25-point deficit to beat Atlanta, 34-28, in overtime in Super Bowl LI. The Patriots trailed 28-3 with 8:36 to play in the third quarter before scoring 31 points on five of their final six offensive drives to claim the win.
- Bill Belichick won his fifth Super Bowl in 2016 to give him the most Super Bowl wins by any head coach in NFL history.
- Brady set three Super Bowl records against Atlanta in Super Bowl LI: Most passes in a game (62), Most completions (43) and most passing yards (466).
- With the win in Super Bowl LI and another MVP Award, Brady now has the most Super Bowl wins as a quarterback and most Super Bowl MVP awards.

GAME NOTES

- The Patriots set a Super Bowl record with 613 total yards, with 500 net yards passing and 113 yards on the ground.
- The Patriots became the first team to have three receivers with 100-plus yards in the Super Bowl with Danny Amendola (152), Chris Hogan (128) and Rob Gronkowski (116).
- Tom Brady broke his own Super Bowl record for passing yards with 505 yards following his 466-yard performance the year before in Super Bowl LI vs. Atlanta. His 505 passing yards are also the most ever in a postseason game and is the first 500-yard passing game in NFL postseason history.
- Rob Gronkowski's 116 receiving yards are the most ever by a tight end in a Super Bowl and his nine catches gave him 68 career postseason receptions, surpassing Dallas Clark (64) for the most receptions by a tight end in NFL postseason history.

GAME NOTES

- The Patriots victory in Super Bowl LIII is their sixth Super Bowl win, tying the Pittsburgh Steelers for the most Super Bowl victories.
- With the victory in Super Bowl LII, Bill Belichick joined George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only coaches with six championships.
- Tom Brady has now won six Super Bowls, breaking a tie with Hall of Fame DL Charles Haley (5) as the only NFL player to play on six Super Bowl winning teams. Haley won two with San Francisco and three with Dallas.
- Julian Edelman was named Super Bowl MVP after finishing with 10 receptions for 141 yards. He became the seventh wide receiver to win Super Bowl MVP honors and the second Patriots wide receiver to win the award. Deion Branch was named MVP for his performance in Super Bowl XXXIX.

Twelve seasons, three Super Bowl championships: it's been a great ride for Bob Socci as the radio voice of the Patriots. Socci returns for his 13th season in the booth as play-by-play broadcaster on 98.5 The Sports Hub and its 33-station network. He has won rave reviews for his enthusiasm and accuracy since taking the helm for the 2013 campaign. Before joining the Patriots, Socci served as the voice of the Naval Academy Midshipmen for 16 seasons, and called Triple A baseball, most recently for the Pawtucket Red Sox, for a decade.

Socci is joined in the booth by former Patriots quarterback Scott Zolak, who is entering his 13th season as action analyst. Prior to moving upstairs, he spent a season with the legendary broadcast team of Gil Santos and Gino Cappelletti as a sideline reporter. Prior to that, he served six seasons as a co-host of "Patriots Preview" and "Patriots Postgame" on the Radio Network. He's currently heard daily as co-host of the "Zolak and Bertrand" Show on the Sports Hub, where his experience as a pro athlete and his boundless energy keep Boston listeners engaged and entertained all year long.

The gameday experience on the network starts three hours before kickoff with "Patriots Preview," with hosts Jim Murray and Christopher Gasper. The co-host of the Sports Hub's midday show, Murray is a native of Melrose, Massachusetts and can be heard each weekday afternoon on the highly rated "Felger and Massarotti" show. Gasper is back for his 18th season on "Patriots Preview." The Lynn, Massachusetts native is a sports columnist for The Boston Globe. Gasper and Murray also co-host the Saturday morning "Gasper & Murray" show on the Sports Hub.

The men in charge of the "Patriots Postgame" are Joe Murray and Leroy Irvin. Greg Bedard of the Boston Sports Journal will also contribute. Murray has been an on-air host at 98.5 The Sports Hub since 2011. He enters his fourth season co-hosting the "Patriots Postgame." The Hyde Park native is an 18-year veteran of the sports radio industry. Irvin has been co-hosting on the Sports Hub in various day parts since 2018. He's also part of the "Get Up Crew" heard each weekday morning on Beasley Media Boston's sister station HOT 96.9 FM. A native of Dorchester, Leroy was also the founder and host of the Play Action Sports podcast.

The football season never ends on the Patriots flagship station, 98.5 The Sports Hub. From morning-after breakdowns with "Toucher and Hardy," X's and O's with "Zolak and Bertrand," to no-holds-barred opinions from "Felger and Massarotti," the Patriots are always front and center. Mike Reiss, Phil Perry, Bert Breer and Paul Perillo also contribute and can be heard weekdays. One of the first sports franchises to broadcast their games on FM, the Patriots begin their 31st season of airing every block, tackle and kick in crystal-clear stereo. The Patriots are entering their 17th season on The Sports Hub, where you'll also find the broadcasts of the New England Revolution, Boston Bruins and Boston Celtics.

2025 PRESEASON TV NETWORK

Two of the three Patriots preseason games will be broadcast live and in HD on WBZ Channel 4 in Boston and a network of affiliates. As the preseason has changed, so has the way to broadcast the games. Devin and Jason McCourty will head up a three-person booth along with Scott Zolak. The three will highlight the position battles, and the roster makeup as the Patriots put the finishing touches on building the 2025 team. The broadcast will include in-game interviews with players and coaches. Additionally, former Patriots quarterback Brian Hoyer will provide sideline analysis. Steve Burton will conduct interviews from the sideline and Paul Perillo will analyze the action in studio.

PATRIOTS IN-HOUSE CONTENT

The Kraft Sports & Entertainment Content team creates and manages all the content for the Patriots website, app, social media accounts, preseason games, podcasts and television shows.

PATRIOTS.COM

The team's official website offers all the Patriots news and transactions along with exclusive video, audio, photos and features.

Fans can watch live video of every press conference with Head Coach Mike Vrabel and starting quarterback press conferences, as well as the Pre-Game Show presented by Dunkin and Post-Game Show, and other special events such as the Patriots Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies. On demand video includes player personality features, behind the scenes access, game analysis, game highlights, interviews and video podcasts. International pages in German, Brazilian Portuguese and Spanish can be found in the News section.

AUDIO/PODCASTS

Live, original radio shows and podcasts produced from the studios inside Gillette Stadium are available on Patriots.com, the Patriots app and on all major podcast platforms. The line-up features the team's flagship show, "Patriots Unfiltered", the longest continuously running podcast in the world. Other shows include "Catch-22" with hosts Evan Lazar and Alex Barth. "Pats From the Past", hosted by Patriots senior editor Paul Perillo and senior executive producer Matt Smith, sits down with former Patriots for extended interviews. The show's format and Perillo and Smith's 40-plus years of experience with the team make these fascinating shows. Special event podcasts/series include NFL Draft shows, "Training Camp Cast, 2003: The Super Sequel Patriots" and "2001: A Super Bowl Sound Odyssey."

PATRIOTS OFFICIAL APP

2025 PATRIOTS CHEERLEADERS

The New England Patriots Cheerleaders and Pat Patriot Mascot look forward to another successful year in 2025, developing relationships with fans and aspiring young cheerleaders throughout New England. While the Patriots Cheerleaders have become accustomed to entertaining thousands of Patriots fans from the sidelines, the squad also works closely with the Patriots Foundation, supporting the efforts of charitable organizations throughout New England, using their celebrity status to make a difference in the community. Best Buddies, T.A.P.S., Read Across America, Play 60, Flag Football and Special Olympics are a few of the Patriots Cheerleaders' favorite organizations to partner with. In addition to its philanthropic efforts, the squad also makes public appearances for local businesses and corporations, spreading cheer to fans at a variety of events throughout New England and across the country. Those events include parades, trade shows and grand openings to name a few.

The New England Patriots Cheerleaders proudly maintain a well-established Junior Cheerleader program, where youth ages 6-17 attend clinics with the squad and make community appearances with the Patriots Cheerleaders throughout the season in connection with the squad's community efforts. For more information on the Junior Patriots Cheerleaders program, please visit https://www.patriots.com/cheerleaders/junior-cheerleaders.

A hybrid virtual and in-person audition process drew more than 200 applicants to compete for the opportunity to join the 2025 co-ed cheerleading team. The squad is populated with a range of students and professionals with a wide variety of careers, including finance, marketing, sales, education, healthcare and medicine. Squad members come from across New England and the U.S., including Arizona, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, New York and California. This year's squad will continue to serve as Patriots ambassadors throughout New England. For more information on the Patriots Cheerleaders or Pat Patriot Mascot, email cheerleaders@patriots.com or visit www.patriots.com/cheerleaders.

PATRIOTS FOUNDATION

CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM

Robert Kraft established the New England Patriots Foundation in 1994 as a way to give back to the communities the Patriots call home. The mission of the foundation is to aid individuals and families that are often marginalized in today's society. Through the implementation of year-round programming and support of philanthropic agencies, the foundation is building stronger communities throughout New England.

With the incredible support of current and former Patriots players and coaches and Patriots fans around the globe, the Patriots Foundation has grown tremendously, helping to meet the needs of the region's most vulnerable populations. Over the years, the foundation has provided support to thousands of local nonprofits with initiatives that focus on the core pillars of education, female empowerment, healthcare, homelessness, military, volunteerism and youth football. While the foundation supports a number of different causes, there is one common theme – addressing the most pressing needs of our New England communities.

Thanks to the support of our five cornerstone partners — Bank of America, Cross Insurance, CVS Health, Dellbrook|JKS and Gillette — the Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation will expand upon our efforts, positively impacting more New Englanders throughout the year. To learn more about the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation's community efforts, visit www.patriots.com/community. If you have any questions, please contact us at 508-543-8200 or charitableevents@patriots.com.

Ron Burton Community Service Award

The Ron Burton Community Service Award is named in honor of the late Ron Burton, the first player drafted by the team in the inaugural year of 1960 and a community leader whose widespread charitable work was a model for how a Patriots player can make an impact off the field. This award is presented annually to one Patriots player that goes above and beyond to give back to the community. During the 2024 Patriots Premiere, Brenden Schooler was celebrated as the 22nd recipient of the award.

COMMUNITY CAPTAINS

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation are excited to partner with Bank of America to continue the "Community Captains" program. This charitable initiative was created in 2021 to build deeper relationships with nonprofits and strengthen the impact on the populations they serve. During this two-year partnership, the Patriots Foundation and Bank of America work closely with six nonprofit organizations with a goal of establishing a deeper understanding of their community efforts and to help each charity serve their constituents more effectively.

In 2025, six new nonprofit organizations were selected as the 2025-2027 Community Captains. The Kraft family, New England Patriots Foundation and Bank of America are conducting site visits at all six nonprofit organizations as an opportunity to learn more about each organization, hear from their staff and volunteers and see how the Patriots and Bank of America can support their efforts. A total of $300,000 in grants will be presented to the nonprofits - $50,000 per organization – to support their areas of greatest need.

In addition to financial support, each of the nonprofits receive in-kind donations, participate in networking opportunities with staff from the Patriots and Bank of America, enjoy access to Bank of America's Better Money Habits program and much more. The six Community Captains include Casa Myrna, Father Bills & MainSpring, Good Sports, Inquilinos Boricuas en Acción, Minds Matter and Planning Office for Urban Affairs.

MILITARY

Military Initiatives in Partnership with Cross Insurance

As part of the year-round Salute to Service initiative, the Kraft family and Patriots Foundation are committed to celebrating those who dedicate their lives to protecting our freedoms in partnership with Cross Insurance. Each year, the Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation invite Vietnam veterans for a special pinning ceremony at Gillette Stadium. The United States of America Vietnam War Commemoration established the Commemorative Partner Program, an initiative to thank and honor Vietnam veterans and their families. The Patriots have joined them in their efforts to pay tribute to those who served. In celebration of Vietnam War Veterans Day in March, Robert Kraft and Cross Insurance presented Vietnam veteran lapel pins to men and women to recognize, thank and honor them for their service during the Vietnam War.

VOLUNTEERISM

Community Awards in Partnership with Gillette

In partnership with Gillette, the Patriots Foundation has the opportunity to inspire the next generation of volunteers and to celebrate individuals for their dedication and service to our New England communities. Each year, Myra Kraft Community MVP Award winners are recognized for their leadership, dedication and commitment to bettering their communities during a luncheon at Gillette Stadium. Since its inception, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation have recognized more than 500 volunteers and presented more than $4 million in grants to the charities for which they volunteer.

HOMELESSNESS

Homelessness Initiatives in Partnership with Dellbrook|JKS

With the support of Dellbrook|JKS, the New England Patriots Foundation, is able to provide essential services to those experiencing homelessness. Since 2014, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation have purchased thousands of Empowerment coats. This weather resistant coat transforms into a sleeping bag and can be worn as an over-the shoulder bag. Various Patriots players attended Pine Street Inn on World Homelessness Day in October to help distribute coats. The coats are designed by the Empowerment Plan, a Detroit-based nonprofit that distributes the specially designed winter gear to individuals living on the streets.

FEMALE EMPOWERMENT

Female Empowerment Initiatives in Partnership with CVS Health

The Kraft Family and the Patriots Foundation support initiatives designed to empower and encourage women and girls in the sports industry with the support of CVS Health. To celebrate Women's History Month in March, the New England Patriots Foundation hosted a career development workshop on the campus of UMass Boston to offer students an opportunity to learn from an HR presentation, a panel of female leaders, roundtables, headshots and more. The event was attended by over 90 students from the university's Sports Leadership & Administration program.

EDUCATION

Year-Round Education Initiatives

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation believe education is critical to creating a level playing field for children of all backgrounds. To strengthen the local community, the Patriots Foundation founded the Adopt-A-School program to dive deeper with a school over the course of a school year and better address their most pressing needs. As part of the Adopt-A-School program, schools receive grants and visits throughout the school year to expand access to education opportunities and learning experiences for students. In 2024, the Blackstone School was adopted by the Patriots Foundation. The Patriots Foundation made frequent visits and provided in-kind donations, book fair opportunities and more throughout the course of the school year.

HEALTHCARE

Commitment to Healthcare and Wellbeing

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation are dedicated to improving the health and wellness of our community and increasing access to proper treatment across the New England region. Yearlong initiatives include promoting the early detection of cancer, donating funds to healthcare centers, making hospital visits and more. As part of the Crucial Catch: Intercept Cancer campaign, many cancer survivors from Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and Massachusetts General Hospital received special invitations to attend “Patriots Day of Pampering” at Gillette Stadium, where they received complimentary transportation to Gillette Stadium and were treated to a healthy breakfast, manicures, massages, facials, flower arranging and more. The attendees took a surprise visit to the field where they were greeted by more than 20 Patriots players and coaches. During lunchtime, the survivors were greeted by Robert Kraft who invited the women to attend the Patriots’ Crucial Catch game vs. Miami Dolphins.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Expanding Youth Football in New England

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation are committed to developing the skills of local children and building character through youth football. By hosting youth football camps, donating equipment and providing grants to area football programs, the Patriots Foundation aims to create equal access for all to be able to play the sport. A major initiative of the Patriots Foundation is expanding high school girls flag football across the region with a goal of getting the sport sanctioned in all six New England states. To kick off the high school girls flag football season, the Patriots hosted a Kickoff Party in March. The event brought over 350 athletes and coaches from teams across the region for an exciting day of celebration, inspiration and advocacy.

HOLIDAY GIVING

Thanksgiving In A Basket

For over 30 years, the Kraft family has been joined by current and former Patriots players and their families to supply complete Thanksgiving meals to hundreds of families in need at the Thanksgiving-in-a-Basket event at Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries in Boston. All recipients are individuals who are currently enrolled in Goodwill's job training and youth programs. The current and former Patriots players personally carry the baskets to the cars of each family and ensure that every family receives a complete Thanksgiving meal.

Children's Holiday Party

The Children's Holiday Party is one of the Kraft family's longstanding charitable traditions through the Patriots Foundation. Each year, 250 children in need from various community centers throughout the region are hosted by the Kraft family for a night of food, fun and great holiday memories. Patriots players, cheerleaders and Pat Patriot join the children to play holiday-themed games, sign autographs and offer gifts from the Patriots Foundation.

JOIN OUR TEAM

PATRIOTS FOUNDATION
CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation would not be able to support as many children, individuals and families in need without the generous contributions from our fans. Throughout the year, sponsors, premium seating clients, season ticket members and avid Patriots fans across the globe support fundraising events and initiatives for the Patriots Foundation.

License Plates

Fans in Massachusetts and Rhode Island have the opportunity to purchase a Patriots license plate, celebrating the team's six Super Bowl championships. Fans in New Hampshire can also purchase Patriots decal stickers for their New Hampshire decal plates. All proceeds from this charitable program will support nonprofits in their respective states.

Patriots Premiere

The Patriots Premiere is the largest annual fundraising event for the Patriots Foundation. It is a red-carpet gala hosted on the field of Gillette Stadium for the team's biggest supporters to kick off the start of a new season. The event features special appearances by the Kraft family, Patriots coaches, players and cheerleaders.

Patriots Platelet Pedalers

The Patriots Platelet Pedalers ride the Pan Mass Challenge each year with the funds earmarked for Dr. Ken Anderson, the Kraft Family Professor of Medicine at Harvard Medical School and Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, to support his multiple myeloma research and development of novel therapies.

Name in Lights

Through the Name in Lights program, you can submit a special message to be displayed on the HD corner boards during a Patriots home game. All proceeds benefit the New England Patriots Foundation.

Great games turn fans into family and amazing plays bring us closer. Bank of America proudly joins the New England Patriots and their fans in celebrating all the unforgettable moments that unite us.
