HALL OF FAME INDUCTION

Patriots fans can celebrate when the team hosts their 2025 Patriots Hall of Fame induction ceremonies for Julian Edelman and Bill Parcells. The ceremonies will take place on Saturday, Sept. 20 at 4 p.m. ET on the Patriot Place Plaza, just outside the Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX. The event is free and open to the public, and fans of all ages are encouraged to attend and celebrate two of the most iconic Patriots in franchise history.

Edelman was selected by a fan vote as the 37th inductee into the Patriots Hall of Fame on May 5. Edelman spent his entire 12-year NFL career with the Patriots after being selected in the seventh round of the 2009 NFL Draft out of Kent State. He ranks second in team history with 620 receptions, fourth with 6,822 receiving yards, and ninth with 36 receiving touchdowns.

On April 1, Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft named Parcells a 2025 Hall of Fame inductee as a contributor. Parcells served as head coach of the Patriots from 1993 to 1996, helping restore credibility and competitive success to a struggling franchise.

PATRIOTS VS. PITTSBURGH STEELERS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and Steelers will meet for the first time since the Patriots traveled to Pittsburgh for a Thursday Night Football game on Dec. 7, 2023, a 21-18 Patriots win. Pittsburgh will travel to Gillette Stadium for the first time the opening day of the 2019 season when New England took a 33-3 victory on Sept. 8, 2019. Since 2000, New England is 14-4 against Pittsburgh, including the postseason, and the Patriots are 6-1 all-time against the Steelers at Gillette Stadium.

This week's matchup will mark the 36th meeting overall. The series is tied, 15-15, in the regular season, while New England leads 4-1 in the postseason. The Patriots are 5-4 in home games against Pittsburgh and 2-0 in home postseason games against the Steelers.

The teams played in the AFC Championship Game during the 2001, 2004 and 2016 playoffs, with the Patriots winning each time en route to Super Bowl titles. The teams also met in the 1996 and 1997 Divisional Playoffs. The Patriots defeated Pittsburgh, 28-3, at Foxboro Stadium en route to their Super Bowl XXXI appearance. Pittsburgh beat New England the following season, 7-6, at Three Rivers Stadium.

The Patriots' first regular season home game at Gillette Stadium was a season-opening 28-21 win on Sept. 9, 2002, against Pittsburgh.

ORIGINS OF THE PASSTRONAUT

Patriots QB Joshua Dobbs, affectionately dubbed “the Passtronaut” due to his college major of aerospace engineering during his time at the University of Tennessee, spent four of the first five seasons of his career with the Steelers after being drafted by them in the fourth round (135th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

In his first stint in Pittsburgh, Dobbs sat his entire rookie season before making five appearances in 2018 backing up QB Ben Roethlisberger, completing 6-of-12 (50%) passes for 43 yards and an interception.

He was traded to Jacksonville in 2019, but made his return after being claimed off waivers in 2020, appearing in one game and completing 4-of-5 (80%) passes for 2 yards.

FORGED IN STEEL

Patriots Head Coach Mike Vrabel spent the first four seasons of his playing career in the NFL with the Pittsburgh Steelers, from being drafted in the third round (91st overall) in the 1997 NFL Draft to 2000.

In his four seasons as a Steeler, Vrabel played in 51 games, totaling 36 tackles (27 solo), 7 sacks, 3 forced fumbles, 3 fumble recoveries, and 1 pass defended, along with 20 special teams tackles.

His highlight moment as a Steeler came in the 1997 AFC Divisional Round vs. New England when he strip-sacked Patriots QB Drew Bledsoe to help seal the game and send the Steelers to the AFC Championship game.

Vrabel would then go on to join the Patriots in 2001, where he would help the team defeat the Steelers in the AFC Championship game and help lead the team to their first Super Bowl.

Overall, Vrabel went 5-2 against the Steelers during his career, including two AFC Championship victories to reach the Super Bowl.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS vs. PITTSBURGH STEELERS

TEAM NOTES

- The Patriots scored 33 points at Miami last week. If they generate at least 30 points this week against Pittsburgh, it will be their first back-to-back games with at least 30 points since the 2020 season when they scored 30 both in a 35-30 loss at Seattle (9/20) and then in a 36-20 win vs. Las Vegas (9/27).
- A win this week against Pittsburgh will give the Patriots their first two-game winning streak since the 2022 season when they beat Detroit, 29-0, on Oct. 9 and then won at Cleveland, 38-15, on Oct. 16.
- The Patriots have held their opponents under 100 yards rushing in each of the first two games of the season with 60 yards allowed vs. Las Vegas and 61 yards at Miami. It is the second year in a row that the Patriots have held their first two opponents under 100 yards. If the Patriots hold the Steelers to under 100 yards rushing this week, it will be the first time starting the year holding the opponent under 100 yards rushing in the first three games since 2019 when the Patriots allowed 32 yards rushing vs Pittsburgh, 42 yards at Miami and 36 yards vs. the New York Jets.
- The Patriots followed a 4-sack game in the season-opener vs. Las Vegas with 5 sacks at Miami. The most sacks the Patriots had in the first three games of the season were 18 in 1979.
- The Patriots have an NFL-leading 9 sacks in the first two games of the season. The Patriots record for most sacks in a season is 66 in 1963 when they averaged 4.7 sacks per game. The Patriots finished last in the NFL in sacks in 2024 with 28 total sacks.

MOST SACKS IN NEW ENGLAND HISTORY

Sacks	Avg.	Year
66	4.7	1963
58	4.1	1977
57	3.6	1979
55	3.4	1984
54	3.2	2022
51	3.2	1985

- The Patriots have had a halftime lead in both of their games in 2025 with a 10-7 lead vs. Las Vegas and a 15-14 lead at Miami last week. If the Patriots lead at halftime this week against Pittsburgh, it will be the first time the Patriots have had a lead in their first three games at halftime since the 2019 season when they led at the break in their first eight games of the season.
- If the Patriots return either a kick or a punt for a touchdown this week against Pittsburgh, it will be the first time in team history with returns for a touchdown in consecutive weeks. RB Antonio Gibson returned a fourth quarter kick 90 yards for a touchdown last week at Miami.

PATRIOTS TO WATCH

HUNTER HENRY

#85, TE

- TE Hunter Henry has 19 touchdown receptions as a member of the Patriots and needs 1 touchdown this week to tie Benjamin Watson for fourth all-time among tight ends in franchise history.

MOST RECEIVING TDS AMONG PATRIOTS TIGHT ENDS

NAME	YEARS	TDs
Rob Gronkowski	2010-18	79
Ben Coates	1991-99	50
Russ Francis	1975-88	28
Ben Watson	2004-09, 2019	20
Hunter Henry	2021-Present	19

- Henry enters this week ranked fifth among New England tight ends with 204 receptions and needs 4 receptions against the Steelers this week to move past Russ Francis into fourth place among all New England tight ends.

MOST RECEPTIONS AMONG PATRIOTS TIGHT ENDS

NAME	YEARS	REC.
Rob Gronkowski	2010-18	521
Ben Coates	1991-99	490
Marv Cook	1989-93	210
Russ Francis	1975-88	207

PATRIOTS TO WATCH

RHAMONDRE STEVENSON

#38, RB

- RB Rhamondre Stevenson enters this week in ninth place on the team's all-time rushing list with 3,135 yards and needs 46 yards against Pittsburgh to move past Corey Dillon (3,180) into eighth place on New England's all-time rushing list.
- Stevenson set a career-high with 88 receiving yards at Miami. The best two-game total by a Patriots running back is 190 receiving yards by RB Shane Vereen – 37 yards at Houston (12/1) and 153 receiving yards, (a team record by a running back) vs. Cleveland (12/8). Stevenson would need 102 receiving yards to match Vereen. If Stevenson reaches 100 yards receiving, it would be the 15th time in team history that a Patriots running back finished with 100 yards receiving.
- Stevenson needs 1 rushing touchdown to tie Tom Brady and Stevan Ridley and move into 10th place in franchise history with 22 rushing touchdowns.

ANTONIO GIBSON

#4, RB

- RB Antonio Gibson returned a fourth quarter kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter last week at Miami. If the Patriots return a kick for a touchdown this week, it will be the first time in team history that they have returned a kick for a touchdown in back-to-back games. Raymond Clayborn (3 in 1977), Brandon Tate (2 in 2010) and Kevin Faulk (2 in 2002) are the only players to have more than one kick returned for a touchdown in a single season for the Patriots.

MILTON WILLIAMS

#97, DT

- DT Milton Williams registered 2 sacks in the win at Miami. If he records 2 sacks this week, he will be the first Patriots player with at least 2 sacks in back-to-back games since LB Joshua Uche when he had 2 sacks vs. Buffalo (12/1/22) followed by 3 sacks at Arizona (12/12/22).

BRYCE BARINGER

#17, P

- P Bryce Baringer had two punts last week at Miami, a 71-yard punt in the third quarter and a 65-yarder in the fourth quarter. If his first punt this week against Pittsburgh goes for at least 60 yards, he will be the first Patriots punter to have three straight 60-yard punts. Baringer has accounted for four of the seven instances in which the team's punter recorded back-to-back 60-yard punts.
- Baringer is one of seven players to record consecutive punts of 60-plus yards this season, including Philadelphia's Braden Mann, who did so on three straight punts in their win over Kansas City last week.
- Last season, there were five instances of a player recording at least three consecutive 60-yard punts, including Cleveland's Corey Bojorquez, who had four straight 60-yard punts in Weeks Four and Five.

PATRIOTS TO WATCH

DRAKE MAYE

#10, QB

- QB Drake Maye had his third NFL game with an 80% completion percentage after completing 19-of-23 pass attempts for an 82.6 pass completion percentage last week at Miami. He completed 80 percent of his passes vs. Indianapolis (12/1) and at Arizona (12/15) in back-to-back games in 2024. He joined Mac Jones (2021) as the only Patriots quarterbacks with back-to-back games with 80 percent of his passes completed. If Maye completes 80 percent of his passes this week against Pittsburgh, he will be the only Patriots quarterback with consecutive weeks reaching 80 completions two times in their career.
- Maye has 2,793 passing yards and needs 207 passing yards to reach 3,000 career passing yards.
- Maye needs 31 completions this week against Pittsburgh to move into the Top 10 in franchise history.
- Maye needs 1 touchdown against the Steelers to move into 11th place in franchise history.

CHRISTIAN ELLISS

#53, LB

- LB Christian Elliss tied his career-high with 3 special teams tackles in the win at Miami. He also had 3 special teams tackles at San Francisco (9/29/24). He will try to become the first Patriots player to have two straight games with at least 3 special teams tackles since Matthew Slater had a three-game streak with at least 3 special teams tackles in 2014.

HAROLD LANDRY III

#2, LB

- LB Harold Landry III registered 2½ sacks in the season-opener vs. Las Vegas and then added 1 sack in the win at Miami last week to give him 3½ sacks in his first two games as a Patriots player. He needs 1½ sacks this week against Pittsburgh to match Chris Slade (5 in 1993) for the most sacks by a Patriots player in his first three games with the team.

MARTE MAPU

#15, LB

- LB Marte Mapu had his third career interception last week at Miami. If he gets a pick this week against Pittsburgh, he will become the first Patriots player with an interception in back-to-back games since S Kyle Dugger in 2023 when he had an interception at Miami (10/29) and vs. Washington (11/5).

BEFORE BUYING THE TEAM IN 1994

Under Kraft's leadership since he purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports.

Kraft has led the two most dominant decades in NFL history in terms of overall wins – 141 (2010-19) and 126 (2000-09).

Kraft is the most successful owner since he purchased the team in 1994 in terms of wins (358), division titles (19), winning percentage (.650), playoff wins (33) and playoff seasons (22).

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In his 31 seasons of ownership, he is credited with transforming one of the league's least successful clubs into one of the most valuable. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.238 pct.), the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won more division titles (19), conference crowns (10) and Super Bowl championships (6) than any other NFL team. Additionally, the Patriots have achieved the most winning seasons (24) since Kraft assumed ownership beginning in 1994. Super Bowl LIII was the 10th Super Bowl appearance since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other team has appeared in more than four Super Bowls. In Kraft's 31 seasons, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs 22 times, more than doubling the franchise's accomplishments during its first 34 seasons.

NOTES: This analysis uses NFL rules when calculating winning percentage, counting ties as a half-win and a half-loss. For NHL teams, overtime losses (OTL) and ties from 2001-2004 (the NHL abolished ties in 2005-2006 and instituted a shootout system) are counted as ties when calculating winning percentage.

CEREBRAL AND VERSATILE

Vrabel exemplified positional versatility during his Patriots career by starting at both inside and outside linebacker, regularly lining up on offense in short-yardage and goal-line situations and continually making valuable contributions on various special teams units. As a Patriot, he caught eight regular season passes and two more in the playoffs. All 10 of his receptions were for touchdowns, including receptions in back-to-back Super Bowl wins over the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl XXXVIII and Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

"IN THE END, IT WAS CLEAR TO ME, AND TO MY FAMILY, AND MY SOUL, THAT THIS WAS THE PLACE THAT I WANTED TO BE."

— MIKE VRABEL

A PROVEN LEADER AND CHAMPION

AS A PLAYER: Vrabel's accomplishments as a player included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Originally drafted in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers, he spent the early years of his career mostly playing on special teams and as a reserve linebacker. He signed with the Patriots as an unheralded free agent in 2001 and went on to become one of the key pieces of the dynasty that captured three Super Bowl titles in four years. Vrabel ended his playing career with the Kansas City Chiefs after being a part of a trade that included QB Matt Cassel. He appeared in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 722 tackles, 11 interceptions (one returned for a touchdown), 20 forced fumbles and 9 fumble recoveries. A cerebral and versatile athlete, he also saw action as a tight end and totaled 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording 8 postseason sacks and two additional postseason touchdown receptions.

AS A COACH: Vrabel has 14 years of coaching experience, including 11 years in the NFL and three seasons at Ohio State. The Tennessee Titans hired him as their head coach in 2018 and he led the Titans to two division titles and three playoff appearances during his six seasons at the helm. In 2019, the Titans upset the Patriots in Foxborough in the Wild Card round, then defeated the No. 1 seed Ravens in Baltimore the following week to advance to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs. In 2021, the Titans claimed the top seed in the AFC with a 12-5 record, earning Vrabel NFL Coach of the Year honors.

SUPER BOWL DNA

Mike Vrabel is one of seven head coaches that won a Super Bowl for a team and then became the head coach of that team. The others are Jerod Mayo (Patriots), Forrest Gregg (Green Bay), Bart Starr (Green Bay), Art Shell (Oakland), Jeff Saturday (Indianapolis) and Jason Garrett (Dallas). Vrabel is the only one with three Super Bowl wins.

PATRIOTS OFFENSIVE NOTES

#65 GARRETT BRADBURY

FAMILY TIES

- While New England is all new for C Garrett Bradbury, an unlikely and largely unknown familial connection exists between himself and quarterback Drake Maye. Bradbury's brother-in-law, Jackson Kowar, a pitcher in the Mariners organization, played baseball and became close friends with Maye's brother, Cole, when they played together at the University of Florida. There are many challenges presented when it comes to free agency, but for Bradbury, it sure helped when family had one team in mind: "When I was going through the free agency process," Bradbury said, "They were all like, 'New England, New England, New England.'"

#77 BEN BROWN

GENERATIONS OF REBELS

- C Ben Brown comes from a rich history of Ole Miss football players, as he is the seventh member of his family to play for the school. Brown's father, Tim (1988-89); his maternal grandfather, Bobby (1962-64); paternal grandfather, Allen (1962-64); great uncle, Jerry (1959-61); father's cousin, Alton (1971-72); and uncle, Burkes (1991-92) all played for the Rebels. As a tight end, Allen was a First-Team All-American in college and a two-time Super Bowl Champion for the Green Bay Packers.

COAST TO COAST

- Brown was signed by New England to the 53-man roster from the Las Vegas practice squad on Oct. 10, 2024. He took a red-eye flight across the country and made his first start for the Patriots when the team hosted the Houston Texans (10/13) just three days later.

#86 EFTON CHISM III

ROOKIE AND THE VETS

- WR Efton Chism III is developing a work ethic by following his veteran wide receivers. Wide receivers coach Todd Downing recently addressed his thoughts on Chism's work ethic: "It starts well before he ever hits the field," Downing said. "This guy's one of the first guys in. A lot of times he'll pop into my office super early in the morning, as I'm just getting going, and he wants to sit there and just watch me build the PowerPoint for the meeting that day or something. Just to kind of get an extra time or an extra rep, the mental processing for the system. He stays late with Mack (Hollins) and goes through things with Mack, and those two have developed a cool relationship, so that piece of it's cool, and then what he does on the field is he translates that into playing fast and confident. He knows exactly what to do, so then he can go out and execute it."

#8 STEFON DIGGS

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2025

- WR Stefon Diggs has recorded five seasons with 100 receptions. If he registers 100 receptions in 2025, he will join Antonio Brown and Brandon Marshall as the only NFL players with six 100-reception seasons.

MOST 100-RECEPTION SEASONS

Player	100-Rec. Seasons	Total Receptions
Antonio Brown	6	686
Brandon Marshall	6	634
Stefon Diggs	5	547
Davante Adams	5	552
Keenan Allen	5	520
Andre Johnson	5	540
Larry Fitzgerald	5	528
Wes Welker	5	586

- Diggs has 17 career 10-catch games and needs three more to join Davante Adams (23), Antonio Brown (23), Andre Johnson (22) and Keenan Allen (20) as the fifth player to have at least 20 such games.

BIG PLAYS IN HIS NEW HOME

- Diggs had a receiving touchdown in each of his past five games at Gillette Stadium as a visiting player. That is the longest streak by a visiting player against the Patriots since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Through the NFLPA's virtual externship program, Dobbs spent two years (2020-21) with the NASA Kennedy Space Flight Center. In 2022, Dobbs established The ASTROrdinary Dobbs Foundation, which is dedicated to supporting, encouraging and inspiring all members of the community, particularly the youth, through educational, economical, professional and recreational empowerment.
- "We're promoting my background growing up, which was in STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics), aerospace and aviation," Dobbs said. "So, we love giving back to the community itself, who supported me throughout my career, but also just promoting STEM engagement, giving back to those less fortunate and just being involved. It's very important to me to support those communities and to be able to represent my own foundation. It's really cool. As I said, just having the platform, being able to give back."

THE MEANING BEHIND THE NICKNAME

- DeMario Douglas is more commonly referred to by his nickname, "Pop". Although the nickname is fitting for his quickness on the field, the name actually comes from family ties. Douglas' granddad passed away on his first birthday. The wide receiver was commonly referred to as 'Poppa' from his granddad – a nickname that was quickly shortened to just 'Pop'.

NUMBER CHANGE

- Pop Douglas changed his jersey number from No. 81 to No. 3 in 2024. He wore No. 3 in college at Liberty, as well as in Little League, middle school and high school. He explained its meaning to him: "It's big because I was raised by three strong ladies -- my mom, grandma and great-grandma," he said.

Hollins flew them out, and although he was hesitant at first, they convinced him that doing all of his training barefoot can help with durability. In the last few years, Hollins has completely abandoned shoes and now walks barefoot all the time, unless it is under 35 degrees.

- Maye, the youngest of four boys, hails from a family of athletes. His father, Mark, also played quarterback at the University of North Carolina from 1983-1988. His brother, Luke, played basketball at North Carolina (2015-19), winning a national title in 2017 with the Tar Heels. Luke now plays overseas in Japan. His brother, Cole, won a baseball national championship in 2017 with the University of Florida as a pitcher. His brother, Beau, also played basketball at the University of North Carolina. DEDICATION TO HIS GOALS

- While in high school, Stevenson started gaining attention for the impressive stats he posted as a junior. Unfortunately, due to his grades, Stevenson was academically ineligible to receive a football scholarship despite being recruited. Following his senior year of high school, Stevenson took a year off from football and worked part-time jobs at Walmart and Jimmy John's. But after a year away, he decided to follow a group of his friends and enroll in Cerritos Community College. During his time at Cerritos, he shared a two-bedroom apartment with up to six other guys at times and rode his bicycle 20 minutes to and from practice every day. After putting up monster stats in his second season at Cerritos, he committed to Oklahoma. Oklahoma led him to the 2021 NFL Draft where in the fourth round on the third day the Patriots selected Stevenson. In addition, he worked on his academics and made the Dean's List while at Oklahoma.

STEVENSON HAD CAREER LONG RUN

- Stevenson had a career-long 64-yard touchdown run in the second quarter vs. Washington on Nov. 5, 2023. His previous long was a 49-yard run vs. Detroit on Oct. 9, 2022, and his previous longest touchdown run was a 34-yard touchdown run at Las Vegas on Dec. 18, 2022. It is the longest touchdown run for a Patriots player since RB Damien Harris had a 64-yard touchdown run at Buffalo on Dec. 6, 2022. It is tied with Harris for the longest touchdown run by a Patriot player in the regular seasons since a 70-yard run by Curtis Martin on Sept. 21, 1997 vs. Chicago.

STEVENSON HAS FIFTH CAREER 100-YARD GAME

- Stevenson had his fifth 100-yard game in the 2024 season-opener with 120 yards in the win vs. Cincinnati on Sept. 8. He had a career-high 172 yards rushing at Las Vegas on Dec. 18, 2022. It was his second 100-yard game of the year and fourth overall. He has two 100-yard games of 160 or more yards. In addition to the 172, he had 161 yards rushing vs. Detroit on Oct. 9, 2022. He has two of the teams 14 games with at least 160 yards rushing. Only Curtis Martin and Jim Nance with three have more.

STEVENSON HAS THIRD GAME WITH 9.0 AVERAGE

- Stevenson finished nine carries for 87 yards for a 9.7-yard average vs. Washington on Nov. 5, 2023, the highest average of his career and the third time he had at least a 9.0-yard average. He had a 9.1-yard average at Las Vegas on Dec. 18, 2022 and a 9.0-yard average at Buffalo on Jan. 8, 2023.

CITY OF ANGELS TO TITLE TOWN

- As part of the Patriots' rookie development program, Head Coach Mike Vrabel brought the 2025 rookie class to a Red Sox game and to the Celtics' practice facility. WR Kyle Williams, a Los Angeles native, quickly recognized the passion for sports in his new city of Boston and uses it as motivation: "It's huge," Williams said. "You see Patriots everywhere. You see Celtics everywhere. Just seeing the love this town has for sports, it makes you want to give back and compete harder."

JOURNEY TO THE NFL

- As a high school sophomore, football wasn't on Christian Barmore's radar. Barmore played basketball in high school until his junior year, when the football coach at Delaware Valley Charter High School convinced him to give football a chance. Moving to Neumann Goretti High School as a senior after his previous high school closed, Barmore became a highly-recruited prospect in just his second season of organized football, committing to the University of Alabama. Additionally, Barmore has faced plenty of adversity in his life, including the process of overcoming blood clots to return to the field in 2024. PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMER RICHARD SEYMOUR SEES GREATNESS AHEAD FOR CHRISTIAN BARMORE

- For a defensive lineman, if Patriots and Pro Football Hall of Famer Richard Seymour is in your corner, there are few better compliments or endorsements.
- "I think he has a ton of ability, natural ability, and he plays hard," Seymour told the Boston Herald. "I think he's going to be a problem for (opposing teams) for a long time to come. Hopefully he stays healthy and continues on the path he's on. I think he has a really bright future."

SECOND-MOST QUARTERBACK PRESSURES

- Barmore posted the second-most quarterback pressures for a first-year defensive tackle since 2006, according to Pro Football Focus. His 48 pressures in 2021 were two more than Aaron Donald had during his rookie season.

FIRST CAREER 3-SACK GAME

- Barmore finished with his first career 3-sack game, all in the third quarter, at Denver on Dec. 24, 2023. He had two 8-yard sacks and one 9-yard sack of Denver QB Russell Wilson. He increased his 2023 total to 8½ sacks. He is the first Patriots player with a 3-sack game since LB Joshua Uche had a 3-sack game at Arizona on Dec. 12, 2022. The last defensive lineman with a 3-sack game for New England was Deatrich Wise Jr. on Sept. 25, 2022 vs. Baltimore.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2025

- S Kyle Dugger scored 3 touchdowns in 2022 with 2 interceptions returned for touchdowns and a fumble returned for a touchdown. He needs one more defensive touchdown to tie Willie McGinest and Tedy Bruschi for the second-most defensive touchdowns in team history with 4, behind the 6 by Ty Law.

DUGGER PLAYS ROLE IN FOUR OF THE 7 DEFENSIVE TDS

- Dugger played a major role in four of the NFL-best 7 defensive touchdowns in 2022. In addition to his pick-6 against Miami, he returned an interception 16 yards for a touchdown at Las Vegas, returned a fumble 59 yards for a touchdown vs. Detroit and forced a fumble that LB Raekwon McMillan returned 23 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter at Arizona (12/12).

DUGGER EARNS HIS DEGREE

- Dugger helped put Lenoir-Rhyne University on the map, becoming the highest-drafted athlete in the Division II football program's history.
- Three years after being selected in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft, a diligent Dugger worked hard to finish his degree, earning a Bachelor's degree in psychology in 2023.

DUGGER SCORES ON A 59-YARD FUMBLE RETURN

- Dugger recovered a fumble vs. Detroit (10/9/22) that was forced on a 13-yard sack by LB Matthew Judon, and returned the ball 59 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter. It is the fifth-longest fumble return in team history. It was Dugger's first career touchdown.

LOVE BEYOND BLOOD

- LB Christian Elliss has six adopted siblings. For the NFL's My Cause My Cleats initiative, Elliss represented "An Act of Love," the agency that his siblings were adopted through. Elliss has two kids of his own with one on the way, and he and his wife look forward to adopting a child one day as well.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY

- Elliss has two brothers that also play linebacker in the NFL: Jonah (Denver Broncos) and Kaden (Atlanta Falcons). Another one of his brothers, Noah, played for the Philadelphia Eagles. His father, Luther, was a first-round draft pick by the Detroit Lions in 1995. As a defensive lineman, he was a two-time Pro Bowler in nine seasons with Detroit and Denver. He is currently the defensive tackles coach at the University of Utah where Christian's younger brother, Elijah, plays defensive end.

ELLISS HAS CAREER-HIGH IN TACKLES

- Elliss set a single-game career high vs. Buffalo on Jan. 5, 2025, with a team-leading 13 total tackles. His previous high was 9 tackles at the Jacksonville Jaguars on Oct. 20, 2024, and vs. the New York Jets on Oct. 27, 2024. Elliss' tackle total was the highest of the 2024 season for any Patriots player. LB Ja'Whaun Bentley had 12 total tackles at Cincinnati on Sept. 8, 2024.

DR. GIBBY

- LB Jack Gibbens revealed the nickname given to him by Mike Vrabel when the two were together at Tennessee. According to Gibbens, Vrabel has called him "Dr. Gibby" ever since his rookie season. This nickname came about as a result of Gibbens answering questions correctly while the coach was quizzing the team: "I had to tell him I didn't study medicine...He had to tell me it was a joke," Gibbens said.

GONZALEZ EARNS 2ND TEAM ALL-PRO HONORS

- CB Christian Gonzalez earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro Honors for his 2024 season.

ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

- Gonzalez was named the Defensive Rookie of the Month for September by the National Football League, becoming the fifth Patriots player to win a rookie of the month honor and the third defensive player to earn the award. Gonzalez joins QB Mac Jones (November of 2021), DE Chandler Jones (September of 2012), LB Jerod Mayo (October of 2008) and WR Deion Branch (September of 2002).

GONZO'S JOURNEY

- Before his collegiate success, even the prospect of going to college seemed out of reach for Gonzalez. He didn't want his family to have to pay his college tuition, and as a sophomore, he was a backup quarterback on his high school's junior varsity team that went 1-9. He almost gave up the sport, but after his family's encouragement and transferring schools, Gonzalez's new coaches switched him to defense, and he quickly attracted the attention of colleges around the nation.
- To understand the athleticism of Christian Gonzalez, look no further than his family. His father, Hector, played basketball at UTEP and professionally overseas. Gonzalez's two older sisters were both on the Colombian National Team for track & field and were college All-Americans. His eldest sister competed in the 2020 Olympics, and his younger sister is a rising star in soccer.

PATRIOTS SCORE ON DEFENSE FOR FIRST TIME IN 2024

- The Patriots scored on defense for the first time in 2024 at Miami (11/24/24) when CB Christian Gonzalez returned a RB Jaylen Wright fumble 63 yards for a touchdown that was forced by S Marte Mapu. It was the Patriots first fumble returned for a touchdown since LB Raekwon McMillan returned a fumble for a 23-yard touchdown at Arizona on Dec. 12, 2022. It was Gonzalez's first NFL touchdown. The fumble return is tied for the third-longest in team history.

- LB Harold Landry III was credited with 2½ sacks, his seventh multiple sack game, vs. Las Vegas (9/7) in the season-opener. It is the most sacks by a New England player in his debut. It is second to his career-high 3 sacks at Miami on Dec. 11, 2023, with Tennessee. His last multi-sack game was vs. the N.Y. Jets on Sept. 15, 2024, when he had 2 sacks.

PATRIOTS DEFENSIVE/SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

A REUNION WITH MEANING

- LB Robert Spillane was originally signed by Tennessee as a rookie free agent out of Western Michigan, the first year Mike Vrabel was head coach of the Titans. In 2025, he reunited with the coach that took a chance on him and made his dream a reality, this time in New England. The day Spillane signed with the team in Tennessee, it was Mother's Day. On the day Spillane signed his contract in New England, it was his mother's birthday.
- "I got hired in 2018 on Mother's Day, and I got to call my mom in tears saying, 'I'm going to be a professional football player,' Spillane said. '[May 13] is her birthday, so I'm signing the contract on her birthday. She's a very important special woman in my life, and I just want to make her proud.'"

UNDRAFTED TO TOP OF THE LEAGUE

- Spillane has recorded over 100 tackles in each of his last two seasons with the Las Vegas Raiders: 158 in 2024 and 148 in 2023. His 158 tackles in 2024 set a Raiders single-season record and ranked third in the NFL. In 2023, Spillane became the only Raiders player to record 100-plus tackles, 3.0-plus sacks and 3-plus interceptions in a single season since 1987. Since the beginning of the 2022 season, Spillane has tallied 389 tackles, the second-most in the NFL among undrafted defenders, behind only Chicago LB T.J. Edwards (445).

THE WHY BEHIND THE NUMBER

- Spillane is the grandson of RB Johnny Lattner, the 1953 Heisman Trophy winner. Lattner secured the award in his senior season at Notre Dame, after he rushed for 651 yards (4.9-yard average) and 9 touchdowns, in addition to catching 14 passes for 204 yards. He had 2 touchdowns off of just 10 kickoff returns and saw some action on defense, recording 4 interceptions in the Irish's 9-0-1 campaign. Notre Dame finished second in the AP Poll in 1953 behind Maryland. Lattner played one season in the NFL with Pittsburgh after he was selected seventh overall in the 1954 NFL Draft. Spillane wears No. 14 to honor Lattner, who wore No. 14 at Notre Dame.

EYES CLOSED, OPEN MIND

- During his introductory press conference as a Patriots player, Spillane mentioned that he does a lot of "eyes-closed training." Later on, he explained exactly what "eyes-closed training" meant and how it helps him in football. Spillane explained that he developed a style of training where he scouts out an area, whether that be a mountain trail or in a forest, walks it, returns to walk it with his eyes shut, then returns again to walk it backward with his eyes shut. When asked how this training came about, Spillane told the Athletic, "I didn't really learn it from anybody, so it's from the ground up, self-taught," Spillane said. "It's basically just a confidence drill. As a middle linebacker, you want to know where you are on the field at all times — within the positioning of the field, understanding the schematics, where the other players are around you. So, you close your eyes and take away the most basic thing you use to understand that. You've really got to rely on your instincts and your trust."

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2025

- P Bryce Baringer can become the first Patriots player with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line in three straight seasons. Baringer set a Patriots record with 38 punts inside the 20-yard line as a rookie in 2023 and then followed with 31 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2024. Baringer and Jake Bailey (36 in 2019 and 31 in 2020) are the only Patriots punters with back-to-back seasons with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line. If Baringer reaches 30 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2025, he will be the first punter since Cameron Johnston (2021-23 with Houston) to accomplish the feat.
- Baringer has a team record 48.1-yard punting average and will attempt to keep that pace.

30 AND 30

- Baringer led the NFL and set a team record in 2023 with 38 punts inside the 20-yard line. Baringer became the second Patriots punter with back-to-back seasons with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line after finishing with 31 in 2024. Jake Bailey had 36 in 2019 and 31 in 2020.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-AMERICAN

- Baringer had an unconventional path to the NFL. He began his collegiate career by earning a walk-on spot at Illinois in 2018 as a true freshman, but due to being buried on the depth chart and the cost of out-of-state tuition, he transferred home to Michigan State as a regular student. Outside of a four-game stint on the Michigan State team due to injuries on the roster, Baringer did not have a walk-on spot available to him in 2019. After a year serving as the team's photographer to maintain access to the facilities to train, Baringer attended an open tryout with a new coaching staff at the Spartans and made the team, establishing himself as the Spartans top punter in 2020 and going on to have record-breaking seasons in 2021 and 2022. In 2022, he was named the Big 10 Punter of the Year and a consensus All-American by all five major associations.

Baringer extended his record to 27 games with a 50-yard punt after connecting on a 50-yard punt in the first 10 games of 2024 before the streak ended in the game vs. the LA Rams (11/17/24).

- Jones, who made his first career start on defense vs. Buffalo on Dec. 1, 2022, also lined up on offense and scored on a 48-yard touchdown pass from QB Mac Jones on his first play from scrimmage in the first quarter. Jones caught 15 passes for 137 yards with one receiving touchdown during his college career. He scored on a 47-yard touchdown pass vs. Navy on Sept. 25, 2021. WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2025

- S Brenden Schooler has led the Patriots in special teams tackles in each of his first three seasons with 14 in 2022, 13 in 2023 and 9 in 2024. He will look to become the first Patriots player in team history to lead the team in special teams tackles in each of his first four NFL seasons since 2000. Since 2000, Larry Izzo (five straight from 2001-05) and Matthew Slater (five straight from 2011-2015) were the only players to lead the Patriots in special teams tackles for at least three straight seasons regardless of their experience level before Schooler's current three-season streak.
- Across the NFL, there have been four players this century to lead the same team in special teams tackles in each of their first four NFL seasons:
 - Nick Bellore: 2011-14 - N.Y. Jets
 - Johnson Bademosi: 2012-15 - Cleveland
