GAME SUMMARY

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (2-0) AT NEW YORK GIANTS (2-0)

Thursday, August 21, 2025 • MetLife Stadium (82,500) • 8:00 p.m. ET

The New England Patriots will close out the preseason with a familiar foe when they travel to face the New York Giants at MetLife Stadium. It will mark the 32nd meeting in the preseason between the two teams, the Patriots' most frequent pre-season opponent. The Patriots and Giants met in the preseason finale for 16 straight seasons (2005-19 and 2021), rotating who was the home team, and then in the first game of the season in 2022.

After improving to a 2-0 preseason record with a 20-12 win at Minnesota last week, the Patriots will be looking for their fifth perfect preseason record. The team finished undefeated in the preseason in 2021, 2003, 1981 and 1978.

PATRIOTS AT NEW YORK GIANTS

SERIES HISTORY

The New England Patriots and the New York Giants will meet in the preseason for the 32nd time. The two teams met in the preseason for 17 straight seasons (2005-22) (not including the 2020 season when preseason was canceled due to the Covid-19 pandemic). However, in a break from a 16-year streak, the Patriots and Giants met in the 2022 preseason opener rather than squaring off in the preseason finale.

The clubs have been frequent preseason opponents recently, squaring off in the preseason openers for three straight years from 2001-03 and resuming the series in 2005 when they started to meet in the preseason finale.

The Patriots have faced the Giants more than any other team in the preseason with 31 matchups. Philadelphia and Washington are second with 25 preseason games.

The teams played three times during the 2007 and 2011 seasons with meetings in the preseason, the regular season and in the Super Bowl. The Patriots and Giants faced each other twice in 2019 with a preseason and a regular season meeting in Foxborough. The Patriots lost the preseason finale 31-29 and then won the regular season matchup, 35-14.

Overall, the Giants hold a 20-11 advantage in the preseason series, while the Patriots claim a 7-5 edge in the regular season play.

NEW ENGLAND TIES

In the decades leading up to the founding of the American Football League in 1960, many football fans in New England followed the Giants, a franchise founded in 1925. New England-based NFL outfits such as the Providence Steam Roller (1925-31), the Boston Redskins (1932-36) and the Boston Yanks (1944-48) folded or moved away, leaving the Giants as the closest NFL team to New England until the Patriots franchise inaugurated play in the 1960 season.

MEMORABLE MATCHUPS

Aug. 15, 1971 — The Patriots defeated the Giants 20-14 in the opening preseason game at the old Foxboro Stadium.

Dec. 21, 1996 — The Patriots rallied from a 22-3 fourth-quarter deficit to clinch a first-round playoff bye with a 23-22 win at Giants Stadium.

Aug. 10, 2001 — New England began its first Super Bowl championship season with a 14-0 preseason shutout of the defending NFC champion Giants.

Dec. 29, 2007 — The Patriots defeat the Giants by a thrilling 38-35 score to cap off the first 16-0 regular season in NFL history.

February 3, 2008 — The Patriots faced the Giants in Super Bowl XLIII in Glendale, Ariz. The Giants 17-14 win snapped the Patriots perfect season.

February 5, 2012 — The Patriots faced the Giants in Super Bowl XLVI in Indianapolis, Ind. The Giants took a 21-17 lead when they scored with 57 seconds left in the game and held the Patriots on a final drive to secure the win.

November 15, 2015 — K Stephen Gostkowski drilled a 54-yard field goal with one second to play to lift the Patriots to a 27-26 come-from-behind victory. The Giants took a 26-24 lead with 1:47 to play before QB Tom Brady drove the Patriots 44 yards and converted a fourth-and-10 on the series to set up the game-winning field goal.

FAMILY TIES

The sons of longtime NFL and college coach Al Groh, Matt and Mike Groh were raised in the football world. Now, the Groh brothers will find themselves on opposite sidelines Thursday night.

Matt, the younger Groh, was recruited to play quarterback at Princeton after winning a league championship at Chaminade High School (N.Y.). He began his career as an attorney, but soon pivoted to the family business. In 2011, the Patriots hired him as a scouting assistant. Matt won three Super Bowl titles (XLIX, LI, LIII) while rising through the ranks to become the Director of Player Personnel in New England.

Mike played four positions — primarily quarterback — at Randolph High School in New Jersey. He then played QB at Virginia and began his coaching career after going undrafted in 1996. Mike won three National Championships as an assistant coach at Alabama (2009, 2011, 2012) and a Super Bowl (LII) with the Eagles. He became the Giants' wide receivers coach in 2022.

A FAMILIAR FACE

After 20 combined years as a player and coach for the Patriots, Troy Brown joined the New York Giants as an offensive assistant this offseason. Brown spent his entire 15-year playing career in New England, capturing three Super Bowl titles (XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXIX) and leaving his mark as the team's all-time leading punt returner. He also ranks fifth for most receiving yards in franchise history (6,366). Brown was renowned as a fan-favorite throughout his career and was inducted into the Patriots Hall of Fame in 2012.

In 2020, Brown returned to the Patriots as a member of the coaching staff. He coached running backs, wide receivers, returners, and skill development in a variety of roles in five seasons.

Kraft has led the two most dominant decades in NFL history in terms of overall wins – 141 (2010-19) and 126 (2000-09).

Kraft is the most successful owner since he purchased the team in 1994 in terms of wins (357), division titles (19), winning percentage (.650), playoff wins (33) and playoff seasons (22).

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In his 31 seasons of ownership, he is credited with transforming one of the league's least successful clubs into one of the most valuable. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.238 pct.), the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won more division titles (19), conference crowns (10) and Super Bowl championships (6) than any other NFL team. Additionally, the Patriots have achieved the most winning seasons (24) since Kraft assumed ownership beginning in 1994. Super Bowl LIII was the 10th Super Bowl appearance since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other team has appeared in more than four Super Bowls. In Kraft's 31 seasons, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs 22 times, more than doubling the franchise's accomplishments during its first 34 seasons.

Al Davis of the Raiders accomplished the feat in 495 games (31 seasons) while Pat Bowlen of Denver reached 300 career wins in 501 games (30 seasons).

Kraft's winning percentage with the Patriots (.650) since taking over the team in 1994 is the highest among all owners/ownership groups with at least 200 wins (regular and postseason) with one team. He is one of just four owners with at least 200 wins and a winning percentage over .600.

PATRIOTS IN THE PLAYOFFS

The Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 28 times in their 63-year history. NOTES: This analysis uses NFL rules when calculating winning percentage, counting ties as a half-win and a half-loss. For NHL teams, overtime losses (OTL) and ties from 2001-2004 (the NHL abolished ties in 2005-2006 and instituted a shootout system) are counted as ties when calculating winning percentage.

2010 (Gostkowski, P Zoltan Mesko, LS Jake Ingram)

They join Chicago - Jim Dolley and Abe Gbron, Philadelphia, Jerry Williams and Ed Khayat and Green Bay, Bart Starr and Forrest Gregg.
- The Patriots have two sets of twins on the team with Kyle Dugger (Kaelyn) and Milton Williams (Mia).

CEREBRAL AND VERSATILE

Vrabel exemplified positional versatility during his Patriots career by starting at both inside and outside linebacker, regularly lining up on offense in short-yardage and goal-line situations and continually making valuable contributions on various special teams units. As a Patriot, he caught eight regular season passes and two more in the playoffs. All 10 of his receptions were for touchdowns, including receptions in back-to-back Super Bowl wins over the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl XXXVIII and Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

A PROVEN LEADER AND CHAMPION

AS A PLAYER: Vrabel's accomplishments as a player included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Originally drafted in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers, he spent the early years of his career mostly playing on special teams and as a reserve linebacker. He signed with the Patriots as an unheralded free agent in 2001 and went on to become one of the key pieces of the dynasty that captured three Super Bowl titles in four years. Vrabel ended his playing career with the Kansas City Chiefs after being a part of a trade that included QB Matt Cassel. He appeared in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 722 tackles, 11 interceptions (one returned for a touchdown), 20 forced fumbles and 9 fumble recoveries. A cerebral and versatile athlete, he also saw action as a tight end and totaled 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording 8 postseason sacks and two additional postseason touchdown receptions.

AS A COACH: Vrabel has 14 years of coaching experience, including 11 years in the NFL and three seasons at Ohio State. The Tennessee Titans hired him as their head coach in 2018 and he led the Titans to two division titles and three playoff appearances during his six seasons at the helm. In 2019, the Titans upset the Patriots in Foxborough in the Wild Card round, then defeated the No. 1 seed Ravens in Baltimore the following week to advance to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs. In 2021, the Titans claimed the top seed in the AFC with a 12-5 record, earning Vrabel NFL Coach of the Year honors.

"IN THE END, IT WAS CLEAR TO ME, AND TO MY FAMILY, AND MY SOUL, THAT THIS WAS THE PLACE THAT I WANTED TO BE."

— MIKE VRABEL

PATRIOTS OFFENSIVE NOTES

FAMILY TIES

- While New England is all new for C Garrett Bradbury, an unlikely and largely unknown familial connection exists between himself and quarterback Drake Maye. Bradbury's brother-in-law, Jackson Kowar, a pitcher in the Mariners organization, played baseball and became close friends with Maye's brother, Cole, when they played together at the University of Florida. There are many challenges presented when it comes to free agency, but for Bradbury, it sure helped when family had one team in mind: "When I was going through the free agency process," Bradbury said, "They were all like, 'New England, New England, New England.'"

GENERATIONS OF REBELS

- C Ben Brown comes from a rich history of Ole Miss football players, as he is the seventh member of his family to play for the school. Brown's father, Tim (1988-89); his maternal grandfather, Bobby (1962-64); paternal grandfather, Allen (1962-64); great uncle, Jerry (1959-61); father's cousin, Alton (1971-72); and uncle, Burkes (1991-92) all played for the Rebels. As a tight end, Allen was a First-Team All-American in college and a two-time Super Bowl Champion for the Green Bay Packers.

COAST TO COAST

- Brown was signed by New England to the 53-man roster from the Las Vegas practice squad on Oct. 10, 2024. He took a red-eye flight across the country and made his first start for the Patriots when the team hosted the Houston Texans (10/13) just three days later.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2025

- WR Stefon Diggs has recorded five seasons with 100 receptions. If he registers 100 receptions in 2025, he will join Antonio Brown and Brandon Marshall as the only NFL players with six 100-reception seasons.

THE PASSTRONAUT

- QB Joshua Dobbs graduated with a degree in aerospace engineering from Tennessee and has since combined his love for football and space, coining the nickname, "The Passtronaut." Through the NFLPA's virtual externship program, Dobbs spent two years (2020-21) with the NASA Kennedy Space Flight Center. In 2022, Dobbs established The ASTROrdinary Dobbs Foundation, which is dedicated to supporting, encouraging and inspiring all members of the community, particularly the youth, through educational, economical, professional and recreational empowerment.
- "We're promoting my background growing up, which was in STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics), aerospace and aviation," Dobbs said. "So, we love giving back to the community itself, who supported me throughout my career, but also just promoting STEM engagement, giving back to those less fortunate and just being involved. It's very important to me to support those communities and to be able to represent my own foundation. It's really cool. As I said, just having the platform, being able to give back."

THE MEANING BEHIND THE NICKNAME

- DeMario Douglas is more commonly referred to by his nickname, "Pop". Although the nickname is fitting for his quickness on the field, the name actually comes from family ties. NUMBER CHANGE

- Pop Douglas changed his jersey number from No. 81 to No. 3 in 2024. He wore No. 3 in college at Liberty, as well as in Little League, middle school and high school. Former Philadelphia QB Randall Cunningham set the NFL record for a quarterback with a 7.84-yard rushing average in his first two NFL seasons (1985-86 – 95 rushing attempts for 745 yards).

TOP OF THE ORDER

- The Patriots used the third pick in the 2024 draft for the first time in team history and used the pick to select QB Drake Maye from North Carolina. It marked the fifth time since 1970 that the team drafted a quarterback in the first round - Jim Plunkett from Stanford (1st overall in 1971), Tony Eason from Illinois (15th overall in 1983), Drew Bledsoe from Washington State (1st overall in 1993), Mac Jones from Alabama (15th overall in 2021) and Drake Maye from North Carolina (3rd overall). Maye was the first Patriot drafted in the top 10 since 2008 when the team selected former head coach and former LB Jerod Mayo with the 10th pick overall out of Tennessee.

PRO BOWL

- Maye was added to the Pro Bowl roster to cap his rookie season. Maye is the sixth Patriots player to be selected to the Pro Bowl as a rookie, joining Mike Haynes (1976), John Stephens (1988), Curtis Martin (1995), Devin McCourty (2010) and Mac Jones (2021).

THE MAYE WAY

- Maye, the youngest of four boys, hails from a family of athletes. His father, Mark, also played quarterback at the University of North Carolina from 1983-1988. His brother, Luke, played basketball at North Carolina (2015-19), winning a national title in 2017 with the Tar Heels. Luke now plays overseas in Japan. His brother, Cole, won a baseball national championship in 2017 with the University of Florida as a pitcher. His brother, Beau, also played basketball at the University of North Carolina. Despite the rich tradition of family athleticism, Drake Maye, measuring at 6'4", is the shortest of the four brothers (Luke at 6'8"; Cole at 6'7"; Beau at 6'8").

DEDICATION TO HIS GOALS

- While in high school, Stevenson started gaining attention for the impressive stats he posted as a junior. Unfortunately, due to his grades, Stevenson was academically ineligible to receive a football scholarship despite being recruited. Following his senior year of high school, Stevenson took a year off from football and worked part-time jobs at Walmart and Jimmy John's. But after a year away, he decided to follow a group of his friends and enroll in Cerritos Community College. During his time at Cerritos, he shared a two-bedroom apartment with up to six other guys at times and rode his bicycle 20 minutes to and from practice every day. After putting up monster stats in his second season at Cerritos, he committed to Oklahoma. Oklahoma led him to the 2021 NFL Draft where in the fourth round on the third day the Patriots selected Stevenson. In addition, he worked on his academics and made the Dean's List while at Oklahoma.

STRANGE FACEMASK

- 2022 first-round draft pick OL Cole Strange started wearing the vertical bar facemask his senior season at Chattanooga. The idea started when the veteran offensive line group, who had been together for four years, wanted to do something different to finish out their final season playing alongside each other. They decided to all wear the same facemask and landed on the vertical bar. Strange brought the bar with him to the NFL and is one of only three NFL regulars to sport the vertical bar in their facemask.

CITY OF ANGELS TO TITLE TOWN

- As part of the Patriots' rookie development program, Head Coach Mike Vrabel brought the 2025 rookie class to a Red Sox game and to the Celtics' practice facility. WR Kyle Williams, a Los Angeles native, quickly recognized the passion for sports in his new city of Boston and uses it as motivation: "It's huge," Williams said. "You see Patriots everywhere. You see Celtics everywhere. Just seeing the love this town has for sports, it makes you want to give back and compete harder."

JOURNEY TO THE NFL

- As a high school sophomore, football wasn't on Christian Barmore's radar. Barmore played basketball in high school until his junior year, when the football coach at Delaware Valley Charter High School convinced him to give football a chance. Moving to Neumann Goretti High School as a senior after his previous high school closed, Barmore became a highly-recruited prospect in just his second season of organized football, committing to the University of Alabama. Additionally, Barmore has faced plenty of adversity in his life, including the process of overcoming blood clots to return to the field in 2024. PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMER RICHARD SEYMOUR SEES GREATNESS AHEAD FOR CHRISTIAN BARMORE

- For a defensive lineman, if Patriots and Pro Football Hall of Famer Richard Seymour is in your corner, there are few better compliments or endorsements.
- "I think he has a ton of ability, natural ability, and he plays hard," Seymour told the Boston Herald. "I think he's going to be a problem for (opposing teams) for a long time to come. Hopefully he stays healthy and continues on the path he's on. I think he has a really bright future."

SECOND-MOST QUARTERBACK PRESSURES

- Barmore posted the second-most quarterback pressures for a first-year defensive tackle since 2006, according to Pro Football Focus. His 48 pressures in 2021 were two more than Aaron Donald had during his rookie season.

FIRST CAREER 3-SACK GAME

- Barmore finished with his first career 3-sack game, all in the third quarter, at Denver on Dec. 24, 2023. He had two 8-yard sacks and one 9-yard sack of Denver QB Russell Wilson. He increased his 2023 total to 8½ sacks. He is the first Patriots player with a 3-sack game since LB Joshua Uche had a 3-sack game at Arizona on Dec. 12, 2022. The last defensive lineman with a 3-sack game for New England was Deatrich Wise Jr. on Sept. 25, 2022 vs. Baltimore.

- Dugger helped put Lenoir-Rhyne University on the map, becoming the highest-drafted athlete in the Division II football program's history.
- Three years after being selected in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft, a diligent Dugger worked hard to finish his degree, earning a Bachelor's degree in psychology in 2023.

LOVE BEYOND BLOOD

- LB Christian Elliss has six adopted siblings. For the NFL's My Cause My Cleats initiative, Elliss is representing "An Act of Love," the agency that his siblings were adopted through. Elliss has two kids of his own with one on the way, and he and his wife look forward to adopting a child one day as well.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY

- Elliss has two brothers that also play linebacker in the NFL: Jonah (Denver Broncos) and Kaden (Atlanta Falcons). Another one of his brothers, Noah, played for the Philadelphia Eagles. His father, Luther, was a first-round draft pick by the Detroit Lions in 1995. As a defensive lineman, he was a two-time Pro Bowler in nine seasons with Detroit and Denver. He is currently the defensive tackles coach at the University of Utah where Christian's younger brother, Elijah, plays defensive end.

ELLISS HAS CAREER-HIGH IN TACKLES

- Elliss set a single-game career high vs. Buffalo on Jan. 5, 2025, with a team-leading 13 total tackles. His previous high was 9 tackles at the Jacksonville Jaguars on Oct. 20, 2024, and vs. the New York Jets on Oct. 27, 2024. Elliss' tackle total was the highest of the 2024 season for any Patriots player. LB Ja'Whaun Bentley had 12 total tackles at Cincinnati on Sept. 8, 2024.

DR. GIBBY

- LB Jack Gibbens revealed the nickname given to him by Mike Vrabel when the two were together at Tennessee. According to Gibbens, Vrabel has called him "Dr. Gibby" ever since his rookie season. This nickname came about as a result of Gibbens answering questions correctly while the coach was quizzing the team: "I had to tell him I didn't study medicine...He had to tell me it was a joke," Gibbens said.

GONZALEZ EARNS SECOND TEAM ALL-PRO HONORS

- CB Christian Gonzalez earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro Honors for his 2024 season.

ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

- Gonzalez was named the Defensive Rookie of the Month for September by the National Football League, becoming the fifth Patriots player to win a rookie of the month honor and the third defensive player to earn the award. Gonzalez joins QB Mac Jones (November of 2021), DE Chandler Jones (September of 2012), LB Jerod Mayo (October of 2008) and WR Deion Branch (September of 2002).

GONZO'S JOURNEY

- Before his collegiate success, even the prospect of going to college seemed out of reach for Gonzalez. He didn't want his family to have to pay his college tuition, and as a sophomore, he was a backup quarterback on his high school's junior varsity team that went 1-9. He almost gave up the sport, but after his family's encouragement and transferring schools, Gonzalez's new coaches switched him to defense, and he quickly attracted the attention of colleges around the nation.
- To understand the athleticism of Christian Gonzalez, look no further than his family. His father, Hector, played basketball at UTEP and professionally overseas. Gonzalez's two older sisters were both on the Colombian National Team for track & field and were college All-Americans. His eldest sister competed in the 2020 Olympics, and his younger sister is a rising star in soccer.

A REUNION WITH MEANING

- LB Robert Spillane was originally signed by Tennessee as a rookie free agent out of Western Michigan, the first year Mike Vrabel was head coach of the Titans. In 2025, he reunited with the coach that took a chance on him and made his dream a reality, this time in New England. The day Spillane signed with the team in Tennessee, it was Mother's Day. On the day Spillane signed his contract in New England, it was his mother's birthday.
- "I got hired in 2018 on Mother's Day, and I got to call my mom in tears saying, 'I'm going to be a professional football player,' Spillane said. '[March 13] is her birthday, so I'm signing the contract on her birthday. She's a very important special woman in my life, and I just want to make her proud.'"

UNDRAFTED TO TOP OF THE LEAGUE

- Spillane has recorded over 100 tackles in each of his last two seasons with the Las Vegas Raiders: 158 in 2024 and 148 in 2023. His 158 tackles in 2024 set a Raiders single-season record and ranked third in the NFL. In 2023, Spillane became the only Raiders player to record 100-plus tackles, 3.0-plus sacks and 3-plus interceptions in a single season since 1987. Since the beginning of the 2022 season, Spillane has tallied 383 tackles, the second-most in the NFL among undrafted defenders, behind only Chicago LB T.J. Edwards (441).

THE WHY BEHIND THE NUMBER

- Spillane is the grandson of RB Johnny Lattner, the 1953 Heisman Trophy winner. Lattner secured the award in his senior season at Notre Dame, after he rushed for 651 yards (4.9-yard average) and 9 touchdowns, in addition to catching 14 passes for 204 yards. He had 2 touchdowns off of just 10 kickoff returns and saw some action on defense, recording 4 interceptions in the Irish's 9-0-1 campaign. Notre Dame finished second in the AP Poll in 1953 behind Maryland. Lattner played one season in the NFL with Pittsburgh after he was selected seventh overall in the 1954 NFL Draft. Spillane wears No. 14 to honor Lattner, who wore No. 14 at Notre Dame.

EYES CLOSED, OPEN MIND

- During his introductory press conference as a Patriots player, Spillane mentioned that he does a lot of "eyes-closed training." Later on, he explained exactly what "eyes-closed training" meant and how it helps him in football. Spillane explained that he developed a style of training where he scouts out an area, whether that be a mountain trail or in a forest, walks it, returns to walk it with his eyes shut, then returns again to walk it backward with his eyes shut. When asked how this training came about, Spillane told the Athletic, "I didn't really learn it from anybody, so it's from the ground up, self-taught," Spillane said. "It's basically just a confidence drill. As a middle linebacker, you want to know where you are on the field at all times — within the positioning of the field, understanding the schematics, where the other players are around you. So, you close your eyes and take away the most basic thing you use to understand that. You've really got to rely on your instincts and your trust."

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2025

- LB Jahlani Tavai has registered 100-total tackles in each of the last two seasons with 107 tackles in 2023 and a career-high 109 total tackles in 2024. He can become the first Patriots player with three-straight 100 tackle seasons since LB Ja'Whaun Bentley (2021, 2022 and 2023).

ASK AND JAHLANI RECEIVED

- Tavai starred in high school as a nose guard. He was undersized and did not attract the attention of many colleges. But after finding out one of the English teachers at his high school was the son of then-Hawaii coach Norm Chow, he reached out to the teacher, Cameron Chow, and asked if Cameron could tell his dad to scout his tape. Cameron followed up and passed along Jahlani's tape to his dad, and the very next day, Jahlani had a scholarship offer. According to Jahlani, his football career would have been over after high school if it wasn't for this connection.

ONE AND ONLY

- Tavai is the only NFL player within the last decade to play at least 70% of the snaps on offense or defense and 70% of the snaps on special teams, a feat he accomplished in 2023. Among 252 players that played at least 40 percent of his team's special teams snaps in 2024, Tavai and Minnesota S Josh Metellus are the only players to have also played 80 percent of his team's defensive snaps.

TAVAI SETS CAREER HIGH IN TACKLES

- Tavai finished the 2024 season with a single-season career best 109 total tackles. His previous best was his 107 total tackles during the 2023 season.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2025

- P Bryce Baringer can become the first Patriots player with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line in three straight seasons. Baringer set a Patriots record with 38 punts inside the 20-yard line as a rookie in 2023 and then followed with 31 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2024. Baringer and Jake Bailey (36 in 2019 and 31 in 2020) are the only Patriots punters with back-to-back seasons with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line. If Baringer reaches 30 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2025, he will be the first punter since Cameron Johnston (2021-23 with Houston) to accomplish the feat.
- Baringer enters the 2025 season with a team record 48.1-yard punting average and will attempt to keep that pace.

30 AND 30

- Baringer led the NFL and set a team record in 2023 with 38 punts inside the 20-yard line. Baringer became the second Patriots punter with back-to-back seasons with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line after finishing with 31 in 2024. Jake Bailey had 36 in 2019 and 31 in 2020.

PATRIOTS SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-AMERICAN

- Baringer had an unconventional path to the NFL. He began his collegiate career by earning a walk-on spot at Illinois in 2018 as a true freshman, but due to being buried on the depth chart and the cost of out-of-state tuition, he transferred home to Michigan State as a regular student. Outside of a four-game stint on the Michigan State team due to injuries on the roster, Baringer did not have a walk-on spot available to him in 2019. After a year serving as the team's photographer to maintain access to the facilities to train, Baringer attended an open tryout with a new coaching staff at the Spartans and made the team, establishing himself as the Spartans top punter in 2020 and going on to have record-breaking seasons in 2021 and 2022. In 2022, he was named the Big 10 Punter of the Year and a consensus All-American by all five major associations.

BARINGER SETS TEAM MARK

- Baringer had at least one 50-yard punt in all 17 games in 2023 to set the team record for the longest single season streak in team history (at any point of the season). Zoltan Mesko had a 12-game streak in 2011. Baringer extended his record to 27 games with a 50-yard punt after connecting on a 50-yard punt in the first 10 games of 2024 before the streak ended in the game vs. the LA Rams (11/17/24).

RECORD BREAKING

- Baringer connected on a 79-yard punt in the second quarter vs. Indianapolis on Nov. 12, 2023 in Frankfurt, Germany, the fifth-longest punt in team history.
