GAME SUMMARY

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (14-3) AT DENVER BRONCOS (14-3)

Sunday, January 25, 2026 • Empower Field at Mile High (76,125) • 3:00 p.m. ET

The New England Patriots advanced to their 16th AFC Championship Game with a 28-16 victory over the Houston Texans in the AFC Divisional Game. This week, the Patriots will travel to face the Denver Broncos in the AFC Championship Game for the third time. The teams faced each other in the Conference Championship Game in 2013 and 2015, with both games played in Denver with Broncos wins. The 2025 Patriots finished the season tied with the Denver Broncos and the Seattle Seahawks for the best record in the NFL with a 14-3 record to earn the No. 2 seed in the AFC Playoffs. The 14-3 record is a 10-game difference from the 4-13 finish in 2024. The 10-game improvement tied the 1999 Indianapolis Colts and the 2008 Miami Dolphins for the best turnaround in NFL history. The 1998 Colts were 3-13 and improved to 13-3 in 1999, and the 2007 Dolphins were 1-15 in 2007 and improved to 11-5 in 2008.

PATRIOTS AT DENVER BRONCOS

SERIES HISTORY

The New England Patriots and Denver Broncos will meet for the sixth time in the postseason and for the third time in the AFC Championship. The Patriots and Broncos have played in three Divisional Playoff games and two AFC Championship Games. The Patriots lost both of those championship games with a 26-16 loss in the 2013 AFC Championship Game and 20-18 in the 2015 AFC Championship Game. Both of those games were played in Denver.

The Patriots are 0-4 in the postseason in Denver. In addition to the two AFC Championship Game losses, the Patriots also lost in the Divisional round in 1986 and 2005. The Patriots have played more games against the Broncos than any other team that has never been in New England's division with 55 matchups. At Denver, the Patriots are 12-17 in the regular season and 12-21 overall including the postseason. The teams last faced off in the 2023 season when New England prevailed, 26-23, on Dec. 24, 2023.

The history between the teams dates back to the initial season of the American Football League in 1960. The Patriots played the Broncos in the inaugural game of each franchise, a 13-10 Denver win on Sept. 9, 1960, at BU Field in Boston. The teams squared off twice a year in the decade prior to the AFL-NFL merger, except for 1967 and 1969.

ELLISS BROTHERS MEET AGAIN

Patriots LB Christian Elliss will face off against one of his brother's for the second time this season: Broncos LB Jonah Elliss.

Christian went head-to-head against their brother Kaden, who plays for Atlanta, and came out on top, 24-23, on November 2.

FROM THE BAYOU TO THE MOUNTAINTOP

After leaving the New Orleans Saints and taking the Broncos head coaching job, Sean Payton brought over many players and coaches from his tenure there.

Currently, there are nine coaches, six players and one former Saints player who is now a coach that were in New Orleans with Payton.

Patriots Offensive Line Coach Doug Marrone spent three seasons under Payton as the team's Offensive Coordinator & Offensive Line Coach from 2006-08. He helped coach up a young Jahri Evans, who would go on to be inducted into the team's ring of honor, and guided the Saints offensive line to a team record low of 13 sacks allowed in 2008.

- Mike Vrabel is one of seven head coaches that won a Super Bowl for a team and then became the head coach of that team. Vrabel won three Super Bowls during his seven seasons as a player for the Patriots. The other coaches to win a Super Bowl for a team and then become the head coach for that team are Jerod Mayo (New England), Forrest Gregg (Green Bay), Bart Starr (Green Bay), Art Shell (Oakland), Jeff Saturday (Indianapolis) and Jason Garrett (Dallas). Vrabel can become the first of that group to lead his team to a Super Bowl appearance as a head coach.

- Vrabel can become the seventh head coach to lead the team he played for to a Super Bowl berth, joining Don Shula (Super Bowl III with Baltimore), Tom Flores (Super Bowl XV and Super Bowl XVIII with the Raiders), Mike Ditka (Super Bowl XX with Chicago), Sam Wyche (Super Bowl XXIII with Cincinnati), Gary Kubiak (Super Bowl 50 with Denver) and Doug Pederson (Super Bowl LII with Philadelphia).

- Vrabel can become the eighth head coach to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with the team. Don McCaffrey, George Seifert, Jon Gruden and Gary Kubiak were the only head coaches to win a Super Bowl in their first season as a head coach for that specific team.

SEASON TICKET HOLDER
BEFORE BUYING THE TEAM IN 1994

Under Kraft's leadership since he purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports.

Kraft has led the two most dominant decades in NFL history in terms of overall wins – 141 (2010-19) and 126 (2000-09).

Kraft is the most successful owner since he purchased the team in 1994 in terms of wins (373), division titles (20), winning percentage (.657), playoff wins (35) and playoff seasons (23).

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In his 32 seasons of ownership, he is credited with transforming one of the league's least successful clubs into one of the most valuable. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.238 pct.), the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won more division titles (20), conference crowns (10) and Super Bowl championships (6) than any other NFL team. Additionally, the Patriots have achieved the most winning seasons (25) since Kraft assumed ownership beginning in 1994. Super Bowl LIII was the 10th Super Bowl appearance since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other team has appeared in more than four Super Bowls. In Kraft's 32 seasons, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs 23 times, more than doubling the franchise's accomplishments during its first 34 seasons.

A WINNING TRADITION I

Robert Kraft won his 300th game overall as owner of the New England Patriots against Miami on Sept. 30, 2018. Kraft reached the milestone in his 25th NFL season and in his 432nd game, the fastest an owner has reached the mark. Al Davis of the Raiders accomplished the feat in 495 games (31 seasons) while Pat Bowlen of Denver reached 300 career wins in 501 games (30 seasons).

A WINNING TRADITION II

Kraft's winning percentage with the Patriots (.657) since taking over the team in 1994 is the highest among all owners/ownership groups with at least 200 wins (regular and postseason) with one team. He is one of just four owners with at least 200 wins and a winning percentage over .600.

The Patriots have 373 wins overall under Robert Kraft. He has produced more victories than every other Patriots owner combined. Under Kraft, the Patriots are 373-195 overall since he purchased the team in 1994. Kraft's predecessors in the owner's office went 225-276-9 in the 34 years prior to his purchase of the team.

CONTINUITY BREEDS SUCCESS

New England is the first team in NFL history to win six Super Bowls with the same owner (Robert Kraft), head coach (Bill Belichick) and quarterback (Tom Brady).

PATRIOTS IN THE PLAYOFFS

The Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 29 times in their 66-year history. Twenty-three of those playoff berths have come in the 32 seasons since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, a dramatic contrast to the six total playoff berths the team earned in its first 34 years of existence. The Patriots have won 23 division crowns.

For NHL teams, overtime losses (OTL) and ties from 2001-2004 (the NHL abolished ties in 2005-2006 and instituted a shootout system) are counted as ties when calculating winning percentage.

CEREBRAL AND VERSATILE

Vrabel exemplified positional versatility during his Patriots career by starting at both inside and outside linebacker, regularly lining up on offense in short-yardage and goal-line situations and continually making valuable contributions on various special teams units. As a Patriot, he caught eight regular season passes and two more in the playoffs. All 10 of his receptions were for touchdowns, including receptions in back-to-back Super Bowl wins over the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl XXXVIII and Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

"IN THE END, IT WAS CLEAR TO ME, AND TO MY FAMILY, AND MY SOUL, THAT THIS WAS THE PLACE THAT I WANTED TO BE."

— MIKE VRABEL

A PROVEN LEADER AND CHAMPION

AS A PLAYER: Vrabel's accomplishments as a player included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Originally drafted in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers, he spent the early years of his career mostly playing on special teams and as a reserve linebacker. He signed with the Patriots as an unheralded free agent in 2001 and went on to become one of the key pieces of the dynasty that captured three Super Bowl titles in four years. Vrabel ended his playing career with the Kansas City Chiefs after being a part of a trade that included QB Matt Cassel. He appeared in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 722 tackles, 11 interceptions (one returned for a touchdown), 20 forced fumbles and 9 fumble recoveries. A cerebral and versatile athlete, he also saw action as a tight end and totaled 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording 8 postseason sacks and two additional postseason touchdown receptions.

AS A COACH: Vrabel has 14 years of coaching experience, including 11 years in the NFL and three seasons at Ohio State. The Tennessee Titans hired him as their head coach in 2018 and he led the Titans to two division titles and three playoff appearances during his six seasons at the helm. In 2019, the Titans upset the Patriots in Foxborough in the Wild Card round, then defeated the No. 1 seed Ravens in Baltimore the following week to advance to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs. In 2021, the Titans claimed the top seed in the AFC with a 12-5 record, earning Vrabel NFL Coach of the Year honors.

SUPER BOWL DNA

PATRIOTS OFFENSIVE NOTES

FAMILY TIES

- While New England is all new for C Garrett Bradbury, an unlikely and largely unknown familial connection exists between himself and quarterback Drake Maye. Bradbury's brother-in-law, Jackson Kowar, a pitcher in the Mariners organization, played baseball and became close friends with Maye's brother, Cole, when they played together at the University of Florida. There are many challenges presented when it comes to free agency, but for Bradbury, it sure helped when family had one team in mind: "When I was going through the free agency process," Bradbury said, "They were all like, 'New England, New England, New England.'"

FLAG ON THE PLAY

- When Bradbury joined the team, he was surprised to find that the offensive line did not spend very much time together outside of Gillette Stadium. Feeling it would be an important chemistry-building activity, Bradbury decided to bring the group together each Thursday to eat out for dinner. An unexpected side effect of this was the group's discovery of their love for Shirley Temples, a red non-alcoholic drink made with grenadine and either Sprite or ginger ale. Some nights, the offensive line room has ordered close to 70. Nonetheless, the bonding moments shared over the drinks have made their trust and connections stronger.

GENERATIONS OF REBELS

- C Ben Brown comes from a rich history of Ole Miss football players, as he is the seventh member of his family to play for the school. Brown's father, Tim (1988-89); his maternal grandfather, Bobby (1962-64); paternal grandfather, Allen (1962-64); great uncle, Jerry (1959-61); father's cousin, Alton (1971-72); and uncle, Burkes (1991-92) all played for the Rebels. As a tight end, Allen was a First-Team All-American in college and a two-time Super Bowl Champion for the Green Bay Packers.

COAST TO COAST

- Brown was signed by New England to the 53-man roster from the Las Vegas practice squad on Oct. 10, 2024. He took a red-eye flight across the country and made his first start for the Patriots when the team hosted the Houston Texans (10/13) just three days later.

ROOKIE AND THE VETS

- WR Efton Chism III is developing a work ethic by following his veteran wide receivers. Wide receivers coach Todd Downing recently addressed his thoughts on Chism's work ethic: "It starts well before he ever hits the field," Downing said. "This guy's one of the first guys in. A lot of times he'll pop into my office super early in the morning, as I'm just getting going, and he wants to sit there and just watch me build the PowerPoint for the meeting that day or something. Just to kind of get an extra time or an extra rep, the mental processing for the system. He stays late with Mack (Hollins) and goes through things with Mack, and those two have developed a cool relationship, so that piece of it's cool, and then what he does on the field is he translates that into playing fast and confident. He knows exactly what to do, so then he can go out and execute it."

#11 JOSHUA DOBBS

THE PASSTRONAUT

- QB Joshua Dobbs graduated with a degree in aerospace engineering from Tennessee and has since combined his love for football and space, coining the nickname, "The Passtronaut." Through the NFLPA's virtual externship program, Dobbs spent two years (2020-21) with the NASA Kennedy Space Flight Center. In 2022, Dobbs established The ASTROrdinary Dobbs Foundation, which is dedicated to supporting, encouraging and inspiring all members of the community, particularly the youth, through educational, economical, professional and recreational empowerment.
- "We're promoting my background growing up, which was in STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics), aerospace and aviation," Dobbs said. "So, we love giving back to the community itself, who supported me throughout my career, but also just promoting STEM engagement, giving back to those less fortunate and just being involved. It's very important to me to support those communities and to be able to represent my own foundation. It's really cool. As I said, just having the platform, being able to give back."

#3 DEMARIO DOUGLAS

THE MEANING BEHIND THE NICKNAME

- DeMario Douglas is more commonly referred to by his nickname, "Pop". Although the nickname is fitting for his quickness on the field, the name actually comes from family ties. Douglas' granddad passed away on his first birthday. The wide receiver was commonly referred to as 'Poppa' from his granddad – a nickname that was quickly shortened to just 'Pop'.

NUMBER CHANGE

- Pop Douglas changed his jersey number from No. 81 to No. 3 in 2024. He wore No. 3 in college at Liberty, as well as in Little League, middle school and high school. He explained its meaning to him: "It's big because I was raised by three strong ladies -- my mom, grandma and great-grandma," he said.

ROOKIE RECEIVING RECORDS

- Douglas finished the 2023 season with 49 receptions for a team-leading 561 yards. He has the most receptions and receiving yards by a Patriots rookie wide receiver since 2000.

Hollins flew them out, and although he was hesitant at first, they convinced him that doing all of his training barefoot can help with durability. In the last few years, Hollins has completely abandoned shoes and now walks barefoot all the time, unless it is under 35 degrees.

DEDICATION TO HIS GOALS

- While in high school, Stevenson started gaining attention for the impressive stats he posted as a junior. Unfortunately, due to his grades, Stevenson was academically ineligible to receive a football scholarship despite being recruited. Following his senior year of high school, Stevenson took a year off from football and worked part-time jobs at Walmart and Jimmy John's. But after a year away, he decided to follow a group of his friends and enroll in Cerritos Community College. During his time at Cerritos, he shared a two-bedroom apartment with up to six other guys at times and rode his bicycle 20 minutes to and from practice every day. After putting up monster stats in his second season at Cerritos, he committed to Oklahoma. Oklahoma led him to the 2021 NFL Draft where in the fourth round on the third day the Patriots selected Stevenson. In addition, he worked on his academics and made the Dean's List while at Oklahoma.

STEVENSON HAD CAREER LONG RUN

- Stevenson had a career-long 64-yard touchdown run in the second quarter vs. Washington on Nov. 5, 2023. His previous long was a 49-yard run vs. Detroit on Oct. 9, 2022, and his previous longest touchdown run was a 34-yard touchdown run at Las Vegas on Dec. 18, 2022.

He has two of the teams 14 games with at least 160 yards rushing. Only Curtis Martin and Jim Nance with three have more.

CITY OF ANGELS TO TITLE TOWN

- As part of the Patriots' rookie development program, Head Coach Mike Vrabel brought the 2025 rookie class to a Red Sox game and to the Celtics' practice facility. WR Kyle Williams, a Los Angeles native, quickly recognized the passion for sports in his new city of Boston and uses it as motivation: "It's huge," Williams said. "You see Patriots everywhere. You see Celtics everywhere. Just seeing the love this town has for sports, it makes you want to give back and compete harder."

ROOKIE SCORES FIRST NFL TD ON A 72-YARD PASS

- Williams scored his first career touchdown on a 72-yard touchdown pass from QB Drake Maye at Tampa Bay (11/9/25). It was the longest pass play for New England since QB Mac Jones threw a 75-yard touchdown pass to WR Kendrick Bourne vs. Dallas on Oct. 17, 2021.

JOURNEY TO THE NFL

- As a high school sophomore, football wasn't on Christian Barmore's radar. Barmore played basketball in high school until his junior year, when the football coach at Delaware Valley Charter High School convinced him to give football a chance. Moving to Neumann Goretti High School as a senior after his previous high school closed, Barmore became a highly-recruited prospect in just his second season of organized football, committing to the University of Alabama. Additionally, Barmore has faced plenty of adversity in his life, including the process of overcoming blood clots to return to the field in 2024. PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMER RICHARD SEYMOUR SEES GREATNESS AHEAD FOR CHRISTIAN BARMORE

- For a defensive lineman, if Patriots and Pro Football Hall of Famer Richard Seymour is in your corner, there are few better compliments or endorsements.
- "I think he has a ton of ability, natural ability, and he plays hard," Seymour told the Boston Herald. "I think he's going to be a problem for (opposing teams) for a long time to come. Hopefully he stays healthy and continues on the path he's on. I think he has a really bright future."

SECOND-MOST QUARTERBACK PRESSURES

- Barmore posted the second-most quarterback pressures for a first-year defensive tackle since 2006, according to Pro Football Focus. His 48 pressures in 2021 were two more than Aaron Donald had during his rookie season.

FIRST CAREER 3-SACK GAME

- Barmore finished with his first career 3-sack game, all in the third quarter, at Denver on Dec. 24, 2023. He had two 8-yard sacks and one 9-yard sack of Denver QB Russell Wilson. He increased his 2023 total to 8½ sacks. He is the first Patriots player with a 3-sack game since LB Joshua Uche had a 3-sack game at Arizona on Dec. 12, 2022. The last defensive lineman with a 3-sack game for New England was Deatrich Wise Jr. on Sept. 25, 2022 vs. Baltimore.

LOVE BEYOND BLOOD

- LB Christian Elliss has six adopted siblings. For the NFL's My Cause My Cleats initiative, Elliss represented "An Act of Love," the agency that his siblings were adopted through. Elliss has two kids of his own with one on the way, and he and his wife look forward to adopting a child one day as well.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY

- Elliss has two brothers that also play linebacker in the NFL: Jonah (Denver Broncos) and Kaden (Atlanta Falcons). Another one of his brothers, Noah, played for the Philadelphia Eagles. His father, Luther, was a first-round draft pick by the Detroit Lions in 1995. As a defensive lineman, he was a two-time Pro Bowler in nine seasons with Detroit and Denver. He is currently the defensive tackles coach at the University of Utah where Christian's younger brother, Elijah, plays defensive end.

ELLISS HAS CAREER-HIGH IN TACKLES

- Elliss set a single-game career high vs. Buffalo on Jan. 5, 2025, with a team-leading 13 total tackles. His previous high was 9 tackles at the Jacksonville Jaguars on Oct. 20, 2024, and vs. the New York Jets on Oct. 27, 2024. Elliss' tackle total was the highest of the 2024 season for any Patriots player. LB Ja'Whaun Bentley had 12 total tackles at Cincinnati on Sept. 8, 2024.

ELLISS HAD A CAREER-HIGH 4 SPECIAL TEAMS TACKLES

- Elliss finished with a career-high 4 total special teams tackles vs. the N.Y. Giants (12/1/25). It is the most special teams tackles in a game for a Patriots player since DB Cody Davis had 4 special teams tackles vs. the New York Jets on Oct. 24, 2021. Elliss now has four games in 2025 with at least three special teams tackles. He had 3 at Miami (9/14), 3 vs. Atlanta (11/2), 4 vs., NY Giants (12/1) and 3 at the N.Y. Jets (12/28). Elliss had a career-high 18 special teams tackles. His previous high was 8 in 2024.

DR. GIBBY

- LB Jack Gibbens revealed the nickname given to him by Mike Vrabel when the two were together at Tennessee. According to Gibbens, Vrabel has called him "Dr. Gibby" ever since his rookie season. This nickname came about as a result of Gibbens answering questions correctly while the coach was quizzing the team: "I had to tell him I didn't study medicine...He had to tell me it was a joke," Gibbens said.

GIBBENS REACHES DOUBLE DIGIT SPECIAL TEAMS TACKLES

- Gibbens reached double-digit special teams tackles for the first time in his career. With Gibbens (10 special teams tackles), Brenden Schooler (14), Christian Elliss (18) and Marte Mapu (12), it is the first time since the 2011 season that the Patriots have had at least four players reach double-digit special teams tackles.

PATRIOTS DEFENSIVE NOTES

GONZALEZ SELECTED TO 2026 PRO BOWL

- CB Christian Gonzalez earned his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2025. He is the first Patriots defensive back to earn Pro Bowl honors since cornerback J.C. Jackson in 2021

GONZALEZ EARNS 2ND TEAM ALL-PRO HONORS

- Gonzalez earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro Honors for his 2024 season.

ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

- Gonzalez was named the Defensive Rookie of the Month for September by the National Football League, becoming the fifth Patriots player to win a rookie of the month honor and the third defensive player to earn the award. Gonzalez joins QB Mac Jones (November of 2021), DE Chandler Jones (September of 2012), LB Jerod Mayo (October of 2008) and WR Deion Branch (September of 2002).

GONZO'S JOURNEY

- Before his collegiate success, even the prospect of going to college seemed out of reach for Gonzalez. He didn't want his family to have to pay his college tuition, and as a sophomore, he was a backup quarterback on his high school's junior varsity team that went 1-9. He almost gave up the sport, but after his family's encouragement and transferring schools, Gonzalez's new coaches switched him to defense, and he quickly attracted the attention of colleges around the nation.
- To understand the athleticism of Christian Gonzalez, look no further than his family. His father, Hector, played basketball at UTEP and professionally overseas. Gonzalez's two older sisters were both on the Colombian National Team for track & field and were college All-Americans. His eldest sister competed in the 2020 Olympics, and his younger sister is a rising star in soccer.

PATRIOTS SCORE ON DEFENSE FOR FIRST TIME IN 2024

- The Patriots scored on defense for the first time in 2024 at Miami (11/24) when CB Christian Gonzalez returned a RB Jaylen Wright fumble 63 yards for a touchdown that was forced by S Marte Mapu. It was the Patriots first fumble returned for a touchdown since LB Raekwon McMillan returned a fumble for a 23-yard touchdown at Arizona on Dec. 12, 2022. It was Gonzalez's first NFL touchdown. The fumble return is tied for the third-longest in team history.

FRANCHISE RECORD IN DEBUT

- LB Harold Landry III was credited with 2½ sacks, his seventh multiple sack game, vs. Las Vegas (9/7) in the season-opener. It is the most sacks by a New England player in his debut. It is second to his career-high 3 sacks at Miami on Dec. 11, 2023, with Tennessee. His last multi-sack game was vs. the N.Y. Jets on Sept. 15, 2024, when he had 2 sacks.

LANDRY III RECORDS MOST SACKS IN FIRST TWO GAMES

- Landry III finished with 1 sack in New England's win at Miami (9/14/25). He had 3½ sacks in his first two game, the most by any Patriots player in their first two games with the team. He previously had 2½ sacks vs. Las Vegas on Sept. 7, 2025. The previous record was set by DL Chris Slade in 1993, with 3 sacks in his first two games with the team.

SPILLANE REGISTERS 15 TOTAL TACKLES

- LB Robert Spillane had his 19th career 10-tackle game after finishing with 15 total tackles vs. Pittsburgh (9/21). His 15 total tackles are the second most of his career. He had a career-high 16 total tackles in the last game of the 2024 season vs. the L.A. Chargers (1/5/5) when he played for Las Vegas. He has four 10-plus tackle games in 2025 and has 22 career 10-tackle games in his career.

14 at Buffalo (9/17/23)
13 at Kansas City (12/26/21)
13 at Miami (11/19/23)

A REUNION WITH MEANING

- Spillane was originally signed by Tennessee as a rookie free agent out of Western Michigan, the first year Mike Vrabel was head coach of the Titans. In 2025, he reunited with the coach that took a chance on him and made his dream a reality, this time in New England. The day Spillane signed with the team in Tennessee, it was Mother's Day. On the day Spillane signed his contract in New England, it was his mother's birthday.
- "I got hired in 2018 on Mother's Day, and I got to call my mom in tears saying, 'I'm going to be a professional football player,' Spillane said. '[May 13] is her birthday, so I'm signing the contract on her birthday. She's a very important special woman in my life, and I just want to make her proud."

PATRIOTS DEFENSIVE NOTES

UNDRAFTED TO TOP OF THE LEAGUE

- Spillane recorded over 100 tackles in each of his last two seasons with the Las Vegas Raiders: 158 in 2024 and 148 in 2023. His 158 tackles in 2024 set a Raiders single-season record and ranked third in the NFL. In 2023, Spillane became the only Raiders player to record 100-plus tackles, 3.0-plus sacks and 3-plus interceptions in a single season since 1987.

THE WHY BEHIND THE NUMBER

- Spillane is the grandson of RB Johnny Lattner, the 1953 Heisman Trophy winner. Lattner secured the award in his senior season at Notre Dame, after he rushed for 651 yards (4.9-yard average) and 9 touchdowns, in addition to catching 14 passes for 204 yards. He had 2 touchdowns off of just 10 kickoff returns and saw some action on defense, recording 4 interceptions in the Irish's 9-0-1 campaign. Notre Dame finished second in the AP Poll in 1953 behind Maryland. Lattner played one season in the NFL with Pittsburgh after he was selected seventh overall in the 1954 NFL Draft. Spillane wears No. 14 to honor Lattner, who wore No. 14 at Notre Dame.

EYES CLOSED, OPEN MIND

- During his introductory press conference as a Patriots player, Spillane mentioned that he does a lot of "eyes-closed training." Later on, he explained exactly what "eyes-closed training" meant and how it helps him in football. Spillane explained that he developed a style of training where he scouts out an area, whether that be a mountain trail or in a forest, walks it, returns to walk it with his eyes shut, then returns again to walk it backward with his eyes shut. When asked how this training came about, Spillane told the Athletic, "I didn't really learn it from anybody, so it's from the ground up, self-taught," Spillane said. "It's basically just a confidence drill. As a middle linebacker, you want to know where you are on the field at all times — within the positioning of the field, understanding the schematics, where the other players are around you. So, you close your eyes and take away the most basic thing you use to understand that. You've really got to rely on your instincts and your trust."

TWO STRAIGHT 100-TACKLE SEASONS

- LB Jahlani Tavai registered 100-total tackles in each of the last two seasons with 107 tackles in 2023 and a career-high 109 total tackles in 2024.

ASK AND JAHLANI RECEIVED

- Tavai starred in high school as a nose guard. He was undersized and did not attract the attention of many colleges. But after finding out one of the English teachers at his high school was the son of then-Hawaii coach Norm Chow, he reached out to the teacher, Cameron Chow, and asked if Cameron could tell his dad to scout his tape. Cameron followed up and passed along Jahlani's tape to his dad, and the very next day, Jahlani had a scholarship offer. According to Jahlani, his football career would have been over after high school if it wasn't for this connection.

ONE AND ONLY

- Tavai is the only NFL player within the last decade to play at least 70% of the snaps on offense or defense and 70% of the snaps on special teams, a feat he accomplished in 2023. Among 252 players that played at least 40 percent of his team's special teams snaps in 2024, Tavai and Minnesota's Josh Metellus are the only players to have also played 80 percent of his team's defensive snaps.

TAVAI SETS CAREER HIGH IN TACKLES

- Tavai finished the 2024 season with a single-season career best 109 total tackles. His previous best was his 107 total tackles during the 2023 season.

FIRST 2-SACK GAME AS A PATRIOT

- DT Milton Williams finished with 2 sacks at Miami (9/14/25), including a 9-yard sack on fourth down with 53 seconds to play to seal the New England win. It is his second career 2-sack game. He also had 2 sacks at the L.A. Rams as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles (11/24/24).

30 AND 30

- Baringer led the NFL and set a team record in 2023 with 38 punts inside the 20-yard line. Baringer became the second Patriots punter with back-to-back seasons with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line after finishing with 31 in 2024. Jake Bailey had 36 in 2019 and 31 in 2020.

- Baringer has seven games in his career when he has had at least two 60-yard punts in the same game after a 71-yard and a 65-yard punt at Miami on Sept. 14, 2025. He is the only Patriots punter to ever have more than two games with at least two 60-yard punts in a game.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-AMERICAN

- Baringer had an unconventional path to the NFL. He began his collegiate career by earning a walk-on spot at Illinois in 2018 as a true freshman, but due to being buried on the depth chart and the cost of out-of-state tuition, he transferred home to Michigan State as a regular student. Outside of a four-game stint on the Michigan State team due to injuries on the roster, Baringer did not have a walk-on spot available to him in 2019. After a year serving as the team's photographer to maintain access to the facilities to train, Baringer attended an open tryout with a new coaching staff at the Spartans and made the team, establishing himself as the Spartans top punter in 2020 and going on to have record-breaking seasons in 2021 and 2022. In 2022, he was named the Big 10 Punter of the Year and a consensus All-American by all five major associations.

BARINGER SETS TEAM MARK

- Baringer had at least one 50-yard punt in all 17 games in 2023 to set the team record for the longest single season streak in team history (at any point of the season). Zoltan Mesko had a 12-game streak in 2011. Baringer extended his record to 27 games with a 50-yard punt after connecting on a 50-yard punt in the first 10 games of 2024 before the streak ended in the game vs. the LA Rams (11/17/24).

RECORD BREAKING
