GAME SUMMARY

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (14-3) VS. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS (14-3)

Sunday, February 8, 2026 • Levi's Stadium (70,000) • 6:30 p.m. ET

The New England Patriots advanced to their 12th Super Bowl and 11th under Robert Kraft, the most in NFL history. New England has a chance to break a tie with Pittsburgh (six) and win their seventh Super Bowl, which would be the most Super Bowl titles in NFL history. The Patriots will face the Seattle Seahawks in the Super Bowl for the second time. The Patriots defeated Seattle, 28-24, in Super Bowl XLIX on February 1, 2015. The 2025 Patriots finished the season tied with the Denver Broncos and the Seattle Seahawks for the best record in the NFL with a 14-3 record to earn the No. 2 seed in the AFC Playoffs. The 14-3 record is a 10-game difference from the 4-13 finish in 2024. The 10-game improvement tied the 1999 Indianapolis Colts and the 2008 Miami Dolphins for the best turnaround in NFL history. The 1998 Colts were 3-13 and improved to 13-3 in 1999, and the 2007 Dolphins were 1-15 in 2007 and improved to 11-5 in 2008.

PATRIOTS VS. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS

SERIES HISTORY

The New England Patriots and Seattle Seahawks will meet in a Super Bowl for the second time. The Patriots won Super Bowl XLIX against Seattle with a 28-24 victory at the University of Phoenix Stadium on Feb. 1, 2015.

This week will be the 21st overall meeting between the two teams. Seattle leads the all-time series 11-9. The Patriots have lost the last three regular season meetings, including a 23-20 overtime loss on Sept. 15, 2024 in Week 2 last season at Gillette Stadium.

Seattle joins San Francisco and Philadelphia as the only teams to have a winning record against New England at Gillette Stadium.

The Patriots and Seahawks played 12 times in a 14-year span from 1980-93, but have played only seven times since then (2004, '08, '12, '16, '20, '24 and Super Bowl XLIX).

QUICK HITS

- The Seahawks are the only non-divisional team that the Patriots have played twice in the regular season in the same year. That scheduling oddity took place during the 1993 season, the only year in which the league's 16-game schedule was played over an 18-week span and each team was allotted two bye weeks.

- The Patriots are the sixth team to have reached a Super Bowl after winning five or fewer games the previous year. The Rams and Patriots were the only teams to win the Super Bowl from that group.

Of that group, the Rams, Patriots, Eagles and Saints won the Super Bowl.
- Super Bowl LX with the Patriots and the Seahawks will be a Super Bowl rematch. The Patriots and Seahawks met previously in Super Bowl XLIX, a 28-24 New England win. There have been 10 total Super Bowl rematches, and the Patriots have been involved in four of them, after facing the N.Y. Giants twice, the St. Louis/L.A. NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS vs. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS

TEAM NOTES

- The Patriots are 9-0 on the road in 2025, 8-0 in the regular season and 1-0 in the postseason. They are the first team in NFL history to play at least nine games on the road and win them all. Three other teams have won at least nine road games. The 2007 Giants won 10 road games, and the 2020 Buccaneers and 2005 Steelers each won nine, but those teams were not undefeated on the road. The Patriots can become the first team to both win 10 games and be undefeated on the road with a win in Super Bowl LX (including neutral site games).
- The Patriots have four members of the coaching staff with Super Bowl experience.
- Head Coach Mike Vrabel played in four and won three Super Bowls as a player with the New England Patriots: 2001 (XXXVI), 2003 (XXXVIII), 2004 (XXXIX), 2007 (XLII).
- Assistant Special Teams Coach Tom Quinn won two Super Bowls as a coach with the New York Giants: 2007 (XLII), 2011 (XLVI).
- Senior Offensive Assistant Ben McAdoo won a Super Bowl as a coach with the Green Bay Packers in 2010 (XLV).
- Tight Ends Coach/Passing Game Coordinator Thomas Brown won a Super Bowl as a coach with the L.A. Rams in 2021 (LVI).
- The Patriots have five current players that have played in the Super Bowl. DT Milton Williams will play in his second straight Super Bowl after being a part of the Philadelphia Eagles Super Bowl-winning team last season. TE Austin Hooper is the only one to score a touchdown in the Super Bowl. He caught a 19-yard touchdown pass against New England in Super Bowl LI when he played for Atlanta.

VRABEL NOTES

• Mike Vrabel is one of seven head coaches that won a Super Bowl for a team and then became the head coach of that team. Vrabel won three Super Bowls during his seven seasons as a player for the Patriots. The other coaches to win a Super Bowl for a team and then become the head coach for that team are Jerod Mayo (Patriots), Forrest Gregg (Green Bay), Bart Starr (Green Bay), Art Shell (Oakland), Jeff Saturday (Indianapolis) and Jason Garrett (Dallas). Vrabel can become the first of that group to lead his team to a Super Bowl victory.

- Vrabel became the seventh head coach to lead the team he played for to a Super Bowl berth, joining Don Shula (Super Bowl III with Baltimore), Tom Flores (Super Bowl XV and Super Bowl XVIII with the Raiders), Mike Ditka (Super Bowl XX with Chicago), Sam Wyche (Super Bowl XXIII with Cincinnati), Gary Kubiak (Super Bowl 50 with Denver) and Doug Pederson (Super Bowl LII with Philadelphia).
- Vrabel is the eighth head coach to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with the team.

Coaches Who Reached the Super Bowl in Their First Season with a Team

Don McCaffrey – Baltimore Colts in 1970 – Super Bowl V
 Red Miller – Denver Broncos in 1977 – Super XII
 George Seifert – San Francisco 49ers in 1989 – Super Bowl XXIV
 Jon Gruden – Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2002 – Super Bowl XXXVII
 Bill Callahan – Oakland Raiders in 2002 – Super Bowl XXXVII
 Jim Caldwell – Indianapolis in 2009 – Super Bowl XLIV
 Gary Kubiak – Denver Broncos in 2015 – Super Bowl 50
Mike Vrabel - New England Patriots in 2025 - Super Bowl LX

Don McCaffrey, George Seifert, Jon Gruden and Gary Kubiak were the only head coaches to win a Super Bowl in their first season as a head coach for that specific team.

- Vrabel is now one of eight head coaches that played in a Super Bowl and then reached a Super Bowl as a head coach.

| Player (Team) | SB as a Player | SB (Coach) |

| Mike Vrabel (NE) | XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXXLII | LX (Patriots) |
| Gary Kubiak (DEN) | XXI, XXII, XXIV | 50 (Broncos) |

| Sam Wyche (WAS) | VII | XXIII (Bengals) |
| Mike Ditka (DAL) | V, VI | XX (Bears) |
| Forrest Gregg (GB) | I, II | XVI (Bengals) |

- Vrabel tied George Seifert (17 wins in 1989 with San Francisco) for the most wins by an NFL head coach in his first season with a team, including the postseason. A win in Super Bowl LX will give Vrabel the most wins by a head coach in his first season with a team.

DRAKE MAYE

QB, #10

- QB Drake Maye will join Dan Marino (1984) and Ben Roethlisberger (2005) as the only quarterbacks to start the Super Bowl before their 24th birthday. Maye will be 23 years and 162 days, and only Dan Marino at 23 years and 127 days was younger. A victory in Super Bowl LX will make him the youngest starting quarterback to win the title. Roethlisberger, who was 23 years and 340 days when he won in 2005, is currently the youngest.

- Maye is the fourth quarterback since 2000 to win each of his first three career playoff starts, joining Tom Brady (won first 10 starts), Joe Burrow (three) and Jake Delhomme (three).
- Maye is the first quarterback in history to win three games against top-five defenses in a single playoff. The Chargers had the No. 5 defense, the Texans No. 1, and the Broncos No. 2. In Super Bowl LX, he will face the sixth-ranked Seattle Seahawks defense.

THE MOST BY ANY SINGLE OWNER IN PRO FOOTBALL HISTORY

FASTEST OWNER IN NFL HISTORY TO REACH

23-YEAR
SEASON TICKET HOLDER
BEFORE BUYING THE TEAM IN 1994

Under Kraft's leadership since he purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports.

Kraft has led the two most dominant decades in NFL history in terms of overall wins – 141 (2010-19) and 126 (2000-09).

Kraft is the most successful owner since he purchased the team in 1994 in terms of wins (374), division titles (20), winning percentage (.657), playoff wins (36) and playoff seasons (23).

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In his 32 seasons of ownership, he is credited with transforming one of the league's least successful clubs into one of the most valuable. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.238 pct.), the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won more division titles (20), conference crowns (11) and Super Bowl championships (6) than any other NFL team. Additionally, the Patriots have achieved the most winning seasons (25) since Kraft assumed ownership beginning in 1994. Super Bowl LX will be the 11th Super Bowl appearance since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other team has appeared in more than five Super Bowls. In Kraft's 32 seasons, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs 23 times, more than doubling the franchise's accomplishments during its first 34 seasons.

Robert Kraft won his 300th game overall as owner of the New England Patriots against Miami on Sept. 30, 2018. Kraft reached the milestone in his 25th NFL season and in his 432nd game, the fastest an owner has reached the mark. Al Davis of the Raiders accomplished the feat in 495 games (31 seasons) while Pat Bowlen of Denver reached 300 career wins in 501 games (30 seasons).

A WINNING TRADITION II

Kraft's winning percentage with the Patriots (.657) since taking over the team in 1994 is the highest among all owners/ownership groups with at least 200 wins (regular and postseason) with one team. He is one of just four owners with at least 200 wins and a winning percentage over .600.

The Patriots have won 23 division crowns.

NOTES: This analysis uses NFL rules when calculating winning percentage, counting ties as a half-win and a half-loss. For NHL teams, overtime losses (OTL) and ties from 2001-2004 (the NHL abolished ties in 2005-2006 and instituted a shootout system) are counted as ties when calculating winning percentage.

CEREBRAL AND VERSATILE

Vrabel exemplified positional versatility during his Patriots career by starting at both inside and outside linebacker, regularly lining up on offense in short-yardage and goal-line situations and continually making valuable contributions on various special teams units. As a Patriot, he caught eight regular season passes and two more in the playoffs. All 10 of his receptions were for touchdowns, including receptions in back-to-back Super Bowl wins over the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl XXXVIII and Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

A PROVEN LEADER AND CHAMPION

AS A PLAYER: Vrabel's accomplishments as a player included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Originally drafted in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers, he spent the early years of his career mostly playing on special teams and as a reserve linebacker. He signed with the Patriots as an unheralded free agent in 2001 and went on to become one of the key pieces of the dynasty that captured three Super Bowl titles in four years. Vrabel ended his playing career with the Kansas City Chiefs after being a part of a trade that included QB Matt Cassel. He appeared in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 722 tackles, 11 interceptions (one returned for a touchdown), 20 forced fumbles and 9 fumble recoveries. A cerebral and versatile athlete, he also saw action as a tight end and totaled 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording 8 postseason sacks and two additional postseason touchdown receptions.

AS A COACH: Vrabel has 14 years of coaching experience, including 11 years in the NFL and three seasons at Ohio State. The Tennessee Titans hired him as their head coach in 2018 and he led the Titans to two division titles and three playoff appearances during his six seasons at the helm. In 2019, the Titans upset the Patriots in Foxborough in the Wild Card round, then defeated the No. 1 seed Ravens in Baltimore the following week to advance to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs. In 2021, the Titans claimed the top seed in the AFC with a 12-5 record, earning Vrabel NFL Coach of the Year honors.

"IN THE END, IT WAS CLEAR TO ME, AND TO MY FAMILY, AND MY SOUL, THAT THIS WAS THE PLACE THAT I WANTED TO BE."

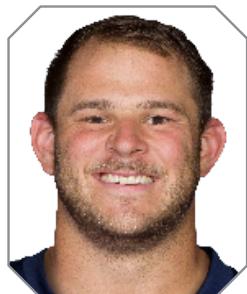

— MIKE VRABEL

PATRIOTS OFFENSIVE NOTES

FAMILY TIES

- While New England is all new for C Garrett Bradbury, an unlikely and largely unknown familial connection exists between himself and quarterback Drake Maye. Bradbury's brother-in-law, Jackson Kowar, a pitcher in the Mariners organization, played baseball and became close friends with Maye's brother, Cole, when they played together at the University of Florida. There are many challenges presented when it comes to free agency, but for Bradbury, it sure helped when family had one team in mind: "When I was going through the free agency process," Bradbury said, "They were all like, 'New England, New England, New England."

FLAG ON THE PLAY

- When Bradbury joined the team, he was surprised to find that the offensive line did not spend very much time together outside of Gillette Stadium. Feeling it would be an important chemistry-building activity, Bradbury decided to bring the group together each Thursday to eat out for dinner. An unexpected side effect of this was the group's discovery of their love for Shirley Temples, a red non-alcoholic drink made with grenadine and either Sprite or ginger ale. Some nights, the offensive line room has ordered close to 70. Nonetheless, the bonding moments shared over the drinks have made their trust and connections stronger.

GENERATIONS OF REBELS

- C Ben Brown comes from a rich history of Ole Miss football players, as he is the seventh member of his family to play for the school. Brown's father, Tim (1988-89); his maternal grandfather, Bobby (1962-64); paternal grandfather, Allen (1962-64); great uncle, Jerry (1959-61); father's cousin, Alton (1971-72); and uncle, Burkes (1991-92) all played for the Rebels. As a tight end, Allen was a First-Team All-American in college and a two-time Super Bowl Champion for the Green Bay Packers.

COAST TO COAST

- Brown was signed by New England to the 53-man roster from the Las Vegas practice squad on Oct. 10, 2024. He took a red-eye flight across the country and made his first start for the Patriots when the team hosted the Houston Texans (10/13) just three days later.

ROOKIE AND THE VETS

- WR Efton Chism III is developing a work ethic by following his veteran wide receivers. Wide receivers coach Todd Downing recently addressed his thoughts on Chism's work ethic: "It starts well before he ever hits the field," Downing said. "This guy's one of the first guys in. A lot of times he'll pop into my office super early in the morning, as I'm just getting going, and he wants to sit there and just watch me build the PowerPoint for the meeting that day or something. Just to kind of get an extra time or an extra rep, the mental processing for the system. He stays late with Mack (Hollins) and goes through things with Mack, and those two have developed a cool relationship, so that piece of it's cool, and then what he does on the field is he translates that into playing fast and confident. He knows exactly what to do, so then he can go out and execute it."

THE PASSTRONAUT

- QB Joshua Dobbs graduated with a degree in aerospace engineering from Tennessee and has since combined his love for football and space, coining the nickname, "The Passtronaut." Through the NFLPA's virtual externship program, Dobbs spent two years (2020-21) with the NASA Kennedy Space Flight Center. In 2022, Dobbs established The ASTROordinary Dobbs Foundation, which is dedicated to supporting, encouraging and inspiring all members of the community, particularly the youth, through educational, economical, professional and recreational empowerment.
- "We're promoting my background growing up, which was in STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics), aerospace and aviation," Dobbs said. "So, we love giving back to the community itself, who supported me throughout my career, but also just promoting STEM engagement, giving back to those less fortunate and just being involved. It's very important to me to support those communities and to be able to represent my own foundation. It's really cool. As I said, just having the platform, being able to give back."*

THE MEANING BEHIND THE NICKNAME

- DeMario Douglas is more commonly referred to by his nickname, "Pop". Although the nickname is fitting for his quickness on the field, the name actually comes from family ties. Douglas' granddad passed away on his first birthday. The wide receiver was commonly referred to as 'Poppa' from his granddad – a nickname that was quickly shortened to just 'Pop'.

NUMBER CHANGE

- Pop Douglas changed his jersey number from No. 81 to No. 3 in 2024. He wore No. 3 in college at Liberty, as well as in Little League, middle school and high school. He explained its meaning to him: "It's big because I was raised by three strong ladies -- my mom, grandma and great-grandma," he said.

ROOKIE RECEIVING RECORDS

- Douglas finished the 2023 season with 49 receptions for a team-leading 561 yards. He has the most receptions and receiving yards by a Patriots rookie wide receiver since 2000.

DEDICATION TO HIS GOALS

- While in high school, Stevenson started gaining attention for the impressive stats he posted as a junior. Unfortunately, due to his grades, Stevenson was academically ineligible to receive a football scholarship despite being recruited. Following his senior year of high school, Stevenson took a year off from football and worked part-time jobs at Walmart and Jimmy John's. But after a year away, he decided to follow a group of his friends and enroll in Cerritos Community College. During his time at Cerritos, he shared a two-bedroom apartment with up to six other guys at times and rode his bicycle 20 minutes to and from practice every day. After putting up monster stats in his second season at Cerritos, he committed to Oklahoma. Oklahoma led him to the 2021 NFL Draft where in the fourth round on the third day the Patriots selected Stevenson. In addition, he worked on his academics and made the Dean's List while at Oklahoma.

STEVENSON HAD CAREER LONG RUN

- Stevenson had a career-long 64-yard touchdown run in the second quarter vs. Washington on Nov. 5, 2023. His previous long was a 49-yard run vs. Detroit on Oct. 9, 2022, and his previous longest touchdown run was a 34-yard touchdown run at Las Vegas on Dec. 18, 2022.

CITY OF ANGELS TO TITLE TOWN

- As part of the Patriots' rookie development program, Head Coach Mike Vrabel brought the 2025 rookie class to a Red Sox game and to the Celtics' practice facility. WR Kyle Williams, a Los Angeles native, quickly recognized the passion for sports in his new city of Boston and uses it as motivation: "It's huge," Williams said. "You see Patriots everywhere. You see Celtics everywhere. Just seeing the love this town has for sports, it makes you want to give back and compete harder."

JOURNEY TO THE NFL

- As a high school sophomore, football wasn't on Christian Barmore's radar. Barmore played basketball in high school until his junior year, when the football coach at Delaware Valley Charter High School convinced him to give football a chance. Moving to Neumann Goretti High School as a senior after his previous high school closed, Barmore became a highly-recruited prospect in just his second season of organized football, committing to the University of Alabama. Additionally, Barmore has faced plenty of adversity in his life, including the process of overcoming blood clots to return to the field in 2024. Click or scan the QR code below to watch a video feature on his story.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMER RICHARD SEYMOUR SEES GREATNESS AHEAD FOR CHRISTIAN BARMORE

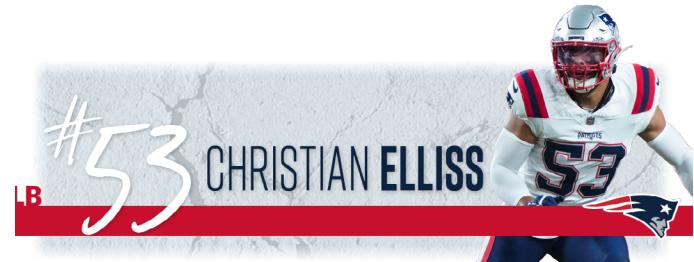

- For a defensive lineman, if Patriots and Pro Football Hall of Famer Richard Seymour is in your corner, there are few better compliments or endorsements.
- "I think he has a ton of ability, natural ability, and he plays hard," Seymour told the Boston Herald. "I think he's going to be a problem for (opposing teams) for a long time to come. Hopefully he stays healthy and continues on the path he's on. I think he has a really bright future."

SECOND-MOST QUARTERBACK PRESSURES

- Barmore posted the second-most quarterback pressures for a first-year defensive tackle since 2006, according to Pro Football Focus. His 48 pressures in 2021 were two more than Aaron Donald had during his rookie season.

FIRST CAREER 3-SACK GAME

- Barmore finished with his first career 3-sack game, all in the third quarter, at Denver on Dec. 24, 2023. He had two 8-yard sacks and one 9-yard sack of Denver QB Russell Wilson. He increased his 2023 total to 8½ sacks. He is the first Patriots player with a 3-sack game since LB Joshua Uche had a 3-sack game at Arizona on Dec. 12, 2022. The last defensive lineman with a 3-sack game for New England was Deatrich Wise Jr. on Sept. 25, 2022 vs. Baltimore.

LOVE BEYOND BLOOD

- LB Christian Elliss has six adopted siblings. For the NFL's My Cause My Cleats initiative, Elliss represented "An Act of Love," the agency that his siblings were adopted through. Elliss has two kids of his own with one on the way, and he and his wife look forward to adopting a child one day as well.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY

- Elliss has two brothers that also play linebacker in the NFL: Jonah (Denver Broncos) and Kaden (Atlanta Falcons). Another one of his brothers, Noah, played for the Philadelphia Eagles. His father, Luther, was a first-round draft pick by the Detroit Lions in 1995. As a defensive lineman, he was a two-time Pro Bowler in nine seasons with Detroit and Denver. He is currently the defensive tackles coach at the University of Utah where Christian's younger brother, Elijah, plays defensive end.

ELLISS HAS CAREER-HIGH IN TACKLES

- Elliss set a single-game career high vs. Buffalo on Jan. 5, 2025, with a team-leading 13 total tackles. His previous high was 9 tackles at the Jacksonville Jaguars on Oct. 20, 2024, and vs. the New York Jets on Oct. 27, 2024. Elliss' tackle total was the highest of the 2024 season for any Patriots player. LB Ja'Whaun Bentley had 12 total tackles at Cincinnati on Sept. 8, 2024.

ELLISS HAD A CAREER-HIGH 4 SPECIAL TEAMS TACKLES

- Elliss finished with a career-high 4 total special teams tackles vs. the N.Y. Giants (12/1/25). It is the most special teams tackles in a game for a Patriots player since DB Cody Davis had 4 special teams tackles vs. the New York Jets on Oct. 24, 2021. Elliss now has four games in 2025 with at least three special teams tackles. He had 3 at Miami (9/14), 3 vs. Atlanta (11/2), 4 vs., NY Giants (12/1) and 3 at the N.Y. Jets (12/28). Elliss had a career-high 18 special teams tackles. His previous high was 8 in 2024.

DR. GIBBY

- LB Jack Gibbens revealed the nickname given to him by Mike Vrabel when the two were together at Tennessee. According to Gibbens, Vrabel has called him "Dr. Gibby" ever since his rookie season. This nickname came about as a result of Gibbens answering questions correctly while the coach was quizzing the team: "I had to tell him I didn't study medicine...He had to tell me it was a joke," Gibbens said.

GIBBENS REACHES DOUBLE DIGIT SPECIAL TEAMS TACKLES

- Gibbens reached double-digit special teams tackles for the first time in his career. With Gibbens (10 special teams tackles), Brenden Schooler (14), Christian Elliss (18) and Marte Mapu (12), it is the first time since the 2011 season that the Patriots have had at least four players reach double-digit special teams tackles.

PATRIOTS DEFENSIVE NOTES

GONZALEZ EARNS 2ND TEAM ALL-PRO HONORS

- Gonzalez earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro Honors for his 2024 season.

ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

Gonzalez joins QB Mac Jones (November of 2021), DE Chandler Jones (September of 2012), LB Jerod Mayo (October of 2008) and WR Deion Branch (September of 2002).

GONZO'S JOURNEY

- Before his collegiate success, even the prospect of going to college seemed out of reach for Gonzalez. He didn't want his family to have to pay his college tuition, and as a sophomore, he was a backup quarterback on his high school's junior varsity team that went 1-9. He almost gave up the sport, but after his family's encouragement and transferring schools, Gonzalez's new coaches switched him to defense, and he quickly attracted the attention of colleges around the nation.
- To understand the athleticism of Christian Gonzalez, look no further than his family. His father, Hector, played basketball at UTEP and professionally overseas. Gonzalez's two older sisters were both on the Colombian National Team for track & field and were college All-Americans. His eldest sister competed in the 2020 Olympics, and his younger sister is a rising star in soccer.

PATRIOTS SCORE ON DEFENSE FOR FIRST TIME IN 2024

- The Patriots scored on defense for the first time in 2024 at Miami (11/24) when CB Christian Gonzalez returned a RB Jaylen Wright fumble 63 yards for a touchdown that was forced by S Marte Mapu. It was the Patriots first fumble returned for a touchdown since LB Raekwon McMillan returned a fumble for a 23-yard touchdown at Arizona on Dec. 12, 2022. It was Gonzalez's first NFL touchdown. The fumble return is tied for the third-longest in team history.

- Landry III finished with 1 sack in New England's win at Miami (9/14/25). He had 3½ sacks in his first two games, the most by any Patriots player in their first two games with the team. He previously had 2½ sacks vs. Las Vegas on Sept. 7, 2025. The previous record was set by DL Chris Slade in 1993, with 3 sacks in his first two games with the team.

SPILLANE REGISTERS 15 TOTAL TACKLES

- LB Robert Spillane had his 19th career 10-tackle game after finishing with 15 total tackles vs. Pittsburgh (9/21). His 15 total tackles are the second most of his career. He had a career-high 16 total tackles in the last game of the 2024 season vs. the L.A. Chargers (1/5/25) when he played for Las Vegas. He has four 10-plus tackle games in 2025 and has 22 career 10-tackle games in his career.

- 16 vs. LA Chargers (1/5/25)
- 15 vs. Pittsburgh (9/21/25)
- 14 at Buffalo (9/17/23)
- 13 at Kansas City (12/26/21)
- 13 at Miami (11/19/23)

A REUNION WITH MEANING

- Spillane was originally signed by Tennessee as a rookie free agent out of Western Michigan, the first year Mike Vrabel was head coach of the Titans. In 2025, he reunited with the coach that took a chance on him and made his dream a reality, this time in New England. The day Spillane signed with the team in Tennessee, it was Mother's Day. On the day Spillane signed his contract in New England, it was his mother's birthday.
- "I got hired in 2018 on Mother's Day, and I got to call my mom in tears saying, 'I'm going to be a professional football player,' Spillane said. '[May 13] is her birthday, so I'm signing the contract on her birthday. She's a very important special woman in my life, and I just want to make her proud."

PATRIOTS DEFENSIVE NOTES

UNDRAFTED TO TOP OF THE LEAGUE

- Spillane recorded over 100 tackles in each of his last two seasons with the Las Vegas Raiders: 158 in 2024 and 148 in 2023. His 158 tackles in 2024 set a Raiders single-season record and ranked third in the NFL. In 2023, Spillane became the only Raiders player to record 100-plus tackles, 3.0-plus sacks and 3-plus interceptions in a single season since 1987.

THE WHY BEHIND THE NUMBER

- Spillane is the grandson of RB Johnny Lattner, the 1953 Heisman Trophy winner. Lattner secured the award in his senior season at Notre Dame, after he rushed for 651 yards (4.9-yard average) and 9 touchdowns, in addition to catching 14 passes for 204 yards. He had 2 touchdowns off of just 10 kickoff returns and saw some action on defense, recording 4 interceptions in the Irish's 9-0-1 campaign. Notre Dame finished second in the AP Poll in 1953 behind Maryland. Lattner played one season in the NFL with Pittsburgh after he was selected seventh overall in the 1954 NFL Draft. Spillane wears No. 14 to honor Lattner, who wore No. 14 at Notre Dame.

EYES CLOSED, OPEN MIND

- During his introductory press conference as a Patriots player, Spillane mentioned that he does a lot of "eyes-closed training." Later on, he explained exactly what "eyes-closed training" meant and how it helps him in football. Spillane explained that he developed a style of training where he scouts out an area, whether that be a mountain trail or in a forest, walks it, returns to walk it with his eyes shut, then returns again to walk it backward with his eyes shut. When asked how this training came about, Spillane told the Athletic, "I didn't really learn it from anybody, so it's from the ground up, self-taught," Spillane said. "It's basically just a confidence drill. As a middle linebacker, you want to know where you are on the field at all times — within the positioning of the field, understanding the schematics, where the other players are around you. So, you close your eyes and take away the most basic thing you use to understand that. You've really got to rely on your instincts and your trust."

TWO STRAIGHT 100-TACKLE SEASONS

- LB Jahlani Tavai registered 100-total tackles in each of the last two seasons with 107 tackles in 2023 and a career-high 109 total tackles in 2024.

ASK AND JAHLANI RECEIVED

- Tavai starred in high school as a nose guard. He was undersized and did not attract the attention of many colleges. But after finding out one of the English teachers at his high school was the son of then-Hawaii coach Norm Chow, he reached out to the teacher, Cameron Chow, and asked if Cameron could tell his dad to scout his tape. Cameron followed up and passed along Jahlani's tape to his dad, and the very next day, Jahlani had a scholarship offer. According to Jahlani, his football career would have been over after high school if it wasn't for this connection.

ONE AND ONLY

- Tavai is the only NFL player within the last decade to play at least 70% of the snaps on offense or defense and 70% of the snaps on special teams, a feat he accomplished in 2023. Among 252 players that played at least 40 percent of his team's special teams snaps in 2024, Tavai and Minnesota S Josh Metellus are the only players to have also played 80 percent of his team's defensive snaps.

TAVAI SETS CAREER HIGH IN TACKLES

- Tavai finished the 2024 season with a single-season career best 109 total tackles. His previous best was his 107 total tackles during the 2023 season.

FIRST 2-SACK GAME AS A PATRIOT

- DT Milton Williams finished with 2 sacks at Miami (9/14/25), including a 9-yard sack on fourth down with 53 seconds to play to seal the New England win. It is his second career 2-sack game. He also had 2 sacks at the L.A. Rams as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles (11/24/24).

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-AMERICAN

- Baringer had an unconventional path to the NFL. He began his collegiate career by earning a walk-on spot at Illinois in 2018 as a true freshman, but due to being buried on the depth chart and the cost of out-of-state tuition, he transferred home to Michigan State as a regular student. Outside of a four-game stint on the Michigan State team due to injuries on the roster, Baringer did not have a walk-on spot available to him in 2019. After a year serving as the team's photographer to maintain access to the facilities to train, Baringer attended an open tryout with a new coaching staff at the Spartans and made the team, establishing himself as the Spartans top punter in 2020 and going on to have record-breaking seasons in 2021 and 2022. In 2022, he was named the Big 10 Punter of the Year and a consensus All-American by all five major associations.

BARINGER SETS TEAM MARK

- Baringer had at least one 50-yard punt in all 17 games in 2023 to set the team record for the longest single season streak in team history (at any point of the season). Baringer extended his record to 27 games with a 50-yard punt after connecting on a 50-yard punt in the first 10 games of 2024 before the streak ended in the game vs. the LA Rams (11/17/24).

- Jones scored on offense, defense and special teams in 2022. He is the only player to score in all three phases in a single season since 1970. He is one of ten players to score on offense, defense and special teams during their NFL career.
