PATRIOTS VS. ATLANTA FALCONS

SERIES HISTORY

The New England Patriots and the Atlanta Falcons will meet for the first time since a Thursday Night Football game on Nov. 18, 2021 in Atlanta, a 25-0 New England victory. The Falcons will travel to Gillette Stadium for the third time overall and for the first time since a 23-7 New England win on Oct. 22, 2017.

The Patriots enter this week with a streak of seven straight wins against the Falcons, including a come-from-behind 34-28 overtime win in Super Bowl LI against the Falcons.

The Patriots lead the all-time series with a 10-6 record, including a 4-2 record in home games and 2-0 record in games played in Gillette Stadium following a 26-10 win on Sept. 27, 2009 and a 23-7 win on Oct. 22, 2017.

The Patriots beat the Falcons, 34-28 in overtime in Super Bowl LI after overcoming a 28-3 deficit on Feb. 5, 2017 in Houston, Texas.

The Patriots have won the last six times the teams have played in the regular season. Prior to those six wins, the Patriots had suffered four straight losses to the Falcons, dating back to 1989.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS vs. ATLANTA FALCONS

TEAM NOTES

- The Patriots have won five straight games following the 32-13 victory vs. Cleveland. A victory this week against Atlanta will give the Patriots a six-game winning streak, their longest winning streak since a seven-game winning streak during the 2021 season.
- The Patriots lead the NFL with 15 winning streaks of at least six games since 2001. The Patriots will have their 16th streak of at least six straight wins if they beat Atlanta this week.

TEAM WINNING STREAKS OF AT LEAST SIX GAMES SINCE 2021

Team	Streaks
New England	15
Kansas City	9
Green Bay	8
Philadelphia	8
Indianapolis	7
New Orleans	7
Minnesota	6
Pittsburgh	6

- The Patriots followed a 175-yard rushing performance at Tennessee with a season-high 177 yards rushing last week vs. Cleveland. If the Patriots rush for at least 170 yards this week against Atlanta, it will be the first time doing so in at least three weeks since a five-game streak in 1988 when they rushed for 176 yards at Buffalo (10/23), 185 yards vs. Chicago (10/30), 203 yards vs. Miami (11/6), 177 yards at the New York Jets (11/13) and 170 yards at Miami (11/20).
- The Patriots are undefeated against six teams in the regular season at Gillette Stadium since it opened in 2002, including 2-0 against the Falcons.

Team	Record
Cleveland	6-0
Jacksonville	4-0
Tennessee	4-0
Detroit	3-0
Minnesota	3-0
Atlanta	2-0

- A Patriots win this week would be their seventh straight regular season win against Atlanta. The Patriots have won six straight games against Atlanta in the regular season, tied with Cleveland for New England's longest active streak.
- The Patriots have scored 30 points in their last two games with a 31-13 win at Tennessee and a 32-13 win against Cleveland. If the Patriots score at least 30 points this week against Atlanta, it will be the first time the Patriots have scored at least 30 points in three straight games since the 2019 season – 33-7 at Washington (10/6), 35-14 vs. the New York Giants (10/10) and 33-0 at the New York Jets (10/21).
- The Patriots are the only team in 2025 that has not surrendered 50 yards to a running back through the first eight games. It is the first time in team history that has occurred. The longest streak since the merger is 10 by Tampa Bay in 2020. Mike Vrabel's Tennessee Titans also had a streak of eight games in 2021.

TEAM NOTES

- The 2025 Patriots team is second to Seattle (75.7) in the NFL against the run, allowing 76.0 rushing yards per game. The Patriots record for fewest rushing yards allowed per game since the NFL merger is 88.6 in 2016.

Year	Rushing Yards Per Game
2025	76.0
2016	88.6
2003	89.6

DRAKE MAYE

#10, QB

- QB Drake Maye had his seventh straight game with a 100-plus passer rating after finishing with a 135.8 passer rating in the win vs. Cleveland. Maye will try for his eighth straight game this week against Atlanta to tie the Patriots team record and join Aaron Rodgers, Peyton Manning, Tom Brady and Lamar Jackson as the only players with at least an eight-game streak. The Patriots record in a single season is eight straight games by Brady in 2007 and 2010. The NFL record for a single season is 12 consecutive games by Rodgers in 2011.

- Maye now has three games in 2025 completing at least 80 percent of his passes. The NFL record for the most in a season is six by Jared Goff in 2024. Overall, Maye has five games in which he completed at least 80 percent of his passes. The Patriots record is 10 such games by Tom Brady, and the NFL record is 29 games by Drew Brees.
- Maye enters this week against Atlanta ranked first in the NFL with a 75.2 completion percentage. The NFL record for a season was set by Drew Brees in 2018 with New Orleans when he finished with a 74.4 completion percentage. Tom Brady has the New England record for a season with a 68.9 completion percentage in 2007. Drew Brees (74.4 in 2018 and 74.3 in 2019) is the only NFL quarterback to finish a season with a completion percentage of at least 73 percent in a season.
- Maye had his sixth game in 2025 with at least 2 touchdown passes after throwing 3 touchdown passes vs. Cleveland last week. The Patriots record for most games with at least 2 touchdown passes in a single season is 14 by Tom Brady in 2011 and 2007. The NFL record is 15 by Peyton Manning (2013) and Dan Marino (1984).
- Maye had a completion percentage of 75% or better and threw at least 2 touchdown passes in three consecutive games earlier this season. Only Tom Brady has had a longer streak in a single season in NFL history when he accomplished the feat during a four-game streak in 2007. Maye has completed 75 percent of his passes with at least 2 touchdown passes in each of the last two games and can have his second three-game stretch if he extends that streak this week against Atlanta. He would be the only NFL quarterback with two three-game streaks in the same season.

Under Kraft's leadership since he purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports.

Kraft has led the two most dominant decades in NFL history in terms of overall wins – 141 (2010-19) and 126 (2000-09).

Kraft is the most successful owner since he purchased the team in 1994 in terms of wins (363), division titles (19), winning percentage (.652), playoff wins (33) and playoff seasons (22).

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In his 31 seasons of ownership, he is credited with transforming one of the league's least successful clubs into one of the most valuable. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.238 pct.), the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won more division titles (19), conference crowns (10) and Super Bowl championships (6) than any other NFL team. Additionally, the Patriots have achieved the most winning seasons (24) since Kraft assumed ownership beginning in 1994. Super Bowl LIII was the 10th Super Bowl appearance since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other team has appeared in more than four Super Bowls. In Kraft's 31 seasons, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs 22 times, more than doubling the franchise's accomplishments during its first 34 seasons.

HEAD COACHES THAT ALSO PLAYED FOR THE TEAM

COACH	TEAM
Mike Vrabel	Patriots
Aaron Glenn	New York Jets
Dan Campbell	Detroit Lions
Jim Harbaugh	Los Angeles Chargers
DeMeco Ryans	Houston Texans

CEREBRAL AND VERSATILE

Vrabel exemplified positional versatility during his Patriots career by starting at both inside and outside linebacker, regularly lining up on offense in short-yardage and goal-line situations and continually making valuable contributions on various special teams units. As a Patriot, he caught eight regular season passes and two more in the playoffs. All 10 of his receptions were for touchdowns, including receptions in back-to-back Super Bowl wins over the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl XXXVIII and Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

A PROVEN LEADER AND CHAMPION

AS A PLAYER: Vrabel’s accomplishments as a player included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Originally drafted in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers, he spent the early years of his career mostly playing on special teams and as a reserve linebacker. He signed with the Patriots as an unheralded free agent in 2001 and went on to become one of the key pieces of the dynasty that captured three Super Bowl titles in four years. Vrabel ended his playing career with the Kansas City Chiefs after being a part of a trade that included QB Matt Cassel. He appeared in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 722 tackles, 11 interceptions (one returned for a touchdown), 20 forced fumbles and 9 fumble recoveries. A cerebral and versatile athlete, he also saw action as a tight end and totaled 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording 8 postseason sacks and two additional postseason touchdown receptions.

AS A COACH: Vrabel has 14 years of coaching experience, including 11 years in the NFL and three seasons at Ohio State. The Tennessee Titans hired him as their head coach in 2018 and he led the Titans to two division titles and three playoff appearances during his six seasons at the helm. In 2019, the Titans upset the Patriots in Foxborough in the Wild Card round, then defeated the No. 1 seed Ravens in Baltimore the following week to advance to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs. In 2021, the Titans claimed the top seed in the AFC with a 12-5 record, earning Vrabel NFL Coach of the Year honors.

“IN THE END, IT WAS CLEAR TO ME, AND TO MY FAMILY, AND MY SOUL, THAT THIS WAS THE PLACE THAT I WANTED TO BE.”

— MIKE VRABEL

#65 GARRETT BRADBURY

FAMILY TIES

- While New England is all new for C Garrett Bradbury, an unlikely and largely unknown familial connection exists between himself and quarterback Drake Maye. Bradbury's brother-in-law, Jackson Kowar, a pitcher in the Mariners organization, played baseball and became close friends with Maye's brother, Cole, when they played together at the University of Florida. There are many challenges presented when it comes to free agency, but for Bradbury, it sure helped when family had one team in mind: "When I was going through the free agency process," Bradbury said, "They were all like, 'New England, New England, New England.'"

FLAG ON THE PLAY

- When Bradbury joined the team, he was surprised to find that the offensive line did not spend very much time together outside of Gillette Stadium. Feeling it would be an important chemistry-building activity, Bradbury decided to bring the group together each Thursday to eat out for dinner. An unexpected side effect of this was the group's discovery of their love for Shirley Temples, a red non-alcoholic drink made with grenadine and either Sprite or ginger ale. Some nights, the offensive line room has ordered close to 70. Nonetheless, the bonding moments shared over the drinks have made their trust and connections stronger.

#77 BEN BROWN

GENERATIONS OF REBELS

- C Ben Brown comes from a rich history of Ole Miss football players, as he is the seventh member of his family to play for the school. Brown's father, Tim (1988-89); his maternal grandfather, Bobby (1962-64); paternal grandfather, Allen (1962-64); great uncle, Jerry (1959-61); father's cousin, Alton (1971-72); and uncle, Burkes (1991-92) all played for the Rebels. As a tight end, Allen was a First-Team All-American in college and a two-time Super Bowl Champion for the Green Bay Packers.

COAST TO COAST

- Brown was signed by New England to the 53-man roster from the Las Vegas practice squad on Oct. 10, 2024. He took a red-eye flight across the country and made his first start for the Patriots when the team hosted the Houston Texans (10/13) just three days later.

#86 EFTON CHISM III

ROOKIE AND THE VETS

- WR Efton Chism III is developing a work ethic by following his veteran wide receivers. Wide receivers coach Todd Downing recently addressed his thoughts on Chism's work ethic: "It starts well before he ever hits the field," Downing said. "This guy's one of the first guys in. A lot of times he'll pop into my office super early in the morning, as I'm just getting going, and he wants to sit there and just watch me build the PowerPoint for the meeting that day or something. Just to kind of get an extra time or an extra rep, the mental processing for the system. He stays late with Mack (Hollins) and goes through things with Mack, and those two have developed a cool relationship, so that piece of it's cool, and then what he does on the field is he translates that into playing fast and confident. He knows exactly what to do, so then he can go out and execute it."

In 2022, Dobbs established The ASTROrdinary Dobbs Foundation, which is dedicated to supporting, encouraging and inspiring all members of the community, particularly the youth, through educational, economical, professional and recreational empowerment.
- "We're promoting my background growing up, which was in STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics), aerospace and aviation," Dobbs said. "So, we love giving back to the community itself, who supported me throughout my career, but also just promoting STEM engagement, giving back to those less fortunate and just being involved. It's very important to me to support those communities and to be able to represent my own foundation. It's really cool. As I said, just having the platform, being able to give back."

#3 DEMARIO DOUGLAS

THE MEANING BEHIND THE NICKNAME

NUMBER CHANGE

- Pop Douglas changed his jersey number from No. 81 to No. 3 in 2024. He wore No. 3 in college at Liberty, as well as in Little League, middle school and high school. Hollins flew them out, and although he was hesitant at first, they convinced him that doing all of his training barefoot can help with durability. In the last few years, Hollins has completely abandoned shoes and now walks barefoot all the time, unless it is under 35 degrees.

DEDICATION TO HIS GOALS

- While in high school, Stevenson started gaining attention for the impressive stats he posted as a junior. Unfortunately, due to his grades, Stevenson was academically ineligible to receive a football scholarship despite being recruited. Following his senior year of high school, Stevenson took a year off from football and worked part-time jobs at Walmart and Jimmy John's. But after a year away, he decided to follow a group of his friends and enroll in Cerritos Community College. During his time at Cerritos, he shared a two-bedroom apartment with up to six other guys at times and rode his bicycle 20 minutes to and from practice every day. After putting up monster stats in his second season at Cerritos, he committed to Oklahoma. Oklahoma led him to the 2021 NFL Draft where in the fourth round on the third day the Patriots selected Stevenson. In addition, he worked on his academics and made the Dean's List while at Oklahoma.

WR Kyle Williams, a Los Angeles native, quickly recognized the passion for sports in his new city of Boston and uses it as motivation: "It's huge," Williams said. "You see Patriots everywhere. You see Celtics everywhere. Just seeing the love this town has for sports, it makes you want to give back and compete harder."

JOURNEY TO THE NFL

- As a high school sophomore, football wasn't on Christian Barmore's radar. Barmore played basketball in high school until his junior year, when the football coach at Delaware Valley Charter High School convinced him to give football a chance. Moving to Neumann Goretti High School as a senior after his previous high school closed, Barmore became a highly-recruited prospect in just his second season of organized football, committing to the University of Alabama. Additionally, Barmore has faced plenty of adversity in his life, including the process of overcoming blood clots to return to the field in 2024. Click or scan the QR code below to watch a video feature on his story.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMER RICHARD SEYMOUR SEES GREATNESS AHEAD FOR CHRISTIAN BARMORE

- For a defensive lineman, if Patriots and Pro Football Hall of Famer Richard Seymour is in your corner, there are few better compliments or endorsements.
- "I think he has a ton of ability, natural ability, and he plays hard," Seymour told the Boston Herald. "I think he's going to be a problem for (opposing teams) for a long time to come. Hopefully he stays healthy and continues on the path he's on. I think he has a really bright future."

SECOND-MOST QUARTERBACK PRESSURES

LOVE BEYOND BLOOD

- LB Christian Elliss has six adopted siblings. For the NFL's My Cause My Cleats initiative, Elliss represented "An Act of Love," the agency that his siblings were adopted through. Elliss has two kids of his own with one on the way, and he and his wife look forward to adopting a child one day as well.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY

- Elliss has two brothers that also play linebacker in the NFL: Jonah (Denver Broncos) and Kaden (Atlanta Falcons). Another one of his brothers, Noah, played for the Philadelphia Eagles. His father, Luther, was a first-round draft pick by the Detroit Lions in 1995. As a defensive lineman, he was a two-time Pro Bowler in nine seasons with Detroit and Denver. He is currently the defensive tackles coach at the University of Utah where Christian's younger brother, Elijah, plays defensive end.

ELLISS HAS CAREER-HIGH IN TACKLES

- Elliss set a single-game career high vs. Buffalo on Jan. 5, 2025, with a team-leading 13 total tackles. His previous high was 9 tackles at the Jacksonville Jaguars on Oct. 20, 2024, and vs. the New York Jets on Oct. 27, 2024. Elliss' tackle total was the highest of the 2024 season for any Patriots player. LB Ja'Whaun Bentley had 12 total tackles at Cincinnati on Sept. 8, 2024.

DR. GIBBY

- LB Jack Gibbens revealed the nickname given to him by Mike Vrabel when the two were together at Tennessee. According to Gibbens, Vrabel has called him "Dr. Gibby" ever since his rookie season. This nickname came about as a result of Gibbens answering questions correctly while the coach was quizzing the team: "I had to tell him I didn't study medicine...He had to tell me it was a joke," Gibbens said.

GONZALEZ EARNS 2ND TEAM ALL-PRO HONORS

- CB Christian Gonzalez earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro Honors for his 2024 season.

ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

- Gonzalez was named the Defensive Rookie of the Month for September by the National Football League, becoming the fifth Patriots player to win a rookie of the month honor and the third defensive player to earn the award. Gonzalez joins QB Mac Jones (November of 2021), DE Chandler Jones (September of 2012), LB Jerod Mayo (October of 2008) and WR Deion Branch (September of 2002).

GONZO'S JOURNEY

- Before his collegiate success, even the prospect of going to college seemed out of reach for Gonzalez. He didn't want his family to have to pay his college tuition, and as a sophomore, he was a backup quarterback on his high school's junior varsity team that went 1-9. He almost gave up the sport, but after his family's encouragement and transferring schools, Gonzalez's new coaches switched him to defense, and he quickly attracted the attention of colleges around the nation.
- To understand the athleticism of Christian Gonzalez, look no further than his family. His father, Hector, played basketball at UTEP and professionally overseas. Gonzalez's two older sisters were both on the Colombian National Team for track & field and were college All-Americans. His eldest sister competed in the 2020 Olympics, and his younger sister is a rising star in soccer.

A REUNION WITH MEANING

- LB Robert Spillane was originally signed by Tennessee as a rookie free agent out of Western Michigan, the first year Mike Vrabel was head coach of the Titans. In 2025, he reunited with the coach that took a chance on him and made his dream a reality, this time in New England. The day Spillane signed with the team in Tennessee, it was Mother's Day. On the day Spillane signed his contract in New England, it was his mother's birthday.
- "I got hired in 2018 on Mother's Day, and I got to call my mom in tears saying, 'I'm going to be a professional football player,' Spillane said. '[May 13] is her birthday, so I'm signing the contract on her birthday. She's a very important special woman in my life, and I just want to make her proud.'"

UNDRAFTED TO TOP OF THE LEAGUE

- Spillane has recorded over 100 tackles in each of his last two seasons with the Las Vegas Raiders: 158 in 2024 and 148 in 2023. His 158 tackles in 2024 set a Raiders single-season record and ranked third in the NFL. In 2023, Spillane became the only Raiders player to record 100-plus tackles, 3.0-plus sacks and 3-plus interceptions in a single season since 1987. Since the beginning of the 2022 season, Spillane has tallied 450 tackles, the second-most in the NFL among undrafted defenders, behind only Chicago LB T.J. Edwards (467).

THE WHY BEHIND THE NUMBER

- Spillane is the grandson of RB Johnny Lattner, the 1953 Heisman Trophy winner. Lattner secured the award in his senior season at Notre Dame, after he rushed for 651 yards (4.9-yard average) and 9 touchdowns, in addition to catching 14 passes for 204 yards. He had 2 touchdowns off of just 10 kickoff returns and saw some action on defense, recording 4 interceptions in the Irish's 9-0-1 campaign. Notre Dame finished second in the AP Poll in 1953 behind Maryland. Lattner played one season in the NFL with Pittsburgh after he was selected seventh overall in the 1954 NFL Draft. Spillane wears No. 14 to honor Lattner, who wore No. 14 at Notre Dame.

EYES CLOSED, OPEN MIND

- During his introductory press conference as a Patriots player, Spillane mentioned that he does a lot of "eyes-closed training." Later on, he explained exactly what "eyes-closed training" meant and how it helps him in football. Spillane explained that he developed a style of training where he scouts out an area, whether that be a mountain trail or in a forest, walks it, returns to walk it with his eyes shut, then returns again to walk it backward with his eyes shut. When asked how this training came about, Spillane told the Athletic, "I didn't really learn it from anybody, so it's from the ground up, self-taught," Spillane said. "It's basically just a confidence drill. As a middle linebacker, you want to know where you are on the field at all times — within the positioning of the field, understanding the schematics, where the other players are around you. So, you close your eyes and take away the most basic thing you use to understand that. You've really got to rely on your instincts and your trust."

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2025

- LB Jahlani Tavai has registered 100-total tackles in each of the last two seasons with 107 tackles in 2023 and a career-high 109 total tackles in 2024. He can become the first Patriots player with three-straight 100 tackle seasons since LB Ja'Whaun Bentley (2021, 2022 and 2023).

ASK AND JAHLANI RECEIVED

- Tavai starred in high school as a nose guard. He was undersized and did not attract the attention of many colleges. But after finding out one of the English teachers at his high school was the son of then-Hawaii coach Norm Chow, he reached out to the teacher, Cameron Chow, and asked if Cameron could tell his dad to scout his tape. Cameron followed up and passed along Jahlani's tape to his dad, and the very next day, Jahlani had a scholarship offer. According to Jahlani, his football career would have been over after high school if it wasn't for this connection.

ONE AND ONLY

- Tavai is the only NFL player within the last decade to play at least 70% of the snaps on offense or defense and 70% of the snaps on special teams, a feat he accomplished in 2023. Among 252 players that played at least 40 percent of his team's special teams snaps in 2024, Tavai and Minnesota S Josh Metellus are the only players to have also played 80 percent of his team's defensive snaps.

TAVAI SETS CAREER HIGH IN TACKLES

- Tavai finished the 2024 season with a single-season career best 109 total tackles. His previous best was his 107 total tackles during the 2023 season.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2025

- P Bryce Baringer can become the first Patriots player with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line in three straight seasons. Baringer set a Patriots record with 38 punts inside the 20-yard line as a rookie in 2023 and then followed with 31 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2024. Baringer and Jake Bailey (36 in 2019 and 31 in 2020) are the only Patriots punters with back-to-back seasons with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line. If Baringer reaches 30 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2025, he will be the first punter since Cameron Johnston (2021-23 with Houston) to accomplish the feat.
- Baringer has a team record 47.9-yard punting average and will attempt to keep that pace.

30 AND 30

- Baringer led the NFL and set a team record in 2023 with 38 punts inside the 20-yard line. Baringer became the second Patriots punter with back-to-back seasons with at least 30 punts inside the 20-yard line after finishing with 31 in 2024. Jake Bailey had 36 in 2019 and 31 in 2020.

ONLY PATRIOT WITH TWO IN TWO

- Baringer has seven games in his career when he has had at least two 60-yard punts in the same game after a 71-yard and a 65-yard punt at Miami on Sept. 14, 2025. He is the only Patriots punter to ever have more than two games with at least two 60-yard punts in a game.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-AMERICAN

- Baringer had an unconventional path to the NFL. He began his collegiate career by earning a walk-on spot at Illinois in 2018 as a true freshman, but due to being buried on the depth chart and the cost of out-of-state tuition, he transferred home to Michigan State as a regular student. Outside of a four-game stint on the Michigan State team due to injuries on the roster, Baringer did not have a walk-on spot available to him in 2019. After a year serving as the team's photographer to maintain access to the facilities to train, Baringer attended an open tryout with a new coaching staff at the Spartans and made the team, establishing himself as the Spartans top punter in 2020 and going on to have record-breaking seasons in 2021 and 2022. In 2022, he was named the Big 10 Punter of the Year and a consensus All-American by all five major associations.

BARINGER SETS TEAM MARK

- Baringer had at least one 50-yard punt in all 17 games in 2023 to set the team record for the longest single season streak in team history (at any point of the season). Zoltan Mesko had a 12-game streak in 2011. Baringer extended his record to 27 games with a 50-yard punt after connecting on a 50-yard punt in the first 10 games of 2024 before the streak ended in the game vs. the LA Rams (11/17/24).
