2026 SCHEDULE HIGHLIGHTS

The Patriots 2026 schedule has eight teams that played in the postseason last year (Buffalo, Chicago, Denver, Green Bay, Jacksonville, Los Angeles Chargers, Pittsburgh and Seattle), including five of the seven division champions - Chicago (NFC North), Denver (AFC West), Jacksonville (AFC South), Pittsburgh (AFC North) and Seattle (NFC West). The Patriots are the first team to appear in a Super Bowl and then start the next season with four straight games against teams that made the playoffs (Seattle, Pittsburgh, Jacksonville and Buffalo), according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Overall, the Patriots are the ninth team in the last 40 seasons to begin their schedule with four straight games against teams that made the playoffs in the previous season.

BEST WINNING PERCENTAGE AGAINST AN NFC TEAM

New England is 11-4 (.733) versus the Bears in the regular season, having won four straight games in Chicago. The Patriots .733 regular season winning percentage against Chicago ranks as the team's highest against any NFC opponent all-time. The second-best winning percentage in the NFC for New England is against Tampa Bay (.727; 8-3 record).

PATRIOTS AT CHICAGO BEARS

SERIES HISTORY

This week's game will mark the 17th meeting overall between the Patriots and Bears (including Super Bowl XX). The teams last faced off during the 2024 season, a Patriots 19-3 win at Chicago on Nov. 10, 2024. The Patriots had 9 sacks in that game, tied for the second-most in a single game in team history. The Patriots held Chicago to 142 yards, the lowest total since holding the Jets to 103 total yards on Nov. 20, 2022. In addition, the Patriots held Chicago to 1-for-14 on third down.

This week's game will be the second prime time game between the two teams. On Oct. 24, 2022, the Patriots hosted Chicago in a Monday Night Football game that was won by the Bears by a 33-14 final.

The Patriots hold a 11-4 overall lead in the regular season series, but Chicago claimed a victory in the teams' only postseason matchup, taking a 46-10 decision in Super Bowl XX. Since Super Bowl XX, the Patriots have recorded a 9-2 edge against Chicago.

One of the more memorable games between the two teams was in 2002, when the Bears played their home games at the University of Illinois during the remodeling of Soldier Field. New England staged one of the most memorable comebacks in team history, rallying from a 27-6 deficit late in the third quarter to pull out for a 33-30 win that was clinched on a 20-yard touchdown pass from QB Tom Brady to WR David Patten with 21 seconds left in the game.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS AT CHICAGO BEARS

PATRIOTS TO WATCH

DRAKE MAYE

QB, #10

- QB Drake Maye had his third straight game with at least 3 touchdown passes after throwing 3 against the Jets. Maye had 3 touchdown passes at Buffalo (10/4) and 4 touchdown passes vs. Las Vegas (10/11). If Maye has at least 3 touchdown passes this week against Chicago, he will be the first Patriots quarterback to throw for at least 3 touchdown passes in at least four straight games since Tom Brady in 2014, when he had a four-game streak: 4 touchdown passes at Buffalo (10/12), 3 vs. the N.Y. Jets (10/16), 5 vs. Chicago (10/26) and 4 vs. Denver (11/2). Brady is the only quarterback in NFL history to ever have at least four straight games with at least 3 touchdown passes, and he has done it twice (2007, 2014). The NFL and team record for most consecutive games with at least 3 touchdown passes is 10 straight games by Tom Brady in 2007 to start the season.
- Maye completed a 42-yard touchdown pass to WR Romeo Doubs in the first quarter vs. the Jets last week, his 10th touchdown pass of at least 30 yards over the last two seasons, which is the most in the NFL over that span. Josh Allen and Jalen Hurts each have nine touchdown passes over 30 yards in the last two seasons.

KYLE WILLIAMS

WR, #18

- WR Kyle Williams scored on a 34-yard touchdown pass from QB Drake Maye in the third quarter last week against the Raiders. All four of his career touchdown receptions have been for at least 30 yards, as he had a career-high 72-yard touchdown reception at Tampa Bay on Nov. 9, 2025, a 37-yard touchdown reception at Baltimore on Dec. 21, 2025 and a 33-yard touchdown reception vs. the New York Giants on Dec. 1, 2025. Williams is the fourth Patriots player to have had each of their first 4 touchdown receptions in the NFL go for 30-plus yards. The others are Stanley Morgan, Stephen Starring and Tony Simmons. Morgan's first 10 touchdown receptions went for at least 30 yards, tied with Frank Pitts for the NFL record. Story's first 5 touchdowns went for over 30 yards.

ELIJAH PONDER

- LB Elijah Ponder has at least a half sack in five straight games after an 8-yard sack of Jets QB Geno Smith in the third quarter last week. The last Patriots player with at least a half a sack in five games was LB Josh Uche in 2022. The longest streak of consecutive games with at least a half a sack in a single season for New England is seven straight games by LB Andre Tippett in 1984. DE Gary Jeter had a streak of six straight games for the Patriots in 1989. Ponder leads the Patriots with 5½ sacks.

BRENDEN SCHOOLER

S, #41

- S Brenden Schooler registered 3 special teams tackles in the win over the Jets last week. If he reaches 3 special teams tackles this week against Chicago, he will be the first Patriots player with at least 3 special teams tackles in back-to-back games since LB Jack Gibbens had 3 special teams tackles vs. Carolina (9/28) and at Buffalo (10/5) during the 2025 season.

6 SUPER BOWL WINS

THE MOST BY ANY SINGLE OWNER IN PRO FOOTBALL HISTORY

FASTEST OWNER IN NFL HISTORY TO REACH 300 WINS

23-YEAR SEASON TICKET HOLDER BEFORE BUYING THE TEAM IN 1994

Under Kraft's leadership since he purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports.

Kraft has led the two most dominant decades in NFL history in terms of overall wins – 141 (2010-19) and 126 (2000-09).

Kraft is the most successful owner since he purchased the team in 1994 in terms of wins (378), division titles (20), winning percentage (.656), playoff wins (36) and playoff seasons (23).

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In his 32 seasons of ownership, he is credited with transforming one of the league's least successful clubs into one of the most valuable. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.238 pct.), the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won more division titles (20), conference crowns (11) and Super Bowl championships (6) than any other NFL team. Additionally, the Patriots have achieved the most winning seasons (25) since Kraft assumed ownership beginning in 1994. Super Bowl LX was the 11th Super Bowl appearance since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other team has appeared in more than five Super Bowls. In Kraft's 32 seasons, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs 23 times, more than doubling the franchise's accomplishments during its first 34 seasons.

DYNASTY VS. DYNASTY

Of all the great teams throughout the Super Bowl era, the New England Patriots and the San Francisco 49ers have set a standard of excellence above all of the others.

WHAT TO KNOW

Robert Kraft has 36 career postseason wins as an owner, tied with the Rooney Family in Pittsburgh (36) for second, behind the Green Bay Packers (37). Kraft needs one more postseason win to match the Packers for the most postseason wins in NFL history.

500TH GAME FOR KRAFT

The game at Pittsburgh (9/18/22) was the 500th game of the Robert Kraft era. Kraft is the most successful owner since he purchased the team in 1994 in terms of Super Bowl wins (6), overall wins (378), division titles (20), winning percentage (.656), playoff wins (36) and playoff seasons (23).

A FAN AT HEART

A devoted Patriots fan since the team's American Football League (AFL) days in the 1960s, Kraft attended games at each of the franchise's early Boston-area venues, including Boston University Field, Fenway Park, Boston College's Alumni Stadium and Harvard Stadium. When the Patriots moved to Schaefer Stadium in 1971, he purchased season tickets for his family. Kraft often credits the memories and experiences shared with his family and fellow Patriots fans during those years as the inspiration behind his pursuit of ownership of the franchise.

A WINNING TRADITION I

Robert Kraft won his 300th game overall as owner of the New England Patriots against Miami on Sept. 30, 2018. Kraft reached the milestone in his 25th NFL season and in his 432nd game, the fastest an owner has reached the mark. Al Davis of the Raiders accomplished the feat in 495 games (31 seasons) while Pat Bowlen of Denver reached 300 career wins in 501 games (30 seasons).

A WINNING TRADITION II

Kraft's winning percentage with the Patriots (.656) since taking over the team in 1994 is the highest among all owners/ownership groups with at least 200 wins (regular and postseason) with one team. He is one of just four owners with at least 200 wins and a winning percentage over .600.

PATRIOTS IN THE PLAYOFFS

The Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 29 times in their 66-year history. Twenty-three of those playoff berths have come in the 32 seasons since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, a dramatic contrast to the six total playoff berths the team earned in its first 34 years of existence. The Patriots have won 23 division crowns.

For NHL teams, overtime losses (OTL) and ties from 2001-2004 (the NHL abolished ties in 2005-2006 and instituted a shootout system) are counted as ties when calculating winning percentage.

PATRIOTS WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2026

THE 600 CLUB

The Patriots (603 wins) 20-3 win over Pittsburgh on Sept. 20, 2026 at Gillette Stadium was their 600th win, first among all original AFL teams and 12th overall in NFL history.

THREE SETS OF TWINS

The Patriots have three players on the team that have twin siblings. DT Milton Williams (Mia) and LB Namdi Obiazor (Nneka) have twin sisters. Obiazor's sister played college basketball at Youngstown State and Grand Canyon. TE Cameron Latu has a twin brother, Nate, who played defensive end at Snow College and Oklahoma State and also had a brief stint with New Orleans.

LUCKY NUMBER...14

The Patriots won the AFC East with a 14-3 record in 2025. The Patriots will be looking for their first back-to-back division titles since winning 11 straight division titles (2009-19).

If the Patriots reach 14 wins in 2026, it will be the second time in team history that the team has won 14 games in back-to-back seasons. The Patriots won 14 games in 2003 and 2004.

ELITE ON BOTH SIDES OF THE BALL

The Patriots offense finished third in the NFL in 2025. The last time the Patriots finished in the top 10 in offense in back-to-back seasons was during a four-year stretch from 2015 through the 2018 seasons.

The Patriots defense finished eighth in the NFL in 2025. The last time the Patriots defense finished in the top 10 in back-to-back seasons was during a three-year stretch from 2021 through the 2023 season.

In 2025, the Patriots offense finished third and the defense finished eighth in the NFL. The Patriots have had back-to-back seasons with both the offense and the defense finishing in the top 10 three times in team history. If the Patriots finish in the top 10 in both offense and defense in 2026, it will be the fourth time that has occurred (2015-16, 2007-08 and 1978-80).

The 2025 Patriots offense generated 6,449 total yards, the fourth highest in team history. If the 2026 Patriots produce at least 6,000 yards, it will be the first time with back-to-back seasons with at least 6,000 yards since three straight seasons from 2016 through 2018. The Patriots also had a three-year stretch from 2011 through 2013.

RETURN ON INVESTMENT

The 2025 Patriots had 3 total kick returns in 2025 with 2 punts returned for a touchdown and 1 kickoff returned for a touchdown. The last NFL team to return at least 3 total kicks in back-to-back years was Minnesota in 2016 (2 punt returns and 1 kickoff return) and 2015 (1 punt return and 2 kickoff returns).

A PROVEN LEADER AND CHAMPION

AS A PLAYER: Vrabel's accomplishments as a player included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Originally drafted in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers, he spent the early years of his career mostly playing on special teams and as a reserve linebacker. He signed with the Patriots as an unheralded free agent in 2001 and went on to become one of the key pieces of the dynasty that captured three Super Bowl titles in four years. Vrabel ended his playing career with the Kansas City Chiefs after being a part of a trade that included QB Matt Cassel. He appeared in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 722 tackles, 11 interceptions (one returned for a touchdown), 20 forced fumbles and 9 fumble recoveries. A cerebral and versatile athlete, he also saw action as a tight end and totaled 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording 8 postseason sacks and two additional postseason touchdown receptions.

AS A COACH: Vrabel has 16 years of coaching experience, including 13 years in the NFL and three seasons at Ohio State. The Tennessee Titans hired him as their head coach in 2018, and he led the Titans to two division titles and three playoff appearances during his six seasons at the helm. In 2019, the Titans upset the Patriots in Foxborough in the Wild Card round, then defeated the No. 1 seed Ravens in Baltimore the following week to advance to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs. In 2021, the Titans claimed the top seed in the AFC with a 12-5 record, earning Vrabel NFL Coach of the Year honors.

In Vrabel's first season as head coach of the Patriots in 2025, he led New England to an AFC East Division title and an AFC Championship title en route to the franchise's NFL-record 12th Super Bowl appearance. The 2025 Patriots went 9-0 on the road, becoming the first team in NFL history to play at least nine games on the road and win them all. Vrabel earned his second NFL Coach of the Year honor after taking a team from a 4-13 record in 2024 to a 14-3 record in 2025, becoming just the sixth team to reach a Super Bowl after winning less than five games the year prior.

ROOKIE AND THE VETS

- WR Efton Chism III is developing a work ethic by following his veteran wide receivers. Wide receivers coach Todd Downing addressed his thoughts on Chism's work ethic: "It starts well before he ever hits the field," Downing said. "This guy's one of the first guys in. A lot of times he'll pop into my office super early in the morning, as I'm just getting going, and he wants to sit there and just watch me build the PowerPoint for the meeting that day or something. Just to kind of get an extra time or an extra rep, the mental processing for the system. He stays late with Mack (Hollins) and goes through things with Mack, and those two have developed a cool relationship, so that piece of it's cool, and then what he does on the field is he translates that into playing fast and confident. He knows exactly what to do, so then he can go out and execute it."

TOMMY TWO CHAINS

- Before being claimed off waivers by the Patriots last summer, QB Tommy DeVito, gained a measure of fame as "Tommy Cutlets" during his time with the Giants, a nickname that came after the undrafted local rookie from New Jersey revealed he still lived at home with his parents and joked that his mom always had "chicken cutlets and all that" waiting for him after practice. DeVito picked up a new nickname from Patriots Head Coach Mike Vrabel: "Two Chains." DeVito explained, "Originally, he was calling me 'Cutlets.' Then he saw me wearing two gold chains that I always have on. I never take them off, and that turned into 'Two Chains.' That's good, and that's how it is throughout the building now."

LAND OF OPPORTUNITY

- "It was a great opportunity I felt like I couldn't pass on," Doubs said on joining the Patriots. "I know I'm going to be around a great group of guys. Going to be around a great young quarterback in Drake, (Maye) great coaching staff in (Mike) Vrabel and Josh [McDaniels]."

THE MEANING BEHIND THE NICKNAME

- DeMario Douglas is more commonly referred to by his nickname, "Pop". Although the nickname is fitting for his quickness on the field, the name actually comes from family ties. Douglas' granddad passed away on his first birthday. The wide receiver was commonly referred to as 'Poppa' from his granddad – a nickname that was quickly shortened to just 'Pop'.

NUMBER CHANGE

- Pop Douglas changed his jersey number from No. 81 to No. 3 in 2024. He wore No. 3 in college at Liberty, as well as in Little League, middle school and high school. He explained its meaning to him: "It's big because I was raised by three strong ladies -- my mom, grandma and great-grandma," he said.

ROOKIE RECEIVING RECORDS

- Douglas finished the 2023 season with 49 receptions for a team-leading 561 yards. He has the most receptions and receiving yards by a Patriots rookie wide receiver since 2000.

#44 REGGIE GILLIAM
FB

BROTHERS IN BLOCK

- As he did for seven seasons in New England, former FB James Develin sees the vision for free-agent addition Reggie Gilliam to have a similar impact for the Patriots, bringing the physicality and creative two-back groupings back to Foxborough this season.
- "The fullback fraternity is a pretty small one, so we're always looking out for each other and showing respect where respect is due. I'm happy that Reggie found a new home. I'm very biased, but I think the Patriots offense runs at its best when there's a fullback involved," Develin said.
- During his introductory press conference with the Patriots, Gilliam said he is good friends with Develin through his work with the NFLPA and the fullback fraternity. Develin is now enjoying retirement and works as a player manager for the players' association to stay around the game.
- "I'm good friends with James now. We've talked a lot. He's had nothing but great things to say about New England. Obviously, growing up watching the whole era of the Patriots being the greatest team ever, Josh McDaniels knows how to use a fullback. I'm excited to see what he does with me," Gilliam told reporters.

- Henderson recorded 911 rushing yards in his rookie season. If Henderson records 1,089 rushing yards in 2026, he will become the fourth running back in franchise history to have 2,000 rushing yards over his first two seasons.

Henderson is the first Patriots player with 3 total touchdowns in a game since RB Damien Harris had 3 rushing touchdowns vs. Buffalo on Dec. 26, 2021. Henderson is the fourth player in franchise history to record 2 rushing touchdowns and 1 receiving touchdown in a single game. NOTES OF INTEREST

- TE Hunter Henry became the fourth Patriots tight end to reach 3,000 receiving yards (3,198) and moved past Russ Francis (3,157) into third place among Patriots tight ends. He is ranked third on the all-time reception list among New England tight ends with 278 receptions and tied for third with 28 touchdown receptions. He needs 22 receptions to become the third New England tight end to reach 300 receptions and 2 touchdowns to join Gronkowski (79) and Coates (50) as the only Patriots tight ends with 30 touchdowns.
- Henry has logged at least 40 receptions in all five seasons with the Patriots (60 receptions in 2025), the second-longest streak by a Patriots tight end all-time to Ben Coates, who had 40 or more receptions in six straight seasons. If Henry has at least 40 receptions in 2026, he will match Coates for the longest such streak in team history.

NOTES OF INTEREST

- Henry (278) became the fifth Patriots tight end to reach 200 career receptions in the 2025 season-opener vs. Las Vegas and now ranks third in team history. He is third in receiving yards with 3,198 and tied for third with 28 touchdown receptions. He joined Rob Gronkowski (7,861), Ben Coates (5,471) and Russ Francis (3,157) as the fourth Patriots tight end to reach 3,000 receiving yards. - Henry finished the game with 8 receptions for 90 yards vs. Pittsburgh (9/21/25). The 8 receptions tied his career-high, a mark he has reached three other times in his career – 8 receptions at Jacksonville (10/20/24), vs. Seattle (9/15/24) and vs. Pittsburgh (10/13/19).

HENRY ACCOUNTED FOR SEVEN FIRST DOWNS

- Henry recorded a career-high 7 receptions for a first down against Seattle (9/15/24). His previous career-high was 6 receptions for a first down, which he accomplished three times, the last being at Indianapolis on Dec. 18, 2021.

BAREFOOT DREAMING

- Unless it's gametime, WR Mack Hollins is walking around barefoot. In his early playing years with the Philadelphia Eagles, Hollins met some trainers from Melbourne Muscular Therapy from Australia, whose philosophy is to be barefoot and get back to your original ways of movement. Hollins flew them out, and although he was hesitant at first, they convinced him that doing all of his training barefoot can help with durability. In the last few years, Hollins has completely abandoned shoes and now walks barefoot all the time, unless it is under 35 degrees.

FAMILY PRIDE

- Caleb Lomu's grandfather, Manu Lomu, was of Tongan heritage, a culture and a name Lomu carries with deep pride. That pride has been reflected throughout his career, from being a finalist for the Polynesian College Football Player of the Year to competing in the Polynesian Bowl. His success continues a historic trend, as he became one of five Polynesian players selected in the first round of the 2026 NFL Draft — the highest number ever recorded.
- Lomu's grandfather passed away when his father was just 14, but his dream lived on. As Lomu puts it: "His biggest dream was for someone to represent the last name. Every time I put on that jersey, I know he's above watching. My dad gets emotional seeing 'Lomu' on the back — he always says how happy it would make him. I do it for him, for everyone with the Lomu last name, for my wife, my future family, and the family I have now. It's the biggest thing for me — doing it not just for myself, but for everyone who carries that name."

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2026

- QB Drake Maye is in eighth place in team history with 8,133 passing yards and needs 1,867 passing yards in 2026 to become the sixth Patriots player to reach 10,000 passing yards.
- Maye has a team-best 68.7 career completion percentage.
- In 2025, Maye led the NFL and set a team record with a 72.0 completion percentage. If Maye completes at least 70 percent of his passes in 2026, he will be only the third NFL player with multiple seasons of at least a 70.0 completion percentage, joining Joe Burrow (2021 and 2024) and Drew Brees (2009, 2011, 2016-20). Additionally, Maye would be the second NFL player with a completion percentage of 70.0 or better in back-to-back years, joining Brees (2016-20).
- If Maye leads the NFL in completion percentage for a second straight season, he will be the first Patriots player to accomplish the feat and become the sixth NFL player since 1970 to do so.

If he reaches 4,000 passing yards in 2026, he will join Drew Bledsoe (two) and Tom Brady (11) as the only Patriots quarterbacks with more than one 4,000-yard season. Brady is the only Patriots quarterback that has accomplished the feat in consecutive seasons (2011-15 and 2017-19).
- In 2025, Maye threw 31 touchdowns to join Tom Brady (seven) and Babe Parilli (one) as the only Patriots to have a 30-touchdown season. If Maye throws for 30 touchdowns in 2026, he will join Brady as the only Patriots players with 30 touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Brady threw for 30 touchdowns in consecutive seasons from 2010-12 and again from 2014-15.
- Maye was named to his second Pro Bowl in 2025 and became just the fourth quarterback in NFL history to begin his career with consecutive Pro Bowl invitations, joining Andrew Luck (three straight), Russell Wilson (four straight) and Dan Marino (five straight). He also joins Patriots Hall of Famers Mike Haynes (five straight) and Curtis Martin (two straight) as the only players in franchise history to open their Patriots careers with at least two Pro Bowl selections.

NOTES OF INTEREST

- Maye moved into the Top-10 on the New England all-time passing list and now ranks 8th with 8,133 yards.
- Maye has a team-best 68.7 career completion percentage.
- As a rookie in 2024, Maye finished with 54 rushing attempts for 421 yards and a 7.80-yard average, the sixth-highest in NFL history for a quarterback with at least 50 rushing attempts.

  Maye had a 75-plus completion percentage and threw at least 2 touchdown passes in three consecutive games in 2025. Only Tom Brady has had a longer streak in a single season in NFL history. Brady accomplished the feat during a four-game streak in 2007.

His 13 games in a single season with a passer rating of at least 100.0 is a new franchise record, eclipsing Tom Brady's record of 12, set in 2010 and repeated in 2011. Aaron Rogers owns the NFL record with 14 games in 2020.

MAYE FINISHED 2025 SEASON WITH A 113.5 PASSER RATING

Unfortunately, due to his grades, Stevenson was academically ineligible to receive a football scholarship despite being recruited. Following his senior year of high school, Stevenson took a year off from football and worked part-time jobs at Walmart and Jimmy John's. But after a year away, he decided to follow a group of his friends and enroll in Cerritos Community College. During his time at Cerritos, he shared a two-bedroom apartment with up to six other guys at times and rode his bicycle 20 minutes to and from practice every day. After putting up monster stats in his second season at Cerritos, he committed to Oklahoma. Oklahoma led him to the 2021 NFL Draft where in the fourth round on the third day the Patriots selected Stevenson. In addition, he worked on his academics and made the Dean's List while at Oklahoma.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

- Alijah Vera-Tucker was born Solomon Alijah Tucker on June 17, 1999 in Oakland, Calif. He was named Solomon after his father and grandfather, but has always gone by Alijah, a name his mother, Rhonda, was fond of. Rhonda and Solomon divorced before Alijah can remember, and both remarried while he was still quite young, giving him four parents and four families to raise him. Rhonda and her second husband, Sylvester Vera, gave Alijah two little sisters named Velia and Rosalinda. Alijah is close to everyone in his family.
- In high school, he started going by Alijah Vera-Tucker to show respect to his mom and stepdad and to be more connected to his little sisters, whose last names are Vera.
- "I grew up in two households all my life and just being able to show appreciation to the Vera family and the Tucker family at the same time has always been a passion of mine," he said. "Having those two names instead of one, it feels like I have more power. And it feels like I'm closer to each family."
- Once he got to college, Vera-Tucker took two big steps to permanently link himself to both sides of his family. He inked "VERA" and "TUCKER" onto his forearms, and went to the DMV to legally change his last name to Vera-Tucker.

CITY OF ANGELS TO TITLE TOWN

- As part of the Patriots' rookie development program, Head Coach Mike Vrabel brought the 2025 rookie class to a Red Sox game and to the Celtics' practice facility. WR Kyle Williams, a Los Angeles native, quickly recognized the passion for sports in his new city of Boston and uses it as motivation: "It's huge," Williams said. "You see Patriots everywhere. You see Celtics everywhere. Just seeing the love this town has for sports, it makes you want to give back and compete harder."

WILLIAMS GOES LONG

- Williams scored on a 34-yard touchdown pass from QB Drake Maye in the third quarter vs. Las Vegas on Oct. 11, 2026. All four of his career touchdown receptions have been for at least 30 yards, as his other scores are a career-high 72-yard touchdown reception at Tampa Bay (11/9/25), a 37-yard touchdown reception at Baltimore (12/21/25) and a 33-yard touchdown reception vs. the New York Giants (12/1/25). Williams is the fourth Patriots player to have had each of their first 4 touchdown receptions in the NFL go for 30-plus yards: The others are Stanley Morgan, Stephen Starring and Tony Simmons.

ROOKIE SCORES FIRST NFL TD ON A 72-YARD PASS

- Williams scored his first career touchdown on a 72-yard touchdown pass from QB Drake Maye at Tampa Bay (11/9/25). It was the longest pass play for New England since QB Mac Jones threw a 75-yard touchdown pass to WR Kendrick Bourne vs. Dallas on Oct. 17, 2021.

THE CONNECTION THAT ALMOST WAS — AND NOW IS

- Jared Wilson started at left guard as a rookie and moved to center in 2026. The Jared Wilson–Drake Maye center quarterback connection was supposed to happen years earlier at North Carolina. Wilson, who initially committed to UNC alongside his fellow North Carolina native Maye, later flipped to Georgia. “It was funny,” Wilson said. “He was like, ‘You good? Just me and you, right?’ It was supposed to happen a couple years ago, but I went to Georgia, he stayed at home [at North Carolina]. We talk about that all the time.” Maye echoed the sentiment: “I wanted him to play with me in college, but he went to the SEC; I don’t blame him. I think he’s done a great job of understanding what comes with playing center. You’ve got to be loud. You’ve got to be ‘me and you, it’s our show.’” For Wilson, the connection “was always meant to be.”

JOURNEY TO THE NFL

- As a high school sophomore, football wasn't on Christian Barmore's radar. Barmore played basketball in high school until his junior year, when the football coach at Delaware Valley Charter High School convinced him to give football a chance. Moving to Neumann Goretti High School as a senior after his previous high school closed, Barmore became a highly-recruited prospect in just his second season of organized football, committing to the University of Alabama. Additionally, Barmore has faced plenty of adversity in his life, including the process of overcoming blood clots to return to the field in 2024. PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMER RICHARD SEYMOUR SEES GREATNESS AHEAD FOR CHRISTIAN BARMORE

- For a defensive lineman, if Patriots and Pro Football Hall of Famer Richard Seymour is in your corner, there are few better compliments or endorsements.
- "I think he has a ton of ability, natural ability, and he plays hard," Seymour told the Boston Herald. "I think he's going to be a problem for (opposing teams) for a long time to come. Hopefully he stays healthy and continues on the path he's on. I think he has a really bright future."

SECOND-MOST QUARTERBACK PRESSURES

- Barmore posted the second-most quarterback pressures for a first-year defensive tackle since 2006, according to Pro Football Focus. His 48 pressures in 2021 were two more than Aaron Donald had during his rookie season.

FIRST CAREER 3-SACK GAME

- Barmore finished with his first career 3-sack game, all in the third quarter, at Denver on Dec. 24, 2023. He had two 8-yard sacks and one 9-yard sack of Denver QB Russell Wilson. He increased his 2023 total to 8½ sacks. He is the first Patriots player with a 3-sack game since LB Joshua Uche had a 3-sack game at Arizona on Dec. 12, 2022. The last defensive lineman with a 3-sack game for New England was Deatrich Wise Jr. on Sept. 25, 2022 vs. Baltimore.

ADVICE FROM A PATS HALL OF FAMER

- Barmore said he has developed a strong relationship with Patriots Hall of Famer NT Vince Wilfork, who sends him a text before games. "He just gets me fired up every time. You know, every time," Barmore said. "He's a legend. He's one of the best players ever play the game. So every time he texts me or just hits me up, it's a blessing, because you know he a legend. I just I love how he motivates me."

Rams (11/7/21).
- Byard led the NFL in interceptions in 2025 with 7 picks while with the Chicago Bears. If he leads the NFL in interceptions in 2026, he will be just the third player since 1970 to lead the league in two consecutive years, joining Everson Walls (Dallas in 1981-82) and Bill Bradley (Philadelphia in 1971-72).
- Byard led the NFL with 7 interceptions in 2025 with Chicago and also tied for the NFL lead with 8 interceptions in 2017 with Tennessee. Byard joined Bill Bradley (Philadelphia – 1971-1972), Xavien Howard (Miami – 2018, 2020), Ty Law (New England in 1998 and N.Y. Jets in 2005), Ronnie Lott (San Francisco – 1986, L.A. Raiders – 1991), Asante Samuel (New England in 2006 and Philadelphia in 2009), Darren Sharper (Green Bay in 2000 and New Orleans in 2009), Charles Woodson (Green Bay 2009, 2011) and Rod Woodson (Baltimore in 1999 and Oakland in 2002) as the only NFL players since 1970 to lead the NFL in interceptions in two seasons.
- If he leads the NFL in interceptions in 2026, he will join Ed Reed (Baltimore – 2004, 2008 and 2010) and Everson Wallas (Dallas – 1981, 1982 and 1985) as the only NFL players since 1970 to lead the NFL in interceptions in three seasons.

REUNITED AND IT FEELS SO GOOD

- "I definitely knew that, obviously, if I wasn't going to be back in Chicago, this was my top destination to go to. Not necessarily just because of the relationship I got with Vrabes, and there's a ton of other coaches and people that's in this building that I'm very familiar with. I just think the culture of this team, of this organization, obviously a winning culture. I think the pieces that they have in place—whether it's the quarterback, the secondary, all those things—I think it makes it very attractive to any free agent to want to come here."

MAYEDAY

- "New England has it right with Drake Maye," Byard said. "So I'm excited to be able to play with him, but also to be able to play with some of the pieces this team has on defense who I think played really well last year.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2026

- LB Christian Elliss had a team-leading 18 total special teams tackles in 2025. If he reaches at least 15 special teams tackles in 2026, he will be the first Patriots player with at least 15 special teams tackles in back-to-back seasons since Matthew Slater had 16 special teams tackles in back-to-back seasons in 2014 and 2015.

LOVE BEYOND BLOOD

- Elliss has six adopted siblings. For the NFL's My Cause My Cleats initiative, Elliss represented "An Act of Love," the agency that his siblings were adopted through. Elliss has three kids of his own with one on the way, and he and his wife look forward to adopting a child one day as well.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY

- Elliss has two brothers that also play linebacker in the NFL: Jonah (Denver Broncos) and Kaden (New Orleans Saints). Another one of his brothers, Noah, played for the Philadelphia Eagles. His father, Luther, was a first-round draft pick by the Detroit Lions in 1995. As a defensive lineman, he was a two-time Pro Bowler in nine seasons with Detroit and Denver. He is currently the defensive tackles coach at the University of Utah where Christian's younger brother, Elijah, plays defensive end.

ELLISS HAS CAREER-HIGH IN TACKLES

- Elliss set a single-game career high vs. Buffalo on Jan. 5, 2025, with a team-leading 13 total tackles. His previous high was 9 tackles at the Jacksonville Jaguars on Oct. 20, 2024, and vs. the New York Jets on Oct. 27, 2024. Elliss' tackle total was the highest of the 2024 season for any Patriots player. LB Ja'Whaun Bentley had 12 total tackles at Cincinnati on Sept. 8, 2024.

ELLISS HAD A CAREER-HIGH 4 SPECIAL TEAMS TACKLES

- Elliss finished with a career-high 4 total special teams tackles vs. the N.Y. Giants (12/1/25). Elliss had four games in 2025 with at least three special teams tackles. He had 3 at Miami (9/14), 3 vs. Atlanta (11/2), 4 vs., NY Giants (12/1) and 3 at the N.Y. Jets (12/28). Elliss had a career-high 18 special teams tackles. His previous high was 8 in 2024.

GONZALEZ SELECTED TO 2026 PRO BOWL

- CB Christian Gonzalez earned his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2025. He is the first Patriots defensive back to earn Pro Bowl honors since cornerback J.C. Jackson in 2021.

GONZALEZ EARNS 2ND TEAM ALL-PRO HONORS

- Gonzalez earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro Honors for his 2024 season.

ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

- Gonzalez was named the Defensive Rookie of the Month for September by the National Football League in 2023, becoming the fifth Patriots player to win a rookie of the month honor and the third defensive player to earn the award. Gonzalez joins RB TreVeyon Henderson (November in 2025), QB Mac Jones (November of 2021), DE Chandler Jones (September of 2012), LB Jerod Mayo (October of 2008) and WR Deion Branch (September of 2002).

GONZO'S JOURNEY

- Before his collegiate success, even the prospect of going to college seemed out of reach for Gonzalez. He didn't want his family to have to pay his college tuition, and as a sophomore, he was a backup quarterback on his high school's junior varsity team that went 1-9. He almost gave up the sport, but after his family's encouragement and transferring schools, Gonzalez's new coaches switched him to defense, and he quickly attracted the attention of colleges around the nation.
- To understand the athleticism of Christian Gonzalez, look no further than his family. His father, Hector, played basketball at UTEP and professionally overseas. Gonzalez's two older sisters were both on the Colombian National Team for track & field and were college All-Americans. His eldest sister competed in the 2020 Olympics, and his younger sister is a rising star in soccer.

PATRIOTS SCORE ON DEFENSE FOR FIRST TIME IN 2024

- The Patriots scored on defense for the first time in 2024 at Miami (11/24 when CB Christian Gonzalez returned a RB Jaylen Wright fumble 63 yards for a touchdown that was forced by S Marte Mapu. #50 GABE JACAS

SUPERHEROES AND VILLAINS
- Rookie linebacker and Patriots 2026 second-round draft pick Gabe Jacas refers to his brother, Khaliq, who's seven years older, as his "superhero" – and it's not just a figure of speech. When Khaliq came home to Fort Pierce, Fla., after a three-year Division I career at Florida International University as a defensive lineman, he found his once "chubby" younger brother developed into a leaner and more powerful frame. So, Khaliq had a vision: turn Gabe into an offense's villain. Gabe's brother began coaching him on defensive line drills every day and continued on as his position coach for his junior and senior year of high school. Gabe told the Illini Inquirer that the mentality he plays with today – toughness, dependability, discipline – all traces back to his brother: "All the things I pretty much know now I learned from him, especially the mental aspect." Now in New England, Gabe still credits Khaliq for getting him here: "He's kind of like my superhero. Everything that's before me right now is because of him."

#5 DRE'MONT JONES

NOTES OF INTEREST
- Since the NFL moved to a 17 game schedule in 2021, LB Dre-Mont Jones is one of four players that has played in 18 games in the regular season due to being traded during the year. He joins WR Rashid Shaheed (New Orleans and Seattle), DT Leonard Williams (New York Giants and Seattle) and WR Mike Williams (New York Jets and Pittsburgh) as the players that have played in 18 regular season games in a season.
- Jones played against the Patriots two times in 2025, one with Baltimore and one with Tennessee and sacked QB Drake Maye for a 3-yard loss with Baltimore (12/21) and for a 7-yard loss with Tennessee (10/19).

DRE'MONT JONES ON JOINING NEW ENGLAND
- "Vrabes and winning, to be simple about it," Jones said. "I've never been in the playoffs, so hopefully, now that I'm here, playoffs and Super Bowl appearances will happen again," Jones said.

#2 HAROLD LANDRY III

FRANCHISE RECORD IN DEBUT
- LB Harold Landry III was credited with 2½ sacks, his seventh multiple sack game, vs. Las Vegas (9/7) in the 2025 season-opener. It is the most sacks by a New England player in his debut. It is second to his career-high 3 sacks at Miami on Dec. 11, 2023, with Tennessee. His last multi-sack game was vs. the N.Y. Jets on Sept. 15, 2024, when he had 2 sacks.

LANDRY III RECORDS MOST SACKS IN FIRST TWO GAMES

He previously had 2½ sacks vs. Las Vegas on Sept. 7, 2025. The previous record was set by DL Chris Slade in 1993, with 3 sacks in his first two games with the team.

#14 ROBERT SPILLANE

SPILLANE REGISTERS 15 TOTAL TACKLES
- LB Robert Spillane had his 19th career 10-tackle game after finishing with 15 total tackles vs. Pittsburgh (9/21/25). His 15 total tackles are the second most of his career. He had a career-high 16 total tackles in the last game of the 2024 season vs. the L.A. Chargers (1/5/5) when he played for Las Vegas. He has four 10-plus tackle games in 2025 and has 22 career 10-tackle games in his career.

SPILLANE'S HIGHEST TACKLE TOTALS
16 ..... vs. LA Chargers (1/5/25)
15 ..... vs. Pittsburgh (9/21/25)
14 ..... at Buffalo (9/17/23)
13 ..... at Kansas City (12/26/21)
13 ..... at Miami (11/19/23)

A REUNION WITH MEANING
- Spillane was originally signed by Tennessee as a rookie free agent out of Western Michigan, the first year Mike Vrabel was head coach of the Titans. In 2025, he reunited with the coach that took a chance on him and made his dream a reality, this time in New England. The day Spillane signed with the team in Tennessee, it was Mother's Day. On the day Spillane signed his contract in New England, it was his mother's birthday.
- "I got hired in 2018 on Mother's Day, and I got to call my mom in tears saying, 'I'm going to be a professional football player,' Spillane said. '[May 13] is her birthday, so I'm signing the contract on her birthday. She's a very important special woman in my life, and I just want to make her proud."

UNDRAFTED TO TOP OF THE LEAGUE

- Spillane recorded over 100 tackles in each of his two seasons with the Las Vegas Raiders: 158 in 2024 and 148 in 2023. His 158 tackles in 2024 set a Raiders single-season record and ranked third in the NFL. In 2023, Spillane became the only Raiders player to record 100-plus tackles, 3.0-plus sacks and 3-plus interceptions in a single season since 1987.

THE WHY BEHIND THE NUMBER

- Spillane is the grandson of RB Johnny Lattner, the 1953 Heisman Trophy winner. Lattner secured the award in his senior season at Notre Dame, after he rushed for 651 yards (4.9-yard average) and 9 touchdowns, in addition to catching 14 passes for 204 yards. He had 2 touchdowns off of just 10 kickoff returns and saw some action on defense, recording 4 interceptions in the Irish's 9-0-1 campaign. Notre Dame finished second in the AP Poll in 1953 behind Maryland. Lattner played one season in the NFL with Pittsburgh after he was selected seventh overall in the 1954 NFL Draft. Spillane wears No. 14 to honor Lattner, who wore No. 14 at Notre Dame.

EYES CLOSED, OPEN MIND

- During his introductory press conference as a Patriots player, Spillane mentioned that he does a lot of "eyes-closed training." Later on, he explained exactly what "eyes-closed training" meant and how it helps him in football. Spillane explained that he developed a style of training where he scouts out an area, whether that be a mountain trail or in a forest, walks it, returns to walk it with his eyes shut, then returns again to walk it backward with his eyes shut. When asked how this training came about, Spillane told the Athletic, "I didn't really learn it from anybody, so it's from the ground up, self-taught," Spillane said. "It's basically just a confidence drill. As a middle linebacker, you want to know where you are on the field at all times — within the positioning of the field, understanding the schematics, where the other players are around you. So, you close your eyes and take away the most basic thing you use to understand that. You've really got to rely on your instincts and your trust."

FIRST 2-SACK GAME AS A PATRIOT

- DT Milton Williams finished with 2 sacks at Miami (9/14/25), including a 9-yard sack on fourth down with 53 seconds to play to seal the New England win. It is his second career 2-sack game. He also had 2 sacks at the L.A. Rams as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles (11/24/24).

- Baringer has seven games in his career when he has had at least two 60-yard punts in the same game after a 71-yard and a 65-yard punt at Miami on Sept. 14, 2025. He is the only Patriots punter to ever have more than two games with at least two 60-yard punts in a game.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-AMERICAN

- Baringer had an unconventional path to the NFL. He began his collegiate career by earning a walk-on spot at Illinois in 2018 as a true freshman, but due to being buried on the depth chart and the cost of out-of-state tuition, he transferred home to Michigan State as a regular student. Outside of a four-game stint on the Michigan State team due to injuries on the roster, Baringer did not have a walk-on spot available to him in 2019. After a year serving as the team's photographer to maintain access to the facilities to train, Baringer attended an open tryout with a new coaching staff at the Spartans and made the team, establishing himself as the Spartans top punter in 2020 and going on to have record-breaking seasons in 2021 and 2022. In 2022, he was named the Big 10 Punter of the Year and a consensus All-American by all five major associations.

BARINGER SETS TEAM MARK

- Baringer had at least one 50-yard punt in all 17 games in 2023 to set the team record for the longest single season streak in team history (at any point of the season). WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2026

- CB Marcus Jones is second in NFL history with a 13.8-yard punt return average (89 returns for 1230 yards).
- Jones scored on a 48-yard touchdown reception vs. Buffalo on Dec. 1, 2022. If he scores on offense in 2026, he will join current head coach and former LB Mike Vrabel (8 touchdown receptions) as the only defensive player with more than one touchdown on offense in team history. Vrabel also has the most offensive touchdowns by an NFL defensive player with 10 in the regular season.

- Jones returned two punts for touchdowns in 2025. If Jones returns two punts for a touchdown in 2026, he will be the first Patriots player with two punts returned for a touchdown in at least two seasons and the first NFL player with two punts returned for a touchdown in back-to-back seasons since Darren Sproles in 2014 and 2015 with Philadelphia.

- Jones finished tied for first in the NFL in 2025 with Tennessee WR Chimere Dike with a 17.3-yard punt return average. That average also tied the highest single-season mark in Patriots history.
