Mike Vrabel was introduced as the 16th head coach in Patriots history on Jan. 13, 2025.

In his first season as a head coach of New England in 2025, Vrabel led the Patriots to their 12th Super Bowl appearance. The 2025 Patriots finished the season tied with the Denver Broncos and the Seattle Seahawks for the best record in the NFL with a 14-3 record to earn the No. 2 seed in the AFC Playoffs. The 14-3 record is a 10-game difference from the 4-13 record in 2024. The 10-game improvement tied the 1999 Indianapolis Colts and the 2008 Miami Dolphins for the best turnaround in NFL history. Under Vrabel's leadership, the Patriots finished with the third-ranked offense and the eighth-ranked defense, marking the 10th time in team history that both the offense and the defense finished in the top 10 in the same season.

The Associated Press named Vrabel the National Football League's Coach of the Year. It is the second time that Vrabel earned the honor, as he was also named Coach of the Year following the 2021 season as Head Coach of the Tennessee Titans.

Vrabel began his coaching career when he became the Linebackers Coach at Ohio State in 2011 before serving as the Defensive Line Coach for the Buckeyes for two seasons (2012-13). In 2014, Vrabel was hired by the Texans as the Linebackers Coach (2014-16) and was promoted to Defensive Coordinator for the Texans in 2017. After six seasons as the Head Coach of the Titans (2018-23), he spent the 2024 season with the Cleveland Browns as a Coaching and Personnel Consultant.

Vrabel's NFL playing career spanned 14-years, spending time with Pittsburgh (1997-2000), New England (2001-08) and Kansas City (2009-10). Vrabel played defensive end for Ohio State from 1993 through the 1996 season.
