Gillette STADIUM

www.GilletteStadium.com @GilletteStadium

Gillette Stadium, home of the New England Patriots, is the region's premier sports and entertainment venue. Since opening in 2002, fans have enjoyed more regular season and postseason victories than any other team in the NFL. In 24 seasons, the venue has hosted more than 13.5 million football fans attending Patriots games and has been the site of seven AFC Championship games – six of which were Patriots victories. Since 2002, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home with an overall mark of 164-55, including a 21-4 playoff record in Foxborough.

The Kraft family has continually invested in Gillette Stadium to keep the venue on the cutting edge and enhance the fan experience. Recent stadium improvements are highlighted by the addition of the signature 22-story Gillette Stadium Lighthouse, featuring a 360-degree observation deck open to guests year-round, and the installation of the largest outdoor curved-radius videoboard at a sports venue in the country. Additional venue enhancements include the 50,000 square-foot G-P Atrium, a reimagined fan plaza, enhanced Row of Honor, field-level Bud Light Celebration Beer Hall, the Ticketmaster entry canopy, new and improved concessions like the Pepsi Grab & Go offering, connectivity on the upper concourse for movement east to west, increased restroom capacity and permanent bar and concession locations featuring new product offerings. In recent seasons, Gillette Stadium also added a new sensory room, available at all full-stadium events for guests with sensory sensitivities or challenges with regulating sensory input. Just like Gillette Stadium's initial construction, subsequent stadium renovations are entirely privately financed by the Kraft family.

Gillette Stadium also features a variety of communal spaces where fans can gather before, during and after games. These amenities include the DraftKings Sports Zone and the Commons on the Main Concourse, as well as the Encore Boston Harbor Terrace and the JetBlue Landings on the Upper Concourse. Additionally, the Cross Insurance Club, which runs the length of the stadium on both sidelines, offers members access to 120,000 square feet of indoor space and premium outdoor seats. Finally, the stadium's Bank of America Luxury Suite Levels are home to 92 luxury suites that are among the largest in the NFL, ranging from 800 to 2,700 square feet. Each suite is fully furnished to ensure a top-tier event experience and features in-suite catering and beverage service, restrooms and a dedicated suite attendant.

The Patriots also recently unveiled the New Balance Athletics Center (NBAC), their state-of-the-art training center located next to Gillette Stadium. Spanning 160,000 square feet, the facility is designed as a fully integrated performance campus for football operations, bringing together training, strength, conditioning and recovery into one ecosystem. While the team's day-to-day activities will primarily be spent in and around the NBAC, the core pieces for the team's game day needs, including their stadium locker room, remain intact.

In conjunction with providing a high-level fan experience, Gillette Stadium is also committed to delivering sustainable, world-class events with the goal of managing and reducing environmental impact. In recognition of these continued efforts, the venue recently earned ISO 20121: Sustainable Events Management, LEED Gold certifications and the Green Sport Alliance's Inovation: Environmental Stewardship Award.

Gillette Stadium is also the full-time home of Major League Soccer's New England Revolution and annually hosts international soccer matches, NCAA athletics, professional lacrosse, Feld Motor Sports and high school football state championships. The stadium hosted the 2023 Army-Navy Game and 2016 NHL Winter Classic and will host the 2026 Navy-Notre Dame Game, as well as seven 2026 FIFA Men's World Cup matches, including a quarterfinal match. Additionally, Gillette Stadium is one of the world's top grossing concert venues according to Billboard and has hosted more than 100 concerts in venue history. The biggest acts in music have headlined the home of the Patriots and Revolution over the years, including Taylor Swift, Kenny Chesney, The Rolling Stones, Bruce Springsteen, Billy Joel, Elton John, Coldplay, Ed Sheeran and Beyoncé, just to name a few.

GILLETTE STADIUM FUN FACTS

The Height of Design
The stadium's prominent signature lighthouse in the north end zone rises 22 stories above the playing field, towering over the stadium itself, which is 16 stories tall. The 218-foot lighthouse is the tallest lighthouse in the United States.

New View
The lighthouse features a 360-degree observation deck with unique views of the Boston skyline, into Gillette Stadium and of the surrounding neighborhoods.

Long Way to the Top
The Lantern Room at the top of the lighthouse can be accessed via a 34-second elevator ride. There are also 372 interior stairs.

On the Big Screen
The north end zone videoboard measures 22,000 square feet, making it the largest outdoor curved-radius videoboard at a sports venue in the country. Combined with the south end zone videoboard, the half-acre north end zone board gives Gillette Stadium three-quarters of an acre of video scoreboards, providing ample space to enjoy game action, replays, statistics and more.

Bridging the Gap
The north end hospitality and function spaces bridge the gap between the Cross Insurance Clubs, the Luxury Suite Levels and the upper concourse, giving all levels of the stadium 360-degree connectivity. These spaces are highlighted by the G-P Atrium, the largest Patriots game day hospitality space to open since 2002.

NEW BALANCE ATHLETICS CENTER

The New England Patriots football operation moved into the New Balance Athletics Center in time for the start of the voluntary offseason training activities. The 160,000-square-foot training facility is located at the south end of Gillette Stadium adjacent to the three outdoor practice fields and indoor field house. Designed as a fully integrated football operations campus, the building brings together training, strength and conditioning, sports science, and recovery in one streamlined environment, all supported by cutting-edge performance technology.

The surrounding practice areas will be known as the New Balance Practice Fields, reinforcing the brand's presence across the team's daily operations. The facility is built to enhance every aspect of player development.

In addition, New Balance will serve as the presenting sponsor of Patriots Training Camp, further extending its role in supporting the team's preparation and performance throughout the season.

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX (patriotshalloffame.com) offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to make the experience interactive. Its incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery houses all six Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those championships. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

"One of the greatest things about sports is the bond players and fans share. You feel like you've lived through the same experiences and share the same memories. That was one of our motivations in building The Hall. We wanted to create a place where our fans and alumni could visit and relive those moments together. We wanted to preserve the legacy of this franchise and give our greatest players the most prominent display of any hall of fame in the world."

— ROBERT KRAFT

The experience begins as visitors enter the elevator and hear a voice from Patriots history welcoming them to the Hall of Fame. The journey continues through two stories and ends with one of The Hall of Fame's signature exhibits and its premier photo opportunity: the Patriots' six Lombardi trophies.

The Hall of Fame features interactive exhibits designed to educate and entertain. Visitors receive instruction on how plays in the Patriots' playbook are designed. They also step inside a game-used replay booth and make the call on an instant replay reviews. Fans can make Malcolm Butler's famous championship-clinching interception in The Hall of Fame's incredible Super Bowl Experience exhibit. Additionally, visitors can watch, on a 45-foot-wide panoramic screen, the 17-minute signature film "Patriots Way" or even spike a football like legendary tight end Ron Gronkowski and test their spike compared to Gronk's.

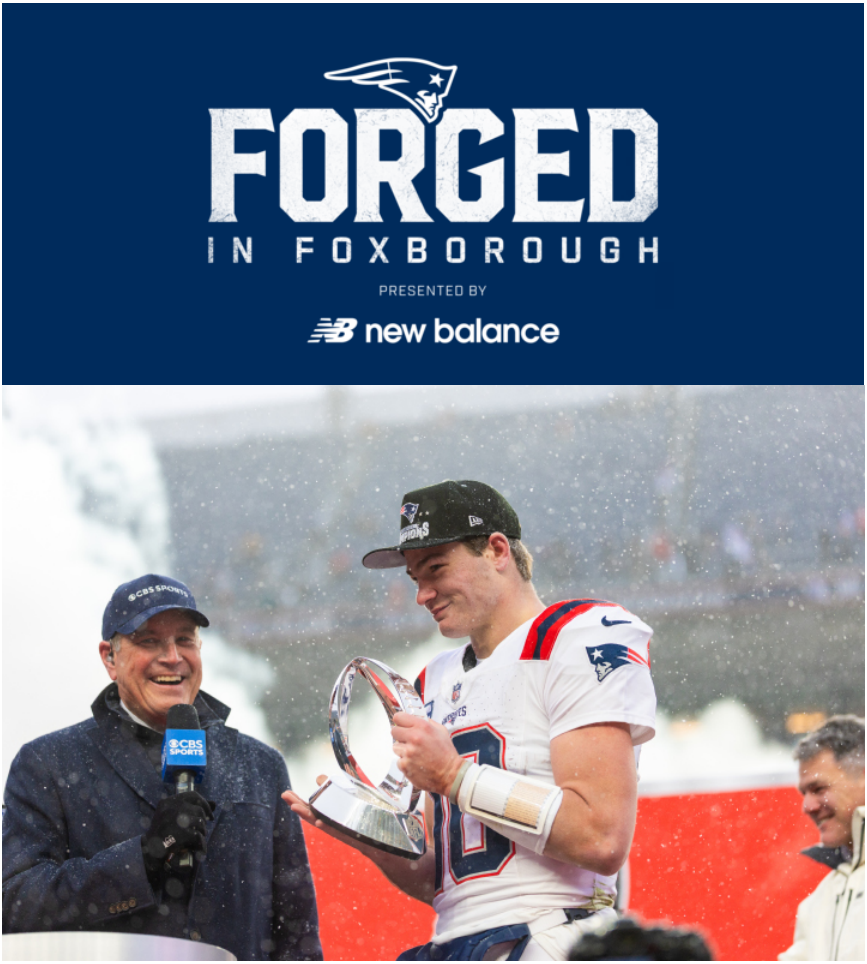

Each Patriots Hall of Famer is immortalized on 30-foot high, five-foot wide video pylons utilizing high-resolution LED displays. Fans can choose which Hall of Fame player to highlight on one of four touch screen kiosks, causing the pylons to come alive with video and images of each player while additional information is displayed on the screen below.

To complement the audiovisual experiences, there are thousands of football artifacts on display at The Hall of Fame, ranging from the priceless (Tom Brady's Super Bowl LI jersey) to the quirky (the infamous snow plow that cleared the way for a Patriots win over the Dolphins in 1982) to the sublime (The Patriots' six Super Bowl rings).

In partnership with RTX, The Patriots Hall of Fame presents an integrated math and science education program featuring STEM modules that engage K-12 students in real-life, football-related experiences using the engineering design process and other standards-based activities. This program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring the Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. It also worked with RTX to develop two education interactive experiences – In the Numbers and By the Numbers. Both use football to teach math and science in an interactive, entertaining way. In the Numbers uses a game-show format and challenges guests to answer math and science questions to advance a player down the field for a touchdown. By the Numbers asks users to input data and then watch to see if the data enables a completed pass or a successful field goal kick.

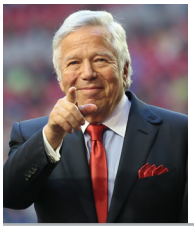

In 2015, Yankee magazine named the Patriots Hall of Fame "Best Sports Museum." In 2009, the hall of fame received a Gold MUSE Award from the American Association of Museums and The Hall's signature film, "Patriots Way," won a CINE Golden Eagle Award. The Hall of Fame was also named to Boston Globe Magazine's Best of the New and was a Yankee magazine Editor's Choice recommendation. For more information, please visit www.patriotshalloffame.com.

Robert Kraft is the owner of the New England Patriots and Chairman and CEO of the Kraft Group. He is an American entrepreneur, investor and philanthropist whose portfolio of businesses and brands range across many verticals, including paper and packaging, sports and entertainment, real estate and venture investing. His holdings include the New England Patriots, New England Revolution, Gillette Stadium, International Forest Products, Rand-Whitney Group, Rand-Whitney Containerboard and a portfolio of more than 100 venture and private-equity investments.

A lifelong football fan and 23-year New England Patriots season ticket holder before buying the team, Kraft became the Chairman and CEO of the Patriots when he took ownership on Jan. 21, 1994. That day he pledged, "My objective in buying the Patriots is to help bring a championship to New England." That seemed to be a tall order considering the team's prior success rate. Now, 32 years later, the Patriots boast six Lombardi Trophies, 11 Super Bowl appearances and the highest winning percentage in all of professional sports.

In the five years prior to Kraft's ownership, the team had only won 19 of 80 games (.238 winning percentage) with no playoff appearances. In fact, in the 34-year history of the franchise (1960-93), the Patriots had won just 229 games (including playoffs), averaging just 6.6 wins per season, and had qualified for the playoffs a mere six times.

The year Kraft bought the team (1994), the Patriots advanced to the playoffs for the first time in eight seasons. In his first five years of ownership, the Patriots won 49 games and qualified for the playoffs four times, even advancing to the Super Bowl in just his third season at the helm (1996). Over Kraft's 32 seasons (1994-2025), the Patriots won an unprecedented 374 games (including playoffs) for an average of 11.7 wins per season.

Playoff games offer another stark contrast. Prior to 1994, Patriots fans had only been treated to one home playoff game, which the Patriots lost to the Houston Oilers in 1978. Since 1994, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 23 times, including 20 as division champions, and hosted 29 home playoff games, in which they own a 25-4 (.862) record.

The worst-to-first ascent of the New England Patriots since Kraft purchased the team may be the greatest in sports history. Under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won more division titles (20) and conference crowns (11) than any other NFL team. In 2018, the Patriots claimed their sixth Super Bowl championship during Kraft's tenure. No other team has more in NFL history.

INSTALLING HIS VISION

It didn't take long for Kraft's vision to come into focus. His personal investment in the team restored the faith of Patriots fans and rejuvenated interest throughout New England. The year he bought the team, season ticket sales soared to new heights, eclipsing 40,000 for the first time in franchise history. By the start of his first season, every game was sold out, a feat that had never been accomplished in the franchise's previous 34 seasons. That achievement ensured local broadcast blackouts would be lifted and every Patriots game, home and away, would be televised throughout New England for the first time in team history. Entering the 2026 season, the Patriots have sold out every home game since he bought the team in 1994 (not including the COVID-19 2020 season).

Kraft and the Patriots organization have built a winning team in the community. Established in 1994, the New England Patriots Foundation was created to support charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout New England.

"MY OBJECTIVE IN BUYING THE PATRIOTS IS TO HELP BRING A CHAMPIONSHIP TO NEW ENGLAND."

— ROBERT KRAFT, JAN. 21, 1994

BEST TEAM IN SPORTS

After claiming their third Super Bowl in four years, Forbes named the New England Patriots as the best team in sports. The accompanying article recognized how Robert Kraft built the Patriots organization into a winner on and off the field.

ASCENSION

The transformation of the Patriots under Kraft's leadership constitutes one of the greatest franchise revivals in sports history. After winning back-to-back Super Bowls and three titles in four years, Forbes magazine named the Patriots "The Best Team in Sports" in 2005.

In 2007, the New England Patriots won a then-franchise record fifth consecutive division title. They also became the first NFL team to win 16 games during the regular season and the only team to ever win 18 consecutive games in one season. The undefeated regular season boosted the team's regular season record from 2003-07 to 66-14 for a remarkable .825 winning percentage. The 66 regular season wins in that span are tied with Kansas City for the most by any team over any five-year stretch in NFL history. Additionally, from Oct. 5, 2003, to Nov. 8, 2008, the Patriots won 81 games and lost only 19, matching the most successful 100-game stretch since the league was founded in 1920.

The Kraft-era Patriots also set three significant NFL records for consecutive wins. From 2003-04, the Patriots won 21 consecutive games, including playoffs. From 2006-08, the Patriots won 21 consecutive regular season games. Additionally, the Patriots established an NFL record by winning 10 consecutive playoff games (2001-05). During that time, the Patriots also won 21 consecutive games at Gillette Stadium, the longest home win streak in franchise history. The Patriots tied that home win streak after winning their 21st consecutive home game on Nov. 24, 2019.

The success the Patriots sustained during the first two decades of the new millennium is unrivaled. The Patriots' 126 total victories (including playoffs) from 2000-09 were, at the time, the most by any team in one decade in the history of the NFL. The decade of dominance featured more Super Bowl titles (3), conference titles (4), division titles (7), playoff wins (14), victories in a single season (18) and victories in a regular season (16) than any other team. In addition, no other NFL team hosted more playoff games (9) or played in more playoff games (18) than the New England Patriots. The sustained success earned the franchise "Team of the Decade" acclaim from many publications. The ensuing decade was even more productive with 141 total victories, 10 division titles, five conference crowns, 23 playoff games and three Super Bowl wins.

GETTING HIS START

Kraft launched his career in the paper and packaging industry with Rand-Whitney Group, Inc., of Worcester, Massachusetts, a company he later acquired. Under his leadership, the Kraft Group's paper and packaging division has grown into one of the largest privately-owned and fully-integrated forest products companies in the world. The company consists of corrugated packaging facilities, paper mills, global paper and solid wood products distribution, and waste paper

A WINNING TRADITION

Robert Kraft's winning percentage with the Patriots (.656) since taking over the team in 1994 is the highest among all owners/ownership groups with at least 200 wins (regular and postseason). He is one of just four owners with at least 200 wins and a winning percentage over .600.

THE KRAFT ERA

Prior to 1994, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs just six times during their first 34 seasons (1960-93). In the 32 seasons since Robert Kraft has owned the team, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 23 times, 20 times as division champions, and have won 11 conference titles and six Super Bowl championships.

300 WINS

Robert Kraft reached 300 career wins (including playoffs) on Sept. 30, 2018, in the Patriots 38-7 win vs. Miami. He reached 300 career wins in 432 career games, the fastest an owner has reached the milestone.

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft bought the team in 1994, the Patriots have become the most successful franchise in the NFL. For the past 32 seasons (1994-2025), the Patriots have won more Super Bowl Championships (6), more conference championships (11) and more division titles (20) than any other NFL team. In addition to championships, the Patriots have also won more, and more often, than any other NFL team, claiming 374 total victories and a .656 winning percentage, including 36 postseason wins.

processing. International Forest Products, a global distributor and marketer founded by Kraft in 1972, annually does business in more than 120 countries, is the sixth-largest exporter in North America and has consistently been ranked among the top 10 in the annual rankings published by The Journal of Commerce. Within his companies, Kraft also built the first paper mill which produces product from 100% post-consumer fiber and waste water in the country. In doing so, he set a new industry standard for environmental responsibility, which he has modeled across his other businesses.

Throughout Kraft's professional career, many of his biggest risks have yielded the greatest rewards. That was true throughout his pursuit of Patriots ownership, beginning in 1985 when he first purchased an option on the land surrounding the old stadium in Foxborough, Massachusetts. It was a large investment for an underdeveloped parcel of land, but proved to be an important first step in a long process toward buying the Patriots. In 1988, he took another step by purchasing the stadium out of bankruptcy court. With a binding lease through 2001, the acquisition of the old stadium proved to be an invaluable asset in Kraft's quest toward owning the team.

When his opportunity came to buy the team in January of 1994, Kraft faced a difficult business dilemma. He had to decide between committing over $172 million of family resources to purchase the Patriots or accept a lucrative $75 million buyout offer to void the final years of the team's stadium lease and allow the team to move out of New England. On Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft passed on the buyout offer, choosing instead to make an 11th-hour bid to buy the team. On Feb. 26, 1994, a day after Kraft earned league approval, season tickets for the 1994 season went on sale and Patriots fans showed their support for Kraft's decision in record numbers. By the end of the first business day, amidst a winter Nor'easter, 5,958 season ticket orders were processed, shattering the previous single-day sales record of 979. The show of support validated Kraft's decision to buy the team and gave him the confidence to focus on another long-term project with great financial risk: the private financing and construction of Gillette Stadium.

In his first year of ownership, the Patriots won their final seven regular season games to qualify for the postseason, ending an eight-year playoff drought. By his fifth anniversary as owner, under the direction of two different head coaches, the Patriots had already established themselves as perennial playoff contenders, qualifying for the postseason four times, twice as division champions. In 1996, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years. After defeating Pittsburgh in the playoffs that year, the Patriots hosted their first conference championship game in franchise history and defeated Jacksonville, 20-6, to advance to Super Bowl XXXI.

BUILDING GILLETTE

From 2000-02, the Kraft Group's construction and real estate development team oversaw the on-time and on-budget construction of Gillette Stadium, a privately-financed facility and the only one of its kind to be financed without the burden of personal seat license fees charged to season ticket members. The financial commitment from Kraft provided a solid foundation on which to build for the first time in the franchise's nomadic history. Moving from Foxboro Stadium into the majestic Gillette Stadium marked another worst-to-first transformation for the Krafts, who now operate New England's premier entertainment venue. After opening Gillette Stadium, Kraft was recognized as the Sports Executive of the Year by a national publication, and he and Jonathan Kraft were named Sports Industrialists of the Year by another.

The construction of Gillette Stadium was the Kraft Group development team's first project. In 2007, the Kraft Group expanded the development of the site with the construction of Patriot Place, a mixed-use lifestyle center and entertainment destination.

LOVE OF SPORTS

Kraft is widely recognized as one of the most successful owners in professional sports. His long-standing support of soccer in the United States dates back to his efforts in the early 1990s to secure Foxborough as one of the nine host venues for the 1994 FIFA World Cup and become one of three principal investors in Major League Soccer when he founded the New England Revolution in 1995. In 2017, Kraft was named Honorary Chairman of the Board of the United Bid Committee of Canada, Mexico and the United States and a key principle in securing the 2026 FIFA World Cup for North America.

As owner of the New England Revolution and owner of Gillette Stadium and Patriot Place, Kraft has turned the underdeveloped parcel of land he purchased in 1985 in Foxborough into a world-class sports and entertainment destination in New England.

PERSONAL

A native of Brookline, Massachusetts, Kraft attended public schools before earning an academic scholarship to Columbia University. After graduating, he received a fellowship to Harvard Business School, where he earned a Master of Business Administration degree.

A devoted Patriots fan since the team's American Football League (AFL) days in the 1960s, Kraft attended games at each of the franchise's early Boston-area venues, including Boston University Field, Fenway Park, Boston College's Alumni Stadium and Harvard Stadium. When the Patriots moved to Schaefer Stadium in 1971, he purchased season tickets for his family. Kraft often credits the memories and experiences shared with his family and fellow Patriots fans during those years as the inspiration behind his pursuit of ownership of the franchise.

Throughout his life, Robert Kraft and his family have generously contributed their time, expertise, and resources to a wide range of charitable organizations, nonprofit initiatives, and community causes. Their lifetime philanthropic giving exceeds $1 billion. Kraft continues to champion efforts that expand access to op-

While Kraft gets credit for resurrecting the once wayward Patriots franchise, he's also often cited as a key contributor in many of the league's major contract negotiations. He is the chairman of the NFL's Media Committee and an active member of two other committees.

Kraft, his heart heavy, lifts NFL

Patriots owner helped bring accord during his wife's final days

The National Football League is back in action. And Patriots owner Robert Kraft is getting much of the credit.

Not only did Kraft help owners and players end a 135-day lockout and agree to a 10-year deal, but he did so while tending to his wife, Myra, who died Wednesday of cancer.

The role Kraft played in the negotiations was not lost on anyone at yesterday's press conference announcing the deal. Nor was the memory of his wife.

"A special thanks to Myra Kraft, who even in her weakest moment allowed Mr. Kraft to come and fight this out and work out him, this deal does not get done," said Jeff Saturday, a representative of the NFL Players Association and a center for one of the Patriots' biggest rivals, the Indianapolis Colts.

He added that Kraft is "a man who helped us save football and we're so gracious for that, we're gracious for his family and for the opportunity he presented to get this deal done. So thank you very much — we really appreciate it."

Saturday and Kraft then embraced, in what will be the enduring image of this often contentious labor battle.

Kraft was at the press conference at the invitation of NFL commissioner Roger Goodell and Players Association executive director DeMaurice Smith.

portunity, promote social and economic mobility, and strengthen support systems for underserved communities.

In 2019, Kraft was awarded the Genesis Prize, often referred to by Time magazine as the "Jewish Nobel." As a Genesis Prize laureate, he established a foundation dedicated to combating antisemitism and all forms of hate. Today, that organization is known as the Blue Square Alliance Against Hate. Since its founding, Kraft has committed $150 million to advance the Alliance's mission of raising global awareness and inspiring people everywhere to stand against antisemitism and hate in all its forms.

In 2023, Kraft launched the Blue Square as a universal symbol for standing up to hate through a nationwide multimedia campaign developed in partnership with industry leaders and faith communities. The award-winning initiative has reached hundreds of millions of Americans and has included television commercials broadcast during each of the past three Super Bowls. By combining compelling, empathy-driven storytelling with data that highlights the scale and urgency of rising hate across the United States, the Blue Square campaign is inspiring allyship, encouraging action and empowering individuals to stand with anyone who experiences hate.

Kraft is a founding partner of the REFORM Alliance, an organization dedicated to transforming the American criminal justice system by changing laws, policies and public perceptions to reduce unnecessary incarceration resulting from technical probation and parole violations. He was also a founding donor to the New Commonwealth Racial Equity and Social Justice Fund, the Black Leadership Institute at the Institute for Nonprofit Practice, and the Equity Leadership Initiative at the Rhode Island Foundation. In support of racial equity and educational opportunity, Kraft contributed $1 million to the National Museum of African American History and Culture and has provided millions more through the Kraft Family/Patriots Players Collaborative Fund to organizations advancing racial justice. Over the past decade, the Kraft Family Foundation has donated more than $125 million to nonprofits serving historically underserved communities.

Believing that access to quality education and healthcare is essential to thriving communities, the Kraft family has established more than three dozen permanent endowments supporting educational, healthcare and social service organizations. Kraft has also contributed more than $50 million to Mass General Brigham to advance cancer care and address healthcare disparities related to race, ethnicity, geography and economic status. His support includes the Robert K. Kraft Endowed Chair, which promotes inclusion, respect and fairness, and the Kraft Center for Community Health, whose innovative programs, including Community Care in Reach, deliver addiction treatment, vaccinations and other healthcare services to underserved communities across Massachusetts. Through endowments and fellowship programs totaling more than $70 million at Harvard Business School, Columbia University and Yeshiva University, Kraft has expanded access to higher education and leadership opportunities for promising students from diverse backgrounds, creating opportunities for talented students and advancing educational excellence.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Kraft family contributed more than $20 million to support relief efforts, including helping secure and distribute face masks to frontline workers, providing more than 6.5 million meals to military members, veterans and their families, and establishing the Northeast's first mass vaccination site, which administered more than 610,000 vaccines in less than five months.

In addition to serving on several NFL owner committees, Kraft has held leadership roles with numerous civic, educational and cultural institutions, including the Apollo Theater, the Massachusetts Competitive Partnership, The Paley Center for Media, the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, Apollo Global Management and The Engine, an MIT-affiliated venture firm. A former distinguished trustee of Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, he established the Kraft Family Blood Donor Center. Kraft is a trustee emeritus of Columbia University, a trustee of Boston College, and the recipient of multiple honorary degrees.

His many honors include the Theodore Roosevelt Award, the Harvard Business School Alumni Achievement Award, induction into the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the Pro Football Writers Association's George Halas Award, the Columbia University Athletic Hall of Fame, the Carnegie Hall Medal of Excellence, induction into the Broadcasting & Cable Hall of Fame, and the Sports Business Journal Lifetime Achievement Award.

DYNASTY VS. DYNASTY

Of all of the great teams throughout the Super Bowl era, the New England Patriots and the San Francisco 49ers have set a standard of extended excellence above all of the others. The 49ers run of success spanned two decades, while New England's streak ran from 2001-19.

Founded by Robert Kraft in 2019, the Blue Square Alliance works to combat antisemitism and all forms of hate by empowering people to move from bystanders to allies. Since the launch of its public awareness campaign in 2022, the Blue Square has become a widely recognized symbol of solidarity against hate, reaching hundreds of millions of people through national advertising, social media, billboards, and celebrity partnerships.

Jonathan Kraft is the owner of the New England Patriots and President of the Kraft Group, a diversified holding company with businesses in sports and entertainment, paper and packaging, real estate development and investments across private equity, capital venture and hedge funds.

Kraft serves on multiple NFL owner committees including Business Ventures, Finance, Legalized Sports Betting and Media Owned and Operated. He also chairs the Fan Engagement and Major Events Committee and serves on the 32 Equity Committee.

Following the Kraft family's purchase of the Patriots in 1994, Kraft led the transformation and rebranding of the franchise, expanding its fan base and bringing long-term stability to the organization.

In an era when stadium names regularly change, Gillette Stadium has remained a constant in New England. The venue was intentionally designed with open spaces and the flexibility to evolve over time, becoming the region's premier sports and entertainment destination. One of the most significant contributions to the organization's sustained success over the past two decades was securing financial approval for the construction of the stadium. Kraft developed the creative private-financing strategy for its $325 million construction.

Many industry observers questioned the viability of the plan, which relied on year-round club memberships rather than the more conventional sale of personal seat licenses. While considered a significant financial risk at the time, the strategy proved highly successful. In addition to the business and financial recognition the Kraft family received for the privately-financed project, Kraft and the stadium development team were also recognized for implementing innovative environmental practices during construction.

Kraft led the planning, construction and opening of Gillette Stadium and continues to drive its evolution with a focus on innovation and enhancing the fan experience. Under his leadership, the Kraft family has invested more than $550 million in stadium improvements, continually upgrading amenities, technology, hospitality spaces, concessions and fan gathering areas. Most recently, Gillette Stadium underwent a transformative $250 million renovation of its north end, featuring a redesigned and much more efficient entrance, the largest outdoor curved-radius videoboard of its kind, and a signature view 22-story lighthouse with a 360-degree observation deck, as well as significant enhancements to concessions, restrooms and other fan amenities.

Under Kraft's leadership, Gillette Stadium has hosted world-class events in New England for more than 25 years. The venue annually presents one of the region's most diverse schedules of sports and entertainment programming, including major concert tours, international soccer matches, the NHL Winter Classic, NCAA athletics, the Premier Lacrosse League, motorsports, the 2023 Army-Navy Game and seven World Cup matches in 2026.

Following the construction of Gillette Stadium, Kraft oversaw the Kraft Group's real estate development team's design and construction of Patriot Place, a mixed-use entertainment destination surrounding the stadium that features dining, hospitality, specialty retail, lodging, world-class health care, night life and entertainment offerings.

Prior to the Kraft family's ownership, the Patriots fan base was limited in scope and reach. Kraft was committed to expanding the team's audiences through innovative multimedia initiatives. Under his direction, the Patriots became the first professional sports team to launch a website in March 1995 and the first to provide nightly online video updates. In 2004, the organization further demonstrated its commitment to international growth by launching the NFL's first Chinese-language team website.

The Patriots have continued to expand globally through the NFL's Global Markets Program, earning Germany as an official home market in 2021, followed by Austria and Switzerland in 2023 and Brazil in 2024. These designations have created new opportunities for fan engagement, marketing, sponsorship development and business growth across international markets.

Building on years of developing in-house analytics capabilities to better understand customer behavior, Kraft co-founded Kraft Analytics Group (KAGR) in 2016. The company provides data management, advanced analytics and consulting services to sports and entertainment organizations worldwide.

In March 2020, as the COVID-19 pandemic threatened to overwhelm hospitals across the Northeast, the Kraft family responded to a request from former Massachusetts Governor Charlie Baker to help transport 1.8 million masks that had been secured in China. The New England Patriots team aircraft delivered the critical personal protective equipment to Boston for distribution to healthcare workers and frontline responders. During the pandemic, Gillette Stadium also served as the region's first and largest COVID-19 testing site for frontline workers and the first large-scale vaccination site in the Northeast.

A graduate of Williams College, Kraft is a Trustee Emeritus and a former Chair of the Williams College Investment Committee. He earned his MBA from Harvard Business School, where he currently serves on the Dean's Board of Advisors. Kraft joined the Massachusetts General Hospital Board of Trustees in 2010 and served as Chair from 2019 to 2025. He currently serves as Vice Chair of the Mass General Brigham Board of Directors. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of TKO Group Holdings, Inc., the parent company of UFC and WWE.

He is also on the Board of Trustees for Belmont Hill School and Dexter Southfield. Additionally, Kraft is a member of the M.I.T. Provost's External Advisory Council and is on the advisory board for the Billie Jean King Foundation.

DECADES OF DOMINANCE (2010-19)

The New England Patriots earned more wins (141) in the past decade (2010-19) than any other team in the NFL has over any 10-year span, with 125 regular season victories and 16 playoffs wins. They also owned the highest winning percentage (.771) of any team in professional sports during that decade. The Patriots won a league-high three Super Bowls in the 2010s, increasing their total to six and tying the Pittsburgh Steelers for most all-time. The Patriots won more conference championships (5), appeared in more conference championship games (8) and won more division titles (10) than any other NFL team in a decade. This landmark decade comes on the heels of another dominant decade, as the Patriots also led the NFL in Super Bowl victories, conference championships, conference championship game appearances and division titles in the 2000s.

DECADES OF DOMINANCE (2000-09)

When Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that just 18 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s. The tallies listed below represent totals during the 2000-09 seasons.

MIKE VRABEL

HEAD COACH

16TH COACHING SEASON
13TH NFL SEASON
2ND PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 01, 03, 04

COACHING

Mike Vrabel was introduced by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft as the 16th head coach in franchise history in a press conference at Gillette Stadium on Jan. 13, 2025.

"In the interview process, Mike showed us that he had a very deep understanding of our current team and, most importantly, he had a clear and focused strategy of how to get us back to a championship way that is so important to all of us, but also something that I think our fan base really deserves and expects," Kraft said.

Vrabel is a three-time Super Bowl champion with New England and was voted into the Patriots Hall of Fame in 2023. He is recognized as one of the most versatile linebackers and best free agent signings in team history. Vrabel is the seventh individual to become the head coach for a franchise he once helped win a Super Bowl as a player and the only one with three Super Bowl wins, joining Jerod Mayo (New England - 1), Bart Starr (Green Bay- 2), Forrest Gregg (Green Bay- 2), Art Shell (Oakland- 2), Jeff Saturday (Indianapolis - 1) and Jason Garrett (Dallas -2).

Said Vrabel after being hired by the Patriots, "In the end, it was clear to me, and to my family, and my soul, that this was the place that I wanted to be. I'm excited, excited to get to work, excited to meet the people in this building that have made this special, find out what they need, find out how I can help them, how we can enhance the things that they do well, and then find out what the areas of focus are and get to work."

Vrabel is the second head coach for the Patriots that was formerly a Patriots player. He is the sixth Patriots head coach in team history to have played professional football. The five other Patriots head coaches that played professional football include: Lou Saban (1960-61), Mike Holovak (1961-68), Clive Rush (1969-70), Raymond Berry (1984-89) and Jerod Mayo (2008-15).

Vrabel has spent his football life around accomplished leaders. After entering the NFL as a player in 1997, he played or coached under Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer and Bill O'Brien. He gleaned attributes from each that helped form his philosophies as a head coach.

"We're going to be moving," said Vrabel. "We're going to demand effort and finish. People ask what non-negotiables are — our effort and our finish is going to be the contract we make with our teammates … Time to get to work."

Vrabel has 15 years of coaching experience, including 12 years in the NFL and three seasons at Ohio State. The Tennessee Titans hired him as their head coach in 2018 and he led the Titans to two division titles and three playoff appearances during his six seasons at the helm. In 2019, the Titans upset the Patriots in Foxborough in the Wild Card Round, then defeated the No. 1 seed Ravens in Baltimore the following week to advance to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs. In 2021, the Titans claimed the top seed in the AFC with a 12-5 record, earning Vrabel NFL Coach of the Year honors.

In his first season as a head coach of New England in 2025, Vrabel led the Patriots to their 12th Super Bowl appearance. The 2025 Patriots finished the season tied with the Denver Broncos and the Seattle Seahawks for the best record in the NFL with a 14-3 record to earn the No. 2 seed in the AFC Playoffs. The 14-3 record is a 10-game difference from the 4-13 record in 2024. The 10-game improvement tied the 1999 Indianapolis Colts and the 2008 Miami Dolphins for the best turnaround in NFL history. The 1998 Colts were 3-13 and improved to 13-3 in 1999, and the 2007 Dolphins were 1-15 in 2007 and improved to 11-5 in 2008. Vrabel joined George Seifert (1989 with San Francisco) and Jim Caldwell (2009 with Indianapolis) as the only coaches to win 14 games in their first season coaching a team.

Vrabel led the Patriots to an AFC East Division title and an AFC Championship win at Denver to advance to the Super Bowl. He is the seventh head coach to lead the team he

CHAMPIONSHIP DNA

Mike Vrabel is one of seven head coaches that won a Super Bowl for a team and then became the head coach of that team. The others are Jerod Mayo (Patriots), Forrest Gregg (Green Bay), Bart Starr (Green Bay), Art Shell (Oakland), Jeff Saturday (Indianapolis) and Jason Garrett (Dallas).

"In the interview process, Mike showed us that he had a very deep understanding of our current team and, most importantly, he had a clear and focused strategy of how to get us back to a championship way that is so important to all of us, but also something that I think our fan base really deserves and expects."

He is also the eighth head coach to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with the team, joining Don McCaffrey (Baltimore), Red Miller (Denver), George Seifert (San Francisco), Jon Gruden (Tampa Bay), Bill Callahan (Oakland), Jim Caldwell (Indianapolis) and Gary Kubiak (Denver). He is one of eight head coaches that played in a Super Bowl and then reached a Super Bowl as a head coach, joining Gary Kubiak, Ron Rivera, Tony Dungy, Dan Reeves, Sam Wyche, Mike Ditka and Forrest Gregg.

During the 2025 season, Vrabel won his first eight road games, second to the George Seifert, who won his first 16 road games with San Francisco (1989-90). Under Vrabel's leadership, the Patriots finished with the third-ranked offense and the eighth-ranked defense, marking the 10th time in team history that both the offense and the defense finished in the top 10 in the same season.

The Associated Press named Vrabel the National Football League's Coach of the Year. It is the second time that Vrabel has earned the honor. He was also named Coach of the Year following the 2021 season as head coach of the Tennessee Titans. Vrabel joins Bill Parcells (1994) and Bill Belichick (2003, 2007, 2010) as the only AP NFL Coach of the Year award recipients in franchise history. Mike Holovak also won the 1964 AFL Coach of the Year award. Vrabel also became the seventh head coach to win the award with at least two different teams, joining Don Shula (Baltimore and Miami), George Allen (L.A. Rams and Washington), Chuck Knox (L.A. Rams, Buffalo and Seattle), Bill Parcells (N.Y. Giants and New England), Dan Reeves (N.Y. Giants and Atlanta) and Bruce Arians (Indianapolis and Arizona).

Vrabel became the linebackers coach at Ohio State in 2011 and then served as the defensive line coach for the Buckeyes for two seasons (2012-13).

In 2014, Vrabel was hired by Houston Texans Head Coach Bill O'Brien as the linebackers coach (2014-16) and was promoted to defensive coordinator for the Texans in 2017. After six seasons as the head coach of the Titans (2018-23), he spent the 2024 season with the Cleveland Browns as a coaching and personnel consultant.

With playoff appearances in 2019, 2020 and 2021, Vrabel became the sixth head coach in Oilers/Titans history to coach at least three playoff teams. The others are Jeff Fisher (six), Jack Pardee (four), Bum Phillips (three), Jerry Glanville (three) and Wally Lemm (three). The Titans won back-to-back AFC South titles in 2020 and 2021, marking the first time the organization accomplished the feat since the Oilers won the first three AFL Eastern division titles from 1960 to 1962. The team had not gone to the playoffs in three consecutive seasons since a seven-year postseason stretch by the Oilers from 1987 to 1993.

In his first season as head coach of Tennessee in 2018, Vrabel guided the Titans to a 9-7 record and to within one game of a playoff berth, all while enduring one of the NFL's toughest schedules. The Titans played a league-high nine games during the regular season against seven eventual playoff qualifiers, and their four wins against playoff clubs tied for the most in the league. Only New England, the Los Angeles Rams and Carolina had as many. The Titans committed only 82 penalties in 2018, and not only was that number the best in franchise history over a 16-game season, but it was also the lowest total by an NFL team since 2014.

The Titans improved from having the 13th-ranked NFL defense in 2017 to an eighth-overall ranking in 2018 (333.4 yards allowed per game). They finished third in scoring defense at 18.9 points allowed per game, their best mark since 2008. The 2018 Titans defense also ranked second in the red zone (44.7 touchdown percentage), 10th on third down (36.6 percent), sixth in passing defense (216.9 yards per game), second in touchdowns allowed (32) and first in fourth-quarter defense (65.9 yards per game).

In 2019, Vrabel led the franchise to the AFC Championship game for the first time since 2002 after posting his second consecutive 9-7 mark in the regular season. His 20 wins over the first two seasons were the second most in franchise history (Jack Pardee, 21 wins), and he became the first head coach to win multiple playoff games within the first two years. The 2019 Titans became just the third team since 1990 to bounce back from a 2-4 start (or worse) and reach a conference title game (2002, Titans and 1996, Jacksonville).

Take a look at how Coach Vrabel spent his first day as head coach of the New England Patriots.

In 2020, the Titans made their second consecutive playoff appearance under Vrabel. The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second fewest in the league and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

The 2020 Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total. The Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher (2,027 by Derrick Henry), a 3,000-yard passer (3,819 by Ryan Tannehill) and a 1,000-yard receiver (1,075 by A.J. Brown).

Following the 2021 season, Vrabel received one of the NFL's highest honors when he was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year after directing the Titans to a 12-5 regular-season record. The Titans won the AFC South, and they claimed the top seed in the AFC playoff field for the first time since 2008. They did so despite needing to use 91 total players during the season, the most in NFL history in a non-strike year. From after the final preseason roster cuts through the end of the season, the team placed 26 different players on injured reserve and 21 different players on the reserve/COVID-19 list, plus additional practice squad players that received those designations.

The 2021 Titans ranked second in rushing defense (84.6 yards allowed per game), 12th in total defense (329.8), sixth on third down (36.7 percent), sixth in scoring defense (20.8 points per game) and ninth in sacks (43). Offensively, the Titans finished fifth in rushing (141.4 yards per game), despite missing Derrick Henry for nine games due to injury. The offense also ranked eighth on third down (43.6 percent), fifth in the red zone (63.9 percent) and first in goal-to-go efficiency (87.5 percent).

AS A PLAYER

Vrabel retired from the NFL in July of 2011 after a 14-year playing career with Pittsburgh (1997-2000), New England (2001-08) and Kansas City (2009-10).

Vrabel's accomplishments as a player included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). He appeared in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 722 tackles, 11 interceptions (one returned for a touchdown), 20 forced fumbles and 9 fumble recoveries. A cerebral and versatile athlete, he also saw action as a tight end and totaled 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording 8 postseason sacks and two additional postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Patriots before the 2001 season, following a four-year career with the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he was used primarily on special teams and as a reserve linebacker after being drafted in the third round of the 1997 NFL Draft (91st overall) out of Ohio State. During his eight-year tenure in New England, Vrabel played a major role in the Patriots dynastic run that included three Super Bowl championships in four years (2001, 2003 and 2004). He exemplified positional versatility during his Patriots career by starting at both inside and outside linebacker, regularly lining up on offense in short-yardage and goal-line situations and continually making valuable contributions on various special teams units.

As a Patriot, he caught eight regular season passes and two more in the playoffs. All 10 of his receptions were for touchdowns, including receptions in back-to-back Super Bowl wins over the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl XXXVIII and Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX. He earned Pro Bowl and First-Team Associated Press All-Pro honors following the 2007 season, the year the Patriots became the first team in NFL history to win 18 consecutive games in one season. During his Patriots career, Vrabel helped propel the Patriots to multiple NFL and franchise-record win streaks, including 21 consecutive wins (2003-04), 21 consecutive regular season wins (2006-08), 21 consecutive wins at home (2002-05) and 10 straight playoff victories (2001-05). During the 2006 season, he played a major role when the defense set a then-franchise record by allowing just 14.8 points per game.

Vrabel finished his playing career after the 2010 season following two seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs after being part of a trade that included QB Matt Cassel.

COLLEGE

Vrabel played defensive end for Ohio State from 1993 through the 1996 season. He set Ohio State career records with 36 quarterback sacks and 66 tackles for losses during his collegiate career. He compiled 12 sacks as a sophomore and 13 as a junior. As a senior in 1996, he was recognized as a consensus first-team All-American. Vrabel finished his college career by being named the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996, becoming the first of two players to ever win the award twice, joining Wendell Bryant of Wisconsin.

He was named to the Ohio State Football All-Century Team in 2000 and in 2021 was inducted into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame.

PERSONAL

Vrabel was born on Aug. 14, 1975, in Akron, Ohio and was named a USA Today All-American second-team selection at Walsh Jesuit High in Stowe, Ohio.

Vrabel and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Tyler and Carter. Tyler started on the offensive line for Boston College and then spent time with the Atlanta Falcons' practice squad after joining the team as a rookie free agent. Carter committed to play baseball at Wabash Valley College and then spent two seasons with Volunteer State Community College before transferring to Tennessee Tech for his final year.

Joined by former Ohio State teammates Luke Fickell and Ryan Miller, Vrabel co-founded the 2nd & 7 Foundation. The non-profit's mission is "to promote reading by providing free books and positive role models to kids in need while encouraging young athletes of the community to pay it forward." Founded in 1999 in Columbus, Ohio, the 2nd & 7 Foundation now has reading programs across the country. Students receive books from the foundation's original "Hog Mollies" series.

Vrabel returned to Ohio State in 2004 to complete his degree in exercise science.

ZAK KUHR

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

18TH COACHING SEASON
7TH NFL SEASON
2ND PATRIOTS SEASON

PRONOUNCED COOR COACHING

Zak Kuhr enters his first season as defensive coordinator in 2026.

Kuhr joined the Patriots in 2025 as inside linebackers coach, but assumed the role of defensive play caller after Defensive Coordinator Terrell Williams stepped aside due to a health issue. In 2025, the defense finished the season ranked eighth in the NFL (295.2 yards per game allowed), and the unit surrendered the fourth-fewest points in the league (320). DT Milton Williams, DT Christian Barmore and DL Khyiris Tonga excelled against the run, as the defense allowed the sixth-fewest rushing yards per game (101.7) in the league. LB Robert Spillane led the team in combined tackles (97), while LB K'Lavon Chaisson reached a career high in sacks (7.5) and CB Christian Gonzalez was named to his first career Pro Bowl. S Jaylinn Hawkins notched a career high 4 interceptions, while rookie S Craig Woodson led the unit in snaps played and finished with the third-most tackles on the team (75).

Kuhr came to New England after spending four seasons (2020-23) in various roles under head coach Mike Vrabel with the Tennessee Titans. Most recently, Kuhr served as a defensive assistant with the New York Giants in 2024.

As a defensive assistant with the New York Giants in 2024, Kuhr oversaw a group that finished eighth in opponent passing yards allowed (210.6 yards per game). In addition, he was part of a group finished in the top half of the league in defensive red zone touchdown rate (53.7%).

In 2023 with the Titans as an inside linebackers assistant, Kuhr coached LB Azeez Al-Shaair, who played greater than 97% of the team's snaps, leading the team with 163 total tackles, ranking fifth in the NFL. Kuhr's group also finished in the top half of the league in rush defense, allowing 107.7 yards on the ground per game.

In 2022, the Titans ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game) with Kuhr as inside linebackers assistant. Kuhr saw five different players start multiple games at inside linebacker: Zach Cunningham, David Long Jr., Dylan Cole, Monty Rice and rookie Jack Gibbens. Long Jr. started 12 games and recorded 86 total tackle s, with both categories marking career highs for Long Jr.

The Titans saw four contributing inside linebackers in 2021 with Kuhr overseeing the group: Rashaan Evans, Jayvon Brown, Long Jr. and Cunningham. The group registered a total of 212 tackles and five interceptions. After being claimed off waivers from Houston late in the season, Cunningham started the final four games of the regular season and led the defense over that stretch with 25 tackles. Cunningham also recorded 10 tackles in the team's divisional playoff contest.

Prior to joining the Titans, Kuhr spent one season as an assistant coach for head coach Tom Herman at Texas in 2019. The Longhorns finished with an 8-5 record, including a win in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

From 2017-18, Kuhr served a variety of offensive roles under head coach Everett Withers at Texas State. In his first year, Kuhr was the co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach, overseeing a trio of Anthony Taylor, Anthony Smith and Robert Brown Jr. that combined for over 1,200 yards and five touchdowns. He was later promoted to associate head coach for the 2018 season.

Before his tenure at Texas State, Kuhr spent one season at Rutgers coaching running backs in 2016. His offensive prowess began at James Madison, where he served as a running backs coach in 2014 before being promoted to co-offensive coordinator the following season. Under Kuhr's direction, the Dukes led the nation in third down efficiency (54%) while ranking second in scoring offense (44.3 points per game) and third in total offense (528.8 yards per game).

Kuhr began his collegiate coaching career as an intern under Urban Meyer at Ohio State for two seasons (2011-12). He mentored running back Carlos Hyde, who went on to earn All-American honors. In addition, it was at Ohio State where Kuhr first worked with Mike Vrabel, who was an assistant for the Buckeyes at the time.

PERSONAL

A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Kuhr launched his coaching career in his hometown at a young age, working as an assistant coach at Mandarin High School and Westside High School, where he served as offensive coordinator. Kuhr went on to spend two seasons (2009-10) as special teams coordinator at Edward Waters College. He graduated from the University of Florida in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in sports management. He married his wife, Jenny, in May 2026.

COACHING

Josh McDaniels rejoined the Patriots coaching staff in 2025 as offensive coordinator. The 2026 season will be McDaniels' 20th season with the Patriots overall and his 15th as the team's offensive coordinator over three stints.

In 14 seasons as offensive coordinator, McDaniels has guided the offense to nine top-10 rankings, including the NFL's No. 1 ranked offense in 2007, 2012 and 2017. Additionally, Tom Brady was elected to the Pro Bowl eight times and eclipsed 4,000 yards passing eight times. Overall, McDaniels has been part of six Super Bowl championships with New England, three as the team's offensive coordinator.

In 2025, McDaniels earned one of the NFL's premier coaching honors when the Associated Press named him Assistant Coach of the Year, recognizing him as the league's top assistant. His offense backed up the accolade with elite production, finishing third in the NFL in yards per game (379.4), an AFC best, and to the second-best scoring offense in the league (490), along with the sixth-most rushing yards per game (128.9). Quarterback Drake Maye set the franchise record for completion percentage (72.0), and his 4,394 passing yards were fourth in the NFL and eighth best all-time by a Patriots quarterback. Maye also ranked first in the league in yards per pass (8.93) and was named to the Associated Press All-Pro Second Team, Pro Bowl and PFWA All-AFC Team. Maye finished second in voting for the Associated Press Most Valuable Player award and was given the PFWA's Most Improved Player award and the Bert Bell award.

Additionally, WR Stefon Diggs surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the seventh time in his career en route to his fifth Pro Bowl nod, while rookie RB TreVeyon Henderson scored four rushing touchdowns of 50-plus yards behind an offensive line that featured four new starters, two of which were rookies in LT Will Campbell and LG Jared Wilson.

In his first stint with New England, McDaniels played a key role on a staff that won three Super Bowl titles and four AFC championships. He first joined the Patriots organization as a personnel assistant on the 2001 team that defeated the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, served as a defensive assistant on the 2003 club that won Super Bowl XXXVIII and was promoted to quarterbacks coach in 2004, a season that culminated with a victory over the Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

In addition to his role with Patriots quarterbacks, McDaniels added the title of offensive coordinator in 2006. In his second season as New England's offensive play caller in 2007, McDaniels oversaw a unit that broke several NFL records, including points scored, touchdowns scored and most players scoring a touchdown.

Under McDaniels' tutelage, 2007 NFL MVP Tom Brady broke the NFL record for touchdown passes in a season (50) and led the league in both passing yards (4,806) and passer rating (117.2). Brady also set franchise marks in nearly every major passing category, while WR Wes Welker set the franchise record for receptions in a season (112) and WR Randy Moss broke the NFL record for touchdown receptions with 23. The Patriots offense also posted the franchise's highest average yards per rush in 22 seasons with 4.1 yards per carry, and the team's 17 rushing touchdowns were the second highest total in the previous 20 years.

McDaniels left the Patriots to become the head coach of Denver in 2009. During his first season in Denver, QB Kyle Orton set career-highs for pass attempts, completions, passing yards, touchdown passes and passer rating while tying his career low for interceptions. Orton's 3,802 yards were the sixth-highest for a season in Broncos history. In 2010, the Broncos ranked seventh in the NFL in passing yards per game and finished 13th in total yards per game. WR Brandon Lloyd led the NFL in receiving yards with 1,448 and finished second in the AFC with 11 touchdown catches en route to his first Pro Bowl invitation.

In 2011, McDaniels moved on to St. Louis to become the offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams. In his first season as an NFL starter, Cassel posted the fourth-best completion percentage in Patriots history (63.4) while passing for 3,693 yards with 21 touchdowns and 11 interceptions.

His total of four touchdown runs of 50-plus yards tied the NFL rookie record and tied for the third most in a season in league history. Additionally, RB Rhamondre Stevenson surged into the top five on the franchise's all-time list for rushing yards as he also extended his streak of at least 700 scrimmage yards in his first five seasons, the first player in New England history to do so.

Prior to New York, Dews spent six seasons at the Tennessee Titans under Mike Vrabel, coaching running backs from 2018-22 before transitioning to tight ends for 2023. That season, TE Chigoziem Okonkwo set career-highs in receptions (54) and receiving yards (528).

Under Dews' tutelage from 2018-22, the Titans finished in the top five in rushing offense three times (2019, 2020 and 2021). In 2020, the Titans were second in the league in rushing offense (168.1 yards per game), and Henry became the first player since RB LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in back-to-back years. Henry rushed for a career-high 2,141 yards, good for the eighth 2,000-yard rushing season in NFL history. His 2020 campaign earned him the 2020 Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year award.

Over the final six games of the regular season and the Titans' three playoff games in 2019, Henry had seven 100-yard games and became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games. COACHING

Todd Downing enters his second season as wide receivers coach in 2026.

Downing played a key role in the 2025 offense finishing the season ranked third in the NFL in yards per game (379.4), an AFC best, and he helped propel the unit to the second-best scoring offense in the league (490). WR Stefon Diggs was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl and registered his seventh 1,000-yard season, the first 1,000-yard receiver for the Patriots since Julian Edelman in 2019.

He came to New England after two seasons with the New York Jets as passing game coordinator, adding the title of quarterbacks coach in 2024. He spent four seasons in Tennessee as tight ends coach (2019-20) and offensive coordinator (2021-22) under Mike Vrabel. He has a total of three years of experience as offensive coordinator, having served in the role for the first time with the Oakland Raiders in 2017.

As passing game coordinator for the Jets in 2024, QB Aaron Rodgers threw 28 touchdown passes, which ranks third on the single-season list behind Ryan Fitzpatrick and Vinny Testaverde. In addition, Rodgers threw for 3,897 yards, ranking third all-time in single-season franchise history behind Joe Namath in 1967 and Fitzpatrick in 2015. WR Davante Adams recorded his fifth straight 1000-yard season with Downing on staff. Downing further aided the development of WR Garrett Wilson, who was named Offensive Rookie of the Year in 2022 after posting 83 receptions for 1,103 yards and 4 touchdowns. Downing also took over play-calling duties on offense for the final 12 weeks of the season.

The following year (2023) - Downing's first in New York - Wilson set a new career high in receptions (95), despite playing with multiple starting quarterbacks throughout the season. Wilson set career highs in all categories in Downing's second season with the Jets, recording 101 receptions for 1,104 yards and 7 touchdowns. In the final 12 weeks of the season, Downing's final season in Tennessee in 2022 saw RB Derrick Henry record the third-most scrimmage yards of his career (1,936) and the third-most rushing touchdowns of his career (13). In his first season as the Titans' offensive coordinator in 2021, the Titans ranked fifth in the league in rushing yards per game (141.4) despite missing the reigning NFL rushing champion, Henry, for nine games due to injury. Prior to suffering the injury, Henry led the NFL with 937 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns through the first eight weeks of the season. In his place, running backs D'Onta Foreman (566 yards) and Dontrell Hilliard (350 yards) set career highs in rushing. In the passing game, QB Ryan Tannehill climbed to third all-time on the Titans' single-season passing lists in attempts (531), completions (357) and completion percentage (67.2). His 3,734 passing yards ranked fourth all-time. The 2021 Titans offense ranked eighth in the NFL in third down conversions (43.6 percent), fifth in the red zone (63.9 percent) and first in goal-to-go efficiency (87.5 percent), all in a season where the Titans used a league-high 39 players on offense due to injuries.

His first offensive coordinator job came in 2017 with the Oakland Raiders after two years as the team's quarterbacks coach (2015-16). Throughout this time, he helped QB Derek Carr earn three straight Pro Bowl nods from 2015-17, and the Raiders' offense finished sixth in the NFL in total offense (373.3 yards per game) in 2016. Under Downing's tutelage in 2016, Carr had his best season to date, having completed 357-of-560 passes (63.8 percent) for 3,937 yards, 28 touchdowns, 6 interceptions and a passer rating of 96.7. Carr set a franchise record for most passing yards in a game (513) in an overtime win against Tampa Bay in Week 8, the second time a Downing-coached quarterback threw for over 500 yards in a game (Matthew Stafford on Jan. 1, 2012, at Green Bay). He also had seven fourth quarter or overtime comeback and game-winning drives during the 2016 season, a mark that ranked second in the NFL and set a franchise single-season record. Carr became the first quarterback in NFL history with five game-winning touchdown passes in the fourth quarter or overtime in a single season, earning Castrol Edge Clutch Performer of the Year honors.

Prior to his time with the Raiders, Downing served as quarterbacks coach for the Buffalo Bills in 2014. He went to Buffalo after five years with the Detroit Lions, first as offensive quality control (2009), then as assistant quarterbacks (2010) before serving his final three years as quarterbacks coach (2011-13). In 2011, Downing was instrumental in helping QB Matthew Stafford throw 41 touchdowns and pass for over 5,000 yards en route to the Lions' first playoff berth since 1999.

Before working primarily on the offensive side of the ball, Downing served as a defensive assistant and assistant special teams coach for the St. Louis Rams from 2006-07. He was named assistant secondary/quality control coach for the Rams in 2008.

His first NFL roles came with the Minnesota Vikings, first as a public relations intern/assistant from 2001-02. He was a football systems analyst from 2003-04 and an offensive quality control coach in 2005, helping the Vikings finish in the top five in offense all three of those years and a playoff appearance in 2004.

COACHING

Charles London enters his first year with the Patriots as an offensive analyst. He most recently served as the quarterbacks coach of the New York Jets in 2025, and he reunites with Mike Vrabel after serving as the pass game coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the Tennessee Titans in 2023. The two were also on staff with the Houston Texans from 2014-17.

Prior to his time with the Jets, London was the quarterbacks coach for the Seattle Seahawks in 2024. QB Geno Smith broke four franchise records that season, setting new single-season marks for highest completion percentage (70.4; fifth-best in the NFL), passing yards (4,320; fourth-most in the NFL), pass attempts (578) and completions (407). League-wide, Seattle's quarterback room ranked eighth in passing yards per game (236.5).

London spent the 2021-22 seasons as quarterbacks coach with the Atlanta Falcons. London spearheaded the early development of QB Desmond Ridder in 2022, and in 2021, QB Matt Ryan completed 375 of 560 passes (67.0%) for 3,968 yards and 20 touchdown passes. Under London's tutelage, Ryan led three game-winning drives and helped Atlanta finish with a 7-2 record in games decided by one score, which tied for the NFL's second-best winning percentage in such games.

Prior to joining Atlanta, London spent three seasons (2018-20) as the running backs coach for the Chicago Bears. During his time with the Bears, he worked with a trio of running backs who reached 1,000 scrimmage yards in at least one season—Jordan Howard (2018), Tarik Cohen (2018) and David Montgomery (2019 and 2020). Cohen and Montgomery posted career-high rushing totals during his tenure.

In 2020, Montgomery set career highs for rushing yards (1,070), receiving yards (438) and total touchdowns (10). Montgomery was the only running back with at least 1,000 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards in the NFL and became the first Bears running back to rush for a touchdown in five consecutive games since Neal Anderson in 1990. In two seasons with London, Montgomery rushed for 1,959 yards, the eighth-most in the NFL over that span.

In London's first year in Chicago in 2018, Howard nearly surpassed the 1,000-yard milestone for the third consecutive season with 935 rushing yards and 9 rushing touchdowns. Cohen led the team in receptions with 71 for a team-high 725 yards and 5 touchdowns, while also rushing 99 times for 444 yards and 3 touchdowns.

Prior to his time in Chicago, London spent four seasons as the running backs coach for the Houston Texans (2014-17), where he was a part of a team that won back-to-back AFC South division titles in 2015 and 2016 and finished with a winning record in three consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history. In each of London's first three seasons with the team, the Texans ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in rushing yards per game.

His NFL coaching career began with the Bears in 2007, first in a quality control role on offense and then as an offensive assistant/assistant wide receivers coach in 2008-09. After spending the 2010 campaign with the Philadelphia Eagles as a pro scout, his first stint with the Titans came in 2011 as an offensive assistant/quality control coach.

He also brings collegiate coaching experience, as he spent two seasons (2012-13) at Penn State as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator. During his two-year tenure, running back Zach Zwinak rushed for 1,989 yards, the third most in the Big Ten over that span. London's first coaching gig came at his alma mater, Duke University, where he was a graduate assistant from 2004-05 and was named running backs coach in 2006.

London played running back at Duke University from 1993-96, where he totaled 354 yards and five touchdowns on 84 carries, adding 70 yards on 11 receptions.

In his first season with Green Bay in 2019, Smith saw the most productive pass-rushing duo in the NFL. Za'Darius Smith (13.5) and Preston Smith (12.0) both posted career-high sack totals as they became the first duo in team history (since 1982) to post 12-plus sacks each in the same season, and the first duo in NFL history to both register 12-plus sacks in their first season as teammates.

Smith tutored LB Dee Ford of the Kansas City Chiefs during the 2018 season, who tied for second among NFL linebackers with a career-high 13 sacks on the way to earning the first Pro Bowl berth of his career. Ford was also tied for the league lead with J.J. Watt with a career-best seven forced fumbles, tied for the second most in franchise history behind only LB Derrick Thomas (eight, 1992). Smith also coached veteran LB Justin Houston record 9 sacks and 5 forced fumbles in 12 games of action. Ford and Houston became the first Kansas City duo to both total five-plus fumbles in the same season since Jared Allen and Tamba Hali in 2006.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Smith coached his alma mater at Texas Tech for three seasons (2013-15) in a variety of defensive roles. Smith worked the previous three seasons for the New York Jets, his first NFL stop, coaching the outside linebackers in 2012 and serving as a coaching intern in 2010-11. He was a part of a coaching staff in 2012 that helped the Jets rank second in the league in passing yards allowed per game (189.8) and opponent completion passer rating (78.2). In 2010, he was a member of a defensive staff that helped the Jets rank third in the league in total defense (291.5 yards per game), run defense (90.9 yards per game) and yards allowed per carry (3.56) as the team advanced to the AFC Championship game.

Smith's coaching career began in 2009, when he served as linebackers coach at Hawaii, helping LB Blake Soares post a team-high 107 tackles (58 solo) on his way to earning first-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors.

PLAYING

Smith was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker at Texas Tech, where he was named MVP and captain as a senior in 2004. At the time of his graduation, he was one of just five Texas Tech players to have appeared in 50-plus career games. He was tied for the team lead with 83 tackles as a senior, earning All-Big 12 Honorable Mention, as he helped lead the Red Raiders to an 8-4 overall record and an upset win over fourth-ranked California.

Smith was drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the seventh round (234th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft. He played from 2005-07 for Baltimore before his career was cut short due to injuries in 2008.

PERSONAL

A native of Lubbock, Texas, Smith earned a degree in communication studies at Texas Tech. He and his wife, Emily, have two daughters, Kennedy and Finley, and a son, Weston.

EXTRA POINTS

Bryce Baringer had an unconventional path to the NFL. He began his collegiate career by earning a walk-on spot at Illinois in 2018 as a true freshman, but due to being buried on the depth chart and the cost of out-of-state tuition, he transferred home to Michigan State as a regular student. Outside of a four-game stint on the Michigan State team due to injuries on the roster, Baringer did not have a walk-on spot available to him in 2019. After a year serving as the team's photographer to maintain access to the facilities to train, Baringer attended an open tryout with a new coaching staff at the Spartans and made the team, establishing himself as the Spartans top punter in 2020 and going on to have record-breaking seasons in 2021 and 2022. In 2022, he was named the Big 10 Punter of the Year and a consensus All-American by all five major associations.

ROOKIE IN THE RECORD BOOK

Baringer connected on a 79-yard punt in the second quarter vs. Indianapolis on Nov. 12, 2023 in Frankfurt, Germany, the fifth-longest punt in team history.

ROOKIE AND THE VETS

WR Efton Chism III is developing a work ethic by following his veteran wide receivers. Wide receivers coach Todd Downing recently addressed his thoughts on Chism's work ethic: "It starts well before he ever hits the field," Downing said. "This guy's one of the first guys in. A lot of times he'll pop into my office super early in the morning, as I'm just getting going, and he wants to sit there and just watch me build the PowerPoint for the meeting that day or something. Just to kind of get an extra time or an extra rep, the mental processing for the system. He stays late with Mack (Hollins) and goes through things with Mack, and those two have developed a cool relationship, so that piece of it's cool, and then what he does on the field is he translates that into playing fast and confident. He knows exactly what to do, so then he can go out and execute it."

- One of three rookie free agents to make the opening day roster, joining DT Eric Gregory and LB Elijah Ponder.
- Inactive for the first five games of the season and also vs. Cleveland (10/26), at Cincinnati (11/23), vs. the N.Y. Giants (12/1), vs. Buffalo (12/14) and at Baltimore (12/21).

Also lined up for a third quarter punt after Marcus Jones was briefly sidelined due to injury.
- Handled kickoff return duties for the second straight week at Tennessee (10/19) and saw playing time on offense after entering the game on the first offensive series.
- Playing time on offense at the N.Y. Jets (12/28) increased due to WR Mack Hollins being placed on Injured Reserve. He recorded his first career reception on a 30-yard pass from QB Drake Maye in the first quarter. Later in the third quarter, he caught his first career touchdown pass on a 10-yard pass from Maye. He finished the game with 2 receptions for 40 yards (20.0 avg.) and 1 touchdown.
- Made his first NFL start at wide receiver vs. Miami (1/4/26), logging a 35-yard reception on a pass from QB Drake Maye's in the first quarter. He also lined up as a kick returner and punt returner, where he had 2 fair catches.

BAREFOOT DREAMING

Unless it's gametime, WR Mack Hollins is walking around barefoot. In his early playing years with the Philadelphia Eagles, Hollins met some trainers from Melbourne Muscular Therapy from Australia, whose philosophy is to be barefoot and get back to your original ways of movement. Hollins flew them out, and although he was hesitant at first, they convinced him that doing all of his training barefoot can help with durability. In the last few years, Hollins has completely abandoned shoes and now walks barefoot all the time, unless it is under 35 degrees.

- Finished with 6 receptions for 106 yards at Tampa Bay (11/9), his second career 100-yard game. He had a career-high 158 yards receiving at Tennessee on Sept. 5, 2022. Hauled in a 20-yard pass on a third-and-13 situation in the second quarter to help set up a 1-yard touchdown pass from QB Drake Maye to TE Hunter Henry. On the drive that ended in RB Rhamondre Stevenson's 21-yard rushing touchdown to give the Patriots the lead, started the drive with a 20-yard reception from Maye.
- Placed on Injured Reserve on Dec. 27 due to an injury suffered in the win at Baltimore (12/28), later being activated from injured reserve on Jan. 24, 2026 and making his return in the AFC Championship at Denver (1/25/26). TOP OF THE ORDER

The Patriots used the third pick in the 2024 draft for the first time in team history and used the pick to select QB Drake Maye from North Carolina. It marked the fifth time since 1970 that the team drafted a quarterback in the first round - Jim Plunkett from Stanford (1st overall in 1971), Tony Eason from Illinois (15th overall in 1983), Drew Bledsoe from Washington State (1st overall in 1993), Mac Jones from Alabama (15th overall in 2021) and Drake Maye from North Carolina (3rd overall). Maye is the first Patriots drafted in the top 10 since 2008 when the team selected current head coach and former LB Jerod Mayo with the 10th pick overall out of Tennessee.

THE MAYE WAY

Maye, the youngest of four boys, hails from a family of athletes. His father, Mark, also played quarterback at the University of North Carolina from 1983-1988. His brother, Luke, played basketball at North Carolina (2015-19), winning a national title in 2017 with the Tar Heels. Luke now plays overseas in Japan. His brother, Cole, won a baseball national championship in 2017 with the University of Florida as a pitcher. His brother, Beau, also played basketball at the University of North Carolina. Despite the rich tradition of family athleticism, Drake Maye, measuring at 6'4, is the shortest of the four brothers (Luke at 6'8; Cole at 6'7; Beau at 6'8).

The 36-yard touchdown pass to WR DeMario Douglas was his fourth touchdown pass of at least 30 yards and his second 30-yarder to Douglas. Maye's four touchdown passes of least 30 yards are the most by the team since Mac Jones had five such passes in 2022.

HONORS AND AWARDS

2025: AFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 18)

EXTRA POINTS

- While in high school, RB Rhamondre Stevenson started gaining attention for the impressive stats he posted as a junior. Unfortunately, due to his grades, Stevenson was academically ineligible to receive a football scholarship despite being recruited. Following his senior year of high school, Stevenson took a year off from football working part-time jobs at Wal-Mart and Jimmy John's. But after a year away, he decided to follow a group of his friends and enroll in Cerritos Community College. During his time at Cerritos, he shared a two-bedroom apartment with up to six other guys at times and rode his bicycle 20 minutes to and from practice every day. After putting up monster stats in his second season at Cerriots, he committed to Oklahoma. Oklahoma led him to the 2021 NFL Draft where in the fourth round on the third day the Patriots selected Stevenson. In addition he worked on his academics and made the Dean's List while at Oklahoma.
- In Week 6 vs. the N.Y. Jets (10/18), Stevenson took a handoff from QB Drake Maye and then lateraled the ball back to Maye, who completed a pass to WR DeMario Douglas in the second quarter on a drive that ended with a field goal.

- Played in 14 games with 13 starts and finished with 130 rushing attempts for 603 yards and 7 touchdowns, along with 32 receptions for 345 yards and 2 touchdowns. Set a career high with 9 total touchdowns. Added 2 kickoff returns for 40 yards.

Stevenson is the first player in franchise history with 700-plus scrimmage yards in each of his first five seasons: 729 in 2021, 1,461 in 2022, 857 in 2023, 969 in 2024 and 948 in 2025. Former Patriots Curtis Martin, John Stephens and Tony Collins had 700-plus scrimmage yards in each of their first three seasons.

THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY RTX

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to bring the Patriots story to life. It's incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery has undergone renovations over the last three years and houses all six Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those titles. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

HISTORY OF THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME

The Patriots Hall of Fame was established in 1991 as a way to honor the greatest players in franchise history. A selection committee of media and staff was formed to select players for induction and appropriately, John Hannah was the first player enshrined. Eight additional players were inducted from 1992-95. Andre Tippett (1999) and Bruce Armstrong (2001) rounded out the Patriots Hall of Fame's first 11 members. In 2007, the Patriots introduced a new method of selecting players for the team's hall of fame in advance of the opening of The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX. Moving forward, one player will be enshrined in the Patriots Hall of Fame each year, with a nomination committee determining three finalists each spring and fans voting for the final choice through Patriots.com each spring.

SENIOR SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Patriots formed a senior selection committee to ensure that early era players are not overlooked in the voting process. The committee consists of veteran media and staff members who gather to discuss candidates who have been retired for at least 25 years to identify the player most deserving of Patriots Hall of Fame recognition.

Bill Parcells • Head Coach

Patriots Hall of Fame 2025

Bill Parcells was the head coach of the New England Patriots for four seasons (1993-96) and led the team to two playoff berths. After inheriting a team that had finished 14-50 in the previous four years, including an NFL worst 2-14 season in 1992, he brought the clout of a two-time Super Bowl Champion to the Patriots sidelines, infusing instant credibility in 1993. He finished his Patriots career with a 34-34 record, including 2-2 in the playoffs. In 1994, a season-ending seven-game win streak allowed the Patriots to clinch their first playoff berth in eight years. The performance earned Parcells NFL Coach of the Year honors. After finishing 6-10 in 1995, the Patriots rebounded with an 11-win season in 1996, tying the then franchise record for wins and earning their first division title in 10 years. After a convincing, 28-3, victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers in the divisional playoff game in foggy Foxborough, the Patriots hosted their first AFC Championship game and defeated the Jacksonville Jaguars, 20-6, to earn a trip to the Super Bowl for just the second time in franchise history. On Feb. 2, 2013, Parcells was voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He is the only coach in NFL history ever to lead four different teams to the playoffs and three different teams to a conference championship game. He is a member of the Patriots 1990s All-Decade Team.

Thirteen seasons, three Super Bowl championships: it's been a great ride for Bob Socci as the radio voice of the Patriots. Socci returns for his 14th season in the booth as play-by-play broadcaster on 98.5 The Sports Hub and its network of affiliates. He has won rave reviews for his enthusiasm and accuracy since taking the helm for the 2013 campaign. Before joining the Patriots, Socci served as the voice of the Naval Academy Midshipmen for 16 seasons, and called Triple A baseball, most recently for the Pawtucket Red Sox, for a decade.

Socci is joined in the booth by former Patriots quarterback Scott Zolak, who is entering his 14th season as action analyst. Prior to moving upstairs, he spent a season with the legendary broadcast team of Gil Santos and Gino Cappelletti as a sideline reporter. Prior to that, he served six seasons as a co-host of "Patriots Preview" and "Patriots Postgame" on the Radio Network. He's currently heard daily as co-host of the "Zolak and Bertrand" Show on the Sports Hub, where his experience as a pro athlete and his boundless energy keep Boston listeners engaged and entertained all year long.

The gameday experience on the network starts three hours before kickoff with "Patriots Preview," with hosts Jim Murray and Christopher Gasper. Murray is a native of Melrose, Massachusetts and can be heard each weekday afternoon on the highly rated "Felger and Massarotti" show. Gasper is back for his 18th season on "Patriots Preview." The Lynn, Massachusetts native is a sports columnist for The Boston Globe. Gasper and Murray also co-host the Saturday morning "Gasper & Murray" show on the Sports Hub.

The men in charge of the "Patriots Postgame" are Joe Murray and Mark Dondero. Greg Bedard of the Boston Sports Journal will also contribute. Murray has been an on-air host at 98.5 The Sports Hub since 2012. He enters his fifth season co-hosting the "Patriots Postgame." The Hyde Park native is an 18-year veteran of the sports radio industry.

The football season never ends on the Patriots flagship station, 98.5 The Sports Hub. From morning-after breakdowns with "Toucher and Hardy," X's and O's with "Zolak and Bertrand," to no-holds-barred opinions from "Felger and Massarotti," the Patriots are always front and center. Mike Reiss, Phil Perry, Bert Breer, Andrew Callahan, David Andrews and Paul Perillo also contribute and can be heard weekdays. One of the first sports franchises to broadcast their games on FM, the Patriots begin their 32nd season of airing every block, tackle and kick in crystal-clear stereo. The Patriots are entering their 18th season on The Sports Hub, where you'll also find the broadcasts of the New England Revolution, Boston Bruins and Boston Celtics.

While the Patriots Cheerleaders have become accustomed to entertaining thousands of Patriots fans from the sidelines of Gillette Stadium, and recently the sidelines of Super Bowl LX, the squad also works closely with the Patriots Foundation, supporting the efforts of charitable organizations throughout New England, using their celebrity status to make a difference in the community. Best Buddies, T.A.P.S., Read Across America, Play 60, Flag Football and Special Olympics are a few of the Patriots Cheerleaders' favorite organizations to partner with. In addition to its philanthropic efforts, the squad also makes public appearances for local businesses and corporations, spreading cheer to fans at a variety of events throughout New England and across the country. Those events include parades, trade shows and grand openings to name a few.

The New England Patriots Cheerleaders proudly maintain a well-established Junior Cheerleader program, where youth ages 6-17 attend clinics with the squad and make community appearances with the Patriots Cheerleaders throughout the season in connection with the squad's community efforts. For more information on the Junior Patriots Cheerleaders program, please visit https://www.patriots.com/cheerleaders/junior-cheerleaders.

A hybrid virtual and in-person audition process drew more than 300 applicants to compete for the opportunity to join the 2026 co-ed cheerleading team. The squad is populated with a range of students and professionals with a wide variety of careers, including finance, marketing, sales, education, healthcare and medicine. Squad members come from across New England and the U.S., including Arizona, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, New York and California. This year's squad will continue to serve as Patriots ambassadors throughout New England. PATRIOTS FOUNDATION

CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM

Robert Kraft established the New England Patriots Foundation in 1994 to give back to the communities the Patriots call home. By building bridges of hope and support, the Patriots Foundation honors our military and veterans, lifts those facing hunger and homelessness, and cultivates health and well-being across our communities.

With the incredible support of current and former Patriots players and coaches and Patriots fans around the globe, the Patriots Foundation has grown tremendously, helping to meet the needs of the region's most vulnerable populations. Over the years, the foundation has provided support to thousands of local nonprofits. While the foundation supports a number of different causes, there is one common theme – addressing the most pressing needs of our New England communities.

Thanks to the support of our six cornerstone partners — Bank of America, Cross Insurance, CVS Health, DellbrookIJKS, Gillette and New Balance — the Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation will expand upon our efforts, positively impacting more New Englanders throughout the year. To learn more about the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation's community efforts, visit www.patriots.com/ community. If you have any questions, please contact us at 508-543-8200 or charitableevents@patriots.com

Ron Burton Community Service Award

The Ron Burton Community Service Award is named in honor of the late Ron Burton, the first player drafted by the team in the inaugural year of 1960 and a community leader whose widespread charitable work was a model for how a Patriots player can make an impact off the field. This award is presented annually to one Patriots player that goes above and beyond to give back to the community. During the 2025 Patriots Premiere, Hunter Henry was celebrated as the 23rd recipient of the award.

COMMUNITY CAPTAINS

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation are excited to continue partnering with Bank of America as part of the "Community Captains" program. This charitable initiative was created in 2021 to build deeper relationships with nonprofits and strengthen the impact on the populations they serve. During this two-year partnership, the Patriots Foundation and Bank of America work closely with six nonprofit organizations with a goal of establishing a deeper understanding of their community efforts and to help each charity serve their constituents more effectively.

The Kraft family, New England Patriots Foundation and Bank of America are conducting site visits at all six nonprofit organizations as an opportunity to learn more about each organization, hear from their staff and volunteers and see how the Patriots and Bank of America can support their efforts. A total of $300,000 in grants will be presented to the nonprofits - $50,000 per organization – to support their areas of greatest need.

In addition to financial support, each of the nonprofits receive in-kind donations, participate in networking opportunities with staff from the Patriots and Bank of America, enjoy access to Bank of America's Better Money Habits program and much more. The six Community Captains include Casa Myrna, Father Bills & MainSpring, Good Sports, Inquilinos Boricuas en Acción, Minds Matter and the Planning Office for Urban Affairs.

MILITARY

Military Initiatives in Partnership with Cross Insurance

As part of the year-round Salute to Service initiative, the Kraft family and Patriots Foundation are committed to celebrating those who dedicate their lives to protecting our freedoms. Each year, the Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation invite families from the Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) for a VIP experience at Gillette Stadium. TAPS is a national nonprofit organization providing compassionate care and comprehensive resources to all those grieving a death in the military or veteran community. Each season, families are invited to a private luncheon at Gillette Stadium. Here they are invited to attend the Patriots Salute to Service Game where players and coaches represent each fallen hero on game day with either a sticker or initials on the back of their helmet.

HOMELESSNESS

Homelessness Initiatives in Partnership with Dellbrook|JKS

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation work to provide essential services for those experiencing homelessness around New England. This includes a partnership with the Empowerment Plan, distributing their sleeping bag coats to nonprofits and individuals in all six New England states. As part of a yearly tradition, Robert Kraft and the Patriots Women's Association also make a visit to the Women's Lunch Place, a day shelter in Boston. The visit includes connecting with their clients through crafts and preparing and serving lunch.

HEALTHCARE

Commitment to Healthcare and Wellbeing

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation are dedicated to improving the health and wellness of our community and increasing access to proper treatment across the New England region. Yearlong initiatives include promoting the early detection of cancer, donating funds to healthcare centers, making hospital visits and more. As part of the Crucial Catch: Intercept Cancer campaign, many cancer survivors from Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and Massachusetts General Hospital receive special invitations to attend "Patriots Day of Pampering" at Gillette Stadium, where they received complimentary transportation to Gillette Stadium and are treated to a healthy breakfast, manicures, massages, facials, flower arranging and more. During lunchtime, the survivors have been greeted by Robert Kraft who invites the women to attend the Patriots' Crucial Catch game.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Expanding Youth Football in New England

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots are committed to promoting and supporting youth and high school football across the region. The organization works year round to strengthen existing programs while championing both tackle and flag football. Through a variety of initiatives that teach the fundamentals of the sport and encourage healthy, active lifestyles, the Patriots continue to expand opportunities for young athletes throughout New England to learn, grow, and participate in the game of football.

PAWTRIOTS PROGRAM

The Kraft Family and the New England Patriots Foundation are passionate about giving dogs and pets a shot at finding loving homes. The number of pets in shelters in need has reached an all-time high, making adoption more important than ever. The Pawtriots initiative emphasizes adoption as a powerful way to improve lives of animals and make a lasting difference.

Program Impact

- 100 + dogs adopted at Pawtriots organized events during Training Camp, Tailgate, Tail Waggin' Tuesday and the Draft Watch Party.
- 300+lbs of food collected and donated to local shelters during the 2025-2026 season.
- $25,000 donated to the Patriots Foundation and the "Pawtriots" Dog Adoption initiative by Amazon Prime as part of #TNFForGood.

Patriots Dog Adoption Programming

The New England Pawtriots through the Patriots Foundation, is focused on amplifying the importance of rescue, adoption, service animals, and the healing connection between people and dogs. Since the program started in 2025, over 100 dogs have been adopted at various events hosted by the Pawtriots Program. This past April, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation were excited to host a Pawtriots Pet Adoption and NFL Draft Watch Party. The event featured adoptable dogs from five animal organizations, a live stream of day three of the 2026 NFL Draft, and a panel with Patriots alumni Brian Hoyer, Dan Koppen, and Woodrow Hamilton as well as current players Bryce Baringer, Andy Borregales and Julian Ashby who discussed their draft day experiences.

JOIN OUR TEAM

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation would not be able to support as many children, individuals and families in need without the generous contributions from our fans. Throughout the year, sponsors, premium seating clients, season ticket members and avid Patriots fans across the globe support fundraising events and initiatives for the Patriots Foundation. To learn more, visit www.patriots.com/community.
